News Letter 5846-014

21st day of the 3rd month 5846 years after creation

The 3rd Month in of the first year of the third Sabbatical Year

The Third Sabbatical Year of the 119th Jubilee Cycle

June 5, 2010

Shabbat Shalom Family,

This week's News Letter has changed and been rewritten almost every day this week. With news and events happening to cause this.

In Last week's news Letter as we continued our study of the 613 laws we were getting into the Marriage and divorce laws. I received an email about this which I have now posted to the web site and you can read it at https://sightedmoon.com/sightedmoon_2015/?page_id=646 It explains divorce and remarriage so that it makes sense. I have always had trouble with this subject and have avoided it until now.

In light of the recent uptick in hate towards Israel this week I would like to share the following as a reminder of where this hatred will lead us once again.

http://www1.yadvashem.org/exhibitions/album_Auschwitz/multimedia/index.HTML

On Monday of this week the world was outraged that Israel defended itself as it enforced the naval blockade on Gaza. The Navy Seals killed 10 people in defending themselves after being stabbed and beaten with iron and metal clubs. I totally endorse Israel's action as restrained as it was. You can see just how much the world hates Israel and those of us who also keep Shabbat and Torah. We because of our belief's look Jewish to them.

This week's events has caused rumours to spread about Iranian and Syrian build up on the Northern border close to Galilee. More rumours were again spread on the News about Israel pilots buzzing Lebanon cities. None of this is backed with facts. Rumours, rumours and more rumours. Mathew 24: 6 And you will hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that you are not troubled; for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.

So what is going on here Brethren?

As I have explained in the book The Prophecies of Abraham a great deception is to take place in which Satan if possible is going to deceive even the very elect. And at the same time prepare things so that an Israelite genocide can take place. When I say Israel I mean the USA and the UK and the State of Israel.

I have been saying this deception for the past two weeks. We were warned of this by Yahshua in Mathew 24: 24 "For false messiahs and false prophets shall arise, and they shall show great signs and wonders, so as to lead astray, if possible, even the chosen ones. 25 "See, I have forewarned you

Many believe we are in the last 7 years of this age. Satan must make things come together at this time so that it looks like the end of the age. Because everyone believes that the Jewish people are today Israel. They do not realize that Judah is the State of Israel but Israel is made up of the other 10 tribes and consists of the USA, UK, Australia, Canada, South Africa, New Zealand, Holland, Norway, Sweden, Finland, Switzerland, Belgium, Denmark and parts of France.

So is the USA going to go against the Iranians and defeat them? No they will not!!!

How do I know this? We can read it in Isaiah 13: 10 For the stars of the heavens and their constellations do not give off their light. The sun shall be dark at its rising, and the moon not send out its light. 11 "And I shall punish the world for its evil, and the wrong for their crookedness, and shall put an end to the arrogance of the proud, and lay low the pride of the ruthless. 12 "I shall make mortal man scarcer than fine gold, and mankind scarcer than the gold of Ophir. 13 "So I shall make the heavens tremble, and the earth shall shake from her place, in the wrath of ????? of hosts and in the day of the heat of His displeasure. 14 "And it shall be as the hunted gazelle, and as a sheep that no man takes up – every man turns to his own people, and everyone flees to his own land. 15 "Whoever is found is thrust through, and everyone taken falls by the sword. 16 "And their children are dashed to pieces before their eyes, their houses plundered and their wives ravished. 17 "See, I am stirring up the Medes against them, who do not regard silver, and as for gold, they do not delight in it. 18 "And bows dash the young to pieces, and they have no compassion on the fruit of the womb, their eye spare no children. 19 "And Babel, the splendour of reigns, the comeliness of the Chaldeans' pride, shall be as when Elohim overthrew Sedom and Amarah.

Babylon is going to be destroyed by whom?

When the heaven trembles and the earth shakes it will be because of a nuclear attack. The bows cannot dash anyone to pieces, but the bows launch the arrows which are missiles and these will dash the young men and pregnant without mercy to pieces.

Take note of this verse "and everyone taken falls by the sword." They will take no prisoners. Remember this.

But who is going to do this? The Medes, verse 17, who are today also known as the Persians and also as the Iranians.

<http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Medes>

According to Herodotus, “the Medes were called anciently by all people Aryans; but when Media, the Colchian, came to them from Athens, they changed their name. Such is the account which they themselves give.” [3] Medea is the daughter of the Colchian King Aeëtes in the Greek myth, Jason and the Argonauts. There is not a clear Indo-European etymology for the name of Medes, Mâda. [4]

Herodotus, i. 101, lists the names of six Median tribes: “Thus Deioeces collected the Medes into a nation, and ruled over them alone. Now these are the tribes of which they consist: the Busae, the Paretaceni, the Struchates, the Arizanti, the Budii, and the Magi” (7.62), names of three of these have Iranian etymologies. [5]

Gudea ruler of Lagash in Mesopotamia (2143-2124 BCE) mentioned “Mada” as a land that grains grow in it.[6] Šulgi ruler of third Ur dynasty (2095-2048 BCE) built “bád mada ki” that means wall of Media.[7] “ki” is a descriptive symbol that comes after geographical places. A lot of translators translate “mada” generally into land. “mada” uses as a suffix before names of lands that are located in west of Iranian plateau like “Martu”, “Subartu”, “Anšan”, “Kimaš”, “Gutium” and etc. “Šu-Sin” ruler of third Ur dynasty (2038-2030 BCE), reported his military expedition to lands and cities of Zagros, and pillage of gold from “Mada”. Translation of “Mada” as a desert isn’t correct because all of lands uses after “Mada” are located in mountains and plateau.

By this prophecy quoted above, the Medes must have nuclear capabilities which can reach to Babylon. But Who is Babylon?

Many believe this to be Iraq and others believe it to be the USA but is it? The Mystery Babylonian religion of the Chaldeans is none other than Rome and the Catholic faith. This is easily proven from history. And this Chaldean religion will play a major role in the Heart of the New European Super Power coming on the world scene right now.

So the Medes or Iranians must have nuclear capabilities which can reach to Rome and Europe. Why do I say this?

We can read the answer in Revelation 17:15 And he said to me, “The waters which you saw, where the whore sits, are peoples, and crowds, and nations, and tongues. 16 “And the ten horns which you saw on the beast, these shall hate the whore, and lay her waste and naked, and eat her flesh and burn her with fire. 17 “For Elohim did give it into their hearts to do His mind, to be of one mind, and to give their reign to the beast, until the words of Elohim shall be accomplished. 18 “And the woman whom you saw is that great city having sovereignty over the sovereigns of the earth.”

The whore is Rome which sits upon the seven hills which Revelation also mentions.

The Ten horns mention here relate to the ten toes of Daniel. Daniel 2:41 “Yet, as you saw the feet and toes, partly of potter’s clay and partly of iron, the reign is to be divided. But some of the strength of the iron is to be in it, because you saw the iron mixed with muddy clay. 42 “And as the toes of the feet were partly of iron and partly of clay, so the reign is partly strong and partly brittle. 43 “And as you saw iron mixed with muddy clay, they are mixing themselves with the seed of men, but they are not clinging to each other, even as iron does not mix with clay. 44 “And in the days of these sovereigns the Elah of the heavens shall set up a reign which shall never be destroyed, nor the reign pass on to other people – it crushes and puts to an end all these reigns, and it shall stand forever.

These ten horns are also the ten toes described in Daniel 7: 23 “This is what he said, ‘The fourth beast is the fourth reign on earth, which is different from all other reigns, and it devours all the earth, tramples it down and crushes it. 24 ‘And the ten horns are ten sovereigns from this reign. They shall rise, and another shall rise after them, and it is different from the first ones, and it humbles three sovereigns, 25 and it speaks words against the Most High, and it wears out the set-apart ones of the Most High, and it intends to change appointed times¹ and law², and they are given into its hand for a time and times and half a time. Other prophecies show us the three nations to be humbled will be Egypt, Libya and Ethiopia. Isaiah 20 and Daniel 11.

In Psalm 83 we read how the nations have risen up and are against Israel.

1 O Elohim, do not remain silent! Do not be speechless, And do not be still, O ?!! 2 For look, Your enemies make an uproar, And those hating You have lifted up their head. 3 They craftily plot against Your people, And conspire against Your treasured ones. 4 They have said, “Come, And let us wipe them out as a nation, And let the name of Yisra’el be remembered no more.” 5 For they have conspired together with one heart; They have made a covenant against You – 6

The tents of Edom and the Yishmalites, Mo’ab and the Hagarites, 7 Gebal, and Ammon, and Amalq, Philistia with the inhabitants of Tsor, 8 Ashshur also has joined with them, They have helped the children of Lot. Selah.

All of the nations above are known as being Arabic today or a better rendering would be they are of the Muslim faith. The one exception is the nation of Ashshur, whom we have shown you in previous News letters to be Germany who is today the head of The European Union. All you have to do is follow the money to see this truth.

Daniel 11 helps to clear some of this up. 32 “And by flatteries he shall profane those who do wrong against the covenant, but the people who know their Elohim shall be strong, and shall act. (What does this verse mean? This leader is going to cause those who are supposed to be in a covenant relationship to break that covenant.)³³ “And those of the people who have insight shall give understanding to many. And they shall stumble by sword and flame, by captivity and plundering, for days.(This is speaking of the coming persecution of the saints which is to start by the end of this current 7 year period) 34 “And when they stumble, they shall be helped, a little help, but many shall join them, by flatteries. 35 “And some of those who have insight shall stumble, to refine them, and to cleanse them, and to make them white, until the time of the end, for it is still for an appointed time. 36 “And the sovereign shall do as he pleases, and exalt himself and show himself to be great above every mighty one, and speak incredible matters against the ?l of mighty ones, and shall prosper until the wrath has been accomplished – for what has been decreed shall be done – 37 and have no regard for the mighty ones of his fathers nor for the desire of women, nor have regard for any mighty one, but exalt himself above them all. 38 “But in his place he shall give esteem to a mighty one of strongholds.(This god of fortresses is today called Mary the Queen of Heaven) And to a mighty one which his fathers did not know (This is today known as Allah, a god his fathers did not know because Mohamed only came on the world scene in 700’s AD.) he shall give esteem with gold and silver, with precious stones and costly gifts. 39 “And he shall act against the strongest strongholds with a foreign mighty one, which he shall acknowledge. He shall increase in esteem and cause them to rule over many, and divide the land for gain.(this is where the king of the north has given territories to the ten Kings for their allegiance.) 40 “At the time of the end the sovereign of the South shall push at him, and the sovereign of the North rush against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships. And he shall enter the lands, and shall overflow and pass over, 41 and shall enter the Splendid Land, and many shall stumble, but these escape from his hand: Edom, and Mo’ab, and the chief of the sons of Ammon. 42 “And he shall stretch out his hand against the lands, and the land of Mitsrayim shall not escape. (this is where or near to where we are in prophecy right now. I will explain below in more detail)43 “And he shall rule over the treasures of gold and silver, and over all the riches of Mitsrayim, and Libyans and Kushites shall be at his steps. 44 “Then reports from the east and the north shall disturb him, and he shall go out with great wrath to destroy and put many under the ban, 45 and he shall pitch the tents of his palace between the seas and the splendid set-apart mountain, but shall come to his end with none to help him.

In the book the Prophecies of Abraham I show you from things in Abrahams Life time and other things that happened to Judah how during the next 7 years Judah is going to come under the control of the European Union. I will explain below how the King of the South, Iran will push at the King of the North Europe and this will provoke an invasion of the Middle East in order to provide peace to the region. This event should take place during the next seven years.

Keep in mind that the State of Israel has not kept any Sabbatical years at the right time. This is the same as keeping the weekly Sabbath on Sunday or Wednesday. It is a sin in Yahovah`s sight. Judah took possession of the land in 1948 and has not kept the Sabbatical year. Right now that is 9 Sabbatical years they have not kept. It will be 10 after 2016-2017. There is also one Jubilee year in 1996 they did not keep for a grand total of 10 or after 2016 it will be 11 years which they will owe Yahovah in letting the land rest.

We have an example of this in 2 Chronicles 36: 21 in order to fill the word of ???? by the mouth of Yirmeyahu, until the land had enjoyed her Sabbaths. As long as she lay waste she kept Sabbath, until seventy years were completed.

In order for the deception to take hold of the Messianic brethren something must first happen.

Daniel 9: 27 “And he shall confirm a covenant with many for one week. And in the middle of the week he shall put an end to slaughtering and meal offering. And on the wing of abominations he shall lay waste, even until the complete end and that which is decreed is poured out on the one who lays waste.

I have shown you from Daniels Timeline how many Messianic brethren are setting themselves up to be deceived. They do this by not checking out the historical years which are recorded and show when the real Sabbatical years occurred; but instead fall for the false truth that the Balfour declaration of 1917 must be a Jubilee year. They then erroneously add to this’ 50 years to come to 1967 and the six day war to prove they are on the right track and then add to this 50 more years to come to 2017 as the final and last Jubilee year when the Messiah is to come.

To aid in this deception they then go to 1948 and take the 62 weeks of Daniel 9:24; Notice the word there is weeks not days but weeks. So they add 62 years on to 1948 and they get 2010 which is this year. They now say that the last 7 weeks is now the next seven years.

So from Daniel 9:27 they conclude that a covenant must be made this year and will be broken in the middle of this next 7 year time period. That would be 2013-2014. Some of these false teachers even went so far as to say this covenant would take place on Shavuot. I was in Israel for Shavuot 2010 and nothing happened. But people still believe these men.

So how is Satan going to cause this deception based on the scriptures we have now read?

He has to have some sort of covenant with the State of Israel who are really just Judah. But many Messianics believe the USA to be Babylon so some sort of agreement with the USA and the State of Israel is to be expected and the USA breaking this agreement in 2013-2014.

A more realistic scenario is one where the European Union makes an agreement with Israel for protection from the Arab nations. Once this is done, then when the King of the South attacks Israel it will in effect be attacking the European Union giving this King of the North the excuse to come in a sweep throughout the Middle east. Europe has a great desire to take hold of the entire Mediterranean Sea region.

The sacrificial system in Jerusalem could then be set up only to be stopped in 2013-2014. The blood moons occur in 2014 and 2015 at Passover and Sukkot in both years.

The noose around Jerusalem’s neck would be getting tighter and tighter up until and after 2017. It is at this time and during the next couple of years until 2019 in which the King of the North, Led by Germany will make a deal with ten kings or set up ten kings during this time with the Muslim nations to aid in the destruction of the United States. Many Messianics will think this is now the last 7 year period again because it did not go exactly as they thought it would during the previous seven years. They will assume the USA to be Babylon and when it is destroyed in 2020 as I clearly show you scripturally in the Prophecies of Abraham these people will be deceived again into thinking the Leader of the European Union is the Messiah. It will in truth be the anti-messiah, and they will only realize this after a number of years.

After 2020 both the USA who makes up the lost ten tribes of Israel today and the State of Israel who are the Jewish people today and are but one of the 12 tribes of Israel will then be taken into captivity. So a number of smaller wars or skirmishes will take place leading up to this time.

The lives of you and your family are soon going to be on the line. You need to know what is going on and who is who in the coming years. Martyrdom is to begin soon; are you ready? If you have not yet read The Prophecies of Abraham then please order it today and let me prove to you what I have only skimmed here. I use a great deal more scriptures and a lot of historical notes to show you beyond all doubt what is about to happen. Those who have read it are stunned. They did not realize many of the scriptures until they could see them placed together.

If you are one of those who thinks they are about to be raptured out, then you too need to read this book before you are greatly disappointed that you are still here which you will be. Some are claiming they will be raptured this summer. Sorry you are not going to escape the coming punishment. Time to repent.

So the events we see in Israel and the coming war with Hezbollah are all a ruse by Satan so that Europe can come down and control the entire Mediterranean Sea area. It is not the last seven years as you are currently being told.

On Thursday of this past week I was reading from the Lebanon Daily Star the following article http://www.dailystar.com.lb/article.asp?edition_id=1&categ_id=2&article_id=115523# to see what the Lebanese and Syrians were saying about the Boat attack this week. I found what I read extraordinary. Here is some of what the article said.

BEIRUT: Fallout from Israel's attack on the Freedom Fleet should keep chances slim for any conflict between Lebanon and Israel in the short term, while the assault and the resulting outcry are also providing a boost for Hizbullah at home and in the region, a number of analysts told The Daily Star on Wednesday.

After a welter of belligerent rhetoric on both sides of the border at the beginning of this year, rumors swirled in Lebanon about Israel plotting a summer war on Lebanon, but the international condemnation raining down on the country after Monday morning's Freedom Fleet massacre will force it to swear off any military action in the immediate future, said retired General Elias Hanna, who teaches political science at various universities.

"Hizbullah will not provoke an Israeli war on Lebanon over the flotilla," he said. "Hizbullah will not attack Israel unless it is ordered to do so by the Iranians for purely Iranian reasons."

In addition, the Freedom Fleet attack will strengthen Hizbullah's regional standing because Turkey – a major backer of the flotilla – has moved much closer to the Iran-Syria-Hamas-Hizbullah resistance in the wake of the incident, Hanna said.

"You have a newcomer – a major ally of the United States – backing Hamas and indirectly backing Hizbullah," Hanna said of Turkey, which is also a NATO member.

With Egypt deciding to open the Rafah border crossing to ease the blockade of Gaza, Hizbullah can also claim the moral high ground against Cairo over Hizbullah's history of backing for Hamas in Gaza, Malik said.

Relations between Egypt and Hizbullah collapsed as Egypt recently convicted about 30 people on charges of spying for Hizbullah, aiding Hamas and threatening Egypt's security. Hizbullah, meanwhile, has long chastised the so-called moderate Arab regimes for accommodating Israel and the US.

"This is one opportunity for Hizbullah to get back at regimes such as Egypt and castigate them for being comatose," Malik said. "There is a very embarrassing reality that the Turks are shedding blood and the Egyptians are not."

Back in Lebanon, the Israeli assault could also serve to reignite the traditional anti-Israeli feelings among the country's Sunnis, Malik said. The sentiment had been prominent throughout much of the 20th century, pushed by popular Sunni leaders such as former Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser, but in recent years Lebanon's Sunnis had begun to view Syria as an archenemy after the 2005 assassination of former Prime Minister Rafik Hariri, Malik added. Many here have blamed Damascus in the killing of Hariri, a Sunni, but Syria has always categorically denied any involvement in the assassination.

Sunnis here had been "frustrated" by Egypt's ties with Israel, and many then held unrealized hopes that Saudi Arabia would lead the anti-Israel camp without any response; Turkey's recent actions, however, have resuscitated the anti-Israel stream among the Sunnis here and abroad, Malik said.

"This is galvanizing the Sunnis here, to some extent, back to this anti-Israel position that they used to hold before," he added. "All of a sudden, Turkey in the Sunni Arab street is reviving some of that sentiment. There's an audience waiting to be passionately aroused."

Again I ask you brethren, do you see what is going on here. Stop with the propaganda stuff and stop with the Illuminati and conspiracy theory stuff that many of you are passing around and look past the headlines and look at what is going on that is not reported. This article touches on a number of things. The line that says there is an audience waiting to be passionately aroused, is so insightful.

I have until today believed the King of the South is Egypt, not Iran, but upon reading this scripture in Daniel again I see that the King of the North after attacking the King of the south in verse 40 then reaches fourth his hand in verse 42 to then take Egypt. Maybe Iran is the King of the South.

Your bible says this in Daniel 11:40 And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over. 41 He shall enter also into the glorious land, and many countries shall be overthrown: but these shall escape out of his hand, even Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon. 42 He shall stretch forth his hand also upon the countries: and the land of Egypt shall not escape. 43 But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt: and the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall be at his steps.

Daniel 11:42 implies that Egypt will be allied with the king of the south, or Iran...The king of the south, or Iran, is going to “push at him”—that is, the king of the north (the European Union)... The king of the south is about state-sponsored terrorism. That is how Iran became king! Daniel 11:40-43 is an end-time prophecy. It is about a nation that is always pushy in its foreign policy. It pushes until it starts a war.

Here again is what was said in the Lebanese paper. . “Hizbullah will not attack Israel unless it is ordered to do so by the Iranians for purely Iranian reasons.”

So we can see that Iran is the one calling the shots.

But this paper also mentions Turkey. How does turkey fit into all of this?

I now go to <http://www.britam.org/Questions/QuesEdom.html> and you read what I have quoted; take note of each of the countries mentioned and as you do consider Psalm 83.

In our book “Ephraim” we have a whole chapter dedicated to Edom. We pointed out that EsauEdom in addition to the small Idumean entity southeast of Israel also established kingdoms elsewhere. Our Brit-Am Biblical Commentaries also recall this. We traced Edom to Tyre, Babylon, Northern Syria, Turkey, Greece, Macedonia, Thrace, the Baltic, Germany, and elsewhere. We nowhere said that Edom was a majority in these regions only that a certain Edomite presence had been recorded there whether as part of a tribal confederation or as a ruling body.

We repeat again,

WE DID NOT IDENTIFY THESE PLACES WITH EDOM but rather with an Edomite presence that could have (or have had) importance.

We quoted sources for the identifications we made.

We also located Edom in the north Syrian region and surrounding areas.

We believe that from these areas they later migrated to Europe as well as Japan.

Banyai suggest an Edomite polity in the region of Gozan. This possibility ties in with additional information pointing in the same direction.

Nachmanides and others identified UZ with Armenia meaning at that time the region of Northern Syria and this corresponds with the location of an offshoot from Edom in that region.

See:

“THE ARAB FRINGE. AN ENQUIRY CONCERNING Musri, KUSH, MELUHHA AND MAGAN”

[Lamentations 4:21] REJOICE AND BE GLAD, O DAUGHTER OF EDOM, THAT DWELLEST IN THE LAND OF UZ; THE CUP ALSO SHALL PASS THROUGH UNTO THEE: THOU SHALT BE DRUNKEN, AND SHALT MAKE THYSELF NAKED.

[Genesis 10:23] AND THE CHILDREN OF ARAM; UZ, AND HUL, AND GETHER, AND MASH.

In "Ephraim" we mention the Temenu in Gozan as well as the Tummana in northern Turkey. Gozan is in Northern Syria.

In addition a few notes from another work listing Edomite entities to the north of Israel could be in order. This source (Bar Deroma) also finds Edomites to the east and south but in this summary we are concerned only with a northerly direction.

Chaim Bar-Deroma, 'WEZEH GEVUL HAARES' ["And this shall be the border of the land", Ezekiel 47:15) Israel, 1958.

The following Notes are based on Selected points made by Bar-Deroma (pp. 347-353) and do not encompass all he wrote on the subject and they are not verbatim quotes from his work.

Edom in the North

There were numerous cities in the Roman Empire known as Caesaria.

Bar Deroma says that a certain Caesaria associated with Edom was by the Euphrates River.

The Bible says:

"OUT OF EPHRAIM WAS THERE A ROOT OF THEM AGAINST AMALEK" [Judges 5:14]

Bar Deroma takes the Hebrew translated as "OUT OF EPHRAIM WAS THERE A ROOT" ["Mini Ephraim shorsham"] as referring to a place contested by both Ephraim and Edom (Amalek).

In Hebrew the word for A ROOT is "shoresh" using the letters SRS.

Bar Deroma believes this was a place otherwise known as "Saris" or something similar and referred to in Assyrian inscriptions. He suggests a location near Tarsis in Cilicia in southeast Turkey.

Edom and UZ in Armenia

Bar Deroma quotes from the Bible:

[Lamentations 4:21] "REJOICE AND BE GLAD, O DAUGHTER OF EDOM, THAT DWELLEST IN THE LAND OF UZ"

Midrash: <>

Targum Yehonatan (Aramaic Translation): "IN THE LAND OF UZ is Armenia".

There is no difference between the Midrash and Yehonatan since the Kingdom of Persia would often extend its domain into Armenia in North Syria.

Amos speaks of Edom as linked with Gaza in the south and as associated with Tyre in the north.

[Amos 1:6] THUS SAITH THE LORD; FOR THREE TRANSGRESSIONS OF GAZA, AND FOR FOUR, I WILL NOT TURN AWAY THE PUNISHMENT THEREOF; BECAUSE THEY CARRIED AWAY CAPTIVE THE WHOLE CAPTIVITY, TO DELIVER THEM UP TO EDMOM:

[Amos 1:9] THUS SAITH THE LORD; FOR THREE TRANSGRESSIONS OF TYRUS, AND FOR FOUR, I WILL NOT TURN AWAY THE PUNISHMENT THEREOF; BECAUSE THEY DELIVERED UP THE WHOLE CAPTIVITY TO EDMOM, AND REMEMBERED NOT THE BROTHERLY COVENANT.

Bar-Deroma claims that in Amos ch.1 two separate Edomite entities are referred to, one in the south (Amos 1:6) and one (Amos 1:9) in the north.

Edom and Aram

Psalms 60

MICHTAM OF DAVID, TO TEACH; WHEN HE STROVE WITH ARAM NAHARAIM AND WITH ARAM ZOAB, WHEN JOAB RETURNED, AND SMOTE OF EDMOM IN THE VALLEY OF TWELVE THOUSAND.

[2-Samuel 8:13] AND DAVID GAT HIM A NAME WHEN HE RETURNED FROM SMITING OF THE SYRIANS [Hebrew: ARAM] IN THE VALLEY OF SALT, BEING EIGHTEEN THOUSAND MEN.

[2-Samuel 8:14] AND HE PUT GARRISONS IN EDMOM; THROUGHOUT ALL EDMOM PUT HE GARRISONS, AND ALL THEY OF EDMOM BECAME DAVID'S SERVANTS. AND THE LORD PRESERVED DAVID WHITHERSOEVER HE WENT.

Note: In Hebrew the word translated as "Syrians" is "Aram".

"Aram" [aleph-reish-mem] is spelt similarly to "Edom" [aleph-reish-vav-mem]. The second last letter (vav) in the name Edom could conceivably be deleted and still leave the meaning unchanged though I found no such examples of this in the Hebrew Concordance.

The letter "reish" (R) in ARaM in later modern Hebrew is drawn similarly to a "Dalet" (D) and a scribal error could conceivably take place causing the names "Edom" and Aram to get mixed up. This has been suggested by some but we do not accept it.

Bar Deroma suggests that in practice ARAM and Edom did intermix and that Edomites settled in Aram and became part of the Aramaeans. The same entity could therefore be referred to alternately as either Aram or Edom.

For this reason UZ is considered both part of Aram (Genesis 10:23) and part of Seir (Genesis 26:28) who was associated with Edom.

UZ according to Saadia Gaon was in the region of Damascus but the earlier Aramaic Translations located it in Armenia, and this was the identification agreed to by Nachmanides. The two sources do not necessarily contradict since the term "Damascus" could refer to an area far to the north of the city of Damascus known to us today.

In fact there were anciently two places referred to as Damascus, one the Damascus capital of Syria as we recognize it today and the other in the Gozan-Khabur area.

#3. The NORTHERN BORDERS of Biblical Israel

In addition to the above, the borders of "Armenia" frequently changed and could extent southward.

Edom and the Phoenicians

The Aramaic translation to 1-Chronicles 1:51 says that Leaders from Edom ruled over the land of the Gebals meaning the Phoenician city of Byblos north of Beirut in Lebanon.

Bar Deroma says there was a city named Caesaria in the region of Antiochia in northern Syria and this city was associated with Edom.

The Phoenician city of Tyre was divided into two sections and one of the sections was attributed to Edom.

Note:

The Phoenicians apparently called themselves Canaanites. The Greeks called them "Phoiniki" which is usually explained to mean "Red People" after the dye they produced BUT it could just as well be a translation of "Edomite".

It is worth remembering that Edom in Hebrew means "Red" (Genesis 25:30).

Bar Deroma quotes sources identifying Tyre with Edom.

The word translated as Tyre in Hebrew is TSOR literally meaning "Rock".

TSOR is spelt both with the letter "vav" representing the "O" sound and without the letter but the "O" sound being implied.

Midrash Tanchuma ("BO") says that where it is spelt in full [with the letter] the Phoenician Kingdom of Tyre is intended and where it is spelt lacking the letter the intention is to the Kingdom of Edom.

Conclusion: The sources adduced by Bar Deroma along with additional information provided both above and elsewhere by Brit-Am show that there were several entities derived from Edom and that Edom gave rise to ruling military elites in other nations. Eventually Edom apparently became an important factor in the histories of Europe and Asia.

This article sites Edom as belonging in part to Tyre, Gaza, Turkey, Syria and Germany. Please take note of Psalm 83 and then read again the Lebanese Daily Star.

I am also going to throw this into the mix this week for you to consider.

<http://www.cogwriter.com/news/prophecy/barack-obama-in-islamic-prophecy/> The question has made the rounds in Iran since last month, (2008) when a pro-government Web site published a Hadith (or tradition) from a Shiite text of the 17th century. The tradition comes from Bahar al-Anvar (meaning Oceans of Light) by Mullah Majlisi, a magnum opus in 132 volumes and the basis of modern Shiite Islam.

According to the tradition, Imam Ali Ibn Abi-Talib (the prophet's cousin and son-in-law) prophesied that at the End of Times and just before the return of the Mahdi, the Ultimate Saviour, a "tall black man will assume the reins of government in the West."

Commanding "the strongest army on earth," the new ruler in the West will carry "a clear sign" from the third imam, whose name was Hussein Ibn Ali. The tradition concludes: "Shiites should have no doubt that he is with us."

In a curious coincidence Obama's first and second names—Barack Hussein—mean "the blessing of Hussein" in Arabic and Persian. His family name, Obama, written in the Persian alphabet, reads O Ba Ma, which means "he is with us," the magic formula in Majlisi's tradition.

Also in the news this week and this is extremely terrifying. It is the current news about Spain's credit rating being downgraded. Most people did not even bat an eye at this. At least one other Group of Believers has noted this in their News Letter this past week and that is Norman Willis.

So I want to show you just how precarious the entire world is right now. This will affect your ability to purchase food and to pay your mortgage or rent that is if you have a job with which to do it. In 2008 I warned you of the impending stock market meltdown in March. By September it was on the way down and we have been feeling it ever since. Many today think we are recovering and that the worst is over. It is not, far from it. We are about to take the next leg down. Way down. If you have not yet watched the DVD of the Sabbatical and Jubilee years and how they show you the chronological order of future prophetic events then you should go to https://sightedmoon.com/sightedmoon_2015/?page_id=251

RED ALERT: Dow implosion IMMINENT! by Mike Larson June 1, 2010

This is no time for mincing words or pulling punches.

In this special red alert, I show you why the great global debt disaster is about to trigger a U.S. stock market implosion.

I show you three debt crisis warnings I've just received, telling me that global debt crisis is ALREADY beginning to impact our markets ...

I explain how Bank of America, Citibank, SunTrust and other major U.S. banks could be among the most vulnerable ...

I want stress from the outset, however, that this is more than a mere forecast. It's a solemn warning:

The U.S. stock market is showing the kind of extreme volatility and severe strains that typically precede major implosions.

There is very little time left to get your money to safety. The collapse could come at literally any moment now.

If you ignore this warning, you do so at your own peril. The price for allowing temporary rallies to lull you into a false sense of security could be sudden and could result in massive losses.

The red flashing lights are everywhere. Just three short weeks ago, an initial bout of panic selling reached such a feverish pitch, it set off some of the market's automatic "circuit breakers" that shut down trading in key stocks.

But instead of breaking the market's decline, the crash merely accelerated, driving the Dow down 1,000 points in a matter of minutes.

That fateful day is now called the "Flash Crash." But make no mistake: It is NOT a flash in the pan. Indeed ...

The crisis that triggered the Flash Crash
— the European debt disaster —is just beginning.

Why? The reason is obvious: The European debt crisis has investors more nervous than a long-tailed cat in a roomful of rocking chairs. And it is now spreading ...

* Spain is on the brink right now: If you thought the debt crisis in Greece was bad, wait till you see what's coming next! The New York Times reports that "the focus of Europe's problem is rapidly shifting from Greece to Spain, one of the world's largest economies."

In fact, Spanish authorities have just seized a major bank there and forced the merger of four others in trouble. Even more Spanish bank failures are on the way as a result of Spain's own real estate meltdown.

How much could this hurt our markets? Consider the facts:

Until now, yes, Greece was the great nemesis that caused nearly all of the panic. But Greece has only $236 billion in external debts. Spain has $1.1 trillion, or FIVE times more.

Greece owes money almost entirely to European banks, impacting U.S. banks only INDIRECTLY. Spain owes a big chunk of its debts to U.S. banks, impacting them DIRECTLY.

* European "Blacklist" growing rapidly: Portugal, Italy, and Ireland are so close on the heels of Greece and Spain, they are already on the Blacklist of virtually every lender and investor in the world.

These countries can't borrow money for their huge spending programs. They can't even roll over their old debts coming due without paying exorbitant interest rates. They have little choice but to slash their government spending — all in a last-ditch attempt to reassure their lenders. Italy proposes to lop off $31 billion in spending. Spain is contemplating the deepest budget cuts in three decades.

But that will not be nearly enough to reassure lenders ... and yet it will gut their economies even more. Result: Rising unemployment, slumping corporate profits and still GREATER danger of debt defaults.

* Like several Lehmans all failing at the same time: When Lehman Brothers went under 20 months ago, it instantly froze up global markets, shut down short-term lending, sent the economy into a nosedive, and helped drive the Dow down nearly 5,000 points.

But by any measure, a default by a country like Spain would be far bigger than that of any single corporation, with the potential to wreck even greater havoc in financial markets.

And right now, we already have three debt crisis warning signs, each flashing red ...

Debt crisis warning #1

The single most important interest rate in the entire world is now on the rise!

I'm talking about the London Interbank Offered Rate — LIBOR. This is the rate that's behind virtually every short-term loan in the United States.

When LIBOR goes up, it promptly drives up the rates in the multi-trillion-dollar market for adjustable-rate mortgages, the $7.2 trillion market for corporate loans — and more all right here in the U.S. And right now, that's precisely what LIBOR is doing — GOING UP!

That alone can be a shock to the global economy. But what is especially shocking is the fact that there's virtually nothing the Federal Reserve or even the European Central Bank (ECB) can do about it.

LIBOR is an interest rate that's determined by the supply and demand for money in the global market. The Fed and the ECB have never been able to control it — and probably never will. And yet, as I said, LIBOR impacts the rates on trillions of dollars of mortgages and other loans right here in the United States.

This has earth-shattering implications. It not only means the global debt crisis is heating up. It also means that the Fed and central banks around the world are losing their power to STOP the global debt crisis from getting a lot worse!

Debt crisis warning #2

The debt crisis IS already striking our shores!

How do we know? Because one of the world's most important measure of the debt crisis is already surging! (It's the two-year swap spread — essentially reflecting what banks charge for managing the risk on two-year loans over and above equivalent Treasury yields.)

Last year, when Washington spent trillions of dollars to rescue nearly every major U.S. bank in trouble, this crisis indicator fell sharply, signaling — at least temporarily — that the worst of the crisis had passed.

At its low, the two-year swap spread fell to a meager 9.6 points just this past March. Now it has EXPLODED to as much as 64 basis points — almost a seven-fold increase.

But now, it's surging again, up SEVEN-FOLD from its lows. The clear message: A new, potentially BIGGER debt crisis is in the offing.

Debt crisis warning #3

The cost of insuring against big corporate defaults has nearly DOUBLED in just the past few weeks!

That means investors believe the risk that corporate bonds will default has also nearly doubled!

And I am NOT talking about just junk companies that everyone knew were risky to begin with. Heck no! I'm talking about INVESTMENT-grade companies, the ones meriting some of the highest ratings handed out by S&P, Moody's, or Fitch.

The big question: If even supposedly "safe" corporate BONDS are growing riskier almost by the day ...

Imagine the massive risk investors are taking with STOCKS issued by those same corporations!

These debt crisis warnings tipped us off to the Dow's 7000-point-plus collapse of 2007-2009 ...

Now, they're warning of an equally massive bloodletting directly ahead!

Yes, that's right: These are exactly the same indicators that told us that a Great Debt Crisis would soon crush the U.S. stock market beginning back in late 2007.

They are the tools we used to warn our Safe Money subscribers of the last big market bust well ahead of time.

Now, they are telling us that we are living on borrowed time, with an equally — or more — painful stock market implosion just ahead.

Here's why this could be ...

Another Big Blow to Bank of America ... Citibank ... SunTrust ... and Hundreds More U.S. Banks

This is NOT rocket science.

We know that virtually ALL of the recovery in the stock market since March of 2009 was based largely on the assumption that "the CREDIT crisis was over." But the explosion of this new debt crisis in Europe is a stark reminder that the most severe economic catastrophe since the Great Depression is NOT over. It has merely taken on a different form.

The big dilemma: Despite the recent recovery, many of the nation's banks are STILL vulnerable. That's according to the latest ratings just released by Weiss Ratings, the only ratings that consistently warned investors, well ahead of time, of nearly every major banking failure in recent years.

* Bank of America merits a Weiss Financial Strength Rating of D (weak). It still has huge amounts of bad loans on its books, with close to one third of its capital tied up bad loans alone.

It's taking massive risks with derivatives. It's definitely not yet out of the woods.

* Citibank gets a D- for similar reasons.

* SunTrust Bank also gets a D-. Its bad loans make up an even bigger share of its capital than BofA's.

* Overall, there are 2,259 banks and thrifts in the U.S. meriting a weak Weiss Rating, with only 962 getting a strong rating. The bigger problem: The strong banks control only 3.7% of the banking industry's assets. The weak banks control 43.8%.

And this is BEFORE they feel the inevitable impacts of the European debt crisis on global markets or our economy!

Here's the key:

It was mostly the recovery in our nation's largest banks — bought and paid for by Washington — that created the illusion that a real, sustainable economic recovery was beginning.

That illusion triggered a recovery in the Dow.

But now, with thousands of U.S. banks barely able to fog a mirror ... and with European borrowers in danger of defaulting, these banks are now facing a new peril that they did not anticipate.

In any debt crisis, banks and other financial companies are inevitably the first to take the biggest hits. And if they're still loaded with bad loans — like the big banks I just told you about — they're bound to suffer massive losses.

My forecast:

Do NOT be surprised to see major financial stocks plunge back toward their lows of March 2009, taking most of the rest of the entire stock market with them!

Update as of Friday June 4, 2010

Yet ANOTHER European debt market is blowing up. This time it's Hungary. A government official said the economy there is in a "very grave situation," raising fears the country could default on its debt. That's amazing considering the country just got a $24 billion bailout back in 2008.

The result? The yield on Hungarian bonds is soaring relative to U.S. Treasuries. The Hungarian currency, the forint, is plunging in value. And the Budapest Stock Exchange index is collapsing by more than 1,200 points, or 5.5%, to around 20,800.

This kind of market action tells me the sovereign debt crisis is getting worse, not better. And the lousy economic news here in the U.S. tells me that stocks are more vulnerable than ever.
