Israel Tour Sukkot 2017

Dear Joseph,

Have a joyous Passover, Feast of unleavened bread, and first fruits/Wave Offering with which marks the beginning of the counting of the omer!

I'd love to join you on your 2017 tour, if I had the funds. I would go in a heartbeat...not even stopping to catch my breath.... Your tour looks amazing. I like how you creatively and thoughtfully weave in time for the festivities (rabbinic calendar), but also allow the other Shabbats of Sukkot as well (Oct 6th and 13th).

Shalom and blessings,

Jennifer Webster

Our tour this Sukkot. We are going to start in Israel and then head over to Jordan to see where Moses died and where the Baal Peor event started as well as look at the Gikal sites in Jordan. This is the same area that they crossed the Jordan from.

These Gikal sites are where the Tabernacle was placed while they stayed in that area. Joshua's altar was the site they built in that Jubilee year that they entered the land of Israel. We will also go to other sites in Israel as well as Joshua's Altar.

We will have the Holy Days off during the Hebrew Calendar and Crescent moon calendar days. So you will have time to do other things in Jerusalem.

Please go to this link to learn more about this tour.

We do need people to commit by certain dates in order for this tour to go forward.

First hand Account of Cyclone Debbie

We have a very small team of people here at Sightedmoon.com from around the world who work with me with for no pay to help produce the news letter and the sightedmoon.com face book page. Please do follow us on face book if you haven't already and like the articles we place there to encourage others to learn from them.

One of the people who have come to help us is Pauline Reardon of Australia. They had recently moved to Queensland when Cyclone Debbie came to visit. But not only did they get to see the fury of this monster cyclone, they went directly through the eye of the storm. I have Pauline to write to you all and share what she lived to tell.

Shalom Joseph,

Thanks for inviting me to write about our experience with Severe Tropical Cyclone Debbie, which hit the east coast of Australia on 28 March, 2017.

Cyclone Debbie was our first cyclone experience and it was quite the adrenalin rush! We'd been watching the forecast track map over the 48 build up to Debbie making land fall and as the forecast maps were updated, Debbie's track was drifting south, getting closer and closer to our house which is approximately 100km inland of Bowen and Airlie Beach. The early predictions were that Debbie would make land fall at Townsville, but by the time she finally come ashore, she was a hammering Cat 4 which tore apart the famous, picturesque tourist destination of Airlie Beach and the nearby coastal town of Bowen, along with Hayman and Hamilton Islands before hand. For us though, the eye of the storm came directly over our house around 9pm. The eye was eerie, but the approaching storm was what I'd image the 'whirlwind' of YeHoVaH might be like. To give you an idea of that it was like below are some of my Facebook posts from those couple of days.

March 28, 2:15pm Debbie makes landfall

Tropical Cyclone Debbie just made landfall at Airlie Beach as a Cat 4. The predicted path has moved slightly south again. Now predicted to go right over the top of us. Should be over us approx 7-8pm. (In about 5 hours time and after dark).

The wind and rain are really picking up now. One of the large trees across the creek has fallen over and is now perched on top of its neighbor eucalyptus tree. The wind is getting really loud too.

The power is out and the house is heating up without the aircon on. Good news though... due to power outage... cake for lunch!! Woo hoo!!

It's 5:10pm Debbie made landfall as a Cat 4. Done lots of damage and now downgraded to Cat 3. We're in the path of the eye which should be over us approx 10pm tonight potentially rated Cat 2.

The winds and rain are really picking up now. Horizontal rain! Visibility has dramatically reduced since this morning. Judging by the track map we're in for some fun tonight. Both of the Colourbond fences are on a lean and swaying. They may not make it in one piece. The creek is beginning to gather water, the trees are losing branches and debris is flying around. We've moved furniture and heavy electronics away from the windows. Plastic bagged as many other electronics as we can and put them up high. We have food but no power or anything to cook on. No BBQ or camp cooker gas. But we have cheese, crackers, wine and torch light. Romantic dinner for two coming up! Wow the wind gusts are getting very loud. Sounds like a jet engine out side. Well that's us for now. My ph battery is about to die again. Electricity's not likely to be on again for a few days as the energy company have reassigned the necessary staff and equipment to the coast. We have battery packs for device charging in the mean time. Thanks for all your prayers they are greatly appreciated!

7:23pm Well there goes the gate! It flew across the road! The fence won't be long after it.

8:00pm There goes the fence! Ok this is getting scary now!! Debbie's been downgraded to Cat 2 but you wouldn't think so! Our Colourbond fence is being torn apart. We can only see with torches but we have sheets of iron flying around. Too dangerous to go outside. Torrential rain. The noise is so thunderous! Staying away from the windows!!

8:04pm We lost Telstra (phone service) but it came back. Might lose it again. So if you don't hear from us that's possibly the reason.

9:05pm Just realized why the storm got a little quieter. The eye is passing now. Won't be quiet for long though.

9:34pm Part 1 of STC Debbie is over. The eye is here. It's soooo quiet! Except for the frogs. Just checked the property and moved some debris to a safer location. Ready for part 2 and we're looking forward to daylight. I can't stop saying thank you. After the eye passed and we'd slept for a couple of hours, we got up to check on the house. Everything was ok. We went back to bed and I fell asleep praying ... thank you ????, thank you ????. Feeling very blessed and cared for.

March 29 – We awoke to find we have no power and no phone communication. We've checked the house and property and there's no damage other than the fence that broke before the eye of the storm. The cyclone was considerably quieter after the eye passed and we slept really well, but are now hankering for our breakfast coffee. We're just standing around considering our options when there's a knock at the door. The neighbors from across the road have come to check on us and see if we'd like some breakfast. Wow, how nice! They've lived here a while and were already up and helping the community. So we took them up on the invitation and spent some time with them hearing all the news of how town is looking. After hearing that our street was only one of few that weren't damaged, we are feeling extremely blessed and cared for by our Abba YHUH. Another Wow! After that we had to go for a drive and see for ourselves. I've attached some photos for you to see. In the end we had no cell phones for three days and no power for six.

Usually with cyclones, they quickly lose their ferocity, dump all the water and fizzle out. But not so with Debbie, after Debbie had finished with us, she then carried on down the east coast of Queensland causing flooding wherever she went. Then she continued into New South Wales, after dumping an enormous quantity of rain she then took off east and headed for New Zealand! This is unheard of!! On her way, she met up with a cold front coming straight off the Antarctic then dumped freezing rain and gale force winds on the North Island causing the wash out of roads and flooding thousands of homes!

Meanwhile in Australia, South East Queensland and Northern New South Wales are in a mess with flooding all over the place, no power to literally 10's of thousands of homes. Businesses, homes, roads and bridges destroyed and all the rain dumped inland is now gathering in the rivers and causing flooding down stream. There is now a massive clean up happening all along the East coast of Australia.

A storm like this has never been heard of! It was as if YHVH were at the steering wheel and driving it quite deliberately. The flooding damage is into the billions of dollars. Roads and homes swept away and I think the death toll is around 6 or 7. Being without power made it difficult to keep up with the news.

I think that this event is a metaphor for the 4th Curse. Prepare while you have the warnings, because the 4th curse is going to come suddenly to those who are not prepared. The only way to prepare is to read your Bible with intelligence and actually DO the Commandments, food laws, niddah and all other instructions that "???" reveals to you to do. The Bible is your personal handbook for the life He has given you to live. This is the only way that we can truly live under His protection from the calamities of all of His curses.

Shalom Chris and Pauline

Reflections of Passover

Just a couple of things as we reflect back to our Passover this year.

In the Toronto area, I have always found it hard to find a place that keeps the Passover and the Days of Unleavened Bread according to the crescent moon and the barley being aviv. Then it was also difficult to find a group that would keep the Foot washing and then the Passover meal on the proper nights. For this was important and one of the main reasons for me going to Israel many times. It was the only place I could find others of like minds to feast with.

I almost bolted back to Israel again this passover at the last minute. I had friends keeping Passover at the right time in the right place.

Then I hear about this group that I had attended a number of times who used to keep the Hebrew Calendar. But now had switched to the Crescent moon and barley being aviv. They still had some confusion about it but they were now doing it and they had Passover service on the right day. I could not believe it and when I showed up Thursday morning, sure enough there they were.

It was such a thrill to be with people of like mind. I was very excited. So if your in the Toronto area for the last day of Unleavened Bread, you more than welcome to come out on Wednesday to Talmidai Fellowship and join them. Here is their link.

Now I want to share something about Passover with you. It is just a thought I had as I drove home from Services today and as I go to post this News Letter.

Today was the 15th day of Nisan. Yesterday it was the 14th and I watched the Passion as I do each year at this time. Yehshua, Yehovah laid down His life for you and for me. He said there is no greater gift than this, to lay down your life for your friend. This is what I was thinking about.

The Creator of the entire universe, took the time out of His busyness looking after all that He has created to come down to the earth and allow us humans to murder Him. He took the time to die in our stead. The creator of all things took the time to die instead of me for my sins. He did that for me. He did that for you Bill, and you Jen and you Sue and Don.

We who gravitate to sin, to porn or evil talk of others or hatred of others, even those of the same faith or our family. We who race to bow down at something made of wood or stone. We who refuse to obey His commandments or even acknowledge He exists. Yehovah the creator of all things came down to the earth and paid the penalty for me. He could have just wiped us out from memory and started over with cats or dogs or something that would obey. But no He wanted to have us work it out.

It is when I think about what He did for me and the price that was exacted from Him as He was beaten and stoned again instead of me, that I have to pull the car over and just bawl.

Yehovah, values you and He values me enough that we are worth Him dying for us. That is how priceless we are to Him. You cannot put a price upon His life that was taken away. Yet He willingly paid that cost for you and for me. Again I have to pull over and weep. I am not worth anything, yet Yehovah thinks other wise. This is how valuable you are to Him. Even those nut jobs that seek to have us killed, are valuable to Yehovah. He also died for them.

Did I have too much wine at Passover last night, or is this just the matzos speaking out? The after effects of a lamb meal. No.....this was my thoughts today.

The creator of the universe, has placed a high value on each of us. When are we going to place that high a value on each other, that we are ready and willing to give our lives for those brethren we love and for those we do not love and for those, yes even those who hate us? Just as they hated Yehovah who also died for them.

Something to think about.

Mia Ton Sabbaton

Many people each year say, "Where does it say for us to count the Omer? That is just a Jewish tradition and we are not going to keep it!"

Do not forget that in our teaching on the Road to Emmaus, we showed you how at the Council of Nicea, when they put the bible together in its present form they worked hard to get rid of the Jewish expressions and move the people away from Sabbath worship to Sunday worship. That was how they got many to begin to keep Easter Sunday as the day Yehshua came out of the grave.

We have another example of them twisting the scriptures to build a case for Sunday worship, by taking the expressions used for counting the Omer and making them say something they never did say.

I am now going to cut in on an article which talks about this. They are first looking at the scripture in Acts 20:6 And after the Feast of Unleavened Bread, we sailed from Philippi, and five days later we rejoined them in Troas, where we stayed seven days. 7On the first day of the week we came together to break bread. Since Paul was ready to leave the next day, he talked to them and kept on speaking until midnight.

So this is after the Feast of Unleavened Bread.

On the first day of the week, when we were gathered together to break bread, Paul began talking to them, intending to leave the next day, and he prolonged his message until midnight.

First, the phrase ‘first day of the week’ is the following in the Greek manuscript: ... transliterated, ‘mia ton sabbaton.’ That might answer your question right there without going any farther. The literal translation is ‘one of the sabbaths.’ I kid you not, there is NO equivalent of this phrase anywhere in Greek literature that means ‘first day of the week.’

In fact, the phrase only appears nine times in all of Greek literature. Seven appear in the Gospels, once here and in 1 Corinthians 16:2. All references are in relation to the Feast of First fruits and the counting of the omer. Every one. All point to ‘one of the Sabbaths.’ See Acts 20:6 and 16 and 1 Corinthians 16:2 & 8 to demonstrate that every occurrence in Scripture is related to counting the seven Sabbaths after Passover. NO reference in Scripture EVER points to Sunday. A detailed study is available here.

So, back to the verse I quoted, our Western Greek mind tries to make this event happen on Sunday night when in fact, it occurred Saturday evening after the weekly Sabbath worship and a shared meal when Rav Shaul gets cranked up teaching some more and talks late into the night.

A further study into Constantine reveals that he, in 325 a.d., outlawed Sabbath worship as well as feasts and anything else Jewish among Christians on pain of death. This, then, begs the question. What were Christians, as late as 325 a.d. doing worshipping on the Sabbath and celebrating the feasts if the Law had been done away with?? One source.

Peter Rambo is correct. There is no doubt what the words mia ton sabbaton literally mean. For example, in the very authoritative Green’s Interlinear Bible (sold in print or through Logos software), the English is translated directly under the Greek, for Acts 20:7 as:”on and the one of the Sabbaths.” Taking into account Greek grammatical rules, this is translated: “And, upon one of the Sabbaths.” This fits the context because Paul was talking about going to Jerusalem to worship which requires counting several Sabbaths from Passover to determine the Feast of Pentecost. Thus, the apparent meaning of this verse is that this particular Sabbath was one of the seven Sabbaths in the count to the Day of Pentecost.

However, most translations of this passage render it the same as the King James Version does, namely, “the first day of the week” that a Christian reunion took place. Yet, even the KJV italicizes “day” to indicate it is not present, and is added as a help word. See Acts 20:7, KJV, NIV, ISV, ESV, ASV, YLT.

Other translations besides Green’s render it as on “one of the Sabbaths” — because Sabbaton is plural in Acts 20:7 — Jubilee 2000, New English Bible, Good News for Modern Man.

The Greek is simple and clear: mia means one, not first. See Strong’s 1520.

Protos means first; mia never does. Only a forced presupposition that twists this word into “first” explains the mistranslation — designed to justify Sunday-as-Sabbath as a practice long before the 300s when it first truly began.

And Sabbaton means Sabbaths (a plural), and never week. Again, the only exception is where there is an obvious presupposition being employed to force upon the word “sabbaths” a meaning it never had — week — to justify that the earliest church under the apostles rested (and gathered) on Sunday (the first day of the week) for which there is no evidence outside this mistranslation-supplied evidence

Prior to the King James 1611 AD translation, Reformation leading voices who knew the Greek and early church history tried to correct this distortion. John Calvin, a leading reformer of the 1500s, and trained in Greek, knew Acts 20:7 was more likely about Sabbath than Sunday, and said so. Calvin wrote:

Either doth he mean the first day of the week, which was next after the Sabbath, or else some certain Sabbath, which latter thing may seem to me more probable; for this cause, because that day was more fit for all assembly, according to custom... For to what end is there mentioned of the Sabbath, save only that he may note the opportunity and choice of the time? Also, it is a likely matter that Paul waited for the Sabbath, that the day before his departure he might the more easily gather all the disciples into one place. Wave Sheaf Day 2017

You are now keeping the 7 days of Unleavened Bread. Sabbath is the 3rd day you are to be eating Matzos. But Sunday begins something that each year many will write and protest about.

They will say where are we commanded to count the omer? It is not there and we are not going to do it.

You shall count for yourselves — from the day after the Shabbat, from the day when you bring the Omer of the waving — seven Shabbats, they shall be complete. Until the day after the seventh sabbath you shall count, fifty days... -Leviticus 23:15-16

You shall count for yourselves seven weeks, from when the sickle is first put to the standing crop shall you begin counting seven weeks. Then you will observe the Festival of Shavu'ot for the L-RD, your G-d -Deuteronomy 16:9-10

According to the Torah (Lev. 23:15), we are obligated to count the days from the morrow after the weekly Sabbath during the days of Unleavened Bread to Shavu'ot or Pentecost. This period is known as the Counting of the Omer. An omer is a unit of measure. In the days of the Temple, an omer of barley was cut down and brought to the Temple as an offering. This grain offering was referred to as the Omer. This grain offering was done after the sunset at the end of the weekly Sabbath during the days of Unleavened Bread.

Every night, we recite a blessing and state the count of the omer in both weeks and days. So on the 16th day, you would say “Today is sixteen days, which is two weeks and two days of the Omer.”

The counting is intended to remind us of the link between Passover, which commemorates the Exodus, and Shavu'ot, which commemorates the giving of the Torah. It reminds us that the redemption from slavery was not complete until we received the Torah. But there is a greater lesson here to be learned.

The wave sheaf was waved on this first day of the week.

Lev 23:9 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying, "Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: 'When you come into the land which I give to you, and reap its harvest, then you shall bring a sheaf of the first fruits of your harvest to the priest. He shall wave the sheaf before the Lord, to be accepted on your behalf; on the day after the Sabbath the priest shall wave it. They were to bring the Sheaf in to be waved on the day after the Sabbath.

The problem then comes up as to which Sabbath. Was it the weekly Sabbath or the High Day of the first day of Unleavened Bread?

If we only read Joshua 5:10 which is what some do, then they conclude that it must be after the 1st Day of Unleavened Bread. Now the first day Unleavened Bread comes on the 15 day of Aviv. So they conclude that the wave sheaf day is the 16th. And they base this on Joshua 5:10. Many an Ephramite has blindly followed the Rabbis in this teaching.

But let us all understand and just do some simple math.

The Passover Lamb is killed on the 14th in the late afternoon at 3 PM.

We just read "10 And the children of Yisra'el camped in Gilgal, and performed the Passover on the fourteenth day of the month at evening on the desert plains of Yeriho."

They kept the Passover preparations on the 14th day.

We then read "11 And they ate of the stored grain of the land on the morrow after the Passover, unleavened bread and roasted grain on this same day."

The reason they would be eating the stored grain is because this first year they entered the Land of Israel, the Promised Land was a Jubilee year and the Israelites would have stored the grains from two years previous. The Year before would also have been a 49th Year and a Sabbatical year as well. But the Canaanites also had stored food from the winter which was just finishing.

The next line reads; 12 "And the manna ceased on the day after they had eaten the stored grain of the land. And the children of Yisrael no longer had manna, but they ate the food of the land of Kenaan that year."

This is the reason some begin the count to Pentecost on the 16th of Aviv.

We are told in Lev 23 to wave the sheaf "On the morrow after the Sabbath the priest waves it."

So which Sabbath is it? Is it the one after the 15th of Aviv, the High day of Unleavened Bread or is the after the weekly Sabbath? The answer is given to you in the scriptures; all we have to do is read.

Lev 23:15 ‘And from the morrow after the Sabbath, from the day that you brought the sheaf of the wave offering, you shall count for yourselves: seven completed Sabbaths. 16 ‘Until the morrow after the seventh Sabbath you count fifty days, then you shall bring a new grain offering to Yehovah.

When you count 50 days the day after the Sabbath that you begin with has to end up on the day after the 7 Sabbath days is completed. Seven Sabbaths are 49 Days and the day after the Seventh Sabbath has to be the 50th day. Therefore the 50th Day is Sunday or the first day of the week, which means that the day you begin to count from has to be a Sunday and now you are forced to conclude that the Sabbath you start your count the day after is the weekly Saturday Sabbath and not the High Day of Unleavened Bread.

Once you understand this teaching then you will be able to understand how the Jubilee year which is the 50th year is also the first year, the same as the 50th day of Pentecost is also the first day.

We all know about the Holy Days of Leviticus 23. We are keeping Passover and the Days of Unleavened Bread right now.

But why is the wave sheaf day so important?

Let us now walk through this momentous event that Yehshua played out in real life which was typified by the wave offering.

It is on this day of the 14th when Yehshua was killed.

As we have said the Passover can be on any day of the week from one year to the next.

In the year that Yehshua died, and in fact all the years Yehshua lived He kept each Holy Day by counting them from the Sighted Crescent Moon to begin the month. How can I prove this?

It is simple. The year Yehshua died had to be 3 days and 3 nights from Passover the 14th day when He was killed until that Saturday afternoon when He was raised from the grave. And this Passover must be 14 days after the Crescent moon was seen to begin the month.

There are only two years that we can consider as candidates for this. One of those years was 28 C.E. and the other was 31 C.E.

We also know that Yehshua was born on September 11, 3 B.C., this was the Feast of Trumpets that year. And that he began his ministry in his 30th year.

Luk 3:23 And when Yehshua Himself began, He was about thirty years of age, being, as reckoned by law, son of Yoseph, son of Heli, Yehshua`s 30th birthday from 3 B.C. is the fall of 27 C.E. We then read in Luke what came after the test with Satan.

Luk 4:16 So He came to Nazareth, where He had been brought up. And as His custom was, He went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stood up to read. And He was handed the book of the prophet Isaiah. And when He had opened the book, He found the place where it was written:

“The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me,
Because He has anointed Me
To preach the gospel to the poor;
He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted,
To proclaim liberty to the captives
And recovery of sight to the blind,
To set at liberty those who are oppressed;
To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord.”

Then He closed the book, and gave it back to the attendant and sat down. And the eyes of all who were in the synagogue were fixed on Him.

Isa 61:1 “The Spirit of the Lord God is upon Me,
Because the Lord has anointed Me
To preach good tidings to the poor;
He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted,
To proclaim liberty to the captives,
And the opening of the prison to those who are bound;
To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord,
And the day of vengeance of our God;
To comfort all who mourn,
To console those who mourn in Zion,
To give them beauty for ashes,
The oil of joy for mourning,
The garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness;
That they may be called trees of righteousness,
The planting of the Lord, that He may be glorified.”

What is the acceptable year that Yehshua was to proclaim?

Many assume this to be the Jubilee year. But history and knowing when the Jubilee years fell prove this wrong. Could this acceptable year then be a Sabbatical year? When we check all the known sabbatical years then we are able to prove this is in fact true. The year of 28 C.E. when Yehshua read this was in fact a Sabbatical year. So Yehshua began to speak in the acceptable year or the Sabbatical year of 28 C.E.

When we go to <http://www.torahcalendar.com/MOON.asp?JDN=1731360&TDAY=1> we can see that in the year 28 C.E. the New Crescent Moon was on a Tuesday Evening and therefore 14 days later would bring us to the 14th day of the 1st month when the Passover Lamb was to be killed which this year was on a Wednesday.

The problem with this year of 28 C.E is that Yehshua was still in his 30th year and had not preached for the 3 years.

Some teach that Yehshua preached for 70 weeks. They also agree that He was 30 in 27 C.E. But in order to end up on a Wednesday crucifixion they cannot do it because the new moon in 29 C.E. which is when the 70 weeks is finished, was on a Monday evening and would be a day early for Passover. <http://www.torahcalendar.com/MOON.asp?JDN=1731744&TDAY=1>

Now when we look at 31 C.E. the New Moon is visible on the Tuesday April 10, 31 C.E.; Tuesday evening. <http://www.torahcalendar.com/MOON.asp?JDN=1732452&TDAY=1> This then means that the Passover lamb would be killed on the Wednesday. It also means there was an extra month added that year.

The reason this is important to understand it that the only sign that we have that Yehshua was and is our Messiah was that He would be dead 3 Days and 3 nights.

Mat 12:38 Then some of the scribes and Pharisees answered, saying, "Teacher, we wish to see a sign from You." 39 But He answering, said to them, "A wicked and adulterous generation seeks after a sign, and no sign shall be given to it except the sign of the prophet Yonah. 40 "For as Yonah was three days and three nights in the stomach of the great fish, so shall the Son of Adam be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.

Mat 16:1 And the Pharisees and Sadducees came, and trying Him asked that He would show them a sign from heaven. 2 And He answering, said to them, "When it is evening you say, 'Fair weather, for the heaven is red,' 3 and in the morning, 'Stormy weather today, for the heaven is red and overcast.' You know how to discern the face of the heaven, but you are unable to discern the signs of the times! :4 "A wicked and adulterous generation seeks after a sign, and no sign shall be given to it except the sign of the prophet Yonah." And He left them and went away.

We read in Jonah that he was inside the fish for three days and three nights.

Jon 1:17 But Yehovah appointed a great fish to swallow Yonah. And Yonah was in the stomach of the fish three days and three nights.

Knowing that the Passover Lamb was to be killed on the Wednesday in 31 C.E. and that Yehshua was our Passover Lamb killed for us and that He was killed at 3 PM on the 14th Day. The Ninth hour is counted from 6 AM, the 9th hour of this watch which is 3 PM in the afternoon.

Mat 27:46 And about the ninth hour Yehshua cried out with a loud voice, saying, "Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?" that is, "My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?"

Luk 23:44 And it was now about the sixth hour, and darkness came over all the land, until the ninth hour. 45 And the sun was darkened, and the veil of the Dwelling Place was torn in two. 46 And crying out with a loud voice, Yehshua said, "Father, into Your hands I commit My spirit." And having said this, He breathed His last.

Once Yehshua had died they had to hurry to bury Him as this 14th day was the preparation day for the 15th day which is the day the actual angel passed Over the Israelites in Egypt. It was also the first day of Unleavened Bread which was also called the High Day. And the body had to be buried before this Sabbath and it had to be off the tree before nightfall.

We have now established that the month began with the sighted moon on the Tuesday evening of April 10, 31 C.E. None of the other years match up, not 30 or 29 or 32, 33 or 34. We count out the 14 days to the Preparation day of Unleavened bread when the Passover Lambs would be killed. Yehshua was killed at 3 PM on the 14th day. The next day was Thursday in 31C.E. and it was the first day of Unleavened Bread. It was the 15th day and a High Sabbath Day. From the time Yehshua was in the grave we now have one night and one day.

Friday is then the preparation day for the weekly Sabbath. Thursday night and Friday day would be the second night and the second day.

Shabbat would begin at sunset Friday night. And Saturday would be the conclusion of Shabbat, which is now the third night and third day since he was in the tomb, just like Jonah who was in the belly of the fish, entombed for 3 days and 3 night.

We then read about the events that occurred on the first day.

Mat 28:1 Now after the Sabbath, toward dawn on the first day of the week,¹ Miryam from Magedala and the other Miryam came to see the tomb.

Mar 16:1 And when the Sabbath was past, Miryam from Magedala, and Miryam the mother of Yacaqob, and Shelomah bought spices, to go and anoint Him. ² And very early on the first day of the week, they came to the tomb when the sun had risen. ³ And they said among themselves, “Who shall roll away the stone from the entrance of the tomb for us?” ⁴ And looking up, they saw that the stone had been rolled away, for it was extremely large. ⁵ And having entered into the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right, wearing a white robe, and they were greatly astonished.

Luk 24:1 And on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they came to the tomb, bringing the spices which they had prepared, ² and they found the stone rolled away from the tomb. ³ And having entered, they did not find the body of the Master Yehshua.

Joh 20:1 And on the first day of the week¹ Miryam from Magedala came early to the tomb, while it was still dark, and saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb.

We can read from all four gospels that the women came in the dark before dawn to the tomb and it was the first day of the week. But the body of Yehshua was already gone.

Shabbat had ended and so Friday night and Sabbath would make the third day and third night that Yehshua was in the grave. The exact same way Jonah was in the belly of the fish for three days and three nights.

These scriptures show us that they came on the first day of the week and Yehshua was gone. All of this goes to prove that Yehshua had to be killed on a Wednesday in order to be dead three days and three nights and to not be there on the first day of the week when these women came. It also proves that the month begins with the sighted moon or first crescent moon to begin the month. And the only year that this all could happen according to the sighted moon was 31 C.E.

What happened when Mary did find Yehshua?

Joh 20:10 Then the disciples went away again to their own homes.

But Mary stood outside by the tomb weeping, and as she wept she stooped down and looked into the tomb. And she saw two angels in white sitting, one at the head and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain. Then they said to her, “Woman, why are you weeping?”

She said to them, “Because they have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid Him.”

Now when she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, and did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to her, “Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you seeking?”

She, supposing Him to be the gardener, said to Him, “Sir, if You have carried Him away, tell me where You have laid Him, and I will take Him away.”

Jesus said to her, “Mary!”

She turned and said to Him, “Rabboni!” (which is to say, Teacher).

Jesus said to her, “Do not cling to Me, for I have not yet ascended to My Father; but go to My brethren and say to them, ‘I am ascending to My Father and your Father, and to My God and your God.’ ”

Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that He had spoken these things to her.

What did Yehshua mean when He said “Do not hold on to Me, for I have not yet ascended to My Father. But go to My brothers and say to them, ‘I am ascending to My Father and your Father, and to My Elohim and your Elohim.’ ”?

We have already explained to you about the wave Sheaf, but let’s again look at it.

Lev 23:10 “Speak to the children of Yisrael, and you shall say to them, ‘When you come into the land which I give you, and shall reap its harvest, then you shall bring a sheaf of the first-fruits of your harvest to the priest. 11 ‘And he shall wave the sheaf before Yehovah, for your acceptance. On the morrow after the Sabbath the priest waves it.

This wave offering was done on this same Sunday Morning that Mary discovered Yehshua.

Joh 20:19 Then, the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the midst, and said to them, "Peace be with you." When He had said this, He showed them His hands and His side. Then the disciples were glad when they saw the Lord.

So Jesus said to them again, "Peace to you! As the Father has sent Me, I also send you." And when He had said this, He breathed on them, and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."

This same first day Yehshua was now standing amongst the Apostles and was now allowing them to touch Him. He had already performed what had to be done on this first day.

This first day during the Days of Unleavened bread which is this Sunday April 16, 2017 is call Yom Hanafat Ha'omer (Day of the Waving of the Sheaf). When the Temple stood this day marked the official commencement of the grain harvest (Dt 16:7) and sheaves of barley were cut and brought to the Temple as a wave-offering (Lev 23:9-14). This day also marks the beginning of the 50-day count to Shavuot (Pentecost; Feast of Weeks). Yom Hanafat Ha'omer is counted as Day 1 and Shavuot as Day 50.

The reason we must wait for the barley to be at a certain stage of growth is precisely for this wave offering to take place. No barley means we can't do this commandment.

This is why we search for the barley to see if it is going to be Aviv.

Dt 16,9 which states:

"From when the sickle commences on the standing grain you will begin to count seven weeks."

From Lev 23,15 we know that the seven weeks between Passover (Hag Hamatzot) and Pentecost (Shavuot) begin on the day when the wave-sheaf offering is brought (i.e. the Sunday which falls out during Passover):

"And you shall count from the morrow after the Sabbath, from the day you bring the sheaf of waving; they will be seven complete Sabbaths."

Therefore, the "sickle commences on the standing grain" on the Sunday during Passover, i.e. 2-3 weeks after the beginning of the month of the Abib. If the barley is not developed enough so that it will be ready for the sickle 2-3 weeks later, then the month of the Abib can not begin and we must wait till the following month.

It should be noted that not all the barley ripens in the Land of Israel at the same time. The wave-sheaf offering is a national sacrifice brought from the first fields to become harvest-ready. However, the first-fruit offerings brought by individual farmers can vary in ripeness anywhere from "Abib parched in fire" to fully ripe grain which may be brought "crushed" or "coarsely ground". This is what is meant in Lev 2,14:

“And when you bring a first-fruit offering to YHWH; you shall bring your first-fruit offering as Abib parched in fire or crushed Carmel” (Carmel is grain which has hardened beyond Abib to the point where it can be “crushed” or “coarsely ground”).

The barley is the first fruits offering. It is the wave offering done on this Sunday morning during the days of Unleavened Bread.

Paul has some things to say about this first fruits offerings.

1Co 15:20 But now Messiah has been raised from the dead, and has become the first-fruit of those having fallen asleep. 21 For since death is through a man, resurrection of the dead is also through a Man. 22 For as all die in Adam, so also all shall be made alive in Messiah . 23 And each in his own order: Messiah, the first-fruits, then those who are of Messiah at His coming, 24 then the end, when He delivers up the reign to Elohim the Father, when He has brought to naught all rule and all authority and power. 25 For He has to reign until He has put all enemies under His feet. 26 The last enemy to be brought to naught is death.

Yehshua once He came out of the grave became the first fruits of all those who had died.

Paul also gives you the order of each time when the dead will be raised up. And each in his own order: Messiah is first and then the first-fruits, those who had died before this day since Adam, and next will be those who are of Messiah at His coming, which is the whole meaning of what Shavuot is about.

The first resurrection is with Messiah which are those that are the first fruits when He rose from the dead in 31 C.E. Then those Saints at his coming which is yet future and then all the rest at the end, which is speaking about the final resurrection at Sukkot.

Col 1:12 giving thanks to the Father who has made us fit to share in the inheritance of the set-apart ones in the light, 13 who has delivered us from the authority of darkness and transferred us into the reign of the Son of His love, Footnote: 1Lk. 11:35, John 8:12, John 12:46-50, Acts 26:18, Eph. 5:8. 14 in whom we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins, 15 who is the likeness of the invisible Elohim, the first-born of all creation.1 Footnote: 1Heb. 1:6, Rev. 3:14.

You are commanded to come up to Jerusalem 3 times each year at the three hags. Passover, Shavuot and Sukkot. Each of these three hags represents one part of the plan of Salvation. The first part took place when Yehshua came out of the grave and led that host of captives with Him to Heaven. The captives are those who were in the faith and had died in the faith up until this time in 31 CE.

Shavuot is the next time the dead in the faith will be raised up again at the wave offering that takes place at the time. Then finally all those who have died since the creation of Adam will be raised up at Sukkot. This is Yehovah's plan and this is what each of the Holy Days points to.

Yehshua was the first born of all creation and the first born of the dead.

Col 1:18 And He is the Head of the body, the assembly, who is the beginning, the first-born from the dead, that He might become the One who is first in all.

Paul again says this in

Act 26:22 “Therefore, having obtained help from Elohim, to this day I stand, witnessing both to small and great, saying nil else than what the prophets and Mosheh said would come – 23 that the Messiah would suffer, would be the first to rise from the dead, He would proclaim light to the people and to the gentiles.” 24 And while saying this in his defence, Festus said with a loud voice, “Sha’ul, you are mad! Much learning is turning you to madness!”

Yehshua was the first to rise from the dead. Why is this so amazing? The answer is found in John. Yehshua stated plainly that not one person has gone up to heaven. None, no one at all.

Even the thief on the tree with Yehshua had not gone up to Heaven, even though Yehshua said

Luk 23:42 And he said to Yehshua, “Master, remember me when You come into Your reign.” 43 And Yehshua said to him, “Truly, I say to you today, you shall be with Me in Paradise.”

So what did Yehshua mean?

He was speaking of this 4th millennial day which was not going to end until 85 C.E.

Joh 3:1 And there was a man of the Pharisees, Nakadimon was his name, a ruler of the Yehudim. 2 This one came to Yehshua by night and said to Him, “Rabbi, we know that You are a teacher come from Elohim, for no one is able to do these signs You do if Elohim is not with him.” 3 Yehshua answered and said to him, “Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born from above, he is unable to see the reign of Elohim.” Footnote: 1Or perceive. 4 Nakadimon said to Him, “How is a man able to be born when he is old? Is he able to enter into his mother’s womb a second time and be born?” 5 Yehshua answered, “Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he is unable to enter into the reign of Elohim. 6 “That which has been born of the flesh is flesh, and that which has been born of the Spirit is spirit. 7 “Do not marvel that I said to you, ‘You have to be born from above.’ 8 “The Spirit¹ breathes where it wishes, and you hear the sound of it, but do not know where it comes from and where it goes. So is everyone who has been born of the Spirit.” Footnote: 1Or wind. 9 Nakadimon answered and said to Him, “How is it possible for this to take place?” 10 Yehshua answered and said to him, “Are you the teacher of Yisrael, and do not know this? 11 “Truly, truly, I say to you, We speak what We know and witness what We have seen, and you do not receive Our witness. 12 “If you do not believe when I spoke to you about earthly matters, how are you going to believe when I speak to you about the heavenly matters? 13 “And no one has gone up into the heaven except He who came down from the heaven – the Son of Adam.

But now for the very first time someone had come from the grave. The grave is represented as those held captive by Satan.

And Yehshua has now broken this captivity.

Eph 4:8 That is why it says, “When He went up on high, He led captivity captive, and gave gifts to men.” 9 But what does “He went up” mean, except that He also first went down into the lower parts of the earth? 10 He who went down is also the One who went up far above all the heavens, to fill all.

Read what Clarke has to say on this.

Ephesians 4:8

Wherefore he saith – The reference seems to be to Psa_68:18, which, however it may speak of the removal of the tabernacle, appears to have been intended to point out the glorious ascension of Christ after his resurrection from the dead. The expositions of various commentators have made the place extremely difficult. I shall not trouble my reader with them; they may be seen in Rosenmuller.

When he ascended up on high – The whole of this verse, as it stands in the psalm, seems to refer to a military triumph. Take the following paraphrase: Thou hast ascended on high: the conqueror was placed in a very elevated chariot. Thou hast led captivity captive: the conquered kings and generals were usually bound behind the chariot of the conqueror, to grace the triumph. Thou hast received gifts for (Paul, given gifts unto) men: at such times the conqueror was wont to throw money among the crowd. Even to the rebellious: those who had fought against him now submit unto him, and share his munificence; for it is the property of a hero to be generous. That the Lord God might dwell among them: the conqueror being now come to fix his abode in the conquered provinces, and subdue the people to his laws.

All this the apostle applies to the resurrection, ascension, and glory of Christ; though it has been doubted by some learned men whether the psalmist had this in view. I shall not dispute about this; it is enough for me that the apostle, under the inspiration of God, applied the verse in this way; and whatever David might intend, and of whatever event he might have written, we see plainly that the sense in which the apostle uses it was the sense of the Spirit of God; for the Spirit in the Old and New Testaments is the same. I may venture a short criticism on a few words in the original: Thou hast received gifts for men, lakachta mattanoth baadam, thou hast taken gifts in man, in Adam. The gifts which Jesus Christ distributes to man he has received in man, in and by virtue of his incarnation; and it is in consequence of his being made man that it may be said, The Lord God dwells among them; for Jesus was called Immanuel, God with us, in consequence of his incarnation. This view of the subject is consistent with the whole economy of grace, and suits well with the apostle’s application of the words of the psalmist in this place.

Now notice what Gifts Yeshua gave out; this is what Paul is speaking about

Eph 4:11 And He Himself gave some as emissaries, and some as prophets, and some as evangelists, and some as shepherds and teachers 12 for the perfecting of the set-apart ones, to the work of service to a building up of the body of the Messiah, 13 until we all come to the unity of the belief and of the knowledge of the Son of Elohim, to a perfect man, to the measure of the stature of the completeness of Messiah,

Psa 68:18 You have ascended on high, You have led captivity captive, You have received gifts among men, And even the rebellious, That Yah Elohim might dwell there. 19 Blessed be Yehovah, Day by day He bears our burden, The El of our deliverance! Selah. 20 Our El is the El of deliverance; And to Yehovah, the Master, belong escapes from death.

Yehshua Himself refers to the barley offering when He says in Joh 12:23

And Yehshua answered them, saying, “The hour has come for the Son of Adam to be esteemed. 24 “Truly, truly, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the ground and dies, it remains alone. But if it dies, it bears much fruit. 25 “He who loves his life shall lose it, and he who hates his life in this world shall preserve it for everlasting life.

Yehshua was our wave offering that died and then came out of the grave and led a host of captives, including that one thief on the tree; that is a host of those who had died and were dead.

Read now Mat 27:50

And Yehshua cried out again with a loud voice, and gave up His spirit. 51 And see, the veil of the Dwelling Place was torn in two from top to bottom, and the earth was shaken, and the rocks were split, 52 and the tombs were opened, and many bodies of the set-apart ones who had fallen asleep were raised, 53 and coming out of the tombs after His resurrection, they went into the set-apart city and appeared to many.

When Yehshua died the graves were marked just like the Barley is marked off the first night of Passover. When Yehshua rose from the grave, three days and three night later, at the end of Shabbat, these people who were in those marked graves came back to life and walked into Jerusalem and this is the exact same time the barley is harvested on the Saturday evening after sunset. It is then prepared for the offering the next morning at 9 AM.

This is the barley offering, the wave offering in real life. This is what it all means. The Barley being presented represented the rest of the harvest that was to come. In reality those Saints who rose from the grave with Yehshua went to heaven. They were the first ones to come out of the grave and go to heaven as Yehshua had said no one else had gone except the son of man who comes down from heaven. This is why this so amazing and so awesome.

But there is more. There is another wave offering which begins with this Barley wave offering. It is the wave offering done at Pentecost. You will have to wait until then to hear the rest of this story. What an awesome time that will be as this time of Pentecost is speaking about those of us who are alive at that time and all of those who have died and were obedient to the torah and died from this time when Yehshua came out of the grave up until this very special time of this coming Pentecost day.

Now understand what Paul was talking about.

1 Cor 15:51 Behold, I tell you a mystery: We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed—in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. So when this corruptible has put on incorruption, and this mortal has put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written: “Death is swallowed up in victory.”

“O Death, where is your sting?

O Hades, where is your victory?”

The sting of death is sin, and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.

Matthew 24:31 And He will send out His angels with a loud trumpet call, and they will gather His elect from the four winds, from one end of the heavens to the other.

1 Corinthians 15:23 But each in his own turn: Christ the firstfruits; then at His coming, those who belong to Him.

1 Thessalonians 4:13 But I do not want you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning those who have fallen asleep, lest you sorrow as others who have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so God will bring with Him those who sleep in Jesus.

For this we say to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive and remain until the coming of the Lord will by no means precede those who are asleep. For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And thus we shall always be with the Lord.

Therefore comfort one another with these words.

We are to count from this great event, when Yehshua took all those who had died before His resurrection and raised them up and took them to heaven with Him as this Barley offering, up to the next time when Yehovah will wake those of us who have fallen asleep since this time in 31 C.E. up until that coming in 2033 I believe. We are to count the omer in like manner as though we are counting down the time to when we will be changed or raised up.

We are to count to Pentecost when this great trump will occur. Many assume this trumpet blast is in reference to the Feast of Trumpets. But they forget about the first Feast of Shavuot when Yehovah descended on the mountain.

Exodus 19:16 Then it came to pass on the third day, in the morning, that there were thunderings and lightnings, and a thick cloud on the mountain; and the sound of the trumpet was very loud, so that all the people who were in the camp trembled. And Moses brought the people out of the camp to meet with God, and they stood at the foot of the mountain. Now Mount Sinai was completely in smoke, because the Lord descended upon it in fire. Its smoke ascended like the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mountain quaked greatly. And when the blast of the trumpet sounded long and became louder and louder, Moses spoke, and God answered him by voice. Then the Lord came down upon Mount Sinai, on the top of the mountain. And the Lord called Moses to the top of the mountain, and Moses went up.

This Wave Sheaf day is so exciting to understand and so amazing to believe because it forebodes the time when we will be changed and raised up. If you want to call this the Rapture then I can except that if you are obeying Yehovah. If your not obeying Yehovah and you think the laws are done away with then you will not be in this resurrection or rapture. You will be told to be gone you workers of lawlessness, I never knew you.

We will speak more about this as Pentecost draws closer. The Feast of Oaths, the 8th day and the Jubilee year.

When you count from the Wave offering of the barley to Pentecost it is called the counting of the Omer. You are to count each day up to the 50th day. This Sunday April 16, 2017 is day one. We are to count the Omer. Here is one way that it is done for the first week.

During each of these days Jewish tradition has developed around reading the psalms on certain days. In past years I found this very beneficial and I will do the same this year. It is customary that following the counting of the omer, one recites Psalm 67, for according to tradition that psalm has forty nine words, corresponding to the days of the omer.

And as you do these readings and this counting, keep in mind what this also symbolizes. It is the counting of the Sabbatical and Jubilee years and where we are in that cycle. We are in the 22nd year which corresponds to the 22nd day of counting the Omer.

As I said, this is the most special time of year for me and in years past I couldn't put my finger on exactly why, other than it had something to do with Yehshua's resurrection and waiting in anticipation for Shavuot. While I cannot put into words how my understanding of this has grown, all I can say is that "it clicked!" and "now I get it!", at least more than before. Understanding follows obedience. So OBEY and learn.
