New Moon Sighted

This New Moon to begin the sixth month was a very difficult one to see. But we did have multiple witnesses see it. We do have this picture taken by Becca Bidermann.

The new moon seen by the following observers:

Gadi Eidelheit, Ofra, 20:12 (Bino 20:03)

Rebecca Biderman, Poriya Ilit, 20:22 (Bino 20:19)

Simcha Borer, Modiin Ilit, 20:20 (Bino 20:20)

Binyamin Nissim, Ofra, 20:20 (Bino 20:10)

Seeing only with binoculars

KENYA MISSION UPDATE

Many in the world are embracing Torah. But not according to the dictate of the law giver Himself but according to the teachings of secular set-ups.

It's purely amazing and with a lot of curiosity how misinformed humankind are especially in the messianic persuasion.

Thanks to The King of Glory the truth is being opened and revealed to the set-apart today.

Yehovah the Eloah of The Hebrews has been opening the mind of truth to one JOSEPH DUMOND of sightedmoon to restore the old paths.

For the last three years BSTM has been teaching this truth.

Many are starting reading and studying the scriptures as per Hebrew mindset.

For a time now I have been sharing with leaders of various church groups and have been very urgent to catch this truth. Occasionally as it was before the outbreak of covid-19 pademic, I have been visiting their local home cells. These visits have been attracting many, though under fear of contracting the virus and fear of Government supremos.

Together with the help of members of my group and SIGHTEDMOON under JD, I have reached people by providing them with available materials like booklets and articles, videos and charts plus calenders printed direct from sightedmoon website www.sightedmoon.com . Most fascinated of all is the timeline chart-the .sabbatical/jubilee calendar.

For the last 100 days the country has been like hell under partial lockdown. Its by grace that YHVH has seen us through all this thick and thin. Economic wise, people are so low that disaster is looming. Earlier the whole region of east African had scourge of locust invasion, which destroyed crops.

As we speak, now as the government has since lifted the lockdown and is opening the Economy, the number of covid-19 is daily by double digits-400 and above each new day.

On 16th july confirmed cases were 11,673 around 217 dead ,the figure spread among 43 of 47 counties. The days number was 421. Rather scarring.

The just released covid figures(17/7/2020) by Kenya ministry of health shows the grand total tested so far to be 233,661; giving those positive to be 12,061 after 389 new cases added. Nairobi county is leading with Mombasa following.

Some of the issues I have been getting into included these singled out misinformation*firsrt nations do not know the true creator. Babylon dam deep.

Messianic cum Christianity;-

Ø Are in issues pertaining to jewish rabbinical manmade traditions.

Ø Are made to believe that to have a stake into the kingdom of heaven, one must be a Jew. Why? Bcoz Yehshua was a jew. And for to enter New Jerusalem, it will through the gate appointed for judah

Ø They do things according to Hillel II calendar- conjunction-to start their months.

Ø Passover being the Lord's super-13/14th abib.

Ø Pentecost –omer count from 16th high Sabbath; celebrated on sivan 6.

Ø Using of Dan 9:24-27 to be for Yehsuas.

Ø Avoidance of torah command to observe land Sabbath like the jews saying sabbatical years cannot be known.

Ø Messing up year of release- the jubilee years example marking 1967 as a jubilee year(thus saying 2017 was a jy and the next in line will 2067 AD)

Ø They using Rabbinical Hillel II calendar teach Yehshua was born in the period of Sukkot.

By use of sighted moon calendar in corroboration with sabbatical jubilee timeline ,every other detail falls in line with the blue print of the plan of our everlasting Father.

Among those we have taught so far includes pastors and other church leaders and laymen. Its my hope before sukkot we will have reach quite a larger scope.

Am also in contact with a couple of overseas friends;Uganda , Tanzania ,Nigeria and india , Malawi and Pakistan among others.

Many more are asking to be sent some literature.

The main motto is to proof all things- 1Thes.5:21 and to return to the old paths-Jer.6:16.

Joe let me thank you for supporting the ministry of BSTM/BSTC.

Glory be to HaShem.

Henry Mate.

(A politically-incorrect evaluation)

I thought it wouldn't happen until my grandchildren had to deal with it. I thought I had time. My children might notice real differences, but the truly horrible impact would be later.

I was wrong.

Since the first time I visited South Africa, I would tell my American acquaintances that if they wanted to see where America was heading, they should fly to Johannesburg with me. That was ten years ago. The continual political corruption, the collapse of a work-ethic culture, the flight of prosperity and the ubiquitous presence of racial tension defines South Africa. Forget Nelson Mandela and Desmond Tutu. South Africa is far from a "rainbow nation." As I used to say, "It's a Black and White nightmare." People I knew who live there used the phrase, "a culture of theft." Everything was racist. I remember my shock at reading employment ads that stated, "Whites need not apply." But I always got on an airplane and flew back to "safe" America. Occasionally, I saw hints of this kind of collapse but I didn't think it would boil into revolution in my lifetime. I wasn't so sure about the world of my grandchildren.

I was wrong.

I was wrong, not because I wasn't politically astute, not because I didn't understand racial issues, not because I belonged to some privileged class. I was wrong because I believed what I was taught as a child. I believed in the Enlightenment.

Does that sound odd to you? Do you even know what the Enlightenment was? Do you realize that our civilization was built on the values of Seventeenth Century intellectuals now deeply embedded in our culture? Do you understand that these ideals will kill us

Lee Harris' book, Civilization and Its Enemies, wasn't written about race in America. It never mentions Black Lives Matter. It's about ISIS and Islamic consciousness. But the crisis we face might as well have been Harris' agenda. The roots are the same. First, he summarizes the Enlightenment's utopia:

“ . . . the Enlightenment dream that all men could one day embrace in the spirit of universal cosmopolitanism, . . .”

“That is why those who uphold the values of the Enlightenment so often refuse to recognize that those who are trying to kill them are their enemy. They hope that by pretending that the enemy is simply misguided, or misunderstood, or politically immature, he will cease to be an enemy. This is an illusion. To see the enemy as someone who is merely an awkward negotiator or sadly lacking in savior faire and diplomatic aplomb is perverse. It shows contempt for the depth and sincerity of his convictions, a terrible mistake to make when you are dealing with someone who wants you dead.”

The result is tragic delusion.

“All of this explains why those who subscribe to the values of the Enlightenment find the existence of the enemy so distressing. . . The ideals that our intellectuals have been instilling in us are utopian ideals, designed for men and women who know no enemy and who do not need to take precautions against him. They are values appropriate for a world in which everyone plays by the same rules, and accepts the same standards, or rational cooperation; they are fatally unrealistic in a world in which the enemy acknowledges no rule except that of ruthlessness. To insist on maintaining utopian values when your society is facing an enemy who wishes only to annihilate you is to invite annihilation. And that is unacceptable.”

Harris concludes: “Only those who have mastered ruthlessness can defend their society from the ruthlessness of others.”

That's the problem, isn't it? We aren't ruthless anymore. We have adopted the Judeo-Christian Victorian Enlightenment ideals. Our own morality makes us vulnerable to the ruthlessness of those who would destroy our idea of civilization. We are afraid to be ruthless. It's culturally repugnant. We don't ask why. We just know we shouldn't be cruel, so we don't employ ruthlessness to defend ourselves. As a result, we will be plowed under like every other civilization that made its moral ideals the only acceptable way of living.

Once in Israel I had the opportunity to speak with a member of the Knesset. I asked him if he realized that Israel's policy of not executing terrorists effectively insured that terrorism would continue. He responded by telling me that Israel had not enforced capital punishment since Eichmann, and proudly so since that proved that Israel was a peace-loving nation. This is Enlightenment morality, refusing to recognize that the enemy just wants to kill you. Loving peace makes no difference if you aren't willing to ruthlessly defend it.

I may be wrong, but it seems to me that this is exactly where America stands today. Our moral heritage—the confluence of the Ten Commandments and the Christian ideals of peace and love modified by the Enlightenment—stand in the way of defending the very civilization that made these ideals possible. That's why “racist” and “bigot” are such powerful political words. They don't have to be true. They only have to make us feel guilty. Someone I read wrote about America's core wound—slavery, of course—but, frankly, that's bull. America's core wound is passively accepting the utopian morality that prevents it from fighting against those who seek to destroy its culture. It's an old story. The same thing happened to Rome. In fact, it's even older than the Roman Empire. Biblical Israel demonstrates the same path to extinction. Consider Altar's introductory comments to the book of Joshua:

“This story, then, of the annihilation of the indigenous population of Canaan belongs not to historical memory but rather to cultural memory, . . . what is reported as the national past is grounded not in the factual historical experience of the nation but in the image of the nation that the guardians of the national literary legacy seek to fix for their audiences and for future generations.”

“The story of the conquest, then, served as a countermove in the work of cultural memory: Israel had entered its land in a stirring triumphal drive as a power before which no man could stand. The theological warrant for this vision, antithetical as it was to the historical facts, was that as long as Israel remained faithful to all that its God had enjoined upon it, the people would be invincible.”

Altar makes it clear: history has nothing to do with the need to show that if we are just “good” people, God will make sure we are victorious. How did that turn out for Israel? How did it work for Egypt, Assyria, Babylon, Greece, Rome and so many other great civilizations. They came to power through ruthlessness. They disappeared because they embraced a peaceable morality taught by their intellectuals.

“The problem is rather that the intellectual, simply by being an intellectual, automatically assumes the logical and moral priority of abstract ideas, so that he never thinks of challenging the validity of his own fundamental conceptual categories but always assumes that any misfit between his ideals and reality must be the fault of reality, and nowhere is this more dangerously true than in political thinking.”

We don't like to think of God as the Exterminator. It shocks our moral consciousness, particularly the “turn the other cheek” idealism. But the ancient authors of the biblical narrative were quite familiar with extermination tactics. Most ancient cultures practiced this form of warfare. Don't leave anyone alive who might later become your enemy. Shechem is our real biblical model. We eschew such thinking. We believe in negotiation. We think all men are basically civil. We can't imagine what it would be like to drop an atomic bomb in order to stop a war. Since Truman, we no longer have the stomach for ruthlessness. We can't impose law and order through force. Oh, no! That would be immoral

And that's why we will fall.

It's much later than I thought.

Cycles: You Can't Live With Them and You Can't Live Without Them.

Posted on July 21, 2020

I would like to take this opportunity to thank Mr. Joseph Dumond, a.k.a. Grandpa Joe, for taking an interest in my cycle research. The one thing that I have mentioned to Mr. Dumond multiple times is, “I hope I am wrong.” I want to make this crystal clear, I am not predicting anything will happen at anytime. All I provide are the times in which people, mostly men by a ratio of 4:1, have the highest propensity of making a mistake. That's it!

Normally, I do not write an article about an upcoming cycle until the last cycle has ended but Mr. Dumond asked me to provide him with the information and I will do so here. Here is a link to the latest interview he and I did: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=30ULO-bA2yA>

Because I have been doing this, as a hobby, for a few years I use historical data, geographical data provided by NASA off of their public site, as well as data on the amount of gamma energy involved in a celestial event, also from NASA and apply these elementary factors to my projections. There are many people on the internet, i.e. Youtube that also present such information, just in a different format.

In my latest interview with Mr. Dumond a young lady asked the question, “What do you mean by intensity?” This is an excellent question and I will try to explain. When deciding how to present the information I wanted to use the term magnitude but I noticed that people automatically thought of earthquakes. I almost decided on the term amplitude but people generally associated this term with radio and television signals so I chose the term intensity. I wanted it to be quantifiable but not as familiar as the two other terms with other types of occurrences so, I settled on intensity. Personally, I liked magnitude much better because the output of light from a given star is measured in magnitude. Also, just like the earthquake magnitude scale can go below -0- so can the intensity scale rise above 100%. One hundred percent represents a fourfold increase in the probability that a mistake will be made so, at 125% a person now has a fivefold increased risk of making a mistake in judgement. I have only seen this once so far.

Another important factor I need to comment about is the Earth’s magnetosphere. It is a real, measurable phenomenon and over the last 20+ years its strength has been diminishing. The magnetosphere of the Earth is what protects us from harmful/killing radiation from solar flares, Coronal Mass Ejections or CME’s, and also from deep space cosmic radiation. ((I won’t argue it, just do a dukdukgo.com search for yourself)). The problem is that the magnetosphere is diminishing or shrinking in size and amplitude and this information is publicly available as well. I am not using any esoteric, top secret, highly classified information only available to me.

Now, before I go any farther, I will address a topic I hear all the time, “I don’t believe in cycles!” That’s okay but without them you would die. Suppose it was always winter and no farmer anywhere could plant a crop, what would become of mankind? Here is my response to disbelieve in cycles: (KJV) Ecc 3:1 To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:

Ecc 3:2 A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

Ecc 3:3 A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;

Ecc 3:4 A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

Ecc 3:5 A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

Ecc 3:6 A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

Ecc 3:7 A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

Ecc 3:8 A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

Now, just for a minute let us go back and look at one other Scripture: (KJV)

Gen 1:14 And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days, and years:

You can believe it, accept it, ignore it or totally disbelieve it but, I have the testimony of thousands of emergency care givers that corroborate what I am saying. Period! I will not argue it. Let's move on.

So, what is this?

This is the Antikythera Device

So, what is the big deal about the Antikythera Device? Simple. It is a hand operated analogue computer built somewhere around 100-250 B.C. It was built to predict the very same cycles I am trying to tell people about today, the cycles of the eclipses, but it did so up 19+ years in the future. It also tracked the irregular orbit of the moon, coinciding with the apogee and perigee. All of this 200 years before Yeshua HaMashiach was born. If it is not important, why would someone go to all of this trouble? Hmm?

Since the current cycle will run about three more weeks I have no way to gauge how bad I missed my predictions or, if I missed them at all. The one thing I will say is that the upcoming cycle is unusually strong. But before I get into the actual cycle I want to bring up a set of dates that will bear watching before the beginning of the cycle.

AUTHOR'S NOTE: The dates that I give are dependent, in my view, upon the sighting of the sliver of the moon. I DO NOT USE THE DARK OF THE MOON AS MY BEGINNING DATE. This can cause some variation and that is why I tell people +/- 1 or 2 days. I do not believe, for my purposes, that I need to rely on the moon being sighted in Israel but I do use the sighting of the moon in Israel for all of the Leviticus 23 Feast Days.

(Note Cyrus is using the late clalendar dates for 2020.)

Please be mindful of these dates:

sunset Sept. 18th, to sunset Sept. 19 2020 = Yom Teruah

sunset September 27th to sunset September 28th, 2020 = Yom HaKippurim sunset October 2nd to sunset October 3rd = the first day of Feast of Booths (Sukkot)

sunset October 9th to sunset October 10th = the Eighth Day of Sukkot (Shemini Atzeret)

What makes these days so special? These are the Feast Days of our Creator YHVH, which He commands us to keep FOREVER. The last time I checked forever had not ended yet or as Yeshua put it in Matthew 5:(ISR)

Mat 5:18 “For truly, I say to you, till the heaven and the earth pass away, one yod or one tittle shall by no means pass from the Torah till all be done. Has heaven and Earth passed away yet?

There is one other day that might bear watching and it is a man-made date of importance and that would be September 11th, 2020 also known as 9/11. Our Creator has a way of trying to get our attention and I have noticed that many notable things happen on His Feast Days to focus our attention on His Appointed Times. He also does things on man-made important days to mock mankind for turning away from His Feasts. We see it in Scripture over and over.

Unlike the last two cycles the upcoming cycle is much smaller in scale, not global. That does not mean that the impact of whatever could happen won't affect the whole world, it just means that the “event”, if any, will be highly centralized. Having said that the greatest impact will be in North and South America, Eastern Asia, Northern Europe. Eastern Asia includes China, Siberia, Mongolia, Indonesia down to Australia, and the Pacific Ocean. The Atlantic Ocean will also be affected including all the islands, i.e. Azores, up to and including Northwestern Europe. The only area that appears to be affected in Africa is South Africa.

Remember my definition of intensity above. With that said I am seeing a beginning intensity in excess of 50% to as high as 67% (Actually 66.747%) beginning @October 18th and continuing until @November 15th when the intensity rises to 70% @November 16th and continues until @November 29th when it increases in intensity to 85-90% (actually 88.996%). It will continue at this intensity until @December 31st. Around January 1st the intensity should lessen to 75% until @January 15th. From the @15th it should drop to approximately 60% until the 25th of January. From there the cycle seems to lessen back down to 50% until it ceases on February 11th.

What does all of this mumbo jumbo mean? Hopefully nothing. Then everyone can laugh and joke about how the Country Codger couldn't predict the winning team in a football game where only one team shows. If that is the case, no one will be happier than I will be that nothing happened. If on the other hand something does happen and you did nothing to prepare don't say I did not warn you.

Prepare for what?

Please remember, I used to teach history and I still love it so, I will be speaking historically. I believe that the chance of this being an economic cycle is extremely high. PLEASE NOTE: I did not say I was predicting the stock market would crash. I said an economic cycle. Suppose on the other hand the Dow Jones Industrials shot up to 100,000 instead of the current 27,000 range of today (7/21/2020). That would be a good thing right? No! Two of the highest stock markets in the world are Zimbabwe and Venezuela. Take a look at how good it is for them.

How would you like to go shopping with a wheelbarrow full of cash to buy a loaf of bread?

Credit to The Guardian. In Venezuela it took 14 million Bolivars to buy the chicken above.

In 2018 inflation reached 1,000,000% in Venezuela. It is much worse today.

What did Zimbabwe do to cure inflation? Chopped twelve zero's off their currency. How about Venezuela? Chopped off five zero's from their currency. Do you really want to invest in their stock markets? Actually Zimbabwe has managed to bring its inflation under control somewhat. It is down to 736%/year now.

This could be the type of event that happens during this cycle. Historically speaking, September, October and November have been bad months in the United States economically/financially.

The high percentage in intensity tells me that we could see a continuation or rather increase in riots. Since this cycle encompasses both the November 3rd election and the January 20th, 2021 swearing in of the president it doesn't take a rocket scientist to figure out, regardless of who is declared the winner, the losing side is going to get very, very angry.

What should you do?

Go back and read some of my earlier articles about independent living or, as some people call it prepping. If possible, pay off all outstanding debts including your house, your car, etc.

Are you crazy, you ask? Alright, pay off your car and figure out how you are going to live in it. Maybe you can fit that 72" big screen TV in the back seat.

Stockpile water, water, water. Remember the rule of three's: You can live three minutes without air, three days without water, and three weeks without food. ((Actually you can live longer in each category but it isn't my rule.))

Next, stock up on foods that will last for months, even years, i.e. pasta, dry beans, rice, ramen noodles, dehydrated fruit. Now, do you see why you need so much water? At least one gallon per family member per day. Don't forget Kitty and Rover.

You should also have a way of protecting your family and your supplies. What that is is up to you. Also, if you live in a city or suburb you should also have a cache of food and water stored somewhere so that if you have to leave your home in a hurry you can go to that cache and still have survival supplies. Won't need them you say? Tell that to the 8,000 people who used to live in the CHAZ/CHOP Zone in Seattle.

Lastly, I need to remind everyone that we are currently smack dab in the middle of the Cycle of the Avenging Sword/War. See Leviticus 26:25 (Notice the pestilence in that verse also. Coincidence? I think not.) Should the United States descend into chaos, for whatever reason, I anticipate China will make a move on the US. I may be wrong, but I do not believe that either China or Russia would deliver a first strike of nuclear weapons but I do believe that they would employ an EMP to knock out our power grid and then sit and wait for 12 months and then attack. Why wait? Because in the event of an EMP it has been calculated, by numerous think tanks, that 90% of the US population would die in the first 12 months. ((I underlined 90% because this matches nicely with Scripture. Eze 20:37 "And I shall make you pass under the rod, and shall bring you into the bond of the covenant, Pass under the rod represents a culling of 90% of the flock. Also notice the next verse.))

Once again, I hope nothing happens and everyone can make fun of me at my expense. I am serious. The majority of people in America are not prepared for a serious reversal in their fortunes.

Num 6:22 And יהוה spoke to Mosheh, saying,

Num 6:23 “Speak to Aharon and his sons, saying, ‘This is how you bless the children of Yisra’el. Say to them:

Num 6:24 “יהוה bless you and guard you;

Num 6:25 יהוה make His face shine upon you, and show favour to you;

Num 6:26 יהוה lift up His face upon you, and give you peace.” ’

Num 6:27 “Thus they shall put My Name on the children of Yisra’el, and I Myself shall bless them.”

Shalom,

CC

The 4th Curse-Famines Pestilence Sword

Since 2005 we have been warning you that the end would begin starting in 2020. We have been telling you week after week for 15 years. You have seen COVID 19, destroy world economies. You have seen riots and militias gearing up according to race. This past week I again plead our case to two leaders who refuse to believe it and continue to deny it validity in order to hold to their own theology.

We have shown you how the first curse started for this 70th Jubilee Cycle since the Exodus in 1996. That was the Jubilee year and it began Jacobs trouble in this final Jubilee cycle before the 7th Millennium. The first curse was from 1996 to 2002. 9/11 began this war of terror that we have been dealing with since then. In 1998 we had the US Embassy in Tanzania and Kenya blown up along with the USS Cole in the year 2000. But no one had connected the dots back then

Punishment for Disobedience

Lev 26:14 But if you will not listen to Me, and will not do all these commandments,

Lev 26:15 and if you shall despise My statutes, or if your soul hates My judgments, so that you will not do all My commandments, so that you break My covenant;

Lev 26:16 I will also do this to you: I will even appoint terror over you, consumption, and burning fever, consuming the eyes and causing sorrow of heart. And you shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies shall eat it.

Lev 26:17 And I will set My face against you, and you shall be slain before your enemies. They that hate you shall reign over you. And you shall flee when none pursues you.

2044	2037	2030	2023	2016	2009	2002
2043	2036	2029	2022	2015	2008	2001
2042	2035	2028	2021	2014	2007	2000
2041	2034	2027	2020	2013	2006	1999
2040	2033	2026	2019	2012	2005	1998
2039	2032	2025	2018	2011	2004	1997
2038	2031	2024	2017	2010	2003	1996

Then the climate change people began to voice their concerns as the hottest year on record up until that time began to come each year eclipsing the record before that one from the second Jubilee CYcle from 2003 to 2009. It was in 2005 that I connected the dots and began to see these things in real-time and could not believe that no one else was seeing it. Natural disasters followed nature disaster, from Hurricanes to Typhoons, wildfires and then mudslides. Floods and earthquakes dominated the news each night. But no one was listening to me.

Lev 26:18 And if you will not yet listen to Me for all this, then I will punish you seven times more for your sins.

Lev 26:19 And I will break the pride of your power, and I will make your heaven like iron and your earth like bronze.

Lev 26:20 And your strength shall be spent in vain. For your land shall not yield its increase, neither shall the trees of the field yield their fruits.

We were warning about the next curse of pestilence that was about to begin in 2010 and go until not just 2016, but for 15 years until 2024. SARS, MERS, Bird FLu, H1N1, H5N1, Swine flu all began but did not develop into a pandemic. We kept getting these little breakouts that after a few months subsided. People began to doubt our message and started to make fun of us. Some walked away. But we kept warning that war was coming and the end of the USA was coming. It went against many people's theology so they ignored us and attacked us.

Lev 26:21 And if you walk contrary to Me, and will not listen to Me, I will bring seven times more plagues on you according to your sins.

Lev 26:22 I will also send wild beasts among you, who shall bereave you. And I will destroy your cattle, and make you few. And your highways shall be deserted.

But we did not stop warning the people. We continued to let them know that the next curse to come starting in 2017 was the Sabbatical Cycle of the Sword. We warned them that each previous curse was compounded to the next one. Each one was added so the 1st one was one then the second one was one and two. The third one was one two and three and then the fourth curse consisted of all four. Terror, Extreme weather, pestilence and sword. But nothing happened in 2017. We were warning you about the middle of this Jubilee Cycle, and how it begins with 2020 and goes for 6 years until 2026, that this was the time period that Israel, the USA and UK would begin to be destroyed. And even as late as this week people still deny and dismiss the things we are saying or say we will wait and see. But none are warning the brethren.

Lev 26:23 And if you will not be reformed by Me by these things, but will still walk contrary to Me,

Lev 26:24 then I will walk contrary to you and will punish you seven times more for your sins.

Lev 26:25 And I will bring a sword on you that shall execute the vengeance of the covenant. And when you are gathered inside your cities, I will send the plague among you. And you shall be delivered into the hand of the enemy.

Lev 26:26 When I have broken the staff of your bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and they shall deliver you your bread again by weight. And you shall eat and not be satisfied

Lev 26:27 And if you will not for all of this listen to Me, but will walk contrary to Me,

Lev 26:28 then I will walk contrary to you also in fury. And I, even I, will chastise you seven times for your sins.

Lev 26:29 And you shall eat the flesh of your sons, and the flesh of your daughters you shall eat

By the end of the 12th month, I was being worn down and I too began to think I was wrong. I prayed for Yehovah to do something to show me He was acting on this schedule. I was about to turn off sightedmoon.com and even put count down clocks on the site to show everyone.

Then March 10, 2020, when we kept Passover WHO announced a worldwide pandemic of COVID 19. Then the week before we kept Shavuot the UN David Beasley of the UN World Food Agency announce we would have 135 Million in a biblical famine in about 3 months' time. That was about April 25. Today is it is now July 21, 2020, and three months have passed. David Beasley is now saying that 270 Million, not 135 million, will be starving by the end of this year 2020. We also had George Floyd killed on May 25. We have been saying since 2005 when I began that on May 31st, which was the date I expected to be Shavuot, that this war would begin. By May 31st, riots across the USA and many other places in the world sprung up. Looting and shootings began to be routine. Police were being attacked and the rule of law was being ignored. More and more riots broke out week after week. Blacks began to attack whites. Whites armed themselves and formed militias to protect stores and property. Blacks form militias and marched in front of KKK districts trying to provoke a clash. Calls for police to be defunded and that money sent to Black Lives Matter. City downtown cores removed the police and let the rioters take over the city. Anarchy ruled.

Last Sabbath someone quoted me the following verse.

Our Constitution was made only for a moral and religious people. It is wholly inadequate to the government of any other.

John Adams

When people will not abide by the laws of the land, the constitutions of those lands are useless pieces of paper.

Right now with COVID 19 shutting down schools and restaurants around the world, and with many trying to open up only to see COVID 19 cases skyrocket, which will force closures once again. you are going to see many farms go under. They no longer have restaurants to supply or schools. People are not working and once the government subsidies run out and rents and mortgages default month after month, then people will be going hungry as they deplete all their savings. Farmers are getting the revenue they need to pay the bills, and soon they too will be bankrupt and will be shut down.

How the pandemic is making a global food crisis worse

As the coronavirus pandemic tears across the globe, the toll exacted in lives lost and ruined grows by the day. But for those already in need, especially the hungry and the starving, COVID-19 is accelerating their nightmares. David Beasley, executive director of the World Food Program, joins Amna Nawaz to discuss the pandemic supply chain and how to keep 270 million people fed in a year of crisis.

Islam & BLM & BDS

In our book The Prophecies of Abraham & our other book The 2300 Days of Hell we warned you and told you that in these last days Esau was going to break the yoke from off his neck and would have dominion.

Gen 27:38 And Esau said to his father, Have you but one blessing, my father? Bless me, me also, my father. And Esau lifted up his voice and wept.

Gen 27:39 And Isaac his father answered and said to him, Behold! Your dwelling shall be of the fatness of the earth and of the dew of heaven from above.

Gen 27:40 And by your sword you shall live, and shall serve your brother. And it shall be when you shall have the dominion, you shall break his yoke from off your neck.

This word dominion as we explain in our teaching about the Hunters Commeth. means

H7300 (Strong)

rood

A primitive root; to tramp about, that is, ramble (free or disconsolate): – have the dominion, be lord, mourn, rule.

We then read about the 4th Kingdom that it was going to Tramp the whole earth.

Dan 7:23 And he said, The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom on earth, which shall be different from all kingdoms and shall devour the whole earth, and shall trample it and crush it.

(ASV) Thus he said, The fourth beast shall be a fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all the kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces.

(BBE) This is what he said: The fourth beast is a fourth kingdom which will come on earth, different from all the kingdoms, and it will overcome all the earth, crushing it down and smashing it.

(Darby) He said thus: The fourth beast shall be a fourth kingdom upon the earth, which shall be different from all the kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces.

(ESV) “Thus he said: ‘As for the fourth beast, there shall be a fourth kingdom on earth, which shall be different from all the kingdoms, and it shall devour the whole earth, and trample it down, and break it to pieces.

(ESV+) “Thus he said: ‘As for R22 the fourth beast, there shall be a fourth kingdom on earth, which shall be different from all the kingdoms, and it shall devour the whole earth, and trample it down, and break it to pieces.

Nimrod was the first world ruler. He was black and a hunter. Ishmael & Esau were also hunters and they are the fathers of the people who today are of the Islamic faith for the most part. And they hate Israel. We have been telling you how Islam is going to rule this world and how they would trample it down and break it into pieces or crush it. But how on earth would they do this? ISIS tried and has not succeeded. SO how can they bring an Islamic revolution to the world so that they can dominate the world and destroy Israel and all of her seed at the same time?

I would like you to watch this 11 minute presentation by Glenn Beck.

The King of the North and the King of the South

---

One of the key events that we have been watching for is the start of the 7 years of plenty for the EU and Babylon. When we looked at the 7 years of plenty for Egypt which was prophetic for the end times we see that the 7 fat years for Egypt began in the middle of the 4th Sabbatical Cycle. When we compare this Jubilee Cycle of Joseph with our time today we can see that those 7 years of plenty for Egypt match our year of 2020. How would that work out when we are embroiled in the COVID 19 economic mess?

Gen 41:25 And Joseph said to Pharaoh, The dream of Pharaoh is one. God has shown Pharaoh what He is about to do.

Gen 41:26 The seven good cows are seven years. And the seven good ears are seven years. The dream is one.

Gen 41:27 And the seven thin and evil-appearing cows that came up after them are seven years. And the seven empty ears blasted with the east wind shall be seven years of famine.

Gen 41:28 This is the thing which God has spoken to Pharaoh; what God is about to do, He shows to Pharaoh.

Gen 41:29 Behold, there are coming seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt.

Gen 41:30 And there shall arise after them seven years of famine. And all the plenty shall be forgotten in the land of Egypt, and the famine shall consume the land.

Gen 41:31 And the plenty shall not be known in the land because of the famine following; for it shall be very grievous.

Gen 41:32 And since the dream was repeated to Pharaoh twice, it is because the thing is established by God, and God will shortly bring it to pass.

During this time we are also watching for the EU to invade Iran and destroy it and at the same time sweep into the State of Israel and take over it as we are told in the book of Daniel 11.

Dan 11:40 And at the end-time, the king of the south shall butt at him. And the king of the north shall come against him like a tempest, with chariots and with horsemen and with many ships.

Dan 11:41 And he shall enter into the countries and shall overflow and pass over. He shall also enter into the glorious land, and many shall be stumbled. But these shall escape out of his hand: Edom and Moab, and the chief of the sons of Ammon.

We shared on facebook this week an article about the many mysterious explosions in Iran and how no one knows why they are happening.

“Once Is Happenstance. Twice Is Coincidence. Three Times Is Enemy Action.”

---

Ian Fleming, the real-life spy and writer who created James Bond, wrote in his most famous novel Goldfinger that “Once is happenstance. Twice is coincidence. Three times is enemy action.” He meant that you can infer who’s behind some adversity using conditional probability even in the absence of direct proof. Low probability events don’t happen three times in a row unless your enemy is directing events from behind the scenes. That might be a good lesson for the Iranians right now. Things are blowing up all over Iran. A petrochemical plant burned to the ground on July 12. A building believed to contain gas cylinders blew up the same day. Explosions and power outages rocked towns near Tehran on July 10. A ballistic missile fuel site blew up on June 26. The list goes on. One or two such events might be blamed on incompetence or bad luck. But, a string of seven critical infrastructure attacks described in this article (and more since the article was published), are outside the boundaries of coincidence. Iran is under attack. What is less clear is the identity of the attacker. Is it a local revolutionary group? Are the attacks coming from Israel? Is the United States behind it? It’s also not clear if the damage is the result of missiles, locally planted explosives, or cyber-attacks in which critical infrastructure systems are taken over by hackers and turned against themselves through excessive spinning or by disabling needed controls and safety valves. Iran has its hands full right now dealing with collapsing oil prices, U.S. trade sanctions, inability to access dollar payments systems and its own COVID-19 pandemic. Iran is also under internal political stress as citizens blame the government for wasting the Obama payoff money on terrorism instead of helping everyday Iranians. The assassination of the terrorist mastermind Qasem Soleimani last January has added to internal disarray in Iran. Still, these conditions will not last indefinitely. Iran will not take the latest attacks lying down. The world can expect terrorist retaliation by Iran against U.S. or Israeli targets in the coming months, perhaps through Iranian proxies such as Hezbollah in Lebanon or Shiite militias in Iraq. For now, it’s enough to say that what’s going on in Iran is neither happenstance nor coincidence. It’s enemy action.

We are told about these events in Daniel 8.

Dan 8:3 Then I lifted up my eyes, and looked. And behold, a ram with two horns stood before the canal having two horns, and the two horns were high, but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last.

Dan 8:4 I saw the ram pushing westward and northward and southward; so that no beasts could stand before him, nor any that could deliver out of his hand. But he did according to his will, and became great.

Dan 8:5 And as I was watching, behold, a he-goat came from the west, over the face of the all earth, and did not touch the ground. And the he goat had an outstanding horn between his eyes.

Dan 8:6 And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran to him in the fury of his power.

Dan 8:7 And I saw him come close beside the ram, and he was moved with anger against him, and struck the ram and shattered his two horns. And there was no power in the ram to stand before him. But he threw him down to the ground and stamped on him. And none could deliver the ram out of his hand.

Dan 8:8 Then the he-goat became very great. And when he was strong, the great horn was broken. And in its place came up four outstanding ones towards the four winds of the heavens.

Now take a look at what took place in the EU this week. Caesaropa is coming closer to reality day by day.

The Telegraph's Ambrose Evans-Pritchard wrote that the bailout “is an economic pop-gun—but a political howitzer.” He wrote that the deal marked “a profound change in the structure and character of the European project.”

Why is this? The European Commission is composed of unelected leaders, which have power to make laws, raise funds from shared debt, and direct how those funds are spent. This means it has taken to itself the legislative and executive powers found in a national government, in addition to spending powers.

As Evans-Pritchard wrote, “Where else in the world does a single unelected body have the ‘right of initiative’ on legislation, and the executive powers of a proto-government, and the spending prerogatives of a parliament, all wrapped in one?” He warned that this power is “bordering on totalitarian in constitutional terms, mostly unchecked by meaningful parliamentary oversight.”

Europe Agrees on Coronavirus Recovery Fund

Its economic significance is questionable—but don't underestimate its political power.

BY DANIEL DI SANTO • JULY 22

After a gruelling 90 hours of negotiations spanning five days, European Union leaders agreed to a coronavirus bailout package on July 21. The meetings were heated. World leaders called each other names. It concluded with a bailout package that many economists have already written off as ineffectual. €750 billion (us$862 billion) may sound like a lot of money, but spread it out over seven years and 19 countries, and it soon becomes pretty small.

Yet this was easily one of the most important EU meetings held in several years. European leaders have, for the first time, allowed the EU as a whole to borrow money. An opaque, unelected body, the European Commission will have its hands on the purse strings. The move has observers warning that the EU is acting in ways “bordering on totalitarian.”

Earlier in the pandemic, Trumpet editor in chief Gerald Flurry wrote that “[o]ne of the most important effects of the global panic over covid-19” would be Europe’s response to it. We can already see why.

The EU will borrow money on the financial markets. Then it will give out €390 billion in grants and €360 billion in loans (the loans will eventually need to be repaid). The contentious issue was how much richer, frugal nations—such as the Netherlands, Austria, Sweden, Denmark and Finland—would have to pay to help struggling economies in Southern Europe. Germany, though formerly frugal and averse to high debt, has recently shifted its stance to encourage a shared debt in hopes of unifying the EU.

Originally, the plan was for €500 billion in grants and €250 in loans. This met the usual opposition from the Netherlands, Austria, Sweden, Denmark and Finland, making for what French President Emmanuel Macron described as “extremely tense moments” throughout the drawn-out negotiations. The summit almost clinched the record for the longest in EU history, coming second only to one in 2003—which lasted a mere 30 minutes longer.

Once during the meetings, German Chancellor Angela Merkel and French President Macron got up and walked out together. It was a show of unity for Europe's two most influential nations; both supported a larger bailout package.

As it turns out, the recovery fund follows Europe's typical pattern: It involves big numbers, but in reality, is largely composed of money that would have been spent anyway; and it is to be paid out slowly, over many years. Analysts predict it will have little effect on the economy.

But that doesn't dismiss its significance as a political statement.

Before coronavirus, Germany was strictly opposed to "debt mutualization," or sharing debt among eurozone nations to create more borrowing opportunities during crises. But Chancellor Merkel made a 180-degree turn on the subject in May, and pushed for it during negotiations. Germans tend to oppose this because it reminds them of the 2008 Greek financial crisis, in which taxes paid by German citizens went to the aid of Greece, a nation viewed by many in northern Europe as wasteful and unproductive. By making the shift, Merkel signaled that European unity should come before all else.

The euro, therefore, is a political currency.

The Telegraph's Ambrose Evans-Pritchard wrote that the bailout "is an economic pop-gun—but a political howitzer." He wrote that the deal marked "a profound change in the structure and character of the European project."

Why is this? The European Commission is composed of unelected leaders, which have power to make laws, raise funds from shared debt, and direct how those funds are spent. This means it has taken to itself the legislative and executive powers found in a national government, in addition to spending powers.

As Evans-Pritchard wrote, "Where else in the world does a single unelected body have the 'right of initiative' on legislation, and the executive powers of a proto-government, and the spending prerogatives of a parliament, all wrapped in one?" He warned that this power is "bordering on totalitarian in constitutional terms, mostly unchecked by meaningful parliamentary oversight."

His most prescient description of the EU's growing political power came in the form of one word: "Caesaropapist."

This word carries connotations of imperial Rome and papal decrees. It is defined as a political system where there is one leader over both the imperial state and the church. Evans-Pritchard may have been likening the European Commission's power to create and enforce fiscal policy to the power held by the emperors of Europe's past.

The Trumpet believes, however, that Europe will live up to this description literally.

As our regular readers know, we often reference Bible prophecies that say Europe will unite under one strong leader, with religion as its unifying force. Our predecessor magazine, the Plain Truth, founded by Herbert W. Armstrong, also watched for this. Mr. Armstrong wrote in 1978 that European nations would “give all their military and monetary power to the central ruler over the 10—the coming European leader” (co-worker letter, Aug. 14, 1978).

Europe’s recovery fund won’t save it from a coming economic crisis. As Mr. Armstrong warned, an economic crash in America “could suddenly result in triggering European nations to unite as a new world power larger than either the Soviet Union or the U.S. That, in turn, could bring on the Great Tribulation suddenly” (co-worker letter, July 22, 1984).

The meetings’ divisive nature points to another significant forecast. The Bible prophesies that this European power will be made up of 10 nations. The eurozone currently has 19 nations; the EU, 27. And it’s not working. It took months of negotiation and a 90-hour bitter meeting to get an inadequate bailout package passed. How will the bloc deal with bigger problems? The divisions on display at this meeting—between the “frugal five” and the rest—have not disappeared. Watch for this division to spread and for some nations to break away.

This will leave a much leaner, meaner and more effective European power. When that crisis comes, “Caesaropapist” rule will become reality for Europe—and it will shake the world.

“The coronavirus is hastening the arrival of the prophesied Holy Roman Empire,” wrote Trumpet editor in chief Gerald Flurry in the July Trumpet issue. “The Bible says 10 kings will rise in Europe in this end time, led by one overarching strongman. These kings will form the Holy Roman Empire. The coronavirus pandemic is helping usher in these 10 kings! We need to be thinking about these prophesied kings, who are rising now. ... Many people have voiced fear that the recent crisis will destroy the European Union. But although it may look that way, Europe is in fact about to unite in a powerful way.”

To understand more, read Mr. Flurry’s article “Coronavirus and the Holy Roman Empire.” It will take you through what the Bible prophesies about the future of Europe—and how the coronavirus is pushing it in that direction.

The Day of Atonement

I want to talk about this in detail this week as it is often overlooked and missed.

But before we do I want to remind you all of the articles we have recently posted.

In our News Letter about the Menorah, we began explaining what it was like to have Yehovah’s face shine down upon us. Yehovah’s Face

A number of weeks ago we talked to you about the Aaronic blessing and how it was a guide to parenting. Yes, it too was from Rabbi Forhrman. I am not going to explain it here again but I would that you go and read it as all of this is coming together in this News Letter.

Then last week we talked about Parasha Chukat, Parashat Balak, Parashat Balak 2, Parashat Pinchas.

In each one we were showing you how the Golden Calf was substituted for or in place of Yehovah. We compared it to idolatry and adultery as it was shown to you in the story of Balaak Balaam, Pnchas and Baal Peor.

In our talk with Aaron Bishop about Chiasms, he showed us that the entire 5 books of Torah were written as one giant Chiasm.

A chiasm (also called a chiasmus) is a literary device in which a sequence of ideas is presented and then repeated in reverse order. The result is a “mirror” effect as the ideas are “reflected” back in a passage. Each idea is connected to its “reflection” by a repeated word, often in a related form. The term chiasm comes from the Greek letter chi, which looks like our letter X. Chiastic pattern is also called “ring structure.”

The structure of a chiasm is usually expressed through a series of letters, each letter representing a new idea. For example, the structure ABBA refers to two ideas (A and B) repeated in reverse order (B and A). Often, a chiasm includes another idea in the middle of the repetition: ABXBA. In this structure, the two ideas (A and B) are repeated in reverse order, but a third idea is inserted before the repetition (X). By virtue of its position, the insertion is emphasized.

Some chiasms are quite simple. The common saying “When the going gets tough, the tough get going” is chiastic. The words going and tough are repeated, in reverse order, in the second half of the sentence. The structure is ABBA. Another example of a chiasm, also with the ABBA structure, is Benjamin Franklin’s axiom “By failing to prepare, you are preparing to fail.” Other chiasms are more complex, even spanning entire poems.

When we look at all 5 books of Torah as a Chiastic structure then the most important point and the main focus of all the books points to the center which is Lev 16. This is talking about the Day of Atonement. The Day you are told to keep absolute solemnity. You are to fast and not eat and not drink from sunset of the 9th until sunset of the 10th day. Yehovah was very plain and very circumspect so that you would not make a mistake on this day.

The Day of Atonement

Lev 23:26 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

Lev 23:27 Also, on the tenth of this seventh month, this is a day of atonement. It shall be a holy convocation to you. And you shall afflict your souls and offer a fire offering to Jehovah.

Lev 23:28 And you shall do no work in that same day, for it is a day of atonement, in order to make an atonement for you before Jehovah your God.

Lev 23:29 For any soul who is not humbled in that same day, he shall be cut off from among his people.

Lev 23:30 And any soul who does any work in that same day, the same soul will I destroy from among his people.

Lev 23:31 You shall do no kind of work. It shall be a statute forever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

Lev 23:32 It shall be to you a sabbath of rest, and you shall humble your souls. In the ninth of the month at evening, from evening to evening, you shall keep your sabbath.

When we look at Lev 16, the Chiasm of the entire Torah and we then look at the chiasm of this chapter we are shown these three verses.

The screenshot shows a digital Bible study interface. At the top, there's a header with 'Patterns of Life' and 'Bible Reader'. Below that, the chapter '13' is highlighted, with 'Leviticus 16:1-34' selected. The main text area displays the verses of Leviticus 16, detailing the Day of Atonement rituals. The text is color-coded with green highlights for certain phrases. A sidebar on the left contains a table of contents for the chapter, listing verses and their corresponding text. The bottom of the screen shows a navigation bar with 'Home', 'Bible', and 'Search' options.

And those verses are;

Lev 16:15 Then he shall kill the goat of the sin offering that is for the people, and bring its blood inside the veil. And he shall do with that blood as he did with the blood of the young bull, and sprinkle it on the mercy-seat and before the mercy-seat.

Lev 16:16 And he shall atone for the sanctuary, because of the uncleannesses of the sons of Israel, and because of their transgressions in all their sins. And so he shall do for the tabernacle of the congregation which remains with them in the midst of their uncleannesses.

Lev 16:17 And there shall be no man in the tabernacle of the congregation when he goes in to make an atonement in the sanctuary, until he comes out and has made an atonement for himself, and for his household, and for all the congregation of Israel.

Yehovah is showing you through this Chiastic structure something that is very important to Him. Something so significant that He has highlighted it for you to see. But most do not see it. Most do not understand just how great this is and what is going on here.

We have shared with you what Daniel 9:24 says;

Dan 9:24 Seventy weeks are decreed as to your people and as to your holy city, to finish the transgression and to make an end of sins, and to make atonement for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the Most Holy.

Do you see the connection here? In the 29th Jubilee Cycle since Moses went to get Israel and when they became a nation, on the day of Passover in 31, CE, this Goat was slain for our sins as a sin offering for us a people, because of our transgression against the Torah. That Goat on the Day of Atonement was killed for us not keeping the Torah. That Goat was killed in our stead. We should have paid that price with our own lives for breaking that blood covenant we made with Yehovah at Mount Sinai.

Exo 19:15 And he said to the people, Be ready for the third day. Do not approach a woman.

Exo 19:16 And it happened on the third day in the morning, that there were thunders and lightnings, and a thick cloud upon the mountain. And the voice of the trumpet was exceedingly loud, so that all the people in the camp trembled.

Exo 19:17 And Moses brought the people out of the camp to meet with God. And they stood at the lower part of the mountain.

Exo 19:18 And Mount Sinai was smoking, all of it, because Jehovah came down upon it in fire. And the smoke of it went up like the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mountain quaked greatly.

Exo 19:19 And when the voice of the trumpet sounded long, and became very strong, Moses spoke, and God answered him by a voice.

Exo 19:20 And Jehovah came down upon Mount Sinai, on the top of the mountain. And Jehovah called Moses to the top of the mountain, and Moses went up.

Exo 19:21 And Jehovah said to Moses, Go down. Command the people, lest they break through to Jehovah to gaze, and many of them perish.

Exo 19:22 And let the priests also, who come near to Jehovah, sanctify themselves, lest Jehovah break forth upon them.

Exo 19:23 And Moses said to Jehovah, The people cannot come up to Mount Sinai. For You commanded us, saying, Set bounds around the mountain, and sanctify it.

Exo 19:24 And Jehovah said to him, Away! You go down, and you shall come up, you and Aaron with you. But do not let the priests and the people break through to come up to Jehovah, lest He break forth upon them.

Exo 19:25 And Moses went down to the people, and spoke to them.

It was Yehovah who married Israel that Shavuot day. It was Yehovah who promised to take care of us and bless us beyond any other nations IF WE WOULD KEEP HIS TORAH AND OBEY HIM. And in this Ketubah, this marriage contract if either party broke this blood covenant then the other party had the right to kill the guilty party. And we agreed to this. This was our marriage contract and although it was like an engagement and we would not consummate the wedding until our Groom returned for us at the end of the 7th Millennium, we were in fact for intents married at that time to Yehovah.

Then when you come down to our time now 3397 years later, people like you and I are just being awakened to the Torah, instead of the entire nation knowing it and keeping it. What a shame on our part for these past 3397 years of ignoring our agreement. Our Love contract with Yehovah.

Recall what we have been teaching you about the Golden Calf and the wearing of Masks, and how Idolatry is the same as Baal Peor worship and adultery. That is putting anything else in front of Yehovah and pretending it to be Elohim.

Rev 12:9 And the great dragon was cast out, the old serpent called Devil, and Satan, who deceives the whole world. He was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

When we talk about Satan and how he has deceived the whole world most people no matter what denomination will begin to quote the following verses;

The Second Beast

Rev 13:11 And I saw another beast coming up out of the earth. And it had two horns like a lamb, and he spoke like a dragon.

Rev 13:12 And it exercises all the authority of the first beast before him, and causes the earth and those dwelling in it to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

Rev 13:13 And it does great wonders, so that it makes fire come down from the heaven onto the earth in the sight of men.

Rev 13:14 And it deceives those dwelling on the earth, because of the miracles which were given to it to do before the beast, saying to those dwelling on the earth that they should make an image to the beast who had the wound by a sword and lived.

Rev 13:15 And there was given to it to give a spirit to the image of the beast, so that the image of the beast might both speak, and might cause as many as would not worship the image of the beast to be killed.

Rev 13:16 And it causes all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark on their right hand, or in their foreheads,

Rev 13:17 even that not any might buy or sell except those having the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of its name.

Rev 13:18 Here is the wisdom. Let him having reason count the number of the beast, for it is the number of a man. And its number is six hundred and sixty-six.

And what does Satans deception look like?

The Fall of Babylon

Rev 18:1 And after these things I saw another angel come down from Heaven, having great authority. And the earth was lighted up from his glory.

Rev 18:2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great has fallen, has fallen! And it has become the dwelling-place of demons, and a prison of every unclean spirit, and a cage of every unclean bird which has been hated,

Rev 18:3 because of the wine of the anger of her fornication which all the nations have drunk. And the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her. And the merchants of the earth became rich from the power of her luxury.

Rev 18:4 And I heard another voice from Heaven, saying, Come out of her, My people, that you may not be partakers of her sins, and that you may not receive of her plagues.

Rev 18:5 For her sins joined together, even up to Heaven, and God has remembered her unjust deeds.

Rev 18:6 Reward her as she has rewarded you, and double to her double, according to her works. In the cup which she mixed, mix double to her.

Rev 18:7 As much as she has glorified herself and has lived in luxury, so much torment and sorrow give her. For she says in her heart, I sit as a queen, and I am not a widow; and I do not see mourning at all.

Rev 18:8 Therefore her plagues will come in one day, death and mourning and famine. And she will be consumed with fire, for the Lord God who judges her is strong.

Rev 18:9 And the kings of the earth who have committed fornication and lived in luxury with her will weep for her, and will wail over her when they see the smoke of her burning;

Rev 18:10 standing afar off for fear of her torment, saying, Woe! Woe to the great city, Babylon, that strong city! For in one hour your judgment came.

Rev 18:11 And the merchants of the earth will weep and mourn over her, for no one buys their cargo any more;

Rev 18:12 the cargo of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all thyine wood, and every ivory vessel, and every vessel of very precious wood, and of bronze, and of iron, and of marble,

Rev 18:13 and cinnamon, and incenses, and ointment, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and slaves, and souls of men.

Rev 18:14 And the fruits of the lust of your soul have departed from you, and all the fat things and the bright things departed from you, and you will find them no more, not at all.

Rev 18:15 The merchants of these things, who were made rich by her, will stand afar off because of the fear of her torment, weeping and mourning

Rev 18:16 and saying, Woe! Woe to the great city which was clothed in fine linen and purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls!

Rev 18:17 For in one hour such great riches was desolated. And every ship-pilot, and all the company on the ships, and sailors, and as many as work the sea, stood afar off.

Rev 18:18 And they cried out, seeing the smoke of her burning, saying, What is like the great city?

Rev 18:19 And they threw dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and mourning, saying, Woe! Woe to the great city, by which all who had ships in the sea were rich out of her costliness! For in one hour she was ruined.

Rev 18:20 Rejoice over her, Heaven, and the holy apostles, and the prophets, since God judged your judgment on her.

Rev 18:21 And one strong angel took up a stone like a great millstone and threw it into the sea, saying, So on an impulse the great city, Babylon, will be thrown down and not at all will be found any more.

Rev 18:22 And the voice of harpers, and of musicians. and flutists, and of trumpeters will be heard no more at all in you. And every craftsman of any craft will not be found any more in you. And the sound of a mill will never more be heard at all in you.

Rev 18:23 And the light of a lamp will never more shine at all in you. And the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride will never more be heard at all in you. For your merchants were the great ones of the earth; for by your sorceries all nations were deceived.

Rev 18:24 And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all those who were slain on the earth.

Rev 19:20 And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet doing signs before it, (by which he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast), and those who had worshiped his image. The two were thrown alive into the Lake of Fire burning with brimstone.

Here is the verse I want you to compare to Lev 16 and see if you can see any similarities.

The Thousand Years

Rev 20:1 And I saw an angel come down from Heaven, having the key of the abyss and a great chain in his hand.

Rev 20:2 And he laid hold on the dragon, that old serpent, who is the Devil and Satan, and bound him a thousand years.

Rev 20:3 And he cast him into the abyss and shut him up and set a seal on him, that he should deceive the nations no more until the thousand years should be fulfilled. And after that he must be loosed a little time.

Rev 20:4 And I saw thrones, and they sat on them, and judgment was given to them. And I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for the witness of Jesus and for the Word of God, and who had not worshiped the beast nor his image, nor had received his mark on their foreheads, nor in their hands. And they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years.

Rev 20:5 But the rest of the dead did not live again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection.

Rev 20:6 Blessed and holy is he who has part in the first resurrection. The second death has no authority over these, but they will be priests of God and of Christ, and will reign with Him a thousand years.

Now compare this to Lev 16

Lev 16:8 And Aaron shall cast lots on the two he-goats; one lot for Jehovah and the other lot for a complete removal.

Lev 16:10 But the goat on which the lot fell to be the complete removal shall be presented alive before Jehovah, to make an atonement with him, to let him go for a complete removal into the wilderness.

Lev 16:20 And when he has made an end of reconciling the sanctuary and the tabernacle of the congregation and the altar, he shall bring the live goat.

Lev 16:21 And Aaron shall lay both his hands on the head of the live goat, and confess over him all the sins of the sons of Israel, and all their transgressions in all their sins, putting them on the head of the goat, and shall send away by the hand of a chosen man into the wilderness.

This is Rev 20 and the angel coming down to remove the Azazel goat which is Satan, the one upon whom the sins were laid, the one who brought sin into the world. This goat, Satan is then led away into the wilderness and as Revelation 20 says for a thousand years kept in captivity.

Lev 16:22 And the goat shall bear on him all their sins to a land in which no one lives.
And he shall let the goat go in the wilderness.

Notice that Satan, when he comes back, goes on to deceive people once again. Also, notice that this is when the Gog Magog war takes place.

The Defeat of Satan

Rev 20:7 And when the thousand years have expired, Satan will be loosed out of his prison.

Rev 20:8 And he will go out to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battle. The number of them is as the sand of the sea.

I want to make sure you understand one very important point.

Lev 16:8 And Aaron shall cast lots on the two he-goats; one lot for Jehovah and the other lot for a complete removal.

The High Priest could not tell which goat represents whom. Only Jehovah could do this and it was done by lots. Why is this significant? Why could the High Priest not know which Goat was which?

Isa 14:12 How you are fallen from the heavens, O shining star, son of the morning! How you are cut down to the ground, you who weakened the nations!

Isa 14:13 For you have said in your heart, I will go up to the heavens, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God; I will also sit on the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north.

Isa 14:14 I will go up above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the Most High.

Satan has set out to be like the Most High God. To be like Jehovah!

When he lied to Eve he said to her;

Gen 3:5 for God knows that in the day you eat of it, then your eyes shall be opened, and you shall be as God, knowing good and evil.

The Apostel Paul also wrote about Satan that he would exalt himself above Jehovah.

The Man of Lawlessness

2Th 2:1 Now we beseech you, my brothers, with regard to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our gathering together to Him,

2Th 2:2 that you should not be soon shaken in mind or troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word or letter, as through us, as if the Day of Christ is at hand.

2Th 2:3 Let not anyone deceive you by any means. For that Day shall not come unless there first comes a falling away, and the man of sin shall be revealed, the son of perdition, 2Th 2:4 who opposes and exalts himself above all that is called God, or that is worshiped, so that he sits as God in the temple of God, setting himself forth, that he is God.

2Th 2:5 Do you not remember that I told you these things when I was still with you?

2Th 2:6 And now you know what holds back, for him to be revealed in his own time.

2Th 2:7 For the mystery of lawlessness is already working, only he is now holding back until it comes out of the midst.

2Th 2:8 And then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the breath of His mouth and shall destroy with the brightness of His coming,

2Th 2:9 whose coming is according to the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders,

2Th 2:10 and with all deceit of unrighteousness in those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth, so that they might be saved.

2Th 2:11 And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie, 2Th 2:12 so that all those who do not believe the truth, but delight in unrighteousness, might be condemned.

When we were Christians we would read all of these verses and think those who would be deceived were the atheist, or the Muslim, or the Taoist, or of the Sikh faith or any other faith but the one that you belonged to. Then when you became Torah observant and began to be followers of The Way, you presumed those deceived by Satan were those who called themselves Christian. There is this verse that has always bothered me and I have always wondered how on earth could they be deceived. Yeshua said the following;

Mat 24:24 For false Christs and false prophets will arise and show great signs and wonders; so much so that, if it were possible, they would deceive even the elect.

Today we have a number of people who claim they are The Christ. I was sent a video about one in England the other day. I have seen reports about one in India and another in Korea I think. And each one has a huge following. But Yehshua said that if possible even the elect would be deceived. That is you and me. How is this even possible?

Having said that and asked that I must now quote Paul because like him, I desire that none of you be told I never knew you when the Messiah does come.

2Co 11:2 For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy. For I have espoused you to one Man, to present you as a pure virgin to Christ.

2Co 11:3 But I fear lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve in his craftiness, so your thoughts should be corrupted from the simplicity due to Christ.

They say the Jews have the Torah but they still look for the Messiah. They also say Christianity has a Messiah but they do not have the Torah. What if the truth, the Emmit was in between these two positions.

Deu 6:4 Hear, O Israel: YEHOVAH our GOD, YEHOVAH is one!

Notice it does not say there are two Gods nor does it say there is triune God headship. It states clearly and categorically that there is only ONE God and that is Yehovah. And this is what the Jews understand and have died for believing. And they are correct. Let me now share once again a few scriptures with you before we move on to the next point.

Exo 20:2 I am Jehovah your God, who has brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

Exo 20:3 You shall have no other gods before Me.

Deu 4:35 It was shown to you so that you might know that Jehovah is God, and no one else beside Him.

Deu 4:39 Therefore, know this day and consider within your heart, that Jehovah is God in Heaven above and on the earth beneath. There is no other.

Deu 32:39 See now that I, I am He, and there is no god with me. I kill, and I make alive; I wound and I heal; and there is no deliverer out of My hand.

1Sa 12:24 Only fear Jehovah, and serve Him in truth with all your heart. For consider what great things He has done for you.

2Sa 7:22 Therefore You are great, O Jehovah God. For there is none like You, neither is there any God besides You, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

1Ki 8:60 for all the people of the earth know that Jehovah is God; there is no other.

2Ki 5:15 And he returned to the man of God, he and all his company. And he came and stood before him. And he said, Behold, now I know that there is no God in all the earth, but in Israel. And now please take a blessing from your servant.

2Ki 19:15 And Hezekiah prayed before Jehovah and said, O Jehovah, the God of Israel, who dwells between the cherubs, You are God Himself, You alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made the heavens and the earth.

1 Chronicles 17:20 O YEHOVAH, there is none like thee, neither is there any God beside You, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

Neh 9:6 You, even You, are Jehovah alone. You have made the heavens, heaven of the heavens, with all their host, the earth, and all things on it, the seas, and all in them, and You preserve them all. And the host of the heavens worships You.

Psa 18:31 For who is God besides Jehovah? Or, who is a Rock except our God?

Psa 25:4 Make me know Your ways, O Jehovah; teach me Your paths.

Psa 25:5 Lead me in Your truth, and teach me; for You are the God of my salvation; on You I wait all the day long.

Psa 83:18 so that men may know that Your name is JEHOVAH, that You alone are the Most High over all the earth.

Psa 86:10 For You are great and do wonderful things; You alone are God.

Psa 91:2 I will say of Jehovah, my refuge and my fortress; my God; in Him I will trust.

Psa 91:14 Because He has set His love on Me, therefore I will deliver Him; I will set Him on high, because He has known My name.

Psa 148:13 let them praise the name of Jehovah; for His name alone is excellent; His glory is above the earth and heavens.

Isa 8:13 Sanctify Jehovah of Hosts Himself, and let Him be your fear, and let Him be your dread.

Isa 26:2 Open the gates, and the righteous nation shall enter in, keeping faithfulness.

Isa 26:3 You will keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on You; because he trusts in You.

Isa 26:4 Trust in Jehovah forever; for in the LORD JEHOVAH is everlasting rock.

Isa 37:16 O Jehovah of Hosts, God of Israel, who dwells between the cherubs, You are He, God, You alone to all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made the heavens and the earth.

Isa 37:20 And now, O Jehovah our God, save us from his hand, so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that You are Jehovah, You alone.

Isa 43:10 You are My witnesses, says Jehovah, and My servant whom I have chosen; that you may know and believe Me, and understand that I am He. Before Me no God was formed, nor shall there be after Me.

Isa 43:11 I, I am Jehovah; and there is none to save besides Me.

Isa 44:6 So says Jehovah, the King of Israel, and His redeemer Jehovah of Hosts; I am the first, and I am the last; and besides Me there is no God.

Isa 44:8 Fear not, nor be afraid; have I not told you and made you hear since then? So you are My witnesses. Is there a God besides Me? Yea, there is none. I have not known a Rock.

Isa 45:5 I am Jehovah, and there is none else, no God besides Me; I clothed you, though you have not known Me;

Isa 45:6 that they may know from the rising of the sun, and to the sunset, that there is none besides Me. I am Jehovah, and there is none else;

Isa 45:14 So says Jehovah, The labor of Egypt, and merchandise of Ethiopia, and of the Sabeans, men of stature, shall come to you, and they shall be yours. They shall come after you in chains; and they shall cross in chains and they shall fall down to you. They shall plead to you, saying, Surely God is in you; and none else, no other God.

Isa 45:15 Truly You are a God who hides Yourself, O God of Israel, the Savior.

Isa 45:17 But Israel shall be saved in Jehovah with an everlasting salvation. You shall not be ashamed nor blush to the forevers of eternity.

Isa 45:18 For so says Jehovah the Creator of the heavens, He is God, forming the earth and making it; He makes it stand, not creating it empty, but forming it to be inhabited. I am Jehovah, and there is no other.

Isa 45:20 Gather yourselves and come; draw near together, escaped ones of the nations; those who set up the wood of their graven image, and those that pray to a god that cannot save. They know nothing.

Isa 45:21 Declare and bring near; yea, let them take counsel together. Who has declared this of old? Who has told it from then? Is it not I, Jehovah? And there is no other God besides Me; a just God and a Savior; there is none besides Me.

Isa 46:9 Remember former things from forever; for I am God, and no other is God, even none like Me, Isa 48:11 For my sake, for My sake I will do it; for why should My name be defiled? And I will not give My glory to another.

Isa 48:12 Listen to me, O Jacob and Israel, My called; I am He; I am the first, I also am the last.

Jer 17:5 So says Jehovah, Cursed is the man who trusts in man, and makes flesh his arm, and whose heart departs from Jehovah.

Hos 13:4 Yet I am Jehovah your God from the land of Egypt, and you shall know no God but Me. For there is no Savior besides Me.

Joe 2:27 And you shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am Jehovah your God, and no one else; and My people shall never be ashamed.

Joe 2:32 And it shall be, whoever shall call on the name of Jehovah shall be saved; for salvation shall be in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, as Jehovah has said, and in the remnant whom Jehovah shall call.

Zec 14:9 And Jehovah shall be King over all the earth; in that day there shall be one Jehovah, and His name shall be one.

The Jews are correct. Scriptures support them and they consistently say there is only one God and that is Yehovah. Yehovah is our Saviour and our redeemer and Yehovah is our strong tower and He is our Rock. They consistently say Yehovah is the Aleph and the Tav, which is another way of say Yehovah IS The WORD!.

What have we missed? What has Christianity missed? What have you missed? There is no God the Father and God the Son and God the Holy Spirit. There is only one God and that is Yehovah.

Did you note this scripture in Isaiah that we just read?

Isa 45:15 Truly You are a God who hides Yourself, O God of Israel, the Savior.

Yehovah is the Saviour. Get out your own version and read it. Do not let me lead you astray. That word Saviour is Yasha.

H3467 (Strong)

יָשָׁע

yâsha'

yaw-shah'

A primitive root; properly to be open, wide or free, that is, (by implication) to be safe; causatively to free or succor: – X at all, avenging, defend, deliver (-er), help, preserve, rescue, be safe, bring (having) salvation, save (-iour), get victory.

Yasha is where we get the word Yehshua from

H3091 (Strong)

יְהוֹשׁוּעַ יְהוֹשׁוּעַ

yehôshuâ' yehôshuâ'

yeh-ho-shoo'-ah, yeh-ho-shoo'-ah

From H3068 and H3467; Jehovah-saved; Jehoshua (that is, Joshua), the Jewish leader: – Jehoshua, Jehoshuah, Joshua. Compare H1954, H3442.

It is the combination of the name Yehovah H3068 and Shua H3467.

H3068 (Strong)

יְהוָה

yehôvâh

yeh-ho-vaw'

From H1961; (the) self Existent or eternal; Jehovah, Jewish national name of God: – Jehovah, the Lord. Compare H3050, H3069.

One more point before I go back to the point of this article. You just read in Zec 14:9 about Yehovah. And many are quick to point out the scripture in chapter 12:10 claiming this is a prophetic message about Yehshua and I agree.

Zec 12:10 And I will pour on the house of David, and on the people of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of prayers. And they shall look on Me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for Him, as one mourns for his only son, and shall be bitter over Him, as the bitterness over the first-born.

But what you have not done and what they do not tell you to do is to read the rest of the chapter.

The Lord Will Give Salvation

Zec 12:1 The burden of the Word of Jehovah for Israel, says Jehovah, who stretches forth the heavens, and lays the foundation of the earth, and forms the spirit of man within him.

Zec 12:2 Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of trembling to all the peoples all around, and it shall also be against Judah in the siege against Jerusalem.

Zec 12:3 And in that day I will make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all peoples. All who lift it shall be slashed, and all the nations of the earth will be gathered against it.

Zec 12:4 In that day, says Jehovah, I will strike every horse with terror, and his rider with madness. And I will open My eyes on the house of Judah, and will strike every horse of the peoples with blindness.

Zec 12:5 And the governors of Judah shall say in their heart, The people of Jerusalem shall be my strength in Jehovah of Hosts their God.

Zec 12:6 In that day I will make the governors of Judah like a hearth of fire among the wood, and like a torch of fire among cut grain. And they shall devour all the peoples all around, on the right hand and on the left hand. And Jerusalem shall be inhabited again in her place, in Jerusalem.

Zec 12:7 Jehovah also shall save the tents of Judah first, so that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the people of Jerusalem may not be magnified above Judah.

Zec 12:8 In that day Jehovah shall defend around the people of Jerusalem. And it will be, he who is feeble among them at that day shall be like David; and the house of David shall belike God, like the Angel of Jehovah before them.

Zec 12:9 And it shall be in that day I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

Him Whom They Have Pierced

Zec 12:10 And I will pour on the house of David, and on the people of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of prayers. And they shall look on Me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for Him, as one mourns for his only son, and shall be bitter over Him, as the bitterness over the first-born.

It is Yehovah doing the talking throughout the whole chapter. All these things Yehovah is going to do. So then when you get to the infamous verse 10 where Yehovah says, "And they shall look on Me" is speaking about Me Yehovah. It was Yehovah that was pierced. Now let go back to Lev 16 which is the center of the Chiastic structure of the entire Torah.

Lev 16:5 And he shall take from the congregation of the sons of Israel two kids of the goats for a sin offering, and one ram for a burnt offering.

Lev 16:7 And he shall take the two he-goats and present them before Jehovah at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

Lev 16:8 And Aaron shall cast lots on the two he-goats; one lot for Jehovah and the other lot for a complete removal.

Lev 16:9 And Aaron shall bring the goat on which Jehovah's lot fell, and offer it for a sin offering.

Lev 16:15 Then he shall kill the goat of the sin offering that is for the people, and bring its blood inside the veil. And he shall do with that blood as he did with the blood of the young bull, and sprinkle it on the mercy-seat and before the mercy-seat.

The Goat that was to be killed as a Sin Offering represented Yehovah. The same way the Goat that was the Azazel Goat which had the sins placed upon it and led away just as you are shown in Revelation represents Satan.

Right here, in Lev 16, right here in the center of this Chiastic structure of the entire Torah you are told that Yehovah is represented by this Goat that you will kill as an atoning sacrifice. There are no other names applied to this Goat. Not Yehshua, not some other mask or deceptive teaching. This Goat represents Yehovah and it was Yehovah that died on the tree for our sins.

When you place another god here, one that does away with the laws and is lawless, you are placing here Satan who has deceived the whole world and if possible even some of the elect. Know and understand who gave their life for you. Comprehend the magnitude of what is going to take place on this Day of Atonement. When that Goat is killed it represents Yehovah. It is Yehovah Himself who is paying the debt that you should be paying with your own life. He loves you that much that He the greatest being in the universe stepped up and said I will do this for my creation.

And when you again look at the Chiastic structure of just this one chapter you are told of the most significant part.

Lev 16:15 Then he shall kill the goat (which represents Yehovah) of the sin offering that is for the people, and bring its blood inside the veil.(His most precious blood) And he shall do with that blood as he did with the blood of the young bull, and sprinkle it on the mercy-seat and before the mercy-seat.

Lev 16:16 And he shall atone for the sanctuary, because of the uncleannesses of the sons of Israel, and because of their transgressions in all their sins. And so he shall do for the tabernacle of the congregation which remains with them in the midst of their uncleannesses.

Lev 16:17 And there shall be no man in the tabernacle of the congregation when he goes in to make an atonement in the sanctuary, until he comes out and has made an atonement for himself, and for his household, and for all the congregation of Israel.

This is why you fast on this day. It is the most solemn of days. And when you realize exactly who it is that died for you and how all the sacrifices represent Him, then you are on your way to knowing Yehovah.

John is speaking about Yehovah in John 1. Not another god but the one and only Yehovah, the Aleph and the Tav. The Word that became flesh and dwelt amongst us. Yehovah who created all things. Yehovah whose name you are to call upon and He will hear you.

Joh 1:1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

Joh 1:2 He was in the beginning with God.

Joh 1:3 All things came into being through Him, and without Him not even one thing came into being that has come into being.

Joh 1:4 In Him was life, and the life was the light of men.

Now if we could share this with the Jews, they would have their Messiah and realize what we did in 31 CE. And if Christians would read Lev 16 and understand it is part of the commandments of Lev 23 so that they can get to know Yehovah their Messiah then they would be able to say the Shema with understanding and truth.

Deu 6:4 Hear, O, Israel. Jehovah our God is one Jehovah.

When you keep The Day of Atonement this year, you will understand why it is so solemn. You will understand why you are fasting. It is because of your sins that separated you from Yehovah, our husband, and His love for us is so great that He gave His own life for us and for all mankind that has lived.

Joh 15:12 This is My commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you.

Joh 15:13 No one has greater love than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

Joh 15:14 You are My friends if you do whatever I command you.

When you replace Yehovah with another god, you are doing the same as Israel did when they worshiped the Golden image. They masked Yehovah and could not see Him. AS we have taught you in the past series of teachings, spiritual idolatry is the same as adultery and Baal Peor. Think about these things as you pray about this teaching to Yehovah.
