Shabbat Shalom Brethren,

Here is a news article from last Shabbat. Keep in mind just how much Israel is hated and for that matter you too, if your keeping Torah.

Cairo: Unknown saboteurs attacked an Egyptian pipeline supplying gas to Israel near the Gaza Strip today, an official said, amid raging protests against the regime of President Hosni Mubarak.

The official initially said the terminal had also been attacked.

Here is Nehemiah Gordon has to say about the events in Egypt this week.

Egypt Crisis Threatens Israel's Electricity Supply

I stayed up late last night to watch Egyptian President Hosni Mubarak's resignation speech. He shocked the world by not stepping down, despite earlier announcements by the Egyptian army that hinted he would. Ehud Yaari, one of the foremost Arabic experts in Israel, gave a running translation of the live speech on Israeli television. The whole country held its breath when Yaari stuttered in the middle of his translation and then paused for an awkward moment of silence. It sounded like the Egyptian president said he was going to stay in power, Yaari explained, and only grant limited control to his vice-president and crony Omar Suleiman. Yaari was sure he had misheard something or misunderstood. He did not.

Earlier in the day, Egypt cut off the regular flow of natural gas that it has contracted to sell to Israel. This was only a few days after terrorists blew up the main gas pipeline from Egypt to Jordan. Egyptian natural gas is vital for Israel to produce electricity. If the gas supply is not restored soon, Israel will have to use diesel fuel to run its turbines, jacking up the price of electricity fourfold. In recent weeks this was described as the "nightmare scenario" resulting from a Muslim Brotherhood takeover, a scenario that is now a reality. As bad as this will be for Israel it will be much worse for the strained Egyptian economy. It looks like the recent discovery of two massive deep-water gas fields off the coast of Haifa could not have happened at a better time. These gas fields have seemingly prophetic names: Leviathan and Tamar. The Psalms mention, "Leviathan that you formed... to give them their food in due season" (104:26-27). Deuteronomy says, "For Yehovah your God, brings you into a good land... a land of wheat, and barley, and vines, and fig trees, and pomegranates; a land of oil olive, and honey. (8:7-8)" Most Hebrew language experts explain that "honey" in the Hebrew Bible usually refers to the syrup extracted from dates. The Hebrew word for "date" is Tamar! The two fields are expected to start supplying natural gas to Israeli turbines by 2014 and will make us energy independent for decades to come.

Speaking of barley (one of the seven blessings of Israel listed in the above verse in Deuteronomy), the Aviv Barley Search is coming up in a few weeks on March 4-6. Back in 2005 we found Aviv barley on March 8, so it is a real possibility we will find it this year by March 6. This would put Chag HaMatzot (Feast of Unleavened Bread) in late March, a month before the rabbinical observance of the feast. Carrying out this annual search requires a great deal of time and resources. I need your help to make this happen! In the Land Flowing with Milk and Date-Honey

Also in the News last week was an article I found very interesting. The Bible tells you that Israel will look for another lover, now that the USA has distanced themselves from her. And guess who the new lover is.....None other than the King of the North. When the Arab nations come against Jerusalem who is going to be allied with her?

Shadow of Unrest, Israel and Germany Sign Security Agreement

02/01/11 by

Gil Ronen

Seven new bilateral agreements were signed in Israel Monday at a joint meeting of Israeli and German Cabinet ministers. One of the agreements affirmed that the countries would increase their cooperation in fighting terror. Others dealt with bilateral socio-economic and cultural relations, according to the Prime Minister's Office.

"We are allies, Israel and Germany, and we have a great desire, on both sides, to strengthen our relationship and our bilateral cooperation," Prime Minister Binyamin Netanyahu said Monday. "We also have the strong desire to advance peace and security in our region.

Chancellor Merkel and I spoke at length about several ideas in this regard. We know that we are in a very stormy and unstable period, and we would like to advance stability, peace and security.”

German Chancellor Angela Merkel said, “We have similar values, which makes it very easy for us to cooperate.”

This is the third consecutive year in which the two Cabinets have held joint sessions.

The Prime Minister’s office stated that Merkel and Netanyahu noted with satisfaction the progress made since the last consultations held in Berlin in January 2010. “They reiterated their objective to further solidify the unique relationship and the broad range of close ties between Germany and Israel through political measures which look towards the future while recognizing Germany’s awareness of its historic responsibility towards Israel.”

Highlights of the agreements reached:

National Security and National Emergencies

The Governments have agreed to strengthen and expand the cooperation in the area of homeland security, especially combating violent extremism and terrorism. Issues pertaining to national security will be added to those for which cooperation already exists in the framework of a Joint Declaration of Intent on cooperation on combating crime and terrorism.

The governments have also agreed that cooperation between the two countries in dealing with natural disasters and emergencies be extended.

Now that Israel and Germany are allies, when Israel is surrounded by Arab attackers Germany will have the excuses need to invade Israel in order to help save her from those attacking her. Germany now has a reason to invade Egypt in order to protect her ally Israel. Prophecy is marching forward so fast you can hardly keep up.

Then, THEN, on Wednesday of this week a brother informed me of the following article.

NATO offers troops after Mideast peace deal

HERZLIYA, Israel (AP) — The secretary general of NATO is offering peacekeeping services to Israelis and Palestinians if both request it in a peace deal.

Anders Fogh Rasmussen told a security conference in Israel on Wednesday that NATO would intervene if a future peace treaty was broken or if the two sides needed assistance.

A spokesman for Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu said he and Rasmussen discussed expanding cooperation between Israel and NATO. The spokesman would not say if Israel would accept Rasmussen’s offer.

Netanyahu insists Israel must have strict security guarantees in any peace deal.

Palestinian President Mahmoud Abbas has said he would agree to have international peacekeepers deployed in a future Palestinian state for a limited time.

Brethren, Brethren, right in front of you prophecy is taking place and it is happening so fast and so subtly that most of the world has not even noticed it. They just do not get it but do you? If you would read The Prophecies of Abraham pages 91-103 it is all explained right there. Order it and read it before you too are lulled to sleep like the rest of the world.

Let me quickly refresh you.

Isaiah 7:17 “???? brings on you and your people and your father’s house days that have not come since the day that Ephrayim turned away from Yehud?ah – the sovereign of Ashshur.”
18 And it shall be in that day that ???? whistles for the fly that is in the farthest part of the rivers of Mitsrayim, and for the bee that is in the land of Ashshur.

Yehovah is calling for the Assyrians to come and invade your land. The Assyrians are today known as the Germans and they are leading up the European Union. When you think of the Germans remember how disciplined they are and how methodical and how ruthless they were in WW II and WW I.

Isaiah 5: 24 Therefore, as a tongue of fire devours the stubble, and the flame consumes the chaff, their root is as rottenness, and their blossom goes up like dust – because they have rejected the Torah of ???? of hosts, and despised the Word¹ of the Set-apart One of Yisra’?!.
Footnote: 1“Word” and “teaching” are used as synonyms.

25 Therefore the displeasure of ???? has burned against His people, and He stretches out His hand against them and smites them, and the mountains tremble. And their carcass is as filth in the middle of the streets. With all this His displeasure has not turned back, and His hand is still stretched out!

26 And He shall lift up a banner to the nations from afar, and shall whistle to them from the end of the earth. And see, they come with speed, swiftly!

27 Not one of them is weary or stumbling, not one slumbers or sleeps. Not a belt shall be loosened on their loins, nor the thong of their sandals be broken.

28 Their arrows are sharp, and all their bows bent; their horses’ hooves shall seem like flint, and their wheels like a whirlwind.

29 Their roar is like that of a lion, they roar like young lions. And they growl and seize prey, and slip away, with no one to rescue.

30 And in that day they shall growl over it as with the growling of the sea. And one shall look at the earth, and see, darkness and distress! And light shall be darkened by the clouds.

When Yehovah tells you “they come with speed, swiftly!” think Blitzkrieg.

Jeremiah speaking of the Babylonians who today are to be found in Italy and are also part of the European Union and will also come with Germany, just like Mussolini did in WW II.

Jeremiah 4: 11 At that time it shall be said to this people and to Yerushalayim, "A scorching wind of the bare heights blows in the wilderness toward the daughter of My people, not to fan or to cleanse.

12 "A wind too strong for this shall come for Me. Now it is I who speak judgments against them.

13 "See, he comes up like clouds, and his chariots like a whirlwind. His horses shall be swifter than eagles. Woe to us, for we shall be ravaged!"

Jeremiah 23:19 See, a storm of ????? shall go forth in a rage, a whirling storm! It whirls on the head of the wrong.

20 The displeasure of ????? shall not turn back until He has done and established the purposes of His heart. In the latter days you shall understand it perfectly.¹ Footnote: ¹See 30:24.

Jeremiah 25:31 "Tumult shall come to the ends of the earth, for ????? has a controversy with the nations. He shall enter into judgment with all flesh. The wrong He shall give to the sword,' declares ?????."

32 Thus said ????? of hosts, "See, evil is going forth from nation to nation, and a great whirlwind is raised up from the farthest parts of the earth.

33 "And in that day the slain of ????? shall be from one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth¹. They shall not be lamented, or gathered, or buried, for they are dung on the face of the ground. Footnote: ¹See Isa. 66:24.

Daniel 11:40 "At the time of the end the sovereign of the South shall push at him, and the sovereign of the North rush against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships. And he shall enter the lands, and shall overflow and pass over, ⁴¹ and shall enter the Splendid Land, and many shall stumble, but these escape from his hand: Ed?om, and Mo'ab?, and the chief of the sons of Ammon.

42 "And he shall stretch out his hand against the lands, and the land of Mitsrayim shall not escape.

43 "And he shall rule over the treasures of gold and silver, and over all the riches of Mitsrayim, and Libyans and Kushites shall be at his steps.

The King of the North will come like a whirl wind when Yehovah whistles for him. He is going to come when the King of the South pushes at him. Egypt is the King of the South along with Libya and Ethiopia. Did not Italy try to conquer Ethiopia in WW II?

And when he comes he will enter the Glorious Land of Israel. He will do this because of the Peace treaty they just signed. Israel and Germany are now Allies and they have offered to send NATO troops should Israel be attacked. How absolutely prophetic.

What causes all of this to take place? What is the catalyst that begins this process where the King of the North must come down?

Isaiah 19:1 The message concerning Mitsrayim. See, ????? is riding on a swift cloud, and He shall come into Mitsrayim. And the idols of Mitsrayim shall tremble at His presence, and the heart of Mitsrayim melt in its midst.

2 “And I shall stir up Mitsrites against Mitsrites, and they shall fight, each one against his brother, and each one against his neighbour, city against city, reign against reign.

3 “And the spirit of Mitsrayim shall vanish within them, and I destroy their counsel. And they shall seek the idols and the mutterers, the mediums and the sorcerers.

4 “And I shall deliver the Mitsrites into the hand of a cruel master, and a fierce sovereign to rule over them,” declares the Master, “???? of hosts.

Egypt will be in civil war. That is what will bring the king of the North and right now on your TV you are watching the regime of Mubarak being challenged by the people for the cause of freedom. And just like what happened in Iran, a transition will take place and then the Muslim Brotherhood will take control or will fight to gain control. Read verse 2 above again. This is where we are.

Now the question you should also ask is why does Jordan escape as we are told in Dan 11:41?

Well this past week Jordan and Germany signed an agreement which I am unable to find as I write this, but I did read it earlier on Monday, My apologies.

And as I go to post this for you I read about what Germany’s foreign minister and vice chancellor from 1998 to 2005, and a leader in the German Green Party for almost 20 years had to say on Feb 2, 2011.

Inside the European Union, the ugly term PIGS (Portugal, Italy/Ireland, Greece, Spain) is now commonplace, denoting countries that have endangered the euro’s stability and are forcing North Europeans into costly bailouts. Where not long ago sunshine and solidarity were the order of the day, depression and confrontation are now the rule. Worse still, Europe’s debt and confidence crisis is also the EU’s gravest political crisis since its inception: at stake is nothing less than the future of the European project itself.

And now the crisis has reached the southern shore of the Mediterranean, in the form of a revolution in Tunisia, a continued uprising in Egypt and a political showdown in Lebanon that has once again brought the country to the verge of war and disaster.

With the EU’s Mediterranean member states simultaneously faltering, great changes are afoot in Europe’s southern neighborhood.

So it is time to think geopolitically, not just fiscally, about the Mediterranean. What the EU is facing in the Mediterranean isn’t primarily a currency problem; first and foremost, it is a strategic problem – one that requires solutions urgently.

You can read the whole article at <http://www.praguepost.com/print/7363-europe-mustlook-south-or-miss-an-opportunity.html>

Germany’s former Foreign Minister is telling Germans to stop thinking about the financial problems of Europe and turn its attention to the Mediterranean Arena. In history wars have been a unifying event for Germany. They are setting the stage once again with these new alliances and treaties and we all remember how Hitler kept those peace agreements with his neighbours.

This past week I was sent some shows that Glen Beck has done. I have spent the better part of the day watching them. I have never watched Glen Beck before but I found he has covered much of the Egyptian crisis and identified many of the participants accurately. But he does not consider the influence of Germany and a United European army in any of his thoughts.

The coming Caliphate of Islam will come as Glen has said but with one hiccup when Christian Europe comes and take over the Middle East and North Africa. Once there, the German leadership will form an Empire with the Islamic nations as we are told in Psalm 83. At that time Germany will dump the Catholic faith in favour of the Muslim one. Then comes the destruction of the USA.

I wrote this to Mr. Beck and I urge you to do the same. But watch what he shows you here. It is very good in spite of this one oversight.
