News Letter 5848-009

5th day of the 2nd month 5848 years after the creation of Adam
The 2nd Month in the Third year of the third Sabbatical Cycle
The Third Sabbatical Cycle of the 119th Jubilee Cycle
The Sabbatical Cycle of Earthquakes Famines, and Pestilences

April 28, 2012

Shabbat Shalom Brethren,

Let me ask you this? As I already made my case last week and will do so again here in a moment, 50,000 Ephraimites were killed by the Philistines 30 years before the Exodus. They had figured that the time to leave Egypt was then based on the 400 years prophecy given to Abraham about his descendant being persecuted in a land not their own. But they were mistaken and they all died.

30 years later along comes Moses and all those 10 plagues. What if the people said we have gone through this before and many died? We have had so many false teachers tell us things and now you come along.

We are not told about those who did not put blood on the doors except that the first born of all the Egyptians died. We are to assume all the Israelites did as they were told.

Contrary to this is the time when Jeremiah warned the people of Judah for 40 years to repent and return to Jehovah. They did not and they all died or were taken into captivity.

I have shared with you all the things I have learned and discovered. I do not claim to be Moses or Elijah or Jeremiah. I am just telling you what I have learned. At the same time I am teaching you about the Sabbatical and Jubilee years which no one else is teaching you. And because they do not study this awesome subject, they are not teaching you the timing of world events and the prophecies involved in these teachings.

I am not flamboyant or a great orator. I am just a guy who digs ditches during the day and reads my bible at night. I spend my own money to go to place where people want to learn more and I speak for about 9 hours and answer questions. I do all of this at my own expense and expect nothing in return. The things I have said that were to happen based on the Sabbatical and Jubilee years can be heard in the DVD and or read on my web site years before the actual event took place. Even so this past week with the announcement of Sudan going to war is another fulfilment of things I have warned you were coming in the step by step plan before Jerusalem is taken by the king of the North.

Yet even though I have correctly stated these things as revealed to me through the scriptures by Yehovah and not by my own intelligence to which I lack, yet even though there are many things that have come to pass, people still do not believe that the things that are still to come are correct or that they will not come because they hold on to their former Christian pagan views.

Many discount the past correct events and say we will wait and see if the next one happens or the one after that. We are coming down to the point where the next one is war!

Why did Judah not come back when Nehemiah told them they could? It was too hard. Too many obstacles and too many in opposition; and the fact that they had built up nice comfortable lives in Babylon. The same is true of us today, myself included, we have our routines and our homes and our extended families and our jobs and our bank accounts and so on and so forth. If we up and go then we have nothing and no security that this is going to work out and a host of what if's that crowd our minds.

We do not know what blessings Yehovah has in store for us if we go. And if we stay we will never know.

In the letter above Jim has said that although he might die by staying behind that this would be the thing to do to help those who might repent at the last minute and so on and so forth. Admirable words but in truth he and all of us are rebelling against the most High by not obeying and going home. And I say so respectfully as I completely understand what it is like to have to pull up stakes and go. No one in my family is for this and in fact they are dead set against it. This is a huge traumatic event in my house and the cause of many a battle. And many a lonely night and week and month as people in my own family refuse to talk to me or acknowledge I am even in the same room. Yes I know firsthand how hard this is. And yet even I have not gone to stay yet.

It does not change the fact that we are to return home.

I also understand that many do not have the money to do so; if they can get the money to get there they do not have the money to sustain themselves. I do not have all the answers. I wish I did, but the fact is I do not. Pray and ask Yehovah directly if this is what you are to do and if so then ask him to provide a way. Yehovah please help us all in this.

So I empathize and understand what many other have said and think about this. It does not change the facts; Your Father Yehovah wants you to come home.

Many believe that Yehshua is up in heaven making them a mansion to dwell in and that He will bring it with Him when He returns.

Is this correct?

Joh 14:1 "Let not your heart be troubled. Believe in Elohim, believe also in Me.

2 "In My Father's house are many staying places. And if not, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. 3 "And if I go and prepare a place for you, I shall come again and receive you to Myself, that where I am, you might be too. 4 "And where I go you know, and the way you know."

Yehshua is preparing a PLACE for you. What is this place? It is my strong belief that this PLACE is the Land of Israel.

Look what you are told right after the Exodus which took place at this time of year.

Exo 15:13 "In Your kindness You led the people whom You have redeemed, in Your strength You guided them to Your set-apart dwelling. 14 "Peoples heard, they trembled, anguish gripped the inhabitants of Philistia. 15 "Then the chiefs of Edom were troubled, the mighty men of Mo'ab, trembling grips them, all the inhabitants of Kenaan melted. 16 "Fear and dread fell on them, by the greatness of Your arm they are as silent as a stone, until Your people pass over, O Yehovah, until the people, whom You have bought, pass over. 17 "You bring them in and plant them in the mountain of Your inheritance, in the place, O Yehovah, which You have made for Your own dwelling, the set-apart place, O Yehovah, which Your hands have prepared.

Yehovah has led us to His Holy Dwelling PLACE. That PLACE is in the Land of Israel. The Promised Land. You are bought with a price. Did you not just read that here. You are bought, Redeemed and are to come to this PLACE.

Exo 23:20 "See, I am sending a Messenger before you to guard you in the way and to bring you into the place which I have prepared. 21 "Be on guard before Him and obey His voice. Do not rebel against Him, for He is not going to pardon your transgression, for My Name is in Him. 22 "But if you diligently obey His voice and shall do all that I speak, then I shall be an enemy to your enemies and a distresser to those who distress you. 23 "For My Messenger shall go before you and shall bring you in to the Amorites and the Hittites and the Perizzites and the Kenaanites and the Hiwwites and the Yebusites, and I shall cut them off. 24 "Do not bow down to their mighty ones, nor serve them, nor do according to their works, but without fail overthrow them and without fail break down their pillars. 25 "And you shall serve Yehovah your Elohim, and He shall bless your bread and your water. And I shall remove sickness from your midst. 26 "None shall miscarry or be barren in your land. I shall fill the number of your days. 27 "I shall send My fear before you, and cause confusion among all the people to whom you come, and make all your enemies turn their backs to you.

That word Messenger is H4397 ??? mal'ak mal-awk'

From an unused root meaning to despatch as a deputy; a messenger; specifically of God, that is, an angel (also a prophet, priest or teacher): – ambassador, angel, king, messenger.

Again we are told in Samuel that Yehovah will place us in the PLACE. He will place Israel in that place and right now only Judah is dwelling there, not Israel and not all 12 tribes.

2Sa 7:10 “And I shall appoint a place for My people Yisra’el, and shall plant them, and they shall dwell in a place of their own and no longer be afraid, neither shall the children of wickedness oppress them again, as at the first, 11 even from the day I appointed rulers over My people Yisra’el, and have caused you to rest from all your enemies. And Yehovah has declared to you that He would make you a house.

For some this PLACE is only going to be ready after they have been purified through the captivity that is coming which the Sabbatical and Jubilee years show us is coming right after the Sabbatical cycle of war which starts in 2017. The captivity cycle begins in 2024.

Amo 9:14 “And I shall turn back the captivity of My people Yisra’el. And they shall build the waste cities and inhabit them. And they shall plant vineyards and drink wine from them, and shall make gardens and eat their fruit. 15 “And I shall plant them on their own soil, and not uproot them any more from their own soil I have given them,” said Yehovah your Elohim!

Eze 39:23 “And the gentiles shall know that the house of Yisra’el went into exile for their crookedness, because they have trespassed against Me, so that I hid My face from them, and I gave them into the hand of their adversaries, and they all fell by the sword. 24 “According to their uncleanness and according to their transgressions I have dealt with them, and hidden My face from them.” ’ 25 “Therefore thus said the Master Yehovah, ‘Now I am going to bring back the captives of Ya’aqob. And I shall have compassion on all the house of Yisra’el, and shall be jealous for My set-apart Name. 26 ‘And they shall have borne their shame, and all their trespass they committed against Me, when they dwell safely in their own land, with none to make them afraid, 27 when I have brought them back from the peoples and gathered them out of the lands of their enemies. And I shall be set apart in them before the eyes of many gentiles. 28 ‘And they shall know that I am Yehovah their Elohim, who sent them into exile among the gentiles, and then gathered them back to their own land, and left none of them behind. 29 ‘And no longer do I hide My face from them, for I shall have poured out My Spirit on the house of Yisra’el,’ declares the Master Yehovah.”

There are two groups being spoken of here; One who obey and go back to the land early and another who go through the horror of captivity and only after this time of captivity will they be brought back to the Land, to the PLACE. Keep in mind this captivity is not just a year or two, it is as much as 14 for some and as little as 7 for others. It is not going to be fun for anyone at this time.

Isa 10:16 Therefore the Master, Yehovah of hosts, sends leanness among his fat ones. And under his esteem he kindles a burning like the burning of a fire. 17 And the Light of Yisra’el shall be for a fire, and his Set-apart One for a flame. And it shall burn and devour his weeds and his thornbushes in one day, 18 and consume the esteem of his forest and of his fertile field, both life and flesh. And they shall be as when a sick man wastes away, 19 and the remaining trees of his forest shall be so few in number that a child records them. 20 And in that day it shall be that the remnant of Yisra’el, and those who have escaped of the house of Ya’aqob, never again lean upon him who defeated them, but shall lean upon Yehovah, the Set-apart One of Yisra’el, in truth. 21 A remnant shall return, the remnant of Ya’aqob, to the Mighty El. 22 For though your people, O Yisra'el, be as the sand of the sea, yet a remnant of them shall return – a decisive end, overflowing with righteousness. 23 For the Master Yehovah of hosts is making a complete end, as decided, in the midst of all the earth. 24 Therefore thus said the Master Yehovah of hosts, “My people, who dwell in Tsiyon, be not afraid of Ashshur, who beats you with a rod and lifts up his staff against you, in the way of Mitsrayim. 25 “For yet a little while and the displeasure shall be completed, and My displeasure be to their destruction.” 26 And Yehovah of hosts stirs up a lash for him as the smiting of Midyan at the rock of Or'b?. And as His rod was on the sea, so shall He lift it up in the way of Mitsrayim. 27 And in that day it shall be that his burden is removed from your shoulder, and his yoke from your neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing oil.

Did you see it? Yehovah says to those dwelling in Zion not to be afraid of the German forces attacking. These people are in Israel at this time of his attack which is to come between 2013 and 2020.

The second group has to go through the captivity.

Isa 11:10 And in that day there shall be a Root of Yishai, standing as a banner to the people. Unto Him the gentiles<sup>1</sup> shall seek, and His rest shall be esteem. Footnote: 1Or nations. 11 And it shall be in that day that Yehovah sets His hand again a second time to recover the remnant of His people who are left, from Ashshur and from Mitsrayim, from Pathros and from Kush, from Eylam and from Shinar, from Hamath and from the islands of the sea. 12 And He shall raise a banner for the nations, and gather the outcasts of Yisra'el, and assemble the dispersed of Yehud'ah from the four corners of the earth. 13 And the envy of Ephrayim shall turn aside, and the adversaries of Yehud'ah be cut off. Ephrayim shall not envy Yehud'ah, and Yehud'ah not trouble Ephrayim. 14 But they shall fly down upon the shoulder of the Philistines toward the west; together they plunder the people of the east, their hand stretching forth on Edom and Mo'ab, and the children of Ammon shall be subject to them. 15 And Yehovah shall put under the ban the tongue of the Sea of Mitsrayim, and He shall wave His hand over the River with the might of His Spirit, and shall smite it in the seven streams, and shall cause men to tread it in sandals. 16 And there shall be a highway for the remnant of His people, those left from Ashshur, as it was for Yisra'el in the day when he came up from the land of Mitsrayim.

These people are captives in the land of Ashshur (Germany) and Mitsrayim (Egypt) , Pathos (Upper Egypt) and Kush( Lower Egypt and Sudan today), Eylam (Iran and Iraq area) and Shin'ar (Iraq and Syria Area), from H'amath (Near Damascus in Syria) and from the islands of the sea.

And also notice what Jeremiah says. But pay attention to the part that says “Each one”. Is this not referring to both Judah and Israel; Both in their own stubbornness walking their own walk and not the walk of Torah Obedient to Yehovah? Yes I am reading into this what is not their but it is both houses that go into captivity together. Hosea 5:5 and they will come out together in the greater Exodus spoken of here in Jeremiah.

Jer 16:10 “And it shall be, when you declare to this people all these words, and they shall say to you, ‘Why has Yehovah pronounced all this great evil against us? And what is our crookedness, and what is our sin that we have committed against Yehovah our Elohim 11 then you shall say to them, 'Because your fathers have forsaken Me,' declares Yehovah, 'and have walked after other mighty ones and served them and bowed themselves to them, and have forsaken Me, and did not guard My Torah. 12 'And you have done more evil than your fathers, for look, each one walks according to the stubbornness of his own evil heart, without listening to Me. 13 'So I shall throw you out of this land into a land that you do not know, neither you nor your fathers. And there you shall serve other mighty ones day and night, where I show you no favour.' 14 "Therefore see, the days are coming," declares Yehovah, "when it is no longer said, 'Yehovah lives who brought up the children of Yisra'el from the land of Mitsrayim,' 15 but, 'Yehovah lives who brought up the children of Yisra'el from the land of the north and from all the lands where He had driven them.' For I shall bring them back into their land I gave to their fathers. 16 "See, I am sending for many fishermen," declares Yehovah, "and they shall fish them. And after that I shall send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain and every hill, and out of the holes of the rocks.

This second greater Exodus is the result of those who would not repent and obey. You have a choice right now. You can repent and begin to keep Torah including the Sabbath from Sunset to Sunset on Friday evening and Saturdays; you can keep the Holy Days of Lev 23 and add nothing to them nor take anything from them. And you can begin to keep the Sabbatical years when they come; If not then plan on the captivity and who knows if you will survive it. Again look at the places where the captives will be going to and consider the life you will be living under sharia law.

And those who are keeping Torah will be brought back into the land as we are told in Ezekiel 20;

Eze 20:15 "And I Myself also lifted My hand in an oath to them in the wilderness, not to bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, the splendour of all lands, 16 because they rejected My right-rulings and did not walk in My laws, and they profaned My Sabbaths. For their heart went after their idols. 17 "And My eye pardoned them, from destroying them. And I did not make an end of them in the wilderness. 18 "And I said to their children in the wilderness, 'Do not walk in the laws of your fathers, nor observe their rulings, nor defile yourselves with their idols. 19 'I am Yehovah your Elohim. Walk in My laws, and guard My right-rulings, and do them. 20 'And set apart My Sabbaths, and they shall be a sign between Me and you, to know that I am Yehovah your Elohim.' 21 "But the children rebelled against Me. They did not walk in My laws, and My right-rulings they did not guard to do them, which, if a man does, he shall live by them. They profaned My Sabbaths, so I resolved to pour out My wrath on them to complete My displeasure against them in the wilderness. 22 "But I held back My hand and acted for My Name's sake, not to profane it before the eyes of the gentiles, before whose eyes I had brought them out. 23 "Also, I Myself lifted My hand in an oath to those in the wilderness, to scatter them among the gentiles and disperse them throughout the lands, 24 because they had not done My right-rulings, and they rejected My laws, and they profaned My Sabbaths, and their eyes were on their fathers' idols. 25 "And I also gave them up to laws that were not good, and right-rulings by which they would not live<sup>1</sup>. Footnote: 1Ps. 81:12, Isa. 30:28, Acts 7:42, Rom. 1:24-28, 2 Thess. 2:11. 26 “And I defiled them by their own gifts, as they passed all their first-born through the fire, so that I might stun them, so that they know that I am Yehovah.” ’ 27 “Therefore, son of man, speak to the house of Yisra’el, and you shall say to them, ‘Thus said the Master Yehovah, “In this your fathers have further reviled Me, by committing trespass against Me. 28 “When I brought them into the land for which I had lifted My hand in an oath to give them, and they saw all the high hills and all the thick trees, they offered their slaughterings there and provoked Me with their offerings there. And they sent up their sweet fragrance there and poured out their drink offerings there. 29 “And I said to them, ‘What is this high place to which you go?’ So its name is called High Place to this day.” ’ 30 “Therefore say to the house of Yisra’el, ‘Thus said the Master Yehovah, “Are you defiling yourselves in the way of your fathers? And do you whore after their abominations? 31 “For when you lift up your gifts and make your sons pass through the fire, you defile yourselves with all your idols, even to this day. And shall I be inquired of by you, O house of Yisra’el? As I live,” declares the Master Yehovah, “I am not being inquired of by you. 32 “And what comes up in your spirit shall never be, when you say, ‘Let us be like the gentiles, like the tribes in other lands, serving wood and stone.’ 33 “As I live,” declares the Master Yehovah, “do not I, with a mighty hand, with an outstretched arm, and with wrath poured out, reign over you? 34 “And I shall bring you out from the peoples and gather you out of the lands where you are scattered, with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with wrath poured out. 35 “And I shall bring you into the wilderness of the peoples, and shall enter into judgment with you face to face there. 36 “As I entered into judgment with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Mitsrayim, so I shall enter into judgment with you,” declares the Master Yehovah. 37 “And I shall make you pass under the rod, and shall bring you into the bond of the covenant, 38 and purge the rebels from among you, and those who transgress against Me. From the land where they sojourn I bring them out, but they shall not come into the land of Yisra’el. And you shall know that I am Yehovah. 39 “As for you, O house of Yisra’el,” thus said the Master Yehovah, “Go, serve each of you his idols, and afterwards, if you are not listening to Me. But do not profane My set-apart Name any more with your gifts and your idols. 40 “For on My set-apart mountain, on the mountain height of Yisra’el,” declares the Master Yehovah, “there all the house of Yisra’el, all of them in the land, shall serve Me. There I shall accept them, and there I shall require your offerings and the first-fruits of your offerings, together with all your set-apart gifts. 41 “As a sweet fragrance I shall accept you when I bring you out from the peoples. And I shall gather you out of the lands where you have been scattered. And I shall be set-apart in you before the gentiles. 42 “And you shall know that I am Yehovah, when I bring you into the land of Yisra’el, into the land for which I lifted My hand in an oath to give to your fathers. 43 “And there you shall remember your ways and all your deeds with which you were defiled. And you shall loathe yourselves in your own sight because of all the evils that you did. 44 “And you shall know that I am Yehovah, when I have dealt with you for My Name’s sake, not according to your evil ways nor according to your corrupt deeds, O house of Yisra’el,” declares the Master Yehovah.’ ” Again I must remind you who this ROD is that Yehovah has mentioned a few times.

It is Assyria who are today known as the German people.

Isa 10:5 “Woe to Ashshur, the rod of My displeasure and the staff in whose hand is My displeasure. 6 “Against a defiled nation I send him, and against the people of My wrath I command him to seize the spoil, to take the prey, and to tread them down like the mud of the streets.

Again I ask you all to consider helping make this farm in the PLACE come together just as the women in Proverbs bought a field to look after her family, we Israel need to buy and prepare food for our brethren and to keep them safe during this soon coming trial on the world which will revolve around Jerusalem. Keep the torah and the Set Apart times and He will protect and bless us in that PLACE. His PLACE He has prepared for us; those who keep and guard His commands.

Or you can wait and be taken possibly during the war and sent to the captivity where starvation and cannibalism and sickness decapitation and rape will rule.

But some of you are still saying yeah butt.

I am not bragging here but let me list those events that I have spoken of before they became News Stories. All this information I have gained comes from understanding the Sabbatical and Jubilee year cycles and how certain events in history, and in particular the events of Abraham , Isaac, Jacob, and Joseph’s life cycles foretold of specific events. These are revealed by Yehovah and not by any one man.

We warned you of the coming debt crisis from 2005 until March 2008 when we made the DVD.

We warned you of the growing severe weather trends; more of them and greater in severity.

We warned you of the fall of Libya and the rise of Arab power.

We warned you of the growing food shortages and famine.

We warned you of the danger of the coming pestilences.

We warned you of the Uniting of Europe with the Arab nations, in particular Germany.

We warned you of the war that was to come in Sudan and what it means to Israel.

And we have other warnings we have shared with you that we wait for, which come at a specific time.

Last week we had two huge news events take place. We will share with you the scriptures we were using to teach you about this event and then the actual news item. You be the judge as to whether or not we might be on to something which would then add weight to those things we say are still coming.

We have been teaching about;

Dan 11:40 And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over. 41 He shall enter also into the glorious land, and many countries shall be overthrown: but these shall escape out of his hand, even Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon. 42 He shall stretch forth his hand also upon the countries: and the land of Egypt shall not escape. 43 But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt: and the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall be at his steps.

This is one set of scriptures we were able to use to know that Libya and then Sudan would fall to the king of the North. His name today in the News is not King of the North but NATO. But Sudan has not fallen to anyone yet, you'll say.

In the News Last week was the declaration of war on South Christian Sudan by the Northern Arab Sudan. <http://theextinctionprotocol.wordpress.com/2012/04/19/sudan-declares-war-on-south-sudan-will-this-draw-in-east-africa-and-china/>

Here is another article about the fighting in Sudan.

<http://theextinctionprotocol.wordpress.com/2012/04/21/it-begins-again-south-sudansoil-facility-bombed-by-sudan/>

IN my teachings about the Prophecies of Abraham I explain how this is going to take place. That is the invasion from the King of the North, under their current name NATO.

The poor Christians will be killed and abused by the Northern Muslim Sudanese as they fight over the oil. The Pope will want to help protect the Christian populations and ask NATO for help. NATO will come in and defeat the northern Sudanese to help prevent another Darfur. Here is a report from the Popes Vatican Radio station about the abuses in Sudan right now.

<http://www.radiovaticana.org/in2/Articolo.asp?c=571386> (March 14, 2012) The government of Sudan, an overwhelmingly Muslim nation, has stripped between 500,000 and 700,000 Christians of their citizenship and ordered them to leave for the new nation of South Sudan, according to a report from Ecumenical News International – ENI. Two million lost their lives in the long Sudanese civil war from 1983 to 2005 between the Muslim north and the largely animist and Christian south.

<http://www.catholicherald.co.uk/news/2012/01/09/pope-condemns-persecution-ofchristians/>

Pope Benedict XVI has condemned “religiously motivated terrorism” and restrictions on religious freedom during his annual address to diplomats accredited to the Vatican.

The Pope expressed his hopes for an end to bloodshed and tensions in South Sudan, Syria, the Holy Land, Iraq and the Great Lakes region of Africa, and urged the nations of the world to take seriously their obligation to protect the environment and fight climate change.

Saying he was looking particularly toward developed western nations, Pope Benedict urged governments to protect the most basic human right – the right to life.

The Pope then concluded his address by stating the following which for those of you who understand is in support of Agenda 21 from the UN;

Turning his attention to the environment, the Pope said people cannot ignore the natural calamities and “ecological disasters like that of the Fukushima nuclear plant in Japan” that marked 2011.

“Environmental protection and the connection between fighting poverty and fighting climate change are important areas for the promotion of integral human development,” he said. The Pope asked governments to demonstrate “a great sense of solidarity and responsibility toward present and future generations” as they prepare for the UN Conference on Sustainable Development, which will be held on June 20 to 22 in Rio de Janeiro.

But the real reason for Europe going to war is to capture the Sudanese Oil Fields both in the North and the South and to have them shipped to Europe. The Christian South control 80% of the oil of Sudan. Also by controlling the Sudan NATO can control the Red Sea Strait where around 8% of global sea-borne trade passes through the Suez Canal. Also about 5.5 percent of the world output of Oil passes by here on its way to Europe and North America.

So this area is of extreme strategic importance to those who control it and to those who need the oil to pass through unhindered.

This war that takes Sudan is the lead up to the invasion of Egypt and Israel by the King of the North. This all might take place at the same time on all three nations.

We next have been telling you about Germany being converted to Islam from its current Christian position.

We based this understanding upon Dan 11:37 and have no regard for the mighty ones of his fathers nor for the desire of women, nor have regard for any mighty one, but exalt himself above them all.

Dan 11:38 “But in his place he shall give esteem to a mighty one of strongholds. And to a mighty one which his fathers did not know he shall give esteem with gold and silver, with precious stones and costly gifts.

Dan 11:39 “And he shall act against the strongest strongholds with a foreign mighty one, which he shall acknowledge. He shall increase in esteem and cause them to rule over many, and divide the land for gain.

This god of strongholds, this god of fortresses is none other than Cybele. The mitre on the head of the goddess Cybele is striking similarity to the ‘fish head’ of the God Dagon. The Great Goddess of Asia Minor is the oldest true Goddess known, Cybele was worshipped in Rome and was also called the “Magna Mater”, or the great queen mother goddess, which evolved into Catholic Mariology. The worship of Mary, the Queen of Heaven.

Like Gaia or her Minoan equivalent Rhea, Cybele embodies the fertile earth, a goddess of caverns and mountains, walls and fortresses, nature, wild animals (especially lions and bees).

It was Nimrod's wife Semiramis who built the great Brick wall around Babylon and its famous hanging gardens. Semiramis was also known as the god of fortresses and Cybele. She is depicted with a turret on her head which is like the round portions you see on castles.

We have been telling you that Germany will lead up this King of the North and is known as the Beast. The woman that rides this beast in mythology is Europa and is also known as Semiramis and is also known as Cybele and Mary the Queen of Heaven.

So Europe led by Germany will come to power under the ruler ship of the Catholic faith. But we are also told of something else.

At some point Germany will turn to worship a god his fathers did not know. Allah only came on the scene in 700 C.E. a mere 1300 years ago. And Germany will turn to this god that Europe will follow in the very near future.

So it does not surprise us to read the following news item of last week although it did excite us to see it happening.

As you can see world changing events as told to us in our bible are taking place right in front of us.

Germany: A Koran in Every Household

<http://www.gatestoneinstitute.org/>

Islamic radicals in Germany have launched an unprecedented nationwide campaign to distribute 25 million copies of the Koran, translated into the German language, with the goal of placing one Koran into every household in Germany, free of charge.

The mass proselytization campaign — called Project “Read!” — is being organized by dozens of Islamic Salafist groups located in cities and towns throughout Germany, as well as in Austria and in Switzerland.

Salafism is a branch of radical Islam, practiced in Saudi Arabia, that seeks to establish an Islamic empire (Caliphate) across the Middle East, North Africa and Europe — and eventually the entire world. The Caliphate would be governed exclusively by Islamic Sharia law, which would apply both to Muslims and to non-Muslims.

Salafists also believe, among other anti-Western doctrines, that democracy, because it is a man-made form of government, must be destroyed.

Although Germany's domestic intelligence agency, the Bundesamt für Verfassungsschutz (BfV), regards the Salafist groups as a threat to German security, Salafists have free reign in the country, and Salafist preachers are known regularly to preach hatred against the West in mosques and prayer centers that are proliferating across Germany.

The campaign to place a Koran in every German household is being spearheaded by a Rheinland-based Salafist, Ibrahim Abou-Nagie, a Palestinian preacher of hate, who leads a radical Islamic group called “The True Religion” (“Die Wahre Religion”).

There is other news that you also need to be aware of that is happening right now.

It is the Syrian crisis. What is going on there? And how is it important to us to know.

Psalm 83 is fulfilled according to the Prophecies of Abraham in 2019 after a Germany-led Europe conquers Iran and radical Islam (Daniel 11:40-43).

(Psalm 83:1-3). Psa 83:1 O Elohim, do not remain silent! Do not be speechless, And do not be still, O ?!! 2 For look, Your enemies make an uproar, And those hating You have lifted up their head. 3 They craftily plot against Your people, And conspire against Your treasured ones.

These hidden ones or treasured ones, I believe to be the Saints. Israel is the USA and UK and her common wealth as well as the State of Israel.

We see terrifying events all around the world, and they are intensifying

“They have said, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation; that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance” (Psalm 83:4).

Has this not been in the news a lot this past year or two. They want to kill the great Satan, which is the USA and UK and then the little Satan which is the State of Israel.

These peoples’ enemies want to cut them off from being a nation (they are the descendants of the ancient nation of Israel). Their enemies don’t even want the world to remember the name of Israel!

The leader of Iran, Mahmoud Ahmadinejad, has vowed to wipe the Jewish nation off the map. The enemies of Psalm 83 have what appears to be an even deeper hatred. They even want to obliterate the biblical name of Israel forever!

This prophecy gives us an insight into what is coming in the very near future: Yehovah is going to punish these three nations of Israel more severely than at any time in their history, because of all their “abominations.”

Who Is In the Alliance?

“For they have consulted together with one consent: they are confederate against thee: The tabernacles of Edom, and the Ishmaelites; of Moab, and the Hagarenes; Gebal, and Ammon, and Amalek; the Philistines with the inhabitants of Tyre [Lebanon]; Assur [Assyria or Germany] also is joined with them: they have holpen the children of Lot. Selah” (Psalm 83:5-8). Here are the modern names of these nations; Edom—Turkey; Ishmaelites—Saudi Arabia; Moab—Jordan; Hagarenes—anciently dwelt in the land known as Syria today; Gebal—Lebanon; Ammon—also Jordan. (We cannot be extremely precise in this understanding, but it gives a good general idea of where these nations are today.)

Remember this: Yehovah inspired these names to be included in the Bible so we could know who they are and how this prophecy would unfold today! If we can't understand who these nations are, we can't understand the 83rd Psalm. You are expected us to understand!

Iraq, Iran, Egypt, Libya and Sudan are missing from this list. They will be allied with Iran when they are conquered by a German-led Europe (Daniel 11:42-43).

It appears Iraq, with its massive oil reserves, will be solidly in the Iranian camp.

Assur was the father of Assyria, which is the ancient name of Germany.

Psalm 83 tells us the nations that will not be allied with Iran when Germany and Europe conquer that nation and radical Islam.

There has never been such an alliance to attack or totally destroy Israel in history. Concerning this Psalm, the Anchor Bible reads, "History transmits no record of the national crisis when the nations enumerated in this Psalm formed a league to wipe out Israel ...." Lange's Commentary points out, "The 10 nations who are here enumerated as being combined against Israel, are never mentioned elsewhere as enemies allied at the same time and for the purpose of annihilating Israel." Other commentaries make the same point.

This must be an end-time prophecy!

Most of the Muslims were allied with Germany in World War II. They knew what Hitler was doing to the Jews, and we know the way many Muslims feel toward the Jews today. Since America and Britain support the Jews, it is not difficult to envision the Muslims and Germans allying against these two nations.

This means that the Germans have already turned politically toward their Nazi past. But they are going to swing even further to the right than they did during World War II!

This world needs to watch Germany.

The moderate Arabs today are going to share that hate-filled philosophy with Germany.

Still, Yehovah is using these nations to accomplish His plan—a big part of it being the correction of the three nations of Israel.

We must not forget that Germany started World Wars I and II. It also has a history of starting many other wars. History keeps repeating itself because we never learn its lessons!

Back in July 2010 we read about this: "The Kuwaiti Emir Sheikh Sabah Al-Ahmad Al-Sabah toured Europe in late April and early May, concentrating on developing closer relations with Berlin and the Roman Catholic Church.

"During his meeting with German Chancellor Angela Merkel and German businessmen on April 28, he is reported to have discussed ‘a host of bilateral relations that would cement partnership between Kuwait and Berlin’ (Kuwait Times, April 28). A Catholic official said his trip to the Vatican would enable the emir and the pope to ‘express their appreciation and friendship’ and to strengthen the ‘good relations that exist between the Holy See and Kuwait.’”

This is a powerful example of how Psalm 83 is being fulfilled even now! Such meetings are preparing the two sides to form the Psalm 83 alliance.

In April 2010; “For some time, France had limited Germany’s effort in producing warships by stifling plans for a joint Franco-German effort to create a common European shipbuilding enterprise. The typical (and no doubt strategically motivated) French defiance over this deal led to a crisis. This spurred one of the German companies involved, ThyssenKrupp, to ‘renounce civilian ship production to concentrate its dockyards solely on arms production. It is entering a “strategic partnership” with the Abu Dhabi Mar Co. from the United Arab Emirates (uae). Their deal seals the military alliance between Germany and the Emirates, possibly creating the opportunity for circumventing German arms exports regulations and ending efforts aimed at forging a German/French ship production ...’ (German-Foreign-Policy.com, Oct. 26, 2009). As German-Foreign-Policy.com observed, this just goes to show that ‘If a German dominated “European solution” cannot be accomplished, Berlin will do without “Europe” and go it alone.’”

Not many people notice how powerfully aggressive Germany is becoming. This example helps illustrate how Germany dominates Europe today!

Here is an even more recent statement about Germany’s close relationship with another moderate Arab state: “Germany has supplied Bahrain with naval patrol boats dating back to the time the Middle East was destabilized by the deposing of the shah of Iran. In more recent years, German arms exports to Bahrain have been stepped up, especially arms of a type traditionally used to put down insurrection. It is from this stock of armaments that Bahrain has drawn for deployment against the Shiite rebels in recent days” (theTrumpet.com, March 21).

On February 22, German-Foreign-Policy.com reported on rumors that Rheinmetall, the German armaments giant, is bidding on a contract for the further provision to Bahrain of “combat material specifically deemed for the suppression of rebellions.”

These tiny oil-rich nations discussed above are geographically attached to the southeast part of the huge land area of Saudi Arabia. We believe they are also Ishmaelites and from a biblical perspective would be considered a part of Saudi Arabia—regardless of their modern boundaries. The main issue is that Germany is building an alliance now with the moderate Arabs that is paving the way for the Psalm 83 prophecy to be fulfilled.

Saudi Arabia is also drawing closer to Germany to enhance its own security against Iran as America gets weaker and continues to withdraw from the Middle East.

But did you notice it? Did you see it? Hagarenes—anciently dwelt in the land known as Syria today.

The Syrians will be part of this alliance.

Did you also notice this? Iraq, Iran, Egypt, Libya and Ethiopia are missing from this list. They will be allied with Iran when they are conquered by a German-led Europe (Daniel 11:42-43).

We have been warning you about the invasion of Libya by NATO, the king of the North of which Germany is a part of. Now Sudan is going to go to war. Both Libya and Sudan have much needed oil and strategic access to important water ways. And Egypt is also strategic for the Suez Cannel.

Now read Isaiah;

Isa 20:3 And Yehovah said, "As My servant Yeshayahu has walked naked and barefoot three years for a sign and a wonder against Mitsrayim and Kush,

Isa 20:4 so does the sovereign of Ashshur lead away the captives of Mitsrayim and the exiles of Kush, young and old, naked and barefoot, with their buttocks uncovered – the shame of Mitsrayim.

Assyria, Germany will lead away the Egyptians and the Sudanese naked as prisoners of war when he comes down according to the Prophecies of Abraham in 2013. And at this same time he will invade the Holy Land and exclaim Peace, Peace when there is no peace.

In order for Syria not to be a part of this captivity they must switch sides from the current position of Iran and being a puppet for Iran, to being led by German or NATO forces against Iran.

Such is the destabilization process now taking place in Syria to oust President Bashar al Assad.

Will Germany Intervene in Syria?

April 21, 2012 by Brad
MacDonald

Early last year, as the West was gearing up to intervene militarily in the overthrow of Libyan dictator Muammar Qadhafi, Germany made it clear it wanted no part. In March, when America, England, France and a host of other states passed UN Resolution 1973 sanctioning NATO intervention in Libya, Germany joined Russia and China in abstaining from the vote.

Germany refused to participate because it believed military action would result in too much violence and bloodshed. "Any military operation brings civilian victims," explained Foreign Minister Guido Westerwelle. Chancellor Angela Merkel echoed those remarks in her explanation of Germany's non-participation. Berlin's primary concern, the world was told, was that nato intervention would produce too many civilian casualties.

Keep this in mind as you read on.

Last month, German-Foreign-Policy.com reported that "government advisers in Berlin are debating war scenarios for a possible Western military intervention in Syria" (March 6). Citing reports from the German Institute for International and Security Affairs (swp), an influential think tank that advises the Bundestag and the German government on foreign policy, German Foreign-Policy.com reported on the growing discussion in Germany over the need for foreign military intervention in Syria, and the need for Berlin to play a leadership role.

The swp says Syria is descending into a full-scale civil war. This, according to some experts, would undoubtedly demand foreign military intervention.

According to the swp's director of the Security Policy Research Group, "Even though 'all Western countries show basic signs of war fatigue,' their 'readiness' to go to war could be 'reactivated' if the humanitarian situation deteriorates—as the West's interventionist mood has shown during the war on Libya" (ibid).

This week, German-Foreign-Policy.com cited a German government adviser stating that in the event of military intervention in Syria, "German participation should be assured."

Note the dichotomy. In Libya, the likelihood that military intervention would worsen the humanitarian crisis was reason for Germany refraining from military action. But in Syria, a nation currently experiencing a humanitarian crisis that would certainly intensify in the event of foreign intervention, Germany favors military action.

According to German-Foreign-Policy.com, the swp has already outlined five scenarios for Western military intervention in Syria. Among them are the deployment of Western special forces to arm and train Syrian protesters and militias; the forced establishment of "safe zones," areas controlled by foreign troops where Syrian refugees can seek protection and opposition forces can plan assaults; and all-out military assault.

In a recent article at Internationale Politik, swp director of security policy Markus Kaim explained the dilemma facing the United States and Europe. If the ceasefire breaks and civil war continues, the West must either accept "the limits of [its] influence on the Syrian regime"—an improbable admission of Western weakness—or weigh "the options for military engagement to contain the conflict with all the associated risks."

This is not to suggest Germany plans to dispatch troops to Syria this week. In fact, the public stance reiterated by Germany's foreign minister is that Berlin does not support military intervention in Syria. But this discussion in Berlin— especially the debate about military strategy and tactics by influential advisers to the government—is evidence that Berlin is keeping an attentive eye on Syria. This is especially noteworthy when you consider Germany's comparative apathy over Libya's revolution.

Why does Germany appear so much more engaged with Syria than it ever was with Libya?

Earlier this month, Germany was a key participant, along with the U.S. and Saudi Arabia and other Gulf states, at a gathering in Turkey to discuss options for dealing with Syria's revolution. Foreign Minister Westerwelle announced there that Germany would join the U.S. and double its humanitarian contributions to Syria. In its report on the pledge by the Istanbul coalition to "provide funding and communications equipment to Syrian rebels and opposition activists," the Associated Press noted that this reflected a “shift toward military options that might oust Syrian President Bashar Assad” (emphasis added).

Together with America, Britain and France, Germany has also established a naval presence off the coast of Syria and Lebanon.

Again, why does Berlin appear substantially more interested in the crisis in Syria than it was with Libya? Because overthrowing the pro-Iranian, anti-Western Assad regime meshes with Berlin’s larger geopolitical and strategic ambitions for the Middle East! As Karsten D. Voigt, the German government’s former coordinator of German-American cooperation, recently explained, the tension between the West and Syria and its international allies is not about “human rights versus dictatorship”—it’s about “geostrategic interests.”

One of Germany’s primary aims in the Middle East is to develop an axis with Middle Eastern states that oppose Iran.

This explains why Germany has for years been stepping up its political, financial and military investment in countries such as Saudi Arabia, the Gulf states, Turkey, Lebanon and Jordan.

Berlin has formed solid trade relationships with virtually all these countries, covering every industry from telecommunications to the military. A recent European Commission summary report, for example, showed that the EU, led by Germany, was the world’s largest exporter of weapons to Saudi Arabia and that in 2010 EU member states delivered at least €3.3 billion (us$4.34 billion) worth of military equipment and licenses to Riyadh.

Germany’s interest in Syria’s revolution must be considered in this context. From Berlin’s perspective, the rebellion in Syria is a prime opportunity to transform the country into a pro-German, pro-Arab state. It believes Assad’s downfall would be devastating to Iran and its radical Islamist supporters.

For Germany, Syria’s revolution isn’t about a humanitarian crisis at all. It’s about geopolitics and the advancement of Germany’s strategic interests in the Middle East!

It’s hard to know what exactly will unfold in Syria in the coming weeks. What is certain is that neither Assad nor the anti-government activists are prepared to back down.

The ceasefire brokered by the UN last week is already crumbling; violence renewed this week with more deadly attacks by both anti-government forces and the Syrian government. This prompted U.S. Secretary of State Hillary Clinton to warn Assad yesterday that the situation is now “at a critical turning point.”

As you continue to watch Syria, it’s vital you pay close attention to Germany. There is no doubt that Berlin in recent years has worked hard to develop allies on the Arabian peninsula, allies that, like Berlin, would like to see Assad’s ouster and Syria’s end as an Iranian proxy.

Moreover, don’t be surprised if Germany not only supports foreign military intervention in Syria, but even assumes a leadership role!

The most important reason we need to watch Syria is because of what Bible prophecy says will happen in the end times. You can read the prophecy in Psalm 83. Here is outlined an alliance of Arab nations that in the end time band together with the goal of destroying Israel. This group of nations includes Saudi Arabia, Turkey, Jordan and some of the smaller states on the Arabian Peninsula. The prophecy says this unique coalition of Middle Eastern states will form an alliance with Germany and Europe.

Where does Syria fit in this prophecy?

The King of the South, Syria is also part of this German-Arab alliance! In practical terms, this means we can expect Syria to leave the pro-Iran camp and join Saudi Arabia and other Arab states in striking a short-term alliance with Germany and Europe. This prophetic understanding makes Germany's growing interest in Syria thrilling and dramatic!

The king of the north and the king of the south are two powers prophesied to clash in this end time. So you must know who they are.

“And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over” (Daniel 11:40). Both powers are rising fast on the world scene right now. This clash will shake the world as never before! And that is the good news. The bad news is, it will lead to World War III!
