Shabbat Shalom Brethren,

Another person wrote in to tell me about how the Sabbath was changed because of the 10 days that were removed from the calendar and the many other calendar changes over history. This sort of conclusion comes from very poor research. So right now I would like to urge you all to go and read this article about Has Time Been lost so that when someone comes up to you and say it is impossible to know when the Sabbath is you will have an answer.

Why am I sharing with you each week the Sabbath and the start of the calendar and other information about how to keep the Holy and set apart times? Because the Sabbaths are your Wedding Ring.
