Feast of Trumpets 2017

This coming Thursday evening Sept 21 is the day and hour no man can know. And if it is not this evening then it will be the next one. We just do not know the day or the hour the moon will be sighted.

This then means that the Feast of Trumpets begins on Thursday night and Friday day or it begins Friday Night and Saturday day.

In Mathew 24:3 the Apostles said to Yehshua;

Now as He sat on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to Him privately, saying, "Tell us, when will these things be? And what will be the sign of Your coming, and of the end of the age?"

Many Christians will quote the answer Yehshua gave them, but they will never understand what Yehshua actually said because you gain understanding when you obey Yehovah. It is by keeping the Holy Days at the proper time that you gain this understanding and knowledge. Then once you have obeyed and gain this understanding then wisdom comes to those who obey. And it is they who will understand what Yehshua meant when He said no one can know the day or the hour. Read what He said starting in ver 36-44.

“But of that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of heaven, but My Father only. But as the days of Noah were, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be. For as in the days before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered the ark, and did not know until the flood came and took them all away, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be. Then two men will be in the field: one will be taken and the other left. Two women will be grinding at the mill: one will be taken and the other left. Watch therefore, for you do not know what hour your Lord is coming. But know this, that if the master of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched and not allowed his house to be broken into. Therefore you also be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect.

So you need to be ready to keep Thursday night and Friday day as a Holy Day. We just will not know until about 12 PM on Thursday when the moon might be sighted in Jerusalem. So we must wait and watch to see if in fact it is seen. If it is not seen then Sabbath will be the 1st Day of the 7th Month, The Feast of Shouting, the day the Messiah was born on and the day He will come back on.

When I look at Judaism 101 and ask the question, “Why do the Jews keep Rosh Hashanah for two days instead of one?”, we have the following answer from them.

You may notice that the number of days of some holidays do not accord with what the Bible specifies. In most cases, we celebrate one more day than the Bible requires. There is an interesting reason for this additional day.

The Jewish calendar is lunar, with each month beginning on the new moon. The new months used to be determined by observation. When the new moon was observed, the Sanhedrin declared the beginning of a new month and sent out messengers to tell people when the month began. People in distant communities could not always be notified of the new moon (and therefore, of the first day of the month), so they did not know the correct day to celebrate. They knew that the old month would be either 29 or 30 days, so if they didn't get notice of the new moon, they celebrated holidays on both possible days.

This practice of celebrating an extra day was maintained as a custom even after we adopted a precise mathematical calendar, because it was the custom of our ancestors. This extra day is not celebrated by Israelis, regardless of whether they are in Israel at the time of the holiday, because it is not the custom of their ancestors, but it is celebrated by everybody else, even if they are visiting Israel at the time of the holiday.

Rosh Hashanah is celebrated as two days everywhere (in Israel and outside Israel), because it occurs on the first day of a month. Messengers were not dispatched on the holiday, so even people in Israel did not know whether a new moon had been observed, and everybody celebrated two days. The practice was also maintained as a custom after the mathematical calendar was adopted.

Please do note that this year of 2017, the Feast of Trumpets according to the Jewish calendar will be Wednesday night and Thursday day regardless of the sighting of the moon. The reason is they have applied the postponement rules which prevent the fall Holy Days from landing beside the weekly Sabbath. There is no instruction or commandment in the Torah to do this. Yet they do it each and every year.

Having shared the above with you about the proper time to keep the Feast and then how the Jews acknowledge the proper time and yet keep these fall Feasts on the wrong days, now let me ask you a question.

Proverbs 16:20 He who heeds the word wisely will find good,
And whoever trusts in the Lord, happy is he.

Yehshua also said;

Luke 11:28 But He said, "More than that, blessed are those who hear the word of God and keep it!"

If by keeping the Holy Days and the Sabbath we are to be blessed, then why were 6 Million Jews slaughtered in the Holocaust in WW II and why have they been persecuted and run out of many cities in Europe and Russia in pogroms?

The answer to that question has been explained above. If you continue to keep the Holy Days, the appointed times of Yehovah, His moeds or Moed'em, at any other time other than those specific dates He has commanded us to keep them at in Lev 23, then you will be rebelling against the Most High and will not be in His protection when evil comes.

This year in Israel we are going to tour to one of the signal hills where they lit the bon fires to let others in other nations know the Moon has been sighted. They did this for hundreds of years. Now they have TV and Cell Phones. I wonder why they are not obeying Yehovah now. What excuses they will give for not obeying. Read the next section and keep it in mind along with what you have just read.

Before we move on let me share with you some things from the Mishneh.

Start of the month

We know from the historical records that Judaism still used the sighting of the new moon during the Second Temple period. We also have proof that this practice continued even after the Romans destroyed the second temple. A group of Jewish scholars, Rabbi Yochanan ben Zakkai and his disciples, fled from Jerusalem before the destruction. They settled themselves in a town called Yavneh (Yavne, Yabneh or Jamnia). Rabbi Yochanan established a Sanhedrin there that could instruct the scattered communities. This instruction included the setting of the date for new months. Rabbi Yochanan was the leader of the council from around 70 to 80 C.E. He was succeeded by Gamliel II.³

We know from the recordings in the Mishnah, that Rabbi Yochanan still used the sighting of the moon to determine the start of the month. His rulings made some changes to the halacha to allow for the destruction of the temple. Here is one such an example that illustrates this point.

E When the Temple was destroyed, Rabban Yohanan b. Zakkai made the rule that they should[once more] receive testimony about the new moon all day long.

F Said R. Joshua b. Qorha, “This rule too did Rabban Yohanan b. Zakkai make:

G “Even if the head of the court is located somewhere else, the witnesses should come only to the location of the council [to give testimony, and not to the location of the head of the court].”¹ We see from this passage in the Mishnah that they still received the witnesses to the new moon in Yahneh.

Originally, they used beacon fires to signal the start of the new month. Due to the fact that the Samaritans lit fires on wrong days to confuse them, they started sending our messengers. This was done in the time of Rabbi Judah I. He lived from 135 to 220 C.E and was the first of Hillel’s successors to be called “Nasi.” In the Jerusalem Talmud he is most often referred to simply as “Rabbi.” In this passage from the Jerusalem Talmud we see that he had stopped the beacon fires.

4 y. Rosh Hashanah 2:1, III.1.C–M [C] Who discontinued the beacon fires?

[D] Rabbi discontinued the beacon fires, and he permitted the murderer [to testify concerning the new moon], and he permitted hearsay testimony in the same matter, and he permitted them to go out on at twilight at the end of the twenty-ninth day of the lunar month or the night that marks the commencement of the thirtieth day while it was still evening, in the assumption that the new month would be sanctified the next day.

[E] R. Abbahu said, “Even though you say that they discontinued the beacon fires, they did not discontinue those from the Sea of Tiberias.”

[F] R. Zeira asked before R. Abbahu, “Regarding those that we see at Safed. why do they light beacons?”

[G] He said to him, “Rabbi discontinued the beacon fires. So with regard to Safed, why does it light beacons?”

[H] “It is only for the sake of declaring the matter, to make sure that they. know.”

[I] They do not raise up [beacons to signal] the night of its proper time [the thirtieth day of the lunar month], but rather [to signal] the night of its intercalation.

[J] They do not raise up [beacons to signal] the night of its proper time because of the Festival day, but they raise them up the night of its intercalation.

[K] They do not raise up [beacons] except for the new moons which are established in their proper time, because of the Festival that happens to fall on the Eve of the Sabbath. [Goldman: in this way no confusion would develop when the fire was seen on the Saturday night following a New Year that began on Thursday night. Potentially, the same confusion might otherwise also develop in any case where a defective month would end on Thursday evening. In such cases the beacons were lit on the night that began the thirty-second day.] [L] They do not raise up [beacons] the night of its proper time because of festival day. They do not raise up [beacons] the night of its intercalation because of honoring the Sabbath.

[M] Now if you say to raise them up whether for the New Moons which are established in their proper time, or whether for intercalated months which are not established in their proper time, if you say thus, they would think perhaps the Court had ruled to intercalate and they become disordered. 5

This required that messengers had to be sent to all the communities. So what happens if the new moon is sighted on a sabbath? Are the messengers allowed to go out?

m. Rosh Hashanah 1:4

A On the occasion of two new moons [witnesses to the new moon] violate [the prohibitions of]the Sabbath:

B at Nisan and at Tishre.

C For on these occasions the messengers go forth to Syria.1

We know that it would not be possible for messengers to travel fast enough to get the message to all Jewish communities in the diaspora. This led to the fact that the Jews in the diaspora had to celebrate feasts for two days. This is most likely the reason why the calculated calendar became more popular.

Are You Just Watching World Events or are you taking action?

Your world continues to convulse with earthshaking events.

Friday, Sept. 8 Mexico was jolted by an 8.2 magnitude earthquake that, so far, has killed dozens of people. It was the STRONGEST earthquake to hit Mexico in at least 100 years. Add this to the long list of “once in-a-century” disasters we’ve experienced in recent months. This earthquake took place on the west coast of Mexico’s panhandle. One of the most powerful earthquakes ever recorded in Mexico and a raging hurricane dealt a devastating one-two punch to the country, killing at least 61 people as workers scrambled to respond to the twin national emergencies.

The U.S. National Hurricane Center reported Katia’s maximum sustained winds had dropped to 75 mph (120 kph) when it made landfall. And it rapidly weakened even further over land into a tropical storm. The centre said Katia was stalling over Mexico’s Sierra Madre mountains, where it could bring 10 to 15 inches (25 to 37 centimetres) of rain to a region with a history of deadly mudslides and flooding.

Hurricane Irma has destroyed the Caribbean island and Florida. It has been called the most powerful Atlantic storm in history. A Nuclear Hurricane. The storm has already ravaged several Caribbean Islands, killing at least 24, and leaving many areas uninhabitable for months. Reports from Barbuda and St. Martin say that more than 90 percent of buildings have been damaged. Right now, the storm is projected to smash into Miami Saturday night. Today, the National Hurricane Center downgraded the storm to a Category 4, with maximum sustained winds at around 150 mph. William Long, the head of FEMA, says this storm will “devastate the United States, either Florida or some of the southeastern states.”

Miami, a city of almost half a million people, is becoming eerily deserted. An estimated 1.4 million people are under mandatory evacuations in Florida and Georgia, sitting in traffic jams for hours as they try to head north. Some reporters are saying this is one of the largest mass exoduses in history.

And this all comes while some buildings are still underwater in and around Houston, Texas, where Hurricane Harvey broke all-time continental U.S. tropical cyclone rain records. The storm and flooding killed more than 70 people from August 25–30, displacing more than a million, and inflicting an estimated $75 billion in damage.

Meanwhile, on America's West Coast, California just concluded its hottest summer ON RECORD. In fact, it's still in the midst of a brutal heat wave. Over the last two weeks, firefighters in the Golden State have been combatting 15 large-scale blazes. Last weekend, the city of Los Angeles had its worst wildfire in history. Washington, Oregon, California, Montana, Idaho, Nevada, Utah, Arizona, New Mexico, Colorado, and Wyoming are all suffering from wildfires. And so is British Columbia in Canada

Fires in one region, flooding in another. Would you believe that this exact scenario was described thousands of years ago? This is exactly what the Book of Amos prophesied for the last days (Amos 4:7).

Amos 4:6-5:15 “Also I gave you cleanness of teeth in all your cities.

And lack of bread in all your places;

Yet you have not returned to Me,”

Says the Lord.

“I also withheld rain from you,

When there were still three months to the harvest.

I made it rain on one city,

I withheld rain from another city.

One part was rained upon,

And where it did not rain the part withered.

So two or three cities wandered to another city to drink water,

But they were not satisfied; Yet

you have not returned to Me,”

Says the Lord.

“I blasted you with blight and mildew.

When your gardens increased,

Your vineyards,

Your fig trees,

And your olive trees,

The locust devoured them; Yet

you have not returned to Me,”

Says the Lord.

“I sent among you a plague after the manner of Egypt;

Your young men I killed with a sword,

Along with your captive horses;

I made the stench of your camps come up into your nostrils;

Yet you have not returned to Me,”

Says the Lord.

“I overthrew some of you,

As God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah,

And you were like a firebrand plucked from the burning;

Yet you have not returned to Me,”
Says the Lord.
“Therefore thus will I do to you, O Israel;
Because I will do this to you,
Prepare to meet your God, O Israel!”
For behold,
He who forms mountains,
And creates the wind,
Who declares to man what his thought is,
And makes the morning darkness,
Who treads the high places of the earth—
The Lord God of hosts is His name.

Chapter 5

A Lament for Israel

Hear this word which I take up against you, a lamentation, O house of Israel:
The virgin of Israel has fallen;
She will rise no more.
She lies forsaken on her land;
There is no one to raise her up.
For thus says the Lord God:
“The city that goes out by a thousand
Shall have a hundred left,
And that which goes out by a hundred
Shall have ten left to the house of Israel.”

A Call to Repentance

For thus says the Lord to the house of Israel:
“Seek Me and live;
But do not seek Bethel,
Nor enter Gilgal,
Nor pass over to Beersheba; For Gilgal shall surely go into captivity, And Bethel shall come to nothing.
Seek the Lord and live,
Lest He break out like fire in the house of Joseph,
And devour it,
With no one to quench it in Bethel—
You who turn justice to wormwood,
And lay righteousness to rest in the earth!”
He made the Pleiades and Orion;
He turns the shadow of death into morning
And makes the day dark as night;
He calls for the waters of the sea And pours them out on the face of the earth; The Lord is His name.
He rains ruin upon the strong,

So that fury comes upon the fortress.
They hate the one who rebukes in the gate,
And they abhor the one who speaks uprightly.
Therefore, because you tread down the poor
And take grain taxes from him,
Though you have built houses of hewn stone,
Yet you shall not dwell in them; You have planted pleasant vineyards,
But you shall not drink wine from them.
For I know your manifold transgressions
And your mighty sins:
Afflicting the just and taking bribes;
Diverting the poor from justice at the gate.
Therefore the prudent keep silent at that time,
For it is an evil time.
Seek good and not evil,
That you may live;
So the Lord God of hosts will be with you,
As you have spoken.
Hate evil, love good;
Establish justice in the gate.
It may be that the Lord God of hosts
Will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph.

In spite of all of these things that we see now and that Amos wrote about, we as a people, as a nation, and as individuals, have not and will not return to Yehovah.

I was sent this prayer that was conducted at the White House. Watch and see if you can catch the fake out. This was conducted Sept 1, 2017 as a national day of Prayer for the Hurricane Harvey victims.

But let us actually read what they were supposedly quoting.

2 Chronicles 7:14 says, "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, AND TURN FROM THEIR WICKED WAYS; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

I do hope you all caught what the pastor left out of his prayer. The very thing that might have caused Yehovah to actually hear his prayer. They want the blessings but they will not turn from their wicked ways. They will not repent.

When you see such horrific problems like the many wild Fires out west, then Hurricane Harvey, and now Irma and soon Jose you have to ask yourself, is God blessing America? We sing the song "God Bless America" all the time in this nation. But is God hearing our prayers? Is He healing our land? Or is it the OPPOSITE?

Yehovah is not even listening.

Pro 28:9 He that turneth away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer shall be an abomination.

Zec 7:13-14 Therefore it is come to pass, that as he cried, and they would not hear; so they cried, and I would not hear, saith Yehovah of hosts:

But I scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations whom they knew not. Thus the land was desolate after them, that no man passed through nor returned: for they laid the pleasant land desolate.

Isaiah 1:15-20 When you spread out your hands,

I will hide My eyes from you; Even though you make many prayers, I will not hear.

Your hands are full of blood.

“Wash yourselves, make yourselves clean;

Put away the evil of your doings from before My eyes.

Cease to do evil,

Learn to do good;

Seek justice,

Rebuke the oppressor;

Defend the fatherless,

Plead for the widow.

“Come now, and let us reason together,”

Says the Lord,

“Though your sins are like scarlet,

They shall be as white as snow;

Though they are red like crimson,

They shall be as wool.

If you are willing and obedient,

You shall eat the good of the land;

But if you refuse and rebel,

You shall be devoured by the sword”;

For the mouth of the Lord has spoken.

Jeremiah 11:7-14 For I earnestly exhorted your fathers in the day I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, until this day, rising early and exhorting, saying, “Obey My voice.” Yet they did not obey or incline their ear, but everyone followed the dictates of his evil heart; therefore I will bring upon them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do, but which they have not done.’ ”

And the Lord said to me, “A conspiracy has been found among the men of Judah and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem. They have turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers who refused to hear My words, and they have gone after other gods to serve them; the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken My covenant which I made with their fathers.”

Therefore thus says the Lord: “Behold, I will surely bring calamity on them which they will not be able to escape; and though they cry out to Me, I will not listen to them. Then the cities of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem will go and cry out to the gods to whom they offer incense, but they will not save them at all in the time of their trouble. For according to the number of your cities were your gods, O Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem you have set up altars to that shameful thing, altars to burn incense to Baal.

“So do not pray for this people, or lift up a cry or prayer for them; for I will not hear them in the time that they cry out to Me because of their trouble.

Jeremiah 14:10-16 Thus says the Lord to this people:

“Thus they have loved to wander;
They have not restrained their feet.
Therefore the Lord does not accept them;
He will remember their iniquity now,
And punish their sins.”

Then the Lord said to me, “Do not pray for this people, for their good. When they fast, I will not hear their cry; and when they offer burnt offering and grain offering, I will not accept them. But I will consume them by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence.”

Then I said, “Ah, Lord God! Behold, the prophets say to them, ‘You shall not see the sword, nor shall you have famine, but I will give you assured peace in this place.’ ”

And the Lord said to me, “The prophets prophesy lies in My name. I have not sent them, commanded them, nor spoken to them; they prophesy to you a false vision, divination, a worthless thing, and the deceit of their heart. Therefore thus says the Lord concerning the prophets who prophesy in My name, whom I did not send, and who say, “Sword and famine shall not be in this land’—‘By sword and famine those prophets shall be consumed! And the people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword; they will have no one to bury them—they nor their wives, their sons nor their daughters—for I will pour their wickedness on them.’ ”

Micah 3:4 Then they will cry to the Lord,
But He will not hear them;
He will even hide His face from them at that time,
Because they have been evil in their deeds.

To read all of this is so very depressing to understand. Why? Read 2 Chronicles again.

2 Chronicles 7:14 says, “If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, AND TURN FROM THEIR WICKED WAYS; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.”

Words are cheap but actions speak volumes. Yehovah does not want to hear your prayers if you're not going to obey. But if you turn from disobeying, if stop being evil by not obeying His commandments, IF HE SEES YOUR ACTIONS ACTUALLY TURN, then He will answer you and HEAL your land.

Yehovah is waiting to see your act. To see you actually move your feet and do those things He has said to do. This year the LGBT Pride parades were big time events in all those places that have been hit hard this year. Coincidental you say, providential I say. To act would be to not have those parades next year and to stop them right now. That is action. You keeping the Holy Days at the proper time would be action. Nations keeping the Feasts with one accord would be action.

Look at how Burundi is taking action?

Refer to our reports on Burundi, Africa located here:

<https://sightedmoon.com/library/#1519587166979-34835cd3-4483>

Keep in mind all that we have shared above as you now read our report about our recent visit to Burundi Africa.

Across North America, for the past 10 years, it has been difficult to get more than 20 people to come out to hear our message about the Holy Days and the Sabbatical and Jubilee years. None of the established Church of God groups wants to hear it. None of the Messianic Groups want to hear it. None of the Jewish Groups want to hear it. I think the best showing might have been Abilene Texas Ocala Florida and Detroit with fewer than 100. In contrast, when I went to the Philippines in 2015, we had about 300 come out and they continue to have large showings there and continue to add more each month.

North America has been the most blessed of nations around the world. Canada and the USA are the most blessed and at the same time the most irreligious. When I went to the Philippines we showed them the curses of Lev 26 and we showed them the many curses they had suffered. They were then and they are now still ready to turn and repent and start to obey Yehovah. This is why whole groups are now changing from Sunday worship to return and start to keep the Sabbath and Holy Days.

It is like shooting fish in a barrel once they have been humbled as it says in 2 Chronicles.

2 Chronicles 7:14 says, "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, AND TURN FROM THEIR WICKED WAYS; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

Notice we must humble ourselves or He will humble us through these "natural" disasters. No, they are Yehovah sent disasters to humble us and to turn us back to Him. But as we read in Amos, we would not turn back to Him. So he sent most evil upon us.

Again read Lev 26:14

“But if you do not obey Me, and do not observe all these commandments, and if you despise My statutes, or if your soul abhors My judgments, so that you do not perform all My commandments, but break My covenant, I also will do this to you:

I will even appoint terror over you, wasting disease and fever which shall consume the eyes and cause sorrow of heart.

And you shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies shall eat it.

I will set My face against you, and you shall be defeated by your enemies.

Those who hate you shall reign over you, and you shall flee when no one pursues you.

In the wild fire areas of the Western USA and in Western Canada as well as Spain, massive evacuations take place at a moment's notice of whole towns fleeing the raging wild fires that race towards their communities. Last week we also saw 1 Million Cubans fled their homes and in Florida from the Keys to Savannah Georgia people were fleeing with commanded evacuation notices in front of the coming Hurricane Irma and Jose. Over 6 Million fled and yet no one pursued them.

After Hurricane Irma passed through the Caribbean Island of Barbuda and St Martin those who had stayed now had nothing left to go back to. Many of them were then evacuated to other places. Now once again I urge you to read Ezekiel 20. Read it all and then slow down and consider the following verses.

Ezekiel 20: 33-38 “As I live,” says the Lord God, “surely with a mighty hand, with an outstretched arm, and with fury poured out, I will rule over you. I will bring you out from the peoples and gather you out of the countries where you are scattered, with a mighty hand, with an outstretched arm, and with fury poured out. And I will bring you into the wilderness of the peoples, and there I will plead My case with you face to face. Just as I pleaded My case with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so I will plead My case with you,” says the Lord God.

“I will make you pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant; I will purge the rebels from among you, and those who transgress against Me; I will bring them out of the country where they dwell, but they shall not enter the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the Lord.

Many in Houston have lost their homes from the flooding. They have to gut them to get rid of the mold that grows in the walls after the flooding.

Many in the Caribbean lost their houses altogether. And the storm was furious as it blew past them. Just as Yehovah said He will deal with them in FURY.

But I also want you to notice two other things.

The second curse of Lev 26 begins in verse 18-20

“And after all this, if you do not obey Me, then I will punish you seven times more for your sins. I will break the pride of your power; I will make your heavens like iron and your earth like bronze. And your strength shall be spent in vain; for your land shall not yield its produce, nor shall the trees of the land yield their fruit.

This is extreme weather and extreme heat. Both of which have caused the wild fires and the worst Hurricane in History, now called Irma.

The 3rd curse is pestilence and the fourth curse is war.

“And if by these things you are not reformed by Me, but walk contrary to Me, then I also will walk contrary to you, and I will punish you yet seven times for your sins. And I will bring a sword against you that will execute the vengeance of the covenant; when you are gathered together within your cities I will send pestilence among you; and you shall be delivered into the hand of the enemy.

In Ezekiel, we read about how Yehovah would make us pass under the rod. In Isaiah 10:5 we read who that rod is that we will pass under.

“Woe to Assyria, the rod of My anger
And the staff in whose hand is My indignation.

When you pass under the rod, is an expression of counting out the tithe. Every tenth one is sent to Yehovah. The rest are sent to slaughter.

After that 4th curse of the sword passing through your land comes another curse in Lev 26. Cannibalism.

“And after all this, if you do not obey Me, but walk contrary to Me, then I also will walk contrary to you in fury; and I, even I, will chastise you seven times for your sins.
You shall eat the flesh of your sons, and you shall eat the flesh of your daughters.

This is a result of war and not being able to grow crops or not being able to harvest crops due to the severe and extreme weather. It could also be because you are homeless and on the run to find shelter. Whatever it is, that has caused these conditions people will resort to eating other human beings and even to eating their own sons and daughters.

All of this because they would not turn back to Yehovah and take action to show Him their repentance. Words without action are nothing. Humble your selves now while you can and repent and return to Him with your whole being. Keep His Sabbaths, and His Holy Days as told to you in Lev 23 at the proper times and get ready to keep the Sabbatical year in 2023-2024. These are His sign upon your hand and upon your head that you are His. To keep them at the wrong time or not at all will lead to your deaths and destruction.

The fury in the weather is an example of the fury in the sword that is about to come.

Since the first of Elul, the 6th month, which came two days after the solar eclipse that crossed the entire USA there have been many co-incidences. Harvey, Irma, Jose, Katia, the 8.2 earthquakes in Mexico. As well there has been the ratcheting up each week of war rhetoric between the USA and North Korea, with the North launching missiles that can reach as far as New York City and then the testing of Nuclear H- bombs that can be put on those missiles. Both China and Russia are saying that if North Korea launches they will not intervene if the USA strikes back. This, of course, will lead to the destruction of South Korea and possibly Japan, both allies of the USA and there by enemies of North Korea. Then on the Sabbath Sept 9, I received news of the IDF striking a Syrian chemical plant under the nose of the Russians and run by the Iranians.
