Shabbat Shalom Brothers and Sisters of Yehovah family,

In the Mail this week

One of the posts had the following comment from last week and I thought you all should read it. it is written by Jan Sytsma

I learned this last week and it brought out even more of what Joe said in this week's teaching. It's as though Joe knew my thoughts. I'd like to share this if you approve.

Do you see the connection to WISDOM and The Torah? The Hebrew language shows it plain and clear!

Chokmah – Means “wisdom”

It comes from

Chakam – Means “to be wise” or “to become wise” chukim – Means “rulings” plural (Refer to Deu 4:1 below which says “the laws” in English) cho?q or khome Means “rulings”

This is the word translated as “the laws” in Deu 6:1

Right-rulings is mishpat ...judgments

DO YOU SEE the connection of RULINGS (His Laws) to the word ChakamTo be wise?

Deu 4:1 “And now, O Yisra’el, listen to the laws and the right-rulings (el-ha-chukim v’el-hamishpatim) which I am teaching you to do, so that you live, and shall go in and possess the land which ????

Elohim of your fathers is giving you.

Deu 6:1 “And this is the command, the laws and right-rulings which ???? your Elohim has commanded, to teach you to do in the land which you are passing over to possess,

Deu 6:2 so that you fear ???? your Elohim, to guard all His laws and His commands which I command you, you and your son and your grandson, all the days of your life, and that your days be prolonged.

Deu 6:3 “And you shall hear, O Yisra’el, and shall guard to do, that it might be well with you, and that you increase greatly as ???? Elohim of your fathers has spoken to you, in a land flowing with milk and honey.

Deu 6:4 “Hear, O Yisra’el: ???? our Elohim, ???? is one!

Proverbs 2:6 For Yehovah gives wisdom; Out of His mouth come knowledge and understanding.

Proverbs 9:10 The fear of Yehovah is the beginning of wisdom, And the knowledge of the Setapart One is understanding.

Proverbs 14:6 A scoffer shall seek wisdom but find none, But knowledge is swift to him who has understanding.

Psalms 119:172 My tongue shall speak Your Word, for all Your Commandments are righteousness.

And NOW, this piece of wisdom is just awesome....

James 1:5 If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of Elohim, who gives to all generously and without reproach, and it shall be given to him.

Psalms 119:172 My tongue shall speak Your Word, for all Your Commandments are righteousness.

James 1:5 If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of Elohim, who gives to all generously and without reproach, and it shall be given to him.

You get it by studying His Word...His Torah is exactly what James is telling you to do!!!!

WISDOM comes from the root word for LAW (English) RULINGS (correct translation)

The ROOT determines the meaning of the other words. WISDOM comes from LAW/RULINGS!!!!

All those James was teaching would clearly know this.

Also note James does NOT tell you to study Paul's letters NOR even does he use the name Jesus....He points to ELOHIM...The Father and the Aleph Tav who is Jesus in the flesh.)

Proverbs 4:5 Get wisdom, get understanding...

Psalms 119:169 "Let my cry come near to You, O Jehovah; give me wisdom according to Your Word."

NOW, this ties wonderfully with what Joe was sharing about HOPE having a meaning of a cistern (or a bucket) holding the LIVING WATER.

Yeshua is the LIVING TORAH.....the Living Rulings and Righteous Judgments... WHICH also means WISDOM. The Rulings (Law) mean Wisdom.

When HE Says GET WISDOM...He is saying GET THE LAW/RULINGS. GET the LIVING WATER and put it in "your cistern" to drink from throughout your day.

Wisdom of the Rulings is in this cistern / bucket for us to draw from.

Last week we finally added the teaching we did with a private group explaining how to understand the Charts and how to read them and what they all mean. They asked me questions and I answered them and explained it so they could understand. But we also recorded it and now we can share it with all of you. You can view it at <https://youtu.be/l2mCHhHbY9A>

Shalom Mr. Dumond,

I just want thank you for the video you added to your presentation page on You Tube. It was great to sit and have my questions answered through the discussions there in.. I was excited to see that although I learned this on my own most of my understanding was correct. Although there were things that I learned I had not seen in full

Lewis told me he thought I did a good job explaining it all to him so that was encouraging most over all to me.

I told you how I did my life cycle up to this year in a 49 year chart. I noticed very quickly that I started keeping the Sabbath and Holy Days (Incorrectly though) during the 6th cycle of Atonement. What I didn't notice was it fell directly on the Return to Yehovah year which almost made me fall straight out of my chair. Wow wow wow..

There is no denying the blessings in my life matched the research. I hope I not coming off haughty. I know this is not about me other than having to look at myself before anything. Has anyone else mentioned to you anything about matching their life cycle to a 49 year chart like I just did??? Be interesting to hear what others found. Although I was near bursting with excitement I didn't want to sound like a nut on your website and take away from the work you been so diligently presenting to us .

There has been a few other things I noticed in my life chart that definitely prove Yehovah's design in it as I shared in the email when I first told you about this. It was what hammered the last nail in the Ark for me.

Look back and see when as I knew I had to start supporting you again after my mother died back around my birthday. What I didn't notice was how the last cycle of my life matched up to keeping the Sabbatical years to joining the family of Elohim. Wow wow wow!!!!

Anyhow needed to share that with anyone who might have understanding on the significance of what I seem to have learned.

As always thank you and know that there are some here in North America not spiritually dead but more alive than they ever been.

Thanks again Mr. Dumond Shalom to you and yours.

Persecution is Coming

It is now Thursday evening and I am about to post this week's News Letter. But there has been a number of things take place this week that trouble me. They trouble me because they are taking place in the order that precludes these end times and when I see it, I also see the many who deny and refuse to repent and will not believe. As I said we did a large campaign in the Anglo Saxon nations only to be met with stiff resistance. You can also see examples of this in the comments section of the News Letter for the past few weeks.

Last week Canadian Global Affairs Twitter account on Friday said it was "gravely concerned" about "additional arrests of civil society and women's rights activists," and urging the Saudi government to release them. In past years many nations have said similar things and the Saudi's would just grumble under their breath and then move on. But not this time.

This lame attempt at standing for Human Rights was met with a strong rebuke from the Saudi Prince and Social Media. A Saudi Youth Groups issued this image on Twitter.

This does not go unnoticed when you recall that 15 of the 19 attackers of 9/11 were Saudi citizens.

Saudi Arabia then kicked out our Ambassador to Saudi Arabia and has called on the Kingdom to dump all Canadian investments even if at a loss. Our Prime Minister is a weak leader on the world stage who prefers photo ops rather than engage in the business of the state on the world stage.

To show you how sad things are Prime Minister Trudeau's one claim to fame thus far is to legalise Marijuana across Canada. Our New Premier of Ontario has just become elected a couple weeks ago and is now endorsing "Buck A Beer" Campaign to promote the economy.

With weak leadership, other nations think they can bully their way past our defenses. And Saudi Arabia is doing this although I do not at this time know the end game in this arena.

Like the Palestinians of Gaza who are firing countless rockets into the areas around Gaza where the Iron Dome does not have enough time to react and intercept them, many of the rockets are getting through and landing in civilian areas of Sderot and many other cities that border Gaza. Then when the IDF returns fire and takes out those mortar launch areas, the media says Israel is attacking the poor people of Gaza. I just saw this on the BBC tonight after I had seen the reports from Israel live. Saudi Arabia is no victim the same as the Palestinians are not victims. They bring this on themselves and then stomp their feet and scream until they get the attention they want or get their way.

Another thing I saw this week was that the USA said they would impose sanctions on Iran and anyone else who did business with Iran. The EU, our NATO partners, said they would do business with Iran and protect those companies in the EU that also did business with Iran. Trouble is those businesses do billions of dollars in trade with Iran but they also do Trillions of dollars in trade with the USA. So they will heed the sanctions even if the EU Government says they will not. Money talks and everything else walks. This is the same EU which is led by Germany that is doing billions of dollars in trade with Russia while asking the USA to back them militarily against Russia. President Trump called them out on this.

Why are they not doing that trade deal with their NATO partners like the USA? It would offset the trade imbalance that President Trump is hot and heavy about. I agree with President Trump on this.

Then We have Turkey, who are again NATO partners with the USA. Turkey is holding a Christian pastor one Andrew Brunson and President Trump and Vice President Pence both have called President Erdogan for his release and have stopped the shipment of 100 F-35 Fighter Jets to Turkey. Again this is NATO ally or it is supposed to be one.

The ban, the release added, can only be lifted if the White House can certify that the Turkish government is not undermining NATO and is not unlawfully jailing US citizens, among other conditions.

Then we have Turkey Iraq and China who have all stated that they will not support the sanctions against Iran. Turkey is our NATO Ally. Iraq is the nation the USA just liberated from Saddam Hussein and continues to have troops there now and has aided Iraq in defeating ISIS. No, I am not ignorant of the mess of Iraq because of the US attack on it. But I do recall the events and the lead up to that attack very clearly.

Since President Trump has come to the White House and to Washington to drain the swamp, the liberal left have been screaming their heads off and objecting to all things Trumps does. Even the media, for the most part, is against all his efforts, but the President does not help his own affairs with the things he also tweets. This led to the fake news reports and the attacks against CNN and other network news.

Then this past week Info Wars was taken down. Not just by one organization but by 5 all on the same day.

Here is what the Trumpet Brief had to say on this.

Dear Joseph,

We at the Trumpet depend on free speech. Speech that is guaranteed not only legally by the First Amendment of the United States Constitution, but also by a society willing to countenance voices from outside the mainstream. God's truth is definitely outside the mainstream. The Trumpet keeps a watchful eye on the ways this speech is being increasingly curtailed in public discourse by various forms of speech suppression and censorship. Among them are legal challenges against religious freedom, draconian firings of employees with "politically incorrect" views, exclusion of nonconformist guest speakers from university campuses, calls for public shaming and ostracism, even violence aimed to intimidate and silence.

It appears we have just witnessed a sudden escalation in this trend.

Firebrand radio host and commentator Alex Jones has some very unorthodox views, including erroneous conspiracy theories. Over a period of 24 hours at the start of this week, Apple, Facebook, Google, Pinterest and Spotify rapidly clamped down on his content.

Apple removed five out of Jones's six podcasts on Sunday. Early Monday, Facebook removed four pages controlled by Jones and Google banned the Alex Jones Channel from YouTube. Pinterest also removed its Info Wars board, and Spotify took down all episodes of The Alex Jones Show.

All five companies claim Jones violated their hate speech policies. Apple representative told BuzzFeed News, "Apple does not tolerate hate speech, and we have clear guidelines that creators and developers must follow to ensure we provide a safe environment for all of our users." Facebook also released a detailed press statement on the matter: "As a result of reports we received, last week, we removed four videos on four Facebook Pages for violating our hate speech and bullying policies."

Despite these reasons for censoring Jones's opinions, there is no single explanation for why all five companies chose the same 24-hour period to crack down on his views. The move appears to have been coordinated by social media executives.

Jones's rhetoric is often controversial and inflammatory. But this is only the latest example of the broader, concerning problem of Silicon Valley censorship. Apple, Facebook, Google, Pinterest and Spotify are private companies, but their power to regulate the market of ideas has grown to an extent that makes them like quasi-government actors. In effect, Silicon Valley has acquired the muscle to enact de facto restrictions on free speech.

Authoritarian governments in China and Iran regulate what information their citizens can see online. The First Amendment forbids Congress from enacting censorship laws. But that doesn't stop these tech companies from making decisions with similar effects.

“[T]his isn’t about whether you like Jones or think he’s a reprehensible human being,” Holly Scheer wrote for the Federalist. “Rather, this is about what it means for our society if a few tech companies should be able to decide for everyone what information is available, and what is over the line.”

As the New American Morality grows more fanatical, powerful, stringent and hostile to biblical morality, the Trumpet, by standing its ground, finds itself more on the fringe.

We are well aware of an end-time prophecy where God’s message is marginalized as “the land is not able to bear all his words.” Public antagonism will combine with political force to abolish that message. “Behold, the days come, saith the Lord God, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the Lord” (Amos 8:11).

We do appreciate your continued interest and support. Send me your thoughts on the issue at jhilliker@thetrumpet.com.

Anyone who has been reading the Sightedmoon.com News Letter will know just how much I dislike the things that come from INFO WARS and the conspiracy teaching he has put forward and that many of you have believed true. This information has tainted your testimony whenever you shared the Torah with others because you mixed it with INFO WARS lies. I have reprimanded you on this a number of times.

At the same time, I have not stopped those with different views from expressing them on our comments section at the end of each News Letter. I value other views but I do not have to agree with them. Read Luke 18:1

Then He spoke a parable to them, that men always ought to pray and not lose heart, saying: “There was in a certain city a judge who did not fear God nor regard man. Now there was a widow in that city; and she came to him, saying, ‘Get justice for me from my adversary.’ And he would not for a while; but afterward he said within himself, ‘Though I do not fear God nor regard man, yet because this widow troubles me I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me.’ ” Then the Lord said, “Hear what the unjust judge said. And shall God not avenge His own elect who cry out day and night to Him, though He bears long with them? I tell you that He will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will He really find faith on the earth?”

We are near the end of this age. the Sabbatical and Jubilee years prove this. We are seeing the USA being alienated by its very own NATO Allies. Will Yehovah find faith when He comes? Faith is doing the will of the Father.

Mat 7:21 “Not everyone who says to Me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ shall enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My Father in heaven. Many will say to Me in that day, ‘Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in Your name, cast out demons in Your name, and done many wonders in Your name?’ And then I will declare to them, ‘I never knew you; depart from Me, you who practice lawlessness!’

1 John 5:3 For this is the love of God, that we keep His commandments. And His commandments are not burdensome,

One day very soon you will see and hear how society will no longer tolerate anyone who speaks things that do not match what that society believes in. We are almost there. Our videos and our website will disappear one day without notice.

Persecutions Are Coming

Mat 10:16 “Behold, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves. Therefore be wise as serpents and harmless as doves. But beware of men, for they will deliver you up to councils and scourge you in their synagogues. You will be brought before governors and kings for My sake, as a testimony to them and to the Gentiles. But when they deliver you up, do not worry about how or what you should speak. For it will be given to you in that hour what you should speak; for it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father who speaks in you.

“Now brother will deliver up brother to death, and a father his child; and children will rise up against parents and cause them to be put to death. And you will be hated by all for My name’s sake. But he who endures to the end will be saved. When they persecute you in this city, flee to another. For assuredly, I say to you, you will not have gone through the cities of Israel before the Son of Man comes.

But that time is not yet here. So while you can, while you still have breath, while you still are able to speak freely, speak out and warn your brethren of their sins and the curses that are now happening. Explain to them why California is plagued by wildfire. And soon they will be plagued by mudslides. Tell them why these curses are going across Europe and North America and why Australia is in another horrible drought with their animals dying off. Tell them, while you still can.
