Shabbat Shalom to the Royal Family of Yehovah,

I would like to thank everyone that took advantage of our book offer on my Birthday a couple of weeks ago. I have now completed all the orders I received and would like to remind those who did ask to please send in your donations to cover the cost of shipping. The cost of the Books and DVDs sent out was just under $1000 and the shipping and packaging were also just under $1000 to send everything. We had asked you to send us $12 for each of the 2300 Days of Hell you ordered and $10 for each Remembering the Sabbatical year of 2016 and $10 for each DVD that you asked for. We had a few that paid with their order and the rest, I sent out trusting them to send in the funds soon.

Keep in mind when you give them to others, they are not free. They did cost someone something, so make sure you follow up with those you are hoping will learn from reading the books or DVDs.

Question-What are the Rules In Gods Kingdom?

To all of you reading this who claim to be Christians.

You believe that when you die you will be going to heaven to live out eternity with God and Jesus.

Let's assume you are right for argument's sake. Will people drive on the left-hand side of the street in heaven or the right-hand side?

Will there be any rules that we all must follow? And what will those rules be?

If Yehovah is the same every day and does not change, then I would suspect the laws that He has in the Torah, the first 5 books of the Bible will still be the same rules for the Kingdom of Heaven.

Heb 13:8 Yeshua Messiah is the same yesterday, and today, and forever.

Mal 3:6 "For I am Yehovah, I shall not change, and you, O sons of Ya?14 , shall not come to an end.

Jas 1:17 Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no change, nor shadow of turning.

If those laws that are to govern Heaven are the same laws He has already told us about in the first 5 books of the Bible, should we not begin to now keep them in order to know what to do and how to do it when we get to heaven?

I know you all think those are for the Jews only, but those laws were in effect with Adam and Noah and Abraham long before there ever was a Jew. And Yeshua was also Jewish and kept all those same laws.

If you are still saying that we do not have to keep those Old Testament Laws because you are under the Testament Grace then to whom is St. Peter going to say at the gate of Heaven or Yeshua Himself, going to say the following;

Mat 7:21 "Not everyone who says to Me, 'Master, Master,' shall enter into the reign of the heavens, but he who is doing the desire of My Father in the heavens. "Many shall say to Me in that day, 'Master, Master, have we not prophesied in Your Name, and cast out demons in Your Name, and done many mighty works in Your Name?' "And then I shall declare to them, 'I never knew you, depart from Me, you who work lawlessness!

Those lawless ones are those who do not keep the laws found in the first 5 books of the Bible. The same ones, your Pastors, and Radio Evangelists are telling you are done away. Leading Religious leaders like, John McArthur, Dr. David Jeremiah, Joyce Meyer, Chuck Swindoll, Ravi Zacharias, and Joel Olsteen just to name a few. They focus on the last 6 commandments, teaching morality and refuse to teach the first 4 commandments. These same teachers will even quote the two greatest commandments and then ignore the first 4. But Yeshua did not ignore them.

Mat 22:36 "Teacher, which is the great command in the Torah?" And Yeshua said to him, " 'You shall love Yehovah your Elohim with all your heart, and with all your being, and with all your mind.' Deu 6:5. "This is the first and great command. "And the second is like it, 'You shall love your neighbour as yourself.' Lev 19:18. "On these two commands hang all the Torah and the Prophets."

Stop listening to those who are lying to you and start to learn those laws that will be enforced in the Kingdom of Yehovah just as Yeshua said in Mat 22:36. Start to learn about the Sabbath and The Holy Days of Lev 23 and the Sabbatical and Jubilee Years all of which explain the entire plan of Salvation. By throwing them away and not keeping them you rob yourself of the knowledge of the Gods plan for your life here on earth and in Heaven.

These same evangelists talk about you and your sins. And that you must stop your sins or you won't be in heaven. Ask yourself what is sin? Is it just doing drugs, or being a drunk or is it just looking at porn? The notorious Lusts of the Flesh???

Here is what the New Testament says is sin.

1Jn 3:4 Everyone doing sin also does lawlessness, and sin is lawlessness.

So sin is not keeping the law, not keeping the commandments. Those that Yeshua says I never knew you, you workers of Lawlessness, are those who are sinning, those who do not keep the law.

What is God's Love?

1 John 5:3 For this is the love of God, that we keep His commandments; and His commandments are not burdensome.

You have this life here on earth right now. What are you doing to prepare the world for the coming Kingdom of Yehovah? To what ends are you helping to get ready for the Kingdom? Do not say you are doing nothing or you will be called a wicked and slothful servant. Are you just thinking of yourself or are you working with a group and doing a work?

Mat 25:14 “For it will be like a man going on a journey, who called his servants and entrusted to them his property. To one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability. Then he went away. He who had received the five talents went at once and traded with them, and he made five talents more. So also he who had the two talents made two talents more. But he who had received the one talent went and dug in the ground and hid his master’s money. Now after a long time the master of those servants came and settled accounts with them. And he who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five talents more, saying, ‘Master, you delivered to me five talents; here, I have made five talents more.’ His master said to him, ‘Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a little; I will set you over much. Enter into the joy of your master.’ And he also who had the two talents came forward, saying, ‘Master, you delivered to me two talents; here, I have made two talents more.’ His master said to him, ‘Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a little; I will set you over much. Enter into the joy of your master.’ He also who had received the one talent came forward, saying, ‘Master, I knew you to be a hard man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you scattered no seed, so I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here, you have what is yours.’ But his master answered him, ‘You wicked and slothful servant! You knew that I reap where I have not sown and gather where I scattered no seed? Then you ought to have invested my money with the bankers, and at my coming I should have received what was my own with interest. So take the talent from him and give it to him who has the ten talents. For to everyone who has will more be given, and he will have an abundance. But from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away. And cast the worthless servant into the outer darkness. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’

January 22, 1973- 60 Million Killed.

The total number of military and civilian casualties in World War I were about 40 million: estimates range from 15 to 19 million deaths and about 23 million wounded military personnel, ranking it among the deadliest conflicts in human history.

World War II was the deadliest military conflict in history. An estimated total of 70-85 million people perished, which was about 3% of the 1940 world population (est. 2.3 billion)

There were 6 Million Jews murdered in the Holocaust.

Worldwide in 2018 alone, 42 million babies were aborted.

In the USA since Roe vs Wade ruling to allow abortions in 1973, there have been 60 Million Babies murdered.

When I read Lev 26, I am often wondering if the proper translation of wild Beast is correct and if it does not mean something else.

Lev 26:21 “Then if you walk contrary to me and will not listen to me, I will continue striking you, sevenfold for your sins. And I will let loose the wild beasts against you, which shall bereave you of your children and destroy your livestock and make you few in number, so that your roads shall be deserted.

Wild is the word

H7704 sʔādeh sʔāday saw-dehʹ, saw-dahʹee

From an unused root meaning to spread out; a field (as flat): – country, field, ground, land, soil, X wild.

Beast is the word

H2416 chay khahʹee

From H2421; alive; hence raw (flesh); fresh (plant, water, year), strong; also (as noun, especially in the feminine singular and masculine plural) life (or living thing), whether literally or figuratively: – + age, alive, appetite, (wild) beast, company, congregation, life (-time), live (-ly), living (creature, thing), maintenance, + merry, multitude, + (be) old, quick, raw, running, springing, troop

The word for Rob you of your children is

H7921 (Strong) shâkôl

shaw-koleʹ

A primitive root; properly to miscarry, that is, suffer abortion; by analogy to bereave (literally or figuratively): – bereave (of children), barren, cast calf (fruit, young), be (make) childless, deprive, destroy, X expect, lose children, miscarry, rob of children, spoil.

So let those numbers I shared with you at the top sink in and then ponder and do your own word search for Lev 26:21

FACT CHECK: HAVE THERE BEEN 60 MILLION ABORTIONS SINCE ROE V. WADE?

3:22 PM 07/03/2018 David Sivak | Fact Check Editor

Twitter users recently claimed that 60 million abortions have been performed in the U.S. since the Supreme Court decided Roe v. Wade.

Verdict: True

There have been roughly 60 million abortions since the case was decided in 1973.

Fact Check:

Justice Anthony Kennedy announced last Wednesday that he would retire from the Supreme Court, opening the door for President Donald Trump to nominate a more staunchly conservative jurist to the bench.

The retirement of Kennedy, who was often described as the swing vote between the four more conservative and four more liberal justices, excited pro-life conservatives who have long hoped that Roe v. Wade – the 1973 ruling that legalized abortion nationally – would be overturned.

Trump said during a presidential debate in 2016 that he'd put pro-life judges on the court and acknowledged this past Sunday that abortion access "could very well end up with states at some point."

The announcement by Kennedy led many Twitter users to claim that 60 million abortions had been performed since 1973.

Roe has been "settled law" for a long time. Well, I think it just got unsettled.

Keep in mind that Roe has caused the death of over 60 million innocent human beings since 1973. It has to end.

I didn't know if it could end in my lifetime. It's possible now.

60 million Americans aborted since Roe v. Wade. At present rates we kill:

2,537 each day

105 each hour

“60 million Americans aborted since Roe v. Wade,” tweeted Matthew Schmitz, a columnist at The Catholic Herald. “We should be absolutely clear about the justice and necessity of ending the slaughter.”

The number likely comes from the National Right to Life Committee (NRLC), a pro-life advocacy group. The organization published a report in January that estimates that 60.1 million abortions have been performed in the U.S. since 1973.

The NRLC relies on data from the Guttmacher Institute, a pro-choice organization that produces some of the most reliable and complete estimates on the number of abortions performed over the years.

By surveying clinics, hospitals and other facilities that offer abortion services, researchers at the institute estimated that 55.5 million abortions were performed in the U.S. from 1973 to 2014, the latest year for which data was available.

The NRLC calculates a figure through 2017 by assuming that the same number of abortions performed in 2014 – 926,200 – were performed the following years as well. The organization then adjusts the total number of abortions upward by 3 percent to account for underreporting.

Researchers at Guttmacher acknowledge that their figures may undercount the true number of abortions by up to 5 percent. An estimated 2,000 physicians who perform abortions in their private practice are believed to be missing from the data.

The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) publishes abortion estimates of its own, but the data has much larger gaps. For one, the agency has lacked consistent data from California and New Hampshire since 1998. These states performed 17 percent of all abortions in 2014, according to Guttmacher.

Another deficiency is the way the data is reported. The CDC relies on voluntary submissions from central health agencies that are in some cases incomplete.

Guttmacher, on the other hand, takes a more proactive approach to data collection. For its latest report, researchers made 11,800 contacts to follow up with nonresponsive abortion facilities.

The disparity can be seen in the number of abortions reported over time by Guttmacher versus the CDC.

Abortions have declined almost every year since 1990 due in part to greater access to contraception, including longer-term birth control options like Intrauterine Devices (IUDs).

The decline has occurred despite a growing population in the U.S.

In fact, there are proportionally fewer abortions being performed today than when Roe v. Wade was decided. Abortions per 1,000 women aged 15 to 44 fell from 16.3 in 1973 to 14.6 in 2014, according to the Guttmacher Institute.

About 39 percent of the women who had abortions in 2014 were white, 28 percent were black and 25 percent were Hispanic. Proportionally speaking, there were 10 abortions per 1,000 white women, 27.1 per 1,000 black women and 18.1 per 1,000 Hispanic women.

Nearly half of all abortions were for women whose family incomes were below 100 percent of the federal poverty line.

In the bible, they used to pass the children through the fires of Molech. The child was killed and the parents were no longer responsible for it. It is the same thing as today. Yehovah destroyed Israel for this sin amongst others. And the USA is also about to be destroyed.

If you as a Father or as the Mother encouraged or had your children aborted, it is time to pray to Yehovah for forgiveness. It is time we all prayed for forgiveness for our part in being silent or being in agreement with this crime of convenience. Molech was the god they worshiped back then. He was the contraceptive measure they used.

Exodus 20:3 “You shall not make for yourself a carved image, or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth. You shall not bow down to them or serve them, for I the Lord your God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children to the third and the fourth generation of those who hate me, but showing steadfast love to thousands of those who love me and keep my commandments.

Introduction to the Temple of Eden

We have been studying where the Temple of Yehovah once stood and searching for the true location.

We began this series with the desire to explain those things I teach while on tour in Jerusalem but never get to share all the details behind what I am saying and to also show those of you who will never get to Jerusalem these things so that you might have a record should you ever do find yourself there.

Our first teaching was on Golgotha and we exposed the Chruch of the Holy Sepulchre and the Garden Tomb as fake sites and nothing more than Tourist traps.

Next in our series was The Church of the Holy Wisdom which was showing you what was built on The Pavement or the place where Pilot judged Yehshua which today has become known as the Dome of the Rock. We then went on to tell you the history of The Al Aqsa Mosque and The Great Nea Church which was built by Justinian in an effort to outdo Solomon. I was trying to wrap up my teachings about what is today known as the Temple Mount when I realized something I had not considered and began to explain about The Fortress of THE House. The Biyrah of The Bayith-The Rocks Are Crying Out, showing you in a rather confused way through exploration as I studied this subject, that the Temple Mount was first built by Solomon and was His Palace which was also known as the Fortress. This was not built by Herod as I have thought.

So having now completely exposed the Temple Mount for what it was and was not I then wanted to start at the beginning of the building of the Temple and we gave our first teaching about the City of Salem or Jeru Salem where Jeru means City. This article was titled The City of Salem History, as I wanted to explain the rich history of the Salem up until the time when David Captured it. But I also had to explain to you why it was no longer there today due to what the Hasmoneans did to it after regaining the Temple and the Akra which was what the City of Salem was also called. The Akra.

Then in my desire to get back to the very beginning, we had James explain to you how the Aleph Tav, The Pattern in the Tabernacle. Tthe very Hebrew letters themselves teach us about the Mishkan, the Tabernacle that Moses was shown by Yehovah.

This week we are going to now look at the Mishkan, the Tabernacle which is representing what the Throne of Heaven is like, only this week we are going to look at the one that Yehovah built here on earth before He commanded Moses to build one.

Exo 26:30 “And you shall raise up the Dwelling Place according to its pattern which you were shown on the mountain.

Yes, Yehovah built a replica of his Throne here on earth long before Moses and the Exodus.

We have written about this before and do so now again with more info for you.

Where is Eden And how does it Relate to the Temple

In 2007 at Shavuot, I went to eastern Turkey to visit the Ark of Noah. It was only after my return home that year that I discovered something.

When I was in Turkey, we went to see the Anchor stones in Kazan. Nearby was a spring that busted out of the ground and flowed down the Aras valley past where the Ark of Noah was.

I tasted the water, and it was very bitter. Gilgamesh wrote in the infamous Gilgamesh Epic that he had to cross the land of bitter lakes to find Noah.

While I was standing at this gushing spring I was thinking of how the people dispersed from the Ark. I realized that the bible says in Genesis 11: 1 Now the whole earth had one language and one speech. 2 And it came to pass, as they journeyed from the east, that they found a plain in the land of Shinar, and they dwelt there.

I know that these people followed the river in order to water their herds. Along the road, we took to get to the Ark and the same one we took to leave is the Murat River which was just southwest of the spring I mentioned above, near the anchor stones in the Village of Kazan which is also known as the Village of Arzep which was formerly known as the Village of Eight. You can see these Anchor Stones at this link.

The part of the map you are looking for is in the top left corner. The village of Kazan.

This spring is one of the feeds that goes into the Aras river which flowed to the east. This Murat River is a tributary of the mighty Euphrates River, and it flowed to the west and south. It is this river that the children of Noah followed as they left from this area where the ark of Noah is today found.

When you follow the Euphrates, as it flows west through Turkey, it takes a turn southward. It is at this point if you look on a map that you can see a number of interesting towns just before the river crosses the border and goes into Syria.

Where the Euphrates flows towards the east in Syria, there is a tributary that flows from the north. It is called Balikh. At the northern tip of the Balikh River is a town called Urfa today in Turkey. It used to be known as Ur of the Chaldeans. How do we know this is Ur of the Chaldeans and not the Ur down near the Persian Gulf where most commentators say it is? If we read Genesis 11 we get to see Abrams Ancestry.

Genesis 11:10 This is the genealogy of Shem: Shem was one hundred years old, and begot Arphaxad two years after the flood. 11 After he begot Arphaxad, Shem lived five hundred years, and begot sons and daughters. 12 Arphaxad lived thirty-five years, and begot Salah. 13 After he begot Salah, Arphaxad lived four hundred and three years, and begot sons and daughters. 14 Salah lived thirty years, and begot Eber. 15 After he begot Eber, Salah lived four hundred and three years, and begot sons and daughters. 16 Eber lived thirty-four years, and begot Peleg. 17 After he begot Peleg, Eber lived four hundred and thirty years, and begot sons and daughters. 18 Peleg lived thirty years, and begot Reu. 19 After he begot Reu, Peleg lived two hundred and nine years, and begot sons and daughters. 20 Reu lived thirty-two years, and begot Serug. 21 After he begot Serug, Reu lived two hundred and seven years, and begot sons and daughters. 22 Serug lived thirty years, and begot Nahor. 23 After he begot Nahor, Serug lived two hundred years, and begot sons and daughters. 24 Nahor lived twenty-nine years, and begot Terah. 25 After he begot Terah, Nahor lived one hundred and nineteen years, and begot sons and daughters. 26 Now Terah lived seventy years, and begot Abram, Nahor, and Haran. 27 This is the genealogy of Terah: Terah begot Abram, Nahor, and Haran. Haran begot Lot. 28 And Haran died before his father Terah in his native land, in Ur of the Chaldeans. 29 Then Abram and Nahor took wives: the name of Abram's wife was Sarai, and the name of Nahor's wife, Milcah, the daughter of Haran the father of Milcah and the father of Iscah.

Arphaxad, as we have read in other News Letters, was the father of the Chaldeans as Josephus has said. In the area of Ur are other villages or ruins that were called Serug after Abrahams Great Grandfather, and Nahor after Abrahams Grandfather, Terah after Abrahams Father, Today known as Til-Turahi, and Harran after Abrahams Brother.

North of these villages is also Nemrud dagh or Mount Nimrod. West of these villages is another town called Cinar. Which is a derivative of Shinar. There is also a river called Sinjar.

Genesis 12:4 So Abram departed as the Lord had spoken to him, and Lot went with him. And Abram was seventy-five years old when he departed from Haran. 5 Then Abram took Sarai his wife and Lot his brother's son, and all their possessions that they had gathered, and the people whom they had acquired in Haran, and they departed to go to the land of Canaan.

While I am here at this moment let me show you a prophecy. In Zechariah 5 we read of the Woman in an ephod. The word woman and the word fire in Hebrew is differentiated by a dot in the Masoretic text. The Object that Zechariah is describing as a flying scroll is none other than today's modern missiles. The evil woman inside is a nuclear device or evil fire, not an evil woman. The two women pushing it through the air are two fire propelled rockets.

Once you see all this then know that the place where they build a house for these is in Shinar, here in Southern Turkey and Northern Syria. You can read more on this subject at https://sightedmoon.com/sightedmoon_2015/?page_id=82

This is the area that Saddam Hussien is alleged to have moved his weapons from Iraq to Syria. This is also the area that Israel has attacked and destroyed a nuclear facility being built by Syria. Strange how the bible tells us exactly where they will build houses to house the missiles in. That is in Shinar. Syria.

Getting back to the purpose of this News Letter. In Gen 2:14 we are told that one of the rivers that came from Eden was the river Perath. In Sumerian it is called Buranun . Even today you can find this river called by the Arabs Firat which is harking back to Perath. The Greeks are the ones to call this river the Euphrates, (Eu-Firat-es). It begins in Eastern Turkey North west of Lake Van, Near Erzerum.

Also In Gen. 2:14 we are told of the river Hiddekel. In Sumerian it was Idiglat. This is translated into Hebrew and is called the Tigris, which begins in the high Zagros Mountains southwest of Lake Van. It has its source in the small Lake called Hazar Golu. Which I was able to visit while in Turkey. Other major tributaries are the Greater Zab, the Lesser Zab, and the Diyala.

Mesopotamia is another Greek word and means as you already know between the two rivers. That is the land between the Tigris and the Euphrates.

Yes, I am about to show you where the Garden of Eden is. But to do this we must understand what the names of the four rivers are. We have now shown you two.

To learn the third we go to;

Gen 2:13 The name of the second river is Gihon; it is the one which goes around the whole land of Cush.

So here is the statement I was thinking about at the beginning. The whole land of Cush. Cush and his families did not go to the west with the rest of Noah's children. Where is the land of Cush? Most modern scholars are extremely bad at researching, for they right away say that this is Africa, and as such this next river must be the Nile. Or they come up with some other extreme line of reasoning. Others say it is the Gihon Spring in Jerusalem. They are superimposing their own narratives into this description.

The identity of the Gihon is a little more difficult to establish but it has to be identified with the River Araxes whose tributaries rise in the mountains north of Lake Van and Lake Urmia (Also Near Erzerum). One of the tributaries is the Aras river which starts near the Anchor Stones. They flow together and flow down to join the main channel, known as the Kur, which empties into the Caspian Sea south of Baku.

The name Araxes, which is more recently referred to as the Araks or Aras, and the name Gihon obviously bear no resemblance to each other. This is a clear case of name change which has taken place in the past. It is not very hard to figure out that the name Aras or Araks which the river is called today, changed not too long ago.

During the Islamic invasion of the Caucasus in the eighth century A.D., stretches of this river were still called Gaihun. Before the Gaihun became known simply as the Aras, the Persians of the last century referred to this river as the Jichon-Aras.

Interestingly enough you will find the Gihon Aras in early biblical dictionaries and commentaries dating from the Victorian times. Today this crucial piece of information has apparently been forgotten and you would be hard pressed to find a modern work on Genesis which links the Gihon with the Aras. So much for the modern scholarship!

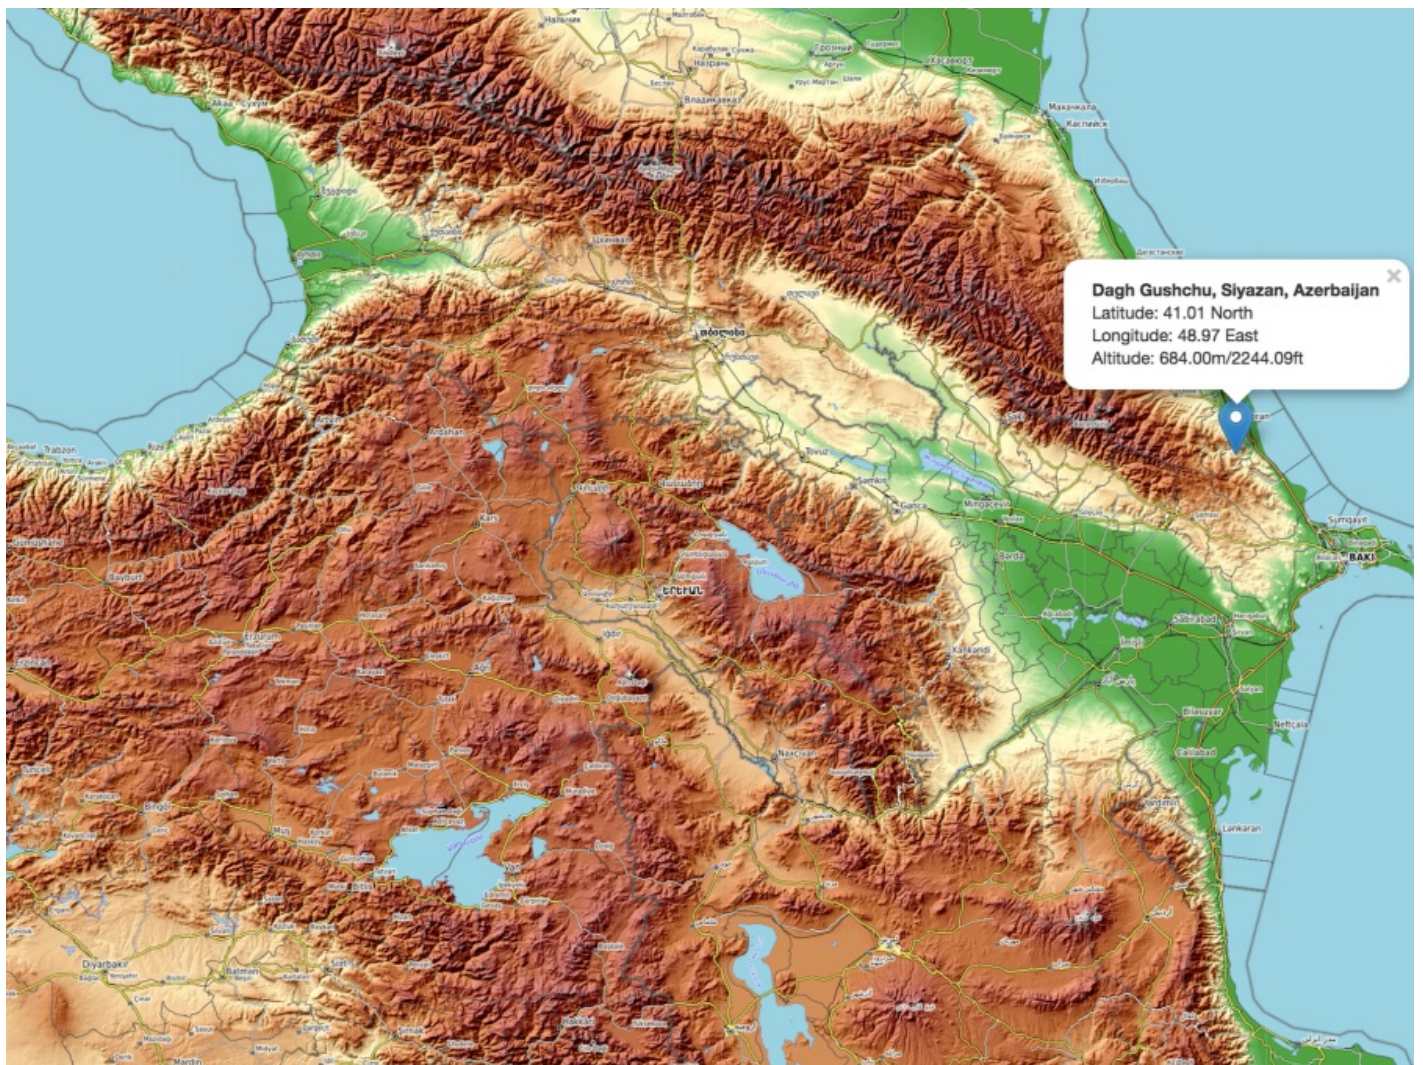

The name Gihon is from Strongs # 1518 primitive root to burst forth, just as it did near the anchor stones in Kazan, as I said previously.

Scriptures say as quoted above that this river Gihon flowed all through the land of Cush. If we look in Iran at the city of Tabriz, then go north west to the area near the town of Ahar in Iran, there is a mountain there called to this day Kusheh Dagh – the Mountain of Kush.

This next map shows you the actual Mountain named Dagh Gushchu. But I also wanted you to see the terrain of the mountains. The Mountains of Cush are at the eastern end of what is today known as the Caucasus Mountain range. The same ones that Israel fled through when the Persians were attacking them. They went through what is knoww as the Pass of Israel.

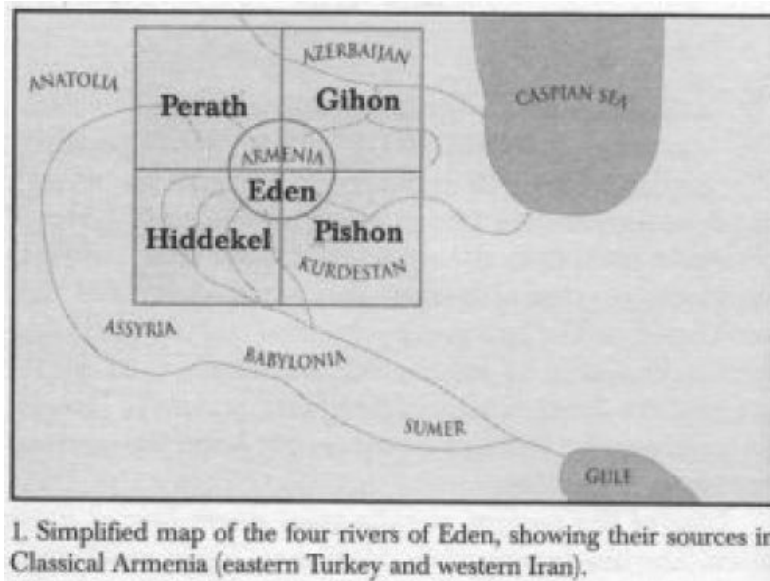

From this understanding, we can now learn that although many of Noah's family migrated to the west following the Euphrates River system, some such as Cush went east and settled here in these Mountains. It would be here that those things that Noah had taught would become perverted and twisted with those who would soon start to follow Nimrod, a mighty hunter of men.

We have now identified three of the four rivers mentioned that flowed out of Eden.

The fourth will be a little harder but once you see how languages evolve and names are changed, it should be very plain from then on.

Pishon from Strong's # 6376 from 6335 disperse – to spread. This is not much help.

We have the Euphrates in the North West corner. We have the Tigris in the southwest corner. We now have the Gihon located in the North East corner. Which leaves us looking for a river in the South East corner of Eden.

In the Hebrew language, the consonant P can be a vowel U in another language. Sh can change to s or z and o to u. What I am explaining here may seem far-fetched to those who are not accustomed to the variants of languages, but an example is found in the modern name of Pisdeli, a mound on the southern shore of Lake Urmia. This mound derives from the ancient Iranian toponym Ush or Uash which was in common use throughout the general region of southern Urmia. Recently discovered contemporary texts confirm that Pisdeli was ancient Uishteri (demonstrating the well-attested changes from t to d and r to l but, most importantly, also U to P.

When we apply those things just learned above we can take the name Pishon and arrive at the name Uizhun. P to U and sh to z and o to u. In a court of law, I would be said to be leading the witness here. But follow along.

There is a river in this southeast corner called Uizhun. It is also known as Kezel Uzun – meaning long gold. The ancient name Uizhun is of unknown meaning and has been colloquialized into the familiar Iranian word Uzun which means dark red or gold. This river on my atlas is called Owzan.

Now having established the four rivers that surround Eden we are directed to look in the east end of Eden to find a plain or plateau that is hedged in or protected by walls.

When you look on a map and see Tabriz in Iran you can clearly see the four rivers around this area but in the area of Tabriz, you can see high mountains that are on the north and south and converge south of the town of Ardabil east of Tabriz. Take a look at this Google map and zoom in and out to see the mountains around Tabriz. You can also use the map above to see the mountain region this is.

I also want to show you the mountains around Tabriz and then have you ponder why Yehovah said he made Adam of the dust of the ground.

Gen 2:7 And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living being.

The word “man” is Adam and is from this word.

H120 ‘a^da^m aw-dawm’

From H119; ruddy, that is, a humanbeing (an individual or the species, mankind, etc.): – X another, + hypocrite, + common sort, X low, man (mean, of low degree), person.

Now I would like you to look at the mountains near Tabriz and consider which type of clay Adam was made from.

Gen 2:5 When no bush of the field was yet in the land and no small plant of the field had yet sprung up—for the Lord God had not caused it to rain on the land, and there was no man to work the ground, and a mist was going up from the land and was watering the whole face of the ground— then the Lord God formed the man of dust from the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and the man became a living creature.

In the Center of Tabriz is a Garden with water and like the Taj Mahal, it is designed with Eden in mind with the four rivers in the four corners of the garden.

To the far east end of this garden there is a mountain pass here, which as most people know, a mountain pass is also known as a gate. Here then is the gate through which Adam and Eve were sent. And to the North East of this gate is today, the land of Noqdi, which is the land of Nod to where Cain went after he killed Able.

of the springs of the Gihon. Then look down to the right where the two highways form a "T" intersection to find the town Dogubeyazit. This is the town you are to stay in should you ever go to this part of the world.

Drawing a line from Kazan past Dogubeyazit on the south side until you come to the border of Iran and Turkey and just above that border is a village of Uzengili. This is where Noah's Ark is to this day. You can still see the ark from google earth. The purple dot is Uzengili and the to the right in the center is a blue building which is the Noah's Ark Museum and Tourist center. The outline of the ark is below this tourist center slightly to the right.

I have highlighted Uzengili on the next map for you. Also, find Tabriz in the middle near the bottom.

Tabriz is in the plain area of this Gan Eden which is EAST of EDEN. This plain area between the two mountain ranges which protect it also has a river which flows through it and down to Lake Urmia.

You can now see that the area of Noahs Ark and the Anchor Stones in Kazan are near the northwestern edge of Eden near Mt Ararat. The Eastern end where the Garden was and where the man was placed in the area of Tabriz.

On this next map, you can see Kazan and just south of it is Noah's Ark. In the Middle is Trbiz and this was where the Garden of Eden was. To the east or the right of Tabriz is a town called Ardabil. The road from Tabriz to Ardabil takes you through a Mountain Pass.

Outside this mountain pass, this eastern gate is Ardabil which used to be called Nod. The land of Nod is where Cain was exiled after he had murdered his brother Abel. The area is still today called Upper and Lower Noqdi and many villages bear the epithet Noqdi ('belonging to Nod'). In the same region, we find the town of Kheruabad. The name means 'settlement of the Kheru-people' and the Kheru were the Kerubim (Cherubs) of Genesis who protected the eastern entrance into Eden. You can read more details on this at https://sightedmoon.com/sightedmoon_2015/?page_id=26

The point of sharing this information with you was not only to show you where the Garden of Eden was, although for some this is interesting enough, but the point of this News Letter was also to show you the relationship between the Garden of Eden and the Temple.

Gen 2:8 And the Lord God planted a garden in Eden, in the east, and there he put the man whom he had formed. And out of the ground the Lord God made to spring up every tree that is pleasant to the sight and good for food. The tree of life was in the midst of the garden, and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

A river flowed out of Eden to water the garden, and there it divided and became four rivers.

We have just read that a river flowed out of Eden, now let's look at the other end of the Bible in the book of Revelation.

Revelation 22:1-5 And he showed me a river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding from the throne of God and of the Lamb. 2 In the middle of its street, and on either side of the river, was the tree of life, which bore twelve fruits, each tree yielding its fruit every month. The leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

Here we have a river that flows from the Throne of Yehovah. This is a very important point to remember. The river flows from under the Throne just as it did in the Garden of Eden.

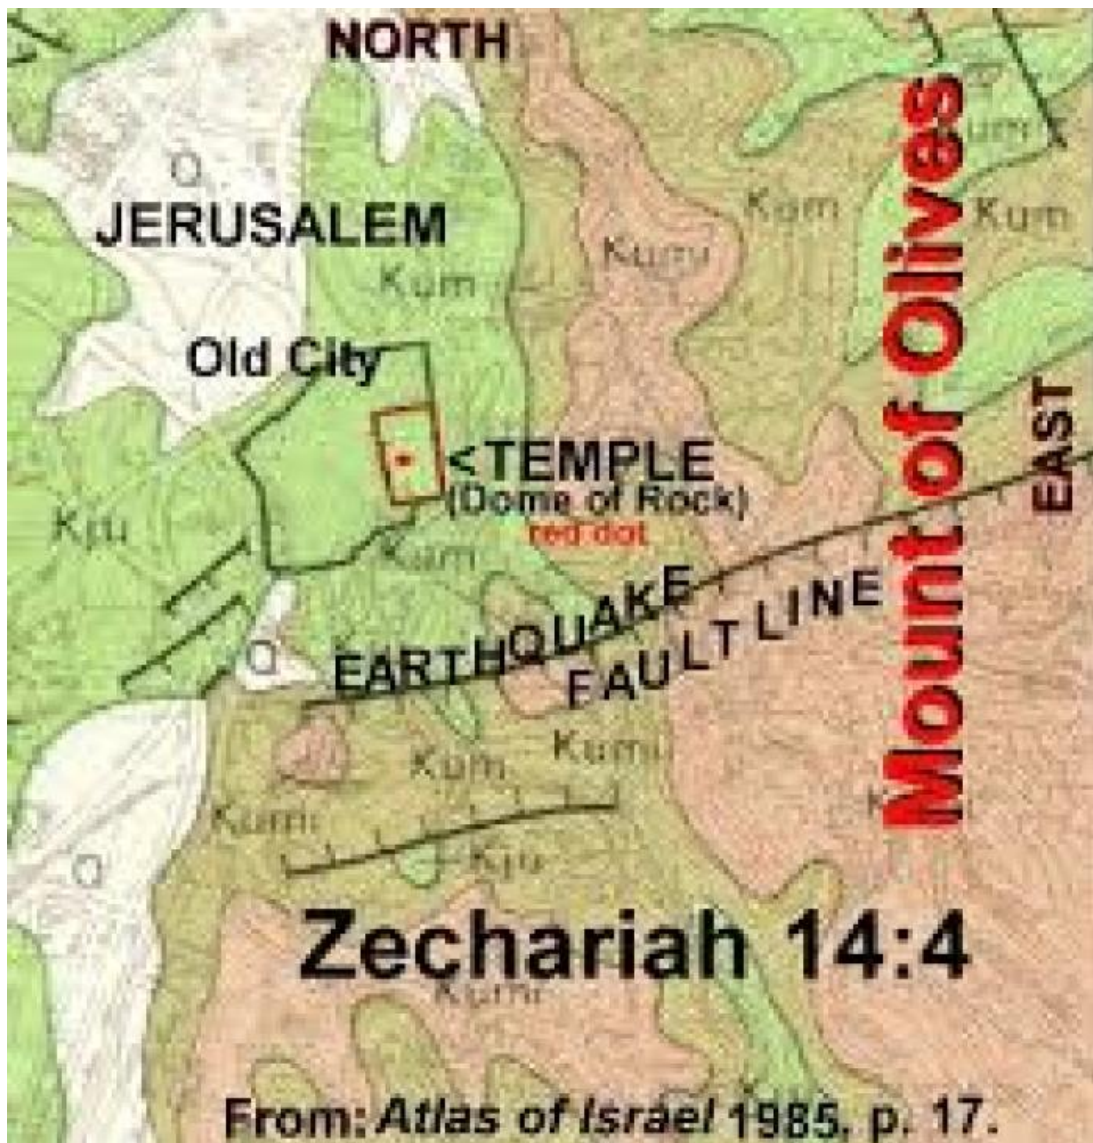

We read in

Ezekiel 47:1-12 1 Then he brought me back to the door of the temple; and there was water, flowing from under the threshold of the temple toward the east, for the front of the temple faced east; the water was flowing from under the right side of the temple, south of the altar. 2 He brought me out by way of the north gate, and led me around on the outside to the outer gateway that faces east; and there was water, running out on the right side. 3 And when the man went out to the east with the line in his hand, he measured one thousand cubits, and he brought me through the waters; the water came up to my ankles. 4 Again he measured one thousand and brought me through the waters; the water came up to my knees. Again he measured one thousand and brought me through; the water came up to my waist. 5 Again he measured one thousand, and it was a river that I could not cross; for the water was too deep, water in which one must swim, a river that could not be crossed. 6 He said to me, "Son of man, have you seen this?" Then he brought me and returned me to the bank of the river. 7 When I returned, there, along the bank of the river, were very many trees on one side and the other. 8 Then he said to me: "This water flows toward the eastern region, goes down into the valley, and enters the sea. When it reaches the sea, its waters are healed. 9 And it shall be that every living thing that moves, wherever the rivers go, will live. There will be a very great multitude of fish, because these waters go there; for they will be healed, and everything will live wherever the river goes. 10 It shall be that fishermen will stand by it from En Gedi to En Eglaim; they will be places for spreading their nets. Their fish will be of the same kinds as the fish of the Great Sea, exceedingly many. 11 But its swamps and marshes will not be healed; they will be given over to salt. 12 Along the bank of the river, on this side and that, will grow all kinds of trees used for food; their leaves will not wither, and their fruit will not fail. They will bear fruit every month, because their water flows from the sanctuary. Their fruit will be for food, and their leaves for medicine."

Again we have read that a river will flow from the Throne of Yehovah. His throne is to be in His temple and His Temple is to be in Jerusalem. The only place in Jerusalem where there was both a Temple at one time and a potential river is where the Gihon Spring gushes out of the ground. When the Temple was built by Solomon and then restored by Ezra and Nehemia, and the Temple again rebuilt by Herod, they all stood over top of the Gihon spring. It is the only spring for 5 miles in all of Jerusalem. It was around this spring that the Jebusites built their mighty fortification which David conquered. It was this same spring that Hezekiah stopped up and dug the tunnel to the WEST SIDE of the city of David.

But there is one catch. The Gihon Spring does not flow to the east.

Zechariah 14:1 Behold, a day is coming for the Lord, when the spoil taken from you will be divided in your midst. For I will gather all the nations against Jerusalem to battle, and the city shall be taken and the houses plundered and the women raped. Half of the city shall go out into exile, but the rest of the people shall not be cut off from the city. Then the Lord will go out and fight against those nations as when he fights on a day of battle. On that day his feet shall stand on the Mount of Olives that lies before Jerusalem on the east, and the Mount of Olives shall be split in two from east to west by a very wide valley, so that one half of the Mount shall move northward, and the other half southward. And you shall flee to the valley of my mountains, for the valley of the mountains shall reach to Azal. And you shall flee as you fled from the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah. Then the Lord my God will come, and all the holy ones with him.

For further reading on this subject I refer you to https://sightedmoon.com/sightedmoon_2015/?page_id=86 and as well, I urge you to buy the book The Temples that Jerusalem forgot at <http://www.askelm.com/index.asp>

This is must reading for any one who is planning on going to Israel.

Additional reading on the water and the Temple can be had at <http://www.askelm.com/temple/index.asp>

To the south of the temple and beside it but not touching the Temple was Davids Tomb. In his tomb was the excess gold precious metals brought for the building of the Temple. This too can be read or listened to at <http://www.askelm.com/temple/t061001.htm> This is connected to the Pishon which had much gold in it.

When we look at the temple we have to the most westerly section of the temple the Holy of Holies. Going to the east, the next room is the Sanctuary, Next is the priestly courtyard in which is the Sea of Bronze that Solomon built, as well as the Altar of Sacrifice. Continuing east is the Outer courtyard and then the Eastern gate. And beyond it the altar for the sin offerings outside the camp.

This is to represent Yehovah's temple in heaven. Yet the very first place on earth that represented His Throne was Eden. The resting place of Noah's ark was representative of Yeshua even to the point where the Ark was pierced in the side. And He now sits at the right-hand side on His throne. So where Noah's Ark now is in Eastern Turkey would have been near the representation of the Holy of Holies in the days of Adam and Eve.

On this next map, Kazan would represent the Holy of Holies area with Mount Ararat the green area to the right of Kazan. This is where Noah's Ark is found today.

The roadway leading to Maku represents the entrance from the Holy of Holies to the room where the Menorah, the Show Bread, and the Incense Altar would be found. That room is represented by this large valley area to the right of Maku. What the Menorah and Show and incense altar represent physically here I do not know. But my bucket list is to go to this area and spend a lot of time searching around.

Continuing down this road toward Tabriz then would take you out of the Temple Area and into the outer courtyard which is represented by the Garden of Eden. In that outer court year is the Great Sea that Solomon built and the sacrificial Altar.

The Sea of Urmia in Iran would represent the Bronze Sea that Solomon built. The garden area of Eden would be the Priestly court. This is the area of Tabriz or the Garden of Eden. Again to have the freedom and time to search this area physically and historically would be a wild dream come true.

Once you go through the eastern gate or the mountain pass, I would suspect that there will be a place of sacrifice on a mountain top just past the town of Kheruabad which represents the Cherubim. This place of sacrifice is the symbolic place where Yehshua was sacrificed upon the Mount of Olives directly east of the Eastern gate of the Temple on the east side of the Kidron valley. The Sin sacrifice had to be outside the camp of Israel. It was never done in the Temple area. This was where the Red Heifer was sacrificed. And I am forced to wonder if the Red has anything to do with the man, who is made from red clay.

It is out here past this Mountain pass that Adam and Eve would have sacrificed their sin offering to Yehovah after being put out of the Garden of Eden.

There is much more I could say, but I want to get your thoughts process going to see the bigger picture in some of the things we have been talking about.

If you want to read further I would suggest David Rohl's book called Legends which is a hard to get out of print book. I also recommend Ernest L Martins site <http://www.askelm.com/doctrine/d040301.htm>

This newsletter although simple in its description of Eden has been raised to a whole other level in the comparison of Eden to the Temple. It is by doing this that we learn new clues about Eden such as an Altar site east of the mountain pass. As well we learn of the gold that is buried beside the Temple when we read and understand that the river in the southeast flowed through a land rich in gold and precious metals. Just as Hezekiah's Tunnel now flows through King Davids Tomb with the unused gold from the Temple construction.

You may doubt this but Josephus himself tells us that King Herod entered the Tomb of David from the Kidron Valley and removed 30,000 talents of gold. Interesting indeed!

Yes, this is still conjectured on my part. Once these two are found then you'll know you read it here first. That is the gold and Davids Tomb and the Altar spot in Iran east of the moutnain pas..
