27th day of the 4th month 5846 years after creation

The 4th Month in of the first year of the third Sabbatical Year

The Third Sabbatical Year of the 119th Jubilee Cycle

July 10, 2010

Shabbat Shalom Family,

As I am preparing to send out this News Letter this week I have just gotten the following information. Many are saying Israel will be at war this fall with the armies of Syria and Lebanon and Hezbollah.

We reported before how the ash cloud cleared which would have shut down the Israeli air force and how this may have prevented an attack on Israel by these northern armies. They fear the Israeli air force. With this in the back of your mind read what Yahovah has now done at <http://www.promedmail.org/pls/apex/f?>

p=2400:1001:6282437605326009::NO::F2400 P1001 BACK PAGE,F2400 P1001 PUB MAIL ID:1000,83505 He has sent a plague amongst the Syrian army, And do not forget we are in the third Sabbatical cycle as mentioned above.

But this sickness has not been confirmed by anyone else as this next article shows us. <http://www.examiner.com/x-7707-Infectious-Disease-Examiner~y2010m7d5-Websiteclaims-plague-affecting-Syrian-military-however-questions-remain>

Be careful not to be deceived by a propaganda trap.

In light of this here is a letter from an Ephramite in Israel.

Shalom Fellow Israelite,

For the past few months we have been hearing rumors that a war is supposedly 'due' to occur in Israel this summer. Hezbollah has thousands of rockets, soldiers, and weapons in the towns and cities of the southern Lebanon . Cargos going to Gaza are no longer subject to the former stringent control that Israel has thus far subjected them to, so that the local weapon industry can now enjoy relative ease (not to speak of the hundreds of underground tunnels which serve to smuggle just about anything into Gaza from Egypt). Iran continues with its nuclear program. And so, let us ask again, will we have war this summer? In the past week some interesting analysis has come up as to why it appears that there will NOT be a war in and around Israel , at least this summer.

1. Hamas needs time to reestablish its political influence in the upcoming direct talks between the PA (Palestinian Authority) and Israel . It also needs to bring under its wings the other terrorist groups that float around freely. But more importantly, if the PA does start making headway towards a Palestinian State in the (so called) West Bank , Hamas could lose its supporters there.
2. Hezbollah, even though prepared to go to war, cannot do it alone. They need the backing(not just supplies) of Syria , Iran , and to a lesser extent Hamas. They also want to gain more influence in the Lebanese government, which is putting some restraints on them at present because this summer their economic growth (due to tourism) has sky rocketed, and a war would put an end to it.
3. As crazy as the Iranian leader may be, he is not dumb. Iran cannot afford a war with the United States . That is unless the US decides to strike first, in order to protect its oil interests, as President Bush did in 1991 when Saddam Hussein was of the opinion that he could just walk into Kuwait and Saudi Arabia and take over.

Don't be naive in thinking that all the US war equipment in the Persian Gulf is there to protect Israel . The scenario could be similar to the ones in past Gulf wars, providing US strikes first (which will be encouraged and financed by the so called moderate Arab States), that is on the condition that Israel stays out of the conflict. But at the same time, those Islamic nations, like the Saudis, would love to see Iran and Hezbollah finish Israel off. Thus, the US , because of its need for oil is falling right into the hands of the Islamists.

The oil disaster in another gulf is linked directly to what is going on in the Middle East . Last summer we pointed out, based on words penned by the prophet Habakkuk that Islam is spreading throughout the Western nations. These Muslims are the hunters with the "net" (chrem) mentioned in Habakkuk chapter 1 and Malachi 4:6 (where it is translated "curse"). They are making their way into the nations that are financially indebted to the oil-rich countries. Thus the hunters may grab their catch/booty from the "net".

"Woe to him who increases what is not his — how long? And to him who loads himself with many pledges. Will not your creditors rise up suddenly? Will they not awaken who oppress you? And you will become their booty" (Habakkuk 2:6-7). Many Western countries have made pledges (to repay debt) and are now financially indebted to, for example, the Saudi king. Hence these countries' leaders must bow and kiss the hand of their master (and President Obama is not the first one to do so). "The rich rules over the poor, and the borrower is servant to the lender" (Proverb 22:7).

YHVH's judicial system is in operation, and hence He says: "I will also gather all nations, and bring them down to the Valley of Jehoshaphat ; and I will enter into judgment with them there..." (Joel 3:2). Because Israel is the scapegoat in the above scenario, we will have to be alert watchmen, keeping our eye on the prophetic future. "Look among the nations and watch — Be utterly astounded! For I will work a work in your days which you would not believe, though it were told you” (Habakkuk 1:5).

Shabbat Shalom,
Ephraim

In The Prophecies of Abraham I show you how Abraham told us that a war with Israel would occur in the fourth year of the third Sabbatical cycle. We are in the first year of that third Sabbatical cycle. This would make 2013 the fourth year and is the year I believe the armies of Europe will be coming down on Israel. But before that the Arab nations around Israel will rise up. Is that 2012? I believe it is because of the false doctrines that we are in the last 7 years of this age that some are teaching making 2012 the middle of this next 7 year period. This is the great deception that Satan is going to play out in order to deceive if possible the very elect. Israel will be at war with all her neighbours come 2012 and Europe will rescue her come 2013, but Europe is going to be in league with the Muslims come 2019, so although Israel will think they are rescued in 2013 it will be the beginning of the deportation into captivity of the Jewish people one more time. Read the Prophecies of Abraham and know what is about to happen and when. https://sightedmoon.com/sightedmoon_2015/?page_id=601

This next couple of weeks we have two events to take notice of; one is the 9th of Av and the other is the first of Av.

There will be the third SOLAR eclipse in a row which started in 2008, 2009 and now July 11 2010, all on the date of the first of Av, the fifth Hebrew month of the year. Note these are all Rabbinic dates and not sighted moon dates.

Av 1 August 1, 2008 partial solar eclipse

Av 1 July 22, 2009 partial solar eclipse

Av 1 July 11, 2010 partial solar eclipse

The first day of Av is in the middle of the time period when the Jewish people mourn the destruction of the Temple of Yahovah. Historically Moses descended from Mt. Sinai with the two tablets of the Ten Commandments, and found the people engaged in gross idolatry at the foot of the mountain. That was on Tammuz 17. Also, on Av 9, the Hebrew spies returned from spying out the land of Canaan and brought an evil report – and the people lost faith in Yahovah, and were condemned to wander 40 years in the wilderness (Numbers 14:34). Av 9 also commemorates the date of the destruction of the first Temple by Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon in 586 B.C., and the second Temple by the Roman general Titus on the same date in 70 A.D.

These two dates are days of infamy in Israel. The three week period between Tammuz 17 and Av 9 are called “between the straits” and are days of mourning, repentance, and lamentations. However..... take note of what I say below in a couple of paragraphs.

How interesting that a solar eclipse will fall on the date of Av 1, in the middle of this mourning and lamentation period, three years in a row!

I would also like to point out to you that the New Sighted moon will be in the constellation of Cancer which in ancient times was known as the Sheep Fold. That is the constellation known as the one that protected the Saints and Covered or redeemed and ransomed them as well as to bind them. As well in Cancer at this time is Mercury which stands for the Powerful and Strong one who comes in a circle. In Cancer is a Star call Acubene which means the sheltering or hiding place, Assembled Thousands and another nebula which is called the Bee Hive and means multitude offspring.

Note: The word Bee is Strongs # 1682 Deborah which is from # 1696 and is dabar or the word.

But also to the south of this constellation is The Serpent ready to attack and devour the Saints. Is it any wonder that from this time on to the Day of Atonement the Saints suffer all sorts of personal problems? Be forewarned Brethren it is now that time of year.

The Talmud (Sukkah 29a) declares: "An eclipse of the sun is a bad omen for the world." Why? It's like a king who made a huge banquet and set up a lantern to illuminate the party, but then the lantern was covered. Similarly, this world is a beautiful banquet which Yahovah has prepared for us. If the lantern is covered, as in a solar eclipse, it diminishes our enjoyment of the world.

According to the Talmud, a solar eclipse is a bad omen for the world. (Sukkah 29a) An eclipse of the sun in the east is a bad sign for Israel; an eclipse of the sun in the west is a bad sign for the gentile world.

Some Messianic groups are teaching you about the mourning between the straits; The straits being from the 17th of Tammuz until the 10th of Av. I have refrained from doing so because of what I read in Ezekiel 8:14 And He brought me to the door of the north gate of the House of ????, and I saw women sitting there, weeping for Tammuz. 15 Then He said to me, "Have you seen this, O son of man? You are to see still greater abominations than these."

What is this month of Tammuz and this Hebrew tradition of weeping? Tammuz is what this fourth month is called on the Hebrew calendar. The 17th of Tammuz mourns, in part, Moses' destruction of the laws after the Hebrews worshiped the golden calf. At least this is what is used to justify this weeping at this time. What god the calf actually represented is easily discerned, just go to The Two Babylon's by Hislop and you will see that the bull is representative of the Government of Nimrod which also reached down into Egypt from Babylon where he was represented as a Bull.

Ezekiel 8 certainly shows that some Israelites were attached to other cults and kept the former traditions. I for one do not want to be associated with anything other than what Yahovah tells us to do. All of which can be found in Lev 23. If it ain't in there then why are you keeping it and why do others continue to try and insist that you do? Just obey Lev 23 and nothing else.

The weeping between the straits is too close to the weeping for Thammuz, and is just the same as Chanukah and Christmas being reflections of each other. They are said to be different because one is Jewish, but they are in truth violations of Torah because they have been added to it.

Deuteronomy 4: 1 “And now, O Yisra’el, listen to the laws and the right-rulings which I am teaching you to do, so that you live, and shall go in and possess the land which ??? Elohim of your fathers is giving you. 2 “Do not add to the Word which I command you, and do not take away from it¹, so as to guard the commands of ??? your Elohim which I am commanding you.

Deuteronomy 12: 29 “When ??? your Elohim does cut off from before you the nations which you go to dispossess, and you dispossess them and dwell in their land, 30 guard yourself that you are not ensnared to follow them, after they are destroyed from before you, and that you do not inquire about their mighty ones, saying, ‘How did these nations serve their mighty ones? And let me do so too.’¹ Footnote: ¹See also 18:9, Lev. 18:3, Jer.10:2, Ezek. 11:12 & 20:32, Eph. 4:17, and 1 Peter 4:3 31 “Do not do so to ??? your Elohim, for every abomination which ??? hates they have done to their mighty ones, for they even burn their sons and daughters in the fire to their mighty ones. 32 “All the words I am commanding you, guard to do it – do not add to it nor take away from it.

Proverb 30: 6 Do not add to His Words¹, Lest He reprove you, and you be found a liar

Again notice that just by adding to or taking away you become a liar and as we have shown above you are of your father Satan. This is very serious.

Revelation 22: 18 For I witness to everyone hearing the words of the prophecy of this book: If anyone adds to them, Elohim shall add to him the plagues that are written in this book, 19 and if anyone takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, Elohim shall take away his part from the Book of Life, and out of the set-apart city, which are written in this Book.

You can also read The Truth That Chanukah hides at https://sightedmoon.com/sightedmoon_2015/?page_id=571 But some will protest about the 17th of Tammuz claiming justification by Zechariah. You can read about the four Fasts that Zechariah talks about at https://sightedmoon.com/sightedmoon_2015/?page_id=518

Do not add to the Torah, How plain is that and why is it so hard for some of you to obey this one simple command. Don’t add to Torah and give some religious sounding name to justify it. Just do not do it!!!

On the tenth day of the fifth month, men during Ezekiel’s time (after Jeremiah, but before Zechariah) came seeking Yah. Yah responds to Ezekiel telling him that Israel had not been faithful to Yah. This is the same reason that Judah was expelled from the land into Babylon. It is why we, The rest of the Tribes of Israel, are currently still out of the land and it is why Judah is soon going to be kicked out of the land one more time and go into captivity along with the USA and UK. We continue to add to the Torah what is not there and to take away from the Torah what we do not like. Those who do this will pay the price very soon.

Getting back to the Solar Eclipse;

<http://eclipse.gsfc.nasa.gov/OH/OH2010.html#SE2010Jul11T>

The central eclipse path begins in the South Pacific about 700 km southeast of Tonga at 18:15 UT. Traveling northeast, the track misses Rarotonga – the largest and most populous of the Cook Islands – by just 25 km. The first landfall occurs at Mangaia where the total eclipse lasts 3 minutes 18 seconds with the Sun 14° above the horizon.

The southern coast line of French Polynesia's Tahiti lies a tantalizing 20 km north of the eclipse path and experiences a deep 0.996 magnitude partial eclipse at 18:28 UT. Several cruises are already scheduled to intercept the umbral shadow from Papeete.

Greatest eclipse occurs in the South Pacific at 19:33:31 UT. At this instant, the axis of the Moon's shadow passes closest to Earth's center. The maximum duration of totality is 5 minutes 20 seconds, the Sun's altitude is 47°, and the path width is 259 km.

Continuing across the vast Pacific, the umbral shadow's path encounters Easter Island, one of the most remote locations on Earth. From the capital, Hanga Roa, totality lasts 4 minutes 41 seconds with the Sun 40° above the horizon (20:11 UT). The 3,800 inhabitants of the isle are accustomed to tourism, but the eclipse is expected to bring record numbers to this unique destination.

This eclipse is in the Far East, Over The Pacific Islands. I have noted but cannot find in what Newsletter I wrote it, that after each solar eclipse a number of disasters come to the areas in which the eclipse passed over.

A little more about Tammuz

<http://www.answers.com/topic/tammuz>

(Assyro-Babylonian Duzu or Dumuzi). Fourth month of the Jewish religious Calendar; tenth month of the Hebrew civil year counting from Tishri. It has 29 days and normally coincides with June-July; its sign of the zodiac is Cancer. There are several biblical references to "the fourth month," but the name Tammuz occurs in the Bible only as that of a Mesopotamian deity, better known to the Greeks as Adonis (Ezek. 8:14). Jews returning to Judah from the Babylonian Exile introduced the use of Tammuz (modified Dumuzi) as the name of their fourth month and it later appears frequently in rabbinic literature. Traditionally, Tammuz marks the beginning of summer in the Land of Israel (Shab. 53a). The fast of 17 Tammuz (Shivah Asar Be-Tammuz) commemorates the breaching of the walls of Jerusalem by the Babylonian army in 586 BCE on 9 Tammuz (II Kings 25:3-4); in 70 CE, the Roman legions of Titus did it again on the 17th. This fast ushers in the mournful Three Weeks culminating in Tishah Be-Av. According to Zechariah (8:19), this "fast of the fourth month" will nevertheless be turned into a joyful occasion in time to come, along with the three other biblical fasts.

The object of abominable rites carried on at the entrance of the north gate of the Temple, where "the women were seated weeping for Tammuz" (Ezek 8:14). According to Ezekiel, these rites were among the reasons for Yahovah's decision to destroy the Temple and exile the Jews. Tammuz represents Sumerian/Babylonian Dumuzi, a fertility god and the mourning for Tammuz was an annual rite, observed in Mesopotamia in June or July. The death of Tammuz came to symbolize the death of nature in the heat of summer. The Church Fathers identified Tammuz with the Greek Adonis. Tammuz is also the post-exilic name of the fourth month of the Hebrew calendar. It does not, however, appear in the Bible.

“As the church moved away from the fervor of apostolic times, people’s piety began to wane, and bishops cast about for some celebration that would deepen the devotional approach to Easter, climax of the spiritual year...Some observed a total fast for exactly forty days (minus the Lord’s Day, Sunday), a feast called Quadragesima, which would evolve into Lent”. (Panati, p. 206).

“The forty days’ abstinence of Lent was directly borrowed from the worshippers of the Babylonian goddess. Such a Lent of forty days, ‘in the spring of the year’, is still observed by the Yezidis or Pagan Devil-worshippers of Koordistan who have inherited it from their early masters, the Babylonians. Such a Lent of forty days was held in spring by the Pagan Mexicans, for thus we read in Humboldt (Mexican Researches) where he gives account of Mexican observances: ” Three days after the vernal equinox...began a solemn fast of forty days in honour of the sun”. Such a Lent of forty days was observed in Egypt...expressly in commemoration of Adonis or Osiris, the great mediatorial god. At the same time, the rape of Proserpine seems to have been commemorated, and in a similar manner... “forty nights” the “wailing for Proserpine” continued...Among the Pagans this Lent seems to have been an indispensable preliminary to the great annual festival in commemoration of the death and resurrection of Tammuz which was celebrated by alternate weeping and rejoicing...being observed in Palestine and Assyria in June, therefore called the “month of Tammuz””. (Hislop, pp. 104, 105).

Last week I had mentioned in the beginning about the hard times that are coming and I urged you all to use some of your money now while it still has some value to invest in our farming and business plans. I want to thank those of you who are stepping forward and helping us to make this happen. But as my Sister above so poignantly stated it ‘He planned like he had no prayer, and then he prayed like he had no plan.’

We have planned and will continue to plan like we have no other help. But at the same time we are going to pray like we have no plan because we know who is in charge.

I want to share with you another article about the coming hard times. Again brethren if you have not yet watched the DVD about the Chronological order of prophecy and how economics plays a part in it. Then please do so https://sightedmoon.com/sightedmoon_2015/?page_id=251

The ComingHard Rain

Most of your typical economic analysts have never lived through a really tough period of time. Yet there are a few voices from the Depression era still alive—and they are shouting a warning at the top of their lungs, hoping that someone, anyone, will listen.

In short: The recession is just starting, the stock market is set up for the biggest bear market crash ever, the government is going to be shocked when foreign lenders abandon it, and the dollar could devalue suddenly and catastrophically.

But will their warnings go unheeded?

“I saw it once, and I never want to see it again.” The 1930s were one of the toughest times in America’s history. It broke famous companies, it broke families, and it almost broke a nation.

Economic analyst Richard Russell remembers those days, and he is afraid they are about to return

For Russell, following the Roaring Twenties life dramatically swung in the opposite direction. In 1929, the stock market crashed and his Uncle Irving jumped out of a 10-story midtown Manhattan hotel. One year later, everything had changed: Unemployment lines with tired men in patched clothing stretched around blocks and panhandlers clogged the curbs.

A decade later, the economy was still deteriorating. By that time, California had become a semi-police state. Sheriffs turned away travelers from entering towns out of fear that they would steal local jobs. Officials rounded up the homeless and shipped them to other parts of the country.

It took a world war to finally bring America out of the Great Depression.

Recently, Russell told his readers that life is about to change in America—and not for the better.

“Do your friends a favor,” he said. “Tell them to ‘batten down the hatches’ because there’s a hard rain coming. Tell them to get out of debt and sell anything they can sell (and don’t need) in order to get liquid. Tell them that ... by the end of this year they won’t recognize the country” (Dow Theory Letters, May 20; emphasis mine).

Those are strong words. The global economy may not have tipped into depression yet, but a hard rain—as in a flood—is coming. It is just a matter of how soon.

So brethren we need your help now as soon as possible in order to make these things come together. The window of opportunity is not going to be open for very long. You can make a donation by mail to my own address or by pay pal.
