Sighted Moon News Letter 5844-011

10th day of the Third month 5844 Years After Creation

49th day of the Counting of the Omer

June 14, 2008

Shabbat Shalom Family,

Welcome to this week's News Letter from Sightedmoon.com.

Before we get into the fifth curse of Leviticus, I would like to review the news of the week.

In the Forum area are the following headlines which can be read at

Oil Shortages: Here They Come

Are You Watching the Food Riots?

Rising oil prices increase the price of petroleum-based goods such as laundry detergent.

One Brother wrote me to let me know they were not allowed to buy rice at Costco, because the records at the store said they had never bought rice in the past. Just imagine, being not allowed to buy certain foods because you had not bought them in the past, and that is all that is available today. Seems far off, but it is here now and is already happening in North America.

The following stories are as if they were taken from our past studies. These are scary times, and most are still asleep.

Germany's Grand Strategy

German Chancellor Angela Merkel wants Germany to develop nuclear power.

In the Midwest the news this week is heavy rains and flooding and tornadoes and more deaths and more towns destroyed by those tornadoes. Some farmers were saying that if the rains don't stop they might lose the crops in the fields.

With all that we have studied up to this week, we should now know how to solve this problem. Return to Yahweh. It is that simple. But will we? No.

This weekend represents the 49th day of the counting of the Omer. The 49th day falls on Sabbath June 14th, 2008. The 50th day is the day after the Sabbath. That day is June 15th and is Sunday.

We have been talking about the Jubilee year and the Sabbatical years which are every seventh year. The Jubilee follows the seventh Sabbath or the seventh week of seven days. The Jubilee follows the 7X7 which is 49. The Jubilee is the 50th day.

Pentecost is the annual reminder of the Jubilee and where we are in the cycle.

Most everyone will agree with this. That Pentecost and the Jubilee years are very similar. But, there are still those who say that Pentecost was on Tuesday or Wednesday of this year and that the fiftieth day is in the middle of the week and does not follow a weekly Sabbath. You are welcome to disagree, but you cannot justify a fiftieth day on any day other than one which follows a Sabbath day. The same as the fiftieth year will always follow the 49th Sabbatical year. You cannot justify the Sivan 6 position of counting and agree with the way that the Jubilee is counted.

Last point. As I prepared for this week's subject, the fifth curse of Leviticus, I could not help but think of how much we have had. How much we have been blessed by Yahweh and how we all have taken it for granted. How much we have just assumed our Heavenly Father would just keep on ignoring our rebellious heart and minds. So many at work and everywhere I go constantly complain about this or that. Gives Thanks and be thankful for what you have. No matter what circumstances you are in.

Charles Stanley reminds us and I remind you also, to give thanks to your Father both on earth and in heaven for the tremendous amount of good things He has given you and although you never did thank Him, He kept silent and gave you other gifts in spite of your selfish greedy rebellious self. I may say you but in fact I am pointing the finger at myself.

As we have been showing you these past weeks, Yahweh is now punishing us. Just as our earthly Father would also punish us as a child for not obeying him, so our heavenly Father is punishing us with His righteous punishments. Terror, Drought, Famine Pestilence, War and Starvation, and lastly Captivity, which we shall show you this week.

Lev 19:2 we are told to be Holy because Yahweh is Holy.

Again in Lev 20:7 we are told to be Holy. Holy is being set apart, distinct. By obeying the torah and our Father Yahweh, we become Holy. Just by keeping the 10 commandments we will stand out from others.

This week's subject is

Captivity and Cannibalism, The Fifth Curse

Shabbat Shalom,

We have now covered the first 4 curses as explained in Leviticus 26. This used to be where I would stop my explanation of the Jubilee cycles. The first curse of Terrorism, followed by the second curse of Drought and Famines, the third curse of Pestilence, and the fourth curse of the sword, which we covered last week.

To help show this in chart form we were able to add to the web site the charts of the Jubilee cycles. Please take a look at them at:

The reason I used to stop at this point was because the audience was over whelmed with information on the Jubilee at this point, and I could not bare explaining these things to them at that time. But, I was doing them a disservice by not explaining all of it.

As of the speaking tour with the Prophecy Club I have not held back and have explained it all. This has caused many to be offended and upset at the things I say. It strikes at the core of their beliefs. Even in some of the forums I attend it has been troublesome to the bible student who knows his bible.

The problem is that most have fallen into the doctrinal trap of God is Love. In this teaching they think God would not do anything to hurt those who are being good. That is they think that by doing good and going to church on Sunday and not swearing or gambling or stealing or committing adultery that they and the ones they love are going to go to heaven when they die. Until that time they will have a blessed live. It is this teaching which causes so many to doubt the bible when bad things happen to good people.

In my presentation I not only pop that bubble, I smash it.

Because the Elohim spoken of in the bible is one of love and discipline. Of blessing and curses. Most have focused on the blessing and ignored the curses. They have focused on the love and not the discipline. The disciplines and the curses are what I have been explaining.

So be forewarned, you will not like what I have to say in this week's News Letter. It will make you upset and scare some of you.

As explained last week, by the end of this 5th curse only 10% of the 12 tribes of Israel will be left. Please stop and consider how big a number this is. In the USA, the tribe of Manasseh, there are about 300 Million people. 10% of that number would mean that 30 million will survive. On the flip side it means that 270 million are going to be wiped off the face of the earth. This is the same for the United Kingdom, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, Holland, Norway, Finland, Sweden, Denmark and any of the other countries where the Ten tribes of Israel are scattered to.

Isaiah 10:22 For though your people, O Israel, be as the sand of the sea, A remnant of them shall return. The destruction decreed shall overflow with righteousness.

Isaiah 9:8-21 The Lord sent a word against Jacob, And it has fallen on Israel. 9 All the people will know— Ephraim and the inhabitant of Samaria— Who say in pride and arrogance of heart: 10 “The bricks have fallen down, But we will rebuild with hewn stones; The sycamores are cut down, But we will replace them with cedars.” 11 Therefore the Lord shall set up The adversaries of Rezin against him, And spur his enemies on, 12 The Syrians before and the Philistines behind; And they shall devour Israel with an open mouth. For all this His anger is not turned away, But His hand is stretched out still. 13 For the people do not turn to Him who strikes them, Nor do they seek the Lord of hosts. 14 Therefore the Lord will cut off head and tail from Israel, Palm branch and bulrush in one day. 15 The elder and honorable, he is the head; The prophet who teaches lies, he is the tail. 16 For the leaders of this people cause them to err, And those who are led by them are destroyed. 17 Therefore the Lord will have no joy in their young men, Nor have mercy on their fatherless and widows; For everyone is a hypocrite and an evildoer, And every mouth speaks folly. For all this His anger is not turned away, But His hand is stretched out still. 18 For wickedness burns as the fire; It shall devour the briars and thorns, And kindle in the thickets of the forest; They shall mount up like rising smoke. 19 Through the wrath of the Lord of hosts The land is burned up, And the people shall be as fuel for the fire; No man shall spare his brother. 20 And he shall snatch on the right hand And be hungry; He shall devour on the left hand And not be satisfied; Every man shall eat the flesh of his own arm. 21 Manasseh shall devour Ephraim, and Ephraim Manasseh; Together they shall be against Judah. For all this His anger is not turned away, But His hand is stretched out still.

Last week I hinted that Judah might sell out Joseph to the Beast power, as she did twice before in history. In this chapter of Isaiah we read that Manasseh, the USA, and Ephraim, the UK, might be at war with one another, and both against Judah. I am not sure how this plays out in the future, but merely mention it at this time.

‘The Syrians before and the Philistines behind’, Is this not the Assyrians and the Arabs as we have shown you before in our studies?

Notice that Isaiah says the land is burnt up. This is a drought sent by Yahweh. Drought causes Famine. Then Isaiah says that every man shall eat of his own flesh.

What is going on here?

We need to reread Lev 26: 23 ‘And if by these things you are not reformed by Me, but walk contrary to Me, 24 then I also will walk contrary to you, and I will punish you yet seven times for your sins. 25 And I will bring a sword against you that will execute the vengeance of the covenant; when you are gathered together within your cities I will send pestilence among you; and you shall be delivered into the hand of the enemy. 26 When I have cut off your supply of bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and they shall bring back your bread by weight, and you shall eat and not be satisfied. 27 'And after all this, if you do not obey Me, but walk contrary to Me, 28 then I also will walk contrary to you in fury; and I, even I, will chastise you seven times for your sins. 29 You shall eat the flesh of your sons, and you shall eat the flesh of your daughters. 30 I will destroy your high places, cut down your incense altars, and cast your carcasses on the lifeless forms of your idols; and My soul shall abhor you. 31 I will lay your cities waste and bring your sanctuaries to desolation, and I will not smell the fragrance of your sweet aromas. 32 I will bring the land to desolation, and your enemies who dwell in it shall be astonished at it. 33 I will scatter you among the nations and draw out a sword after you; your land shall be desolate and your cities waste. 34 Then the land shall enjoy its sabbaths as long as it lies desolate and you are in your enemies' land; then the land shall rest and enjoy its sabbaths. 35 As long as it lies desolate it shall rest— for the time it did not rest on your sabbaths when you dwelt in it. 36 'And as for those of you who are left, I will send faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies; the sound of a shaken leaf shall cause them to flee; they shall flee as though fleeing from a sword, and they shall fall when no one pursues. 37 They shall stumble over one another, as it were before a sword, when no one pursues; and you shall have no power to stand before your enemies. 38 You shall perish among the nations, and the land of your enemies shall eat you up. 39 And those of you who are left shall waste away in their iniquity in your enemies' lands; also in their fathers' iniquities, which are with them, they shall waste away.

Each curse is a period of seven times, or seven years. So after sending Terrorism on us, after seven years, if we have not repented, Yahweh then sends drought and famine. This is where we are in the prophetic time line, at the end of this second period of time. If we still have not repented after seven years of this Yahweh will send on us Pestilence. If we still have stiff necks then Yahweh will send a sword to our countries, as explained in last week's News Letter.

Now, if after all this, we still do not repent, then Yahweh , who is now furious with us, is going to send severe famine on us. So severe that some will resort to eating of their own children. This will happen during the war and after the war when we are in captivity. Captivity is the fifth curse. And we will be sold and traded for sex and drinks and anything at all, as we will see later in our study.

Notice on the chart that the war is over and we are defeated by 2023. We are then taken into captivity. But the drought is still gripping the earth. We will have little or no food. After the war there will be no organized way to transport the food to the grocery stores as it is now. You will have to scavenge for every morsel you can find.

Also notice, that it is Yahweh who is sending these things upon us. As punishment for not obeying Him. He has allowed these things to happen to us because of our disobedient hearts.

We can read this again in Deuteronomy spoken by Moses himself to the people as a warning. Read it in Deuteronomy 28:45-68 Moreover all these curses shall come upon you and pursue and overtake you, until you are destroyed, because you did not obey the voice of the Lord your God, to keep His commandments and His statutes which He commanded you. 46 And they shall be upon you for a sign and a wonder, and on your descendants forever. 47 “Because you did not serve the Lord your God with joy and gladness of heart, for the abundance of everything, 48 therefore you shall serve your enemies, whom the Lord will send against you, in hunger, in thirst, in nakedness, and in need of everything; and He will put a yoke of iron on your neck until He has destroyed you. 49 The Lord will bring a nation against you from afar, from the end of the earth, as swift as the eagle flies, a nation whose language you will not understand, 50 a nation of fierce countenance, which does not respect the elderly nor show favor to the young. 51 And they shall eat the increase of your livestock and the produce of your land, until you are destroyed; they shall not leave you grain or new wine or oil, or the increase of your cattle or the offspring of your flocks, until they have destroyed you. 52 They shall besiege you at all your gates until your high and fortified walls, in which you trust, come down throughout all your land; and they shall besiege you at all your gates throughout all your land which the Lord your God has given you. 53 You shall eat the fruit of your own body, the flesh of your sons and your daughters whom the Lord your God has given you, in the siege and desperate straits in which your enemy shall distress you. 54 The sensitive and very refined man among you will be hostile toward his brother, toward the wife of his bosom, and toward the rest of his children whom he leaves behind, 55 so that he will not give any of them the flesh of his children whom he will eat, because he has nothing left in the siege and desperate straits in which your enemy shall distress you at all your gates. 56 The tender and delicate woman among you, who would not venture to set the sole of her foot on the ground because of her delicateness and sensitivity, will refuse to the husband of her bosom, and to her son and her daughter, 57 her placenta which comes out from between her feet and her children whom she bears; for she will eat them secretly for lack of everything in the siege and desperate straits in which your enemy shall distress you at all your gates. 58 “If you do not carefully observe all the words of this law that are written in this book, that you may fear this glorious and awesome name, THE LORD YOUR GOD, 59 then the Lord will bring upon you and your descendants extraordinary plagues—great and prolonged plagues—and serious and prolonged sicknesses. 60 Moreover He will bring back on you all the diseases of Egypt, of which you were afraid, and they shall cling to you. 61 Also every sickness and every plague, which is not written in this Book of the Law, will the Lord bring upon you until you are destroyed. 62 You shall be left few in number, whereas you were as the stars of heaven in multitude, because you would not obey the voice of the Lord your God. 63 And it shall be, that just as the Lord rejoiced over you to do you good and multiply you, so the Lord will rejoice over you to destroy you and bring you to nothing; and you shall be plucked from off the land which you go to possess. 64 “Then the Lord will scatter you among all peoples, from one end of the earth to the other, and there you shall serve other gods, which neither you nor your fathers have known— wood and stone. 65 And among those nations you shall find no rest, nor shall the sole of your foot have a resting place; but there the Lord will give you a trembling heart, failing eyes, and anguish of soul. 66 Your life shall hang in doubt before you; you shall fear day and night, and have no assurance of life. 67 In the morning you shall say, ‘Oh, that it were evening!’ And at evening you shall say, ‘Oh, that it were morning!’ because of the fear which terrifies your heart, and because of the sight which your eyes see. 68 And the Lord will take you back to Egypt in ships, by the way of which I said to you, 'You shall never see it again.' And there you shall be offered for sale to your enemies as male and female slaves, but no one will buy you."

No, people do not want to dwell on these scriptures. They want the God of prosperity and of good times. They do not want the mean God of the Old Testament that tells them to obey Him.

They are ignorant of the Torah and how Yahweh deals with men. If they would obey then all men would be blessed and all men would receive those blessings that Moses also speaks about.

Yahweh also warned those in Jerusalem of this same curse. Jeremiah 19:1-9 Thus says the Lord: "Go and get a potter's earthen flask, and take some of the elders of the people and some of the elders of the priests. 2 And go out to the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, which is by the entry of the Potsherd Gate; and proclaim there the words that I will tell you, 3 and say, 'Hear the word of the Lord, O kings of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem. Thus says the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel: "Behold, I will bring such a catastrophe on this place, that whoever hears of it, his ears will tingle. 4 "Because they have forsaken Me and made this an alien place, because they have burned incense in it to other gods whom neither they, their fathers, nor the kings of Judah have known, and have filled this place with the blood of the innocents 5 (they have also built the high places of Baal, to burn their sons with fire for burnt offerings to Baal, which I did not command or speak, nor did it come into My mind), 6 therefore behold, the days are coming," says the Lord, "that this place shall no more be called Tophet or the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter. 7 And I will make void the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem in this place, and I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies and by the hands of those who seek their lives; their corpses I will give as meat for the birds of the heaven and for the beasts of the earth. 8 I will make this city desolate and a hissing; everyone who passes by it will be astonished and hiss because of all its plagues. 9 And I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters, and everyone shall eat the flesh of his friend in the siege and in the desperation with which their enemies and those who seek their lives shall drive them to despair." '

Even Micah and Zechariah speak of this calamity to come upon us.

Micah 3:1-7 And I said: "Hear now, O heads of Jacob, And you rulers of the house of Israel: Is it not for you to know justice? 2 You who hate good and love evil; Who strip the skin from My people, And the flesh from their bones; 3 Who also eat the flesh of My people, Flay their skin from them, Break their bones, And chop them in pieces Like meat for the pot, Like flesh in the caldron." 4 Then they will cry to the Lord, But He will not hear them; He will even hide His face from them at that time, Because they have been evil in their deeds. 5 Thus says the Lord concerning the prophets Who make my people stray; Who chant "Peace" While they chew with their teeth, But who prepare war against him Who puts nothing into their mouths: 6 "Therefore you shall have night without vision, And you shall have darkness without divination; The sun shall go down on the prophets, And the day shall be dark for them. 7 So the seers shall be ashamed, And the diviners abashed; Indeed they shall all cover their lips; For there is no answer from God.”

Zechariah 11:4-14 Thus says the Lord my God, “Feed the flock for slaughter, 5 whose owners slaughter them and feel no guilt; those who sell them say, ‘Blessed be the Lord, for I am rich’; and their shepherds do not pity them. 6 For I will no longer pity the inhabitants of the land,” says the Lord. “But indeed I will give everyone into his neighbor’s hand and into the hand of his king. They shall attack the land, and I will not deliver them from their hand.” 7 So I fed the flock for slaughter, in particular the poor of the flock.* I took for myself two staves: the one I called Beauty,+ and the other I called Bonds;** and I fed the flock. 8 I dismissed the three shepherds in one month. My soul loathed them, and their soul also abhorred me. 9 Then I said, “I will not feed you. Let what is dying die, and what is perishing perish. Let those that are left eat each other’s flesh.” 10 And I took my staff, Beauty, and cut it in two, that I might break the covenant which I had made with all the peoples. 11 So it was broken on that day. Thus the poor* of the flock, who were watching me, knew that it was the word of the Lord. 12 Then I said to them, “If it is agreeable to you, give me my wages; and if not, refrain.” So they weighed out for my wages thirty pieces of silver. 13 And the Lord said to me, “Throw it to the potter”— that princely price they set on me. So I took the thirty pieces of silver and threw them into the house of the Lord for the potter. 14 Then I cut in two my other staff, Bonds, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

The following is from http://media.pcog.org/en/Literature/FOUR\_EN\_05.pdf The Four Horsemen as published by PCG. This 50 page book has many insights worth reading. Again I do not agree with all the PCG teach.

The Bible records numerous famines from the time of Abraham (Genesis 12:10). In fact, 13 famines have been recorded in the pages of the Bible. We may be familiar with Abraham’s great-grandson Joseph, who helped bail out the Egyptians during their seven-year famine (Genesis 41:56). God purposed that famines be used to correct corrupt leaders or problems (2Samuel 21:1; 2Chronicles 32). Examples of war-induced famines are recorded for us (2Kings 25; Jeremiah 52; Isaiah 14:30; 51:13; Jeremiah 16:4; 44:27). The famous Jewish historian Josephus recorded a Roman siege on Jerusalem that produced a famine so great that the masses resorted to cannibalism in the so-called city of peace (Wars of the Jews).

The Middle Ages, the first several hundred years after the first millennium A.D., are also known as the Dark Ages. Entire cities experienced starvation followed by killer diseases. Thousands of dead bodies could not be disposed of quickly enough. Rats spread bubonic plague throughout all of Europe.

War, one example being the Thirty Years’ War (1618-1648), was again the main culprit. Whole cities were leveled with starvation so severe that some even resorted to cannibalism!

You may read the many historical accounts for yourself.

But let’s jump ahead to modern times. Again, not every famine has been or is caused by war. Today we see cyclical famines caused by unusual weather conditions, plagues, and insect or animal infestation. Third World countries have been facing more and more mouths to feed with less and less food. This is a structural type famine that most of mankind is now facing with few or absolutely no solutions in sight!

No longer making headlines are such areas as India and several African countries (such as Nigeria, which had a civil war during the 1970s). We have all seen pictures of the bloated bellies of African babies and young skeletal children. It logically follows that starvation, or at the very least, scarcity of food, would result from prolonged warfare. Generally, it is the populace that suffers worst. Often, the damage done to an ecosystem can take years and even decades to recover from.

The summer of 1994 shocked us daily with equally stark images on our television screens from the aftermath of tribal genocide in Rwanda. The civil war ravaged north western Rwanda, widely considered the breadbasket of the country. People numbering into the millions were driven from their homes and forced into the impoverished lifestyle of refugees.

The country has struggled with food shortages and starvation ever since, relying on hundreds of thousands of tons of food assistance for its orphans, prisoners and other vulnerable groups.

Do we somehow feel that this could never happen to the greatly blessed American and British peoples? Contrary to such false assumptions, this terrible time will occur (Jeremiah 14:12-18). Multiple millions will be in for a rude awakening, despite ample warning.

As we have seen, this tragic tale of war-induced famine has repeated itself countless times down through the centuries of man's miserable and generally substandard existence. History tends to repeat itself because we usually fail to learn from it.

Over time, the problems tend to grow on a larger and grander scale, which should drive the point home.

In 1994, a Washington-based research group warned of a potential national food shortage and its consequences by or before 2030. But figure in the increasing occurrences of floods, hurricanes, earthquakes, drought and other unnatural disasters and it is sure to occur much sooner than predicted. Jeremiah attempted to describe this unparalleled moment: "Alas! for that day is great, so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob's trouble; but he shall be saved out of it." (Jeremiah 30:7).

With food as our largest export product, the United States stands to lose the most in any trade war if any natural or unnatural disasters should cause us to have a bad year. National reserves for our own needs, in case of just such an emergency, are very small and would barely last long enough to get us through to the next growing season. Who would help us, the greatest humanitarian nation ever, should we have a crisis?

Brethren, I cannot make you read those things I have read and researched in order to arrive at the conclusions I have arrived at. Some will not believe me no matter what I say.

My former association to the World Wide Church of God and the United Church of God, will cause some to dismiss these things. Although these groups had some and even many teaching correct, they also had some that were wrong. Many of the other groups I have met since leaving the COG, have many things correct and also many that are quite wrong.

I am showing you how the Jubilee cycle lays out in an orderly chronological fashion, exactly when these things will be. Again look at the charts I gave you to start this study. None of the COG's have this or teach this.

Terrorism starting in 1996 and being the head line news for 7 years.

Drought and famines during the next seven years 2003-2009

Pestilence during the next seven years from 2010-2016

War during the next seven from 2017-2023

And to where we are this week 2024 -2030 Captivity and Starvation.

Again look at the charts and read Lev 26.

Let's look at something few others consider. That is astronomy.

Last week I told you of Bob Wadsworth's site. At his site of Biblical Astronomy in the August 2002 letter Bob says the following:

The constellation Perseus or Peretz (the breaker) in Hebrew, represents Messiah coming to deliver the captive bride (Andromeda), the houses of Judah and Ephraim (Israel).

And from http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Boast\_of\_Cassiopeia, we read In Greek mythology, Andromeda was the daughter of Cepheus and Cassiopeia, king and queen of the Phoenician kingdom Ethiopia.

Her mother Cassiopeia bragged that she was more beautiful than the Nereids, the nymph daughters of the sea god Nereus and often seen accompanying Poseidon. To punish the Queen for her arrogance, Poseidon, brother to Zeus and God of the Sea, sent a sea monster, Cetus, to ravage the coast of Ethiopia and the kingdom of the vain Queen. The desperate King consulted the Ammon, the Oracle of Zeus, who announced that no respite would be found until the king sacrificed his virgin daughter Andromeda to the monster. She was duly chained to a rock on the coast.

 Andromeda exposed to the sea-monster (1869) Paul Gustave Doré,©.

 Persus-with-the-head-of-med.jpg

Perseus, returning from having slain the Gorgon

Medusa, found Andromeda and slew the monster Cetus.

He set her free, and married her in spite of Andromeda having been previously promised to Phineus.

At the wedding a quarrel took place between the rivals, and Phineus was turned to stone by the sight of the Gorgon's head (Ovid, Metamorphoses v. 1).

That is the mythology.

Here is what Yahweh is teaching you when you look to the stars.

In the night sky looking to the east in the fall of the year, is the largest constellation called Cetus. He is the monster or the beast. Chained to his neck are the two fish of Pisces. One represents Israel and the other represents Judah. This beast is always holding these two fish back and is in pursuit of destroying them.

To the north of this constellation is Andromeda. She was once a very beautiful woman, who in her pursuit of the beast she has given all she has, believing the beast to be her lover. The beast, Cetus, has never loved her, and has only wanted to destroy her.

Andromeda is chained to a rock on the ocean. She is a prisoner and a captive. She has been raped and ravaged. She is now left in chains to die at the hands of the beast. She is almost dead now and has given up all hope.

Perseus (The Messiah) with wings on his feet and on his helmet meaning he is coming quickly sees her and he sees her beauty. He goes off and slays the beast, cutting off the head. In his left hand is the head of medusa with the eight serpents for hair, representing the eight resurrections of the beast power. In his right hand is the club or sword which he subdued the beast and frees Andromeda.

To the north of this constellation is Cassiopeia and she represent Israel who has now been made the Queen, and in very short order. Beside her is Cepheus the King.

Here we have Israel being saved out of a captivity that almost destroys her to the point of total annihilation. But she is saved just in the nick of time. This is the basis of all love stories.

I understand how hard it is to believe these things are coming, when we look out the window and see the trees full of blossoms and the garden has had 100% germination, and the rivers in my area are full and the grass is green. All looks great. But it is not. This is a sixth year of the seven year cycle. Yahweh has promised to bless us with a triple yield crop so that we would have food for the next two years, when the next crop is to be ready.

But if we will not obey Him and let the land rest, woe to us. These things are coming as many of you know, the rest of the country will not let the land rest, therefore Yahweh must send His punishment of Pestilence, and War and Captivity and starvation and cannibalism.

Are you ready?

I have one more article for you to read and it is about 64 pages in length, written by C White of Australia. https://sightedmoon.com/sightedmoon\_2015/files/Slavery.pdf

With this News Letter we will have finished the 5 curses of Leviticus 26. The USA and the UK are no longer a great power and they will have been led away into captivity again. This is why they are not mentioned in the last days. In the book of Revelation. They are already wiped out.

But what is to happen next, I will explain next week. Please do read the article by C White.
This is important.

Shalom
