Shabbat Shalom to the Royal Family of Yehovah,

After I sent out last week's Newsletter, the ante in Israel was raised once more with rockets being fired into Israel from Lebanon. The effort is being made by Iran to cause Israel to have a possible two front war and be forced to split the reserves brought up to invade Gaza. I also heard that shots were sent over the Golan but I have confirmed this. As I go to post this, Israel has now sent in the IDF into Gaza. Please take a moment and pray for these young men and women. Ask Yehovah to protect them and bring them all back safely having accomplished the mission they must do. I know a number of those who will have been called up so please pray for them.

I want to share what Nehemiah Gordon has shared on his website about his family in Israel. I have met these people and I ask you all to pray for them and the rest of the country.

My mother was way too close to a falling rocket from Gaza yesterday as she drove home from a suburb of Jerusalem. My oldest sister, whose five kids were all born in Israel, shared her experiences from the latest terror war on Israeli civilians:

<<<Normal life in a war zone: After explaining to everyone that there is no way a rocket from Gaza could reach our area (because there is an 800 M high mountain (Jerusalem) between us and Gaza, which is at sea level) a rocket landed ~5 KM from my home yesterday evening. My 7 year old son Ehud was playing outside when the air-raid siren went off. He told me "I did just what they taught us to do in school: I lay down on the ground and put my arms over my head. Then I heard a big boom. When the siren went off, I went back to the game." My mother had just left my house to drive home when the siren went off, so she was only 2 KM away from the strike site. She is disabled and cannot get out of her car easily so she was in the car when the rocket hit. She told me that she saw the rocket and her car shook like a leaf when it hit.

Earlier in the week, my daughters Noa and Rachel were at Scout Camp near Bet Shemesh when a rocket landed in that area. They heard the siren and lay on the forest floor hoping for the best. The Scouts had to evacuate 2,500 kids from the campsite at night. Just to make it clear, in Israel there are almost no adults in Scout Camp, it is run totally by the teenagers. They did an excellent job and my kids even came home with most of their stuff.

I just turned on a clip on the computer about an air raid siren that went off during a wedding. Noa heard the siren and started screaming – quick, let's get into the safe room. I had to calm her down. My only real worry is my son Nitai, who is in the army. I think he was deployed to the border with Gaza, but he is not allowed to tell us.

Shabbat shalom, Ariela>>>

Also last week ICEJ bought two bomb shelters and had them delivered to Kfar Aza along the Gaza border, which has been repeatedly targeted by Hamas rocket attacks over recent days. About 100 of the rockets launched by Hamas have landed on their own people never getting out of Gaza.

And one more letter from my friend Avi ben Mordechai in Israel.

Scripture remains as clear as the noonday sunlight; that what we sow, we shall reap. For example, in the days of Yeshayahu (Isaiah), the Prophet Hosea said this as recorded in Hosea 10:12 –

Sow for yourselves righteousness; reap in mercy; break up your fallow ground, for it is time to seek Yehovah, till He comes and rains righteousness on you.

In the days of Iyov (Job), 4:8, these words were written down and given to us:

Even as I have seen, those who plow iniquity and sow trouble reap the same.

During the Second-Temple Period, in the days of Sha'ul, while writing a letter to the Galatians, he so aptly composed these clear words as recorded in Galatians 6:7:

Do not be deceived, Elohim is not mocked; for whatever a man sows, that he will also reap.

In Sefer Mishlei (Proverbs) 22:8, the measure for measure principle is again presented with these words:

He who sows iniquity will reap sorrow, and the rod of his anger will fail.

This Hebraic concept that we learn here from Scripture is called Middah K'neged Middah or simply, MEASURE FOR MEASURE. Yeshua was no stranger to this idea. He taught about it when he spoke the following as recorded in Matthew 7:1

For with what judgment you judge, you will be judged; and with the measure you use, it will be measured back to you.

Indeed, what we sow, we shall reap. It is part of the teaching of the HOLY, ETERNAL TORAH. Consider the words of Ya'acov (James), Brother of Yeshua who said this in 5:7 –

Therefore be patient, brethren, until the coming of Yehovah. See how the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the land, waiting patiently for it until it receives the early and latter rain.

This principle is not only at work in the Spiritual world; it also is at work in the Physical world. In marriage, when a man and a woman come together to produce a child, the male gives to the female a microscopic seed. She in turn takes that seed and in partnership with Yehovah, the seed is grown to its full potential while in the womb, hopefully producing from a microscopic seed, a full-term baby, some forty weeks later!

Based on the established rules of Divine Law (Torah) it is once again, Measure for Measure or Middah K'neged Middah.

So, what does all this have to do with what is going on today, in Eretz Israel? After all, at the writing of this article, we in the physical Land of Israel are getting bombarded with hundreds of deadly rockets from those whose public mission is to maim, kill, and destroy the Jews, to push them into the sea at whatever cost, and to “establish” a so-called “Palestinian State.” Yes, many hundreds of rockets have been steadily raining down on the South and west central parts of Israel (at this point), being launched from the Gaza Strip. Our nation is once again in the grips of a war with our enemies; a war that seems to have no end in sight. Multitudes of thousands of young men and women in the IDF (the Israel Defense Forces) are poised at the command of the military leaders of our national Israeli government to once again fight the “terrorist” enemy and protect our tiny country in what is being called “Operation Protective Edge.” Our Land once again is fighting for survival. Amazingly, I have noticed however, that the people of Israel are generally in solidarity! Communal prayers are being prayed in Synagogues and Houses of Torah Study. We have indeed come together as a people with a common goal and yet, we are a nation in distress, calling out to the All Eternal One of Israel for Divine favor and protection for ourselves, our sons, our daughters, our families. We are individually and collectively asking the God of Israel to hear our words and He is asking us, “Will you hear My Words”?

As a Jew and an Israeli, I do not like this horrible situation any more than the next Jew down the street. It is distressing for all of us.

For those of you that can remember, I lost my son – Yonatan Benyamin “Yoni” at the young tender age of 24 years old. He was an IDF soldier and commander in an IDF elite unit of the Paratroopers – 101 (Tzanchanim). My son fought in two wars for this country of Israel. In 2005, he was ordered to fight against 10,000 of his fellow Jews in Gaza, when then Prime Minister Ariel Sharon ordered all the Jewish families in the area to evacuate their homes in Gaza so that Israel could be “kind enough” to give the Land over to our sworn enemies, who are now raining down rockets on us in a deadly game of terror. Yonatan followed military government orders and did his job to forcibly remove thousands of Jews from their homes. Then, in July of 2006, Yonathan was called up again with his unit to fight against our sworn enemies hunkered down in Lebanon. He faithfully went out to war, to just beyond the Lebanese border with many of our other our sons and daughters in the IDF. He had to do and see and experience the ravages of bombs and blood that no young man should ever have to see and do at his tender age. In serving a country that was his as a Jew, Yonatan, my only son, gave up his life and became another casualty of Israel’s many fallen soldiers. But, to what end, I ask? To what end?

Let’s come back to the principle of Middah K’neged Middah – Measure for Measure. Again, as Sha’ul said in Galatians 6:7 –

Do not be deceived, Elohim is not mocked; for whatever a man sows, that he will also reap.

Psalm Seven (7) gives us an answer that we need to pay attention to. It says in verses 3 through 5 –

O Yehovah my Elohim, if I have done this: If there is injustice (dishonesty – Hebrew – Aval) in my hands, if I have repaid evil to him who was at peace with me, or have plundered my enemy without cause, let the enemy pursue me and overtake me; Yes, let him trample my life to the earth, and lay my honor in the dust.

Has our Israeli government – the Jews; that is our government leaders and even the common people of this Land – have we individually and collectively launched our own barrage of rockets of injustice and dishonesty against non-Jews, perhaps like you, who want to obey the Torah of all Israel and join in spiritual and physical solidarity with Brother Judah? Have we launched our own rockets of baseless hatred even against fellow Jews that reside within this Land, treating each other as trash, as rubbish? Have we been raining down rejection and disdain and dishonesty on those amongst Ephraim and all Israel scattered among the nations? Individuals and families that would strongly desire to come here to visit Eretz Israel, have also tried to live here and help settle this Land along with Brother Judah. Have we Jews in our religious and political institutions been guilty of treating Ephraim and yes, even each other here in this Land of Israel with contempt, glorifying a “We are Jews” culture and maintaining a “Me First” mentality within our everyday lives? Have we been guilty of dishing out to Jews and non-Jews alike, dishonest weights and measures? This list could go on and on for pages but I will spare you. Those of you that have been here to visit this Land, and even have desired to live here, you know what I am saying is true. You are generally treated with disrespect and there is nothing that is done for you. And even for me, a Jew, I experience this every day – a culture that seems to glorify Jewish arrogance – religious or political. It matters not.

As a Jew, I apologize to you for the way that my fellow Jews treat you. They say, “Bring your money” but DO NOT overstay your welcome! And especially to those of you that would strongly desire to live here, to walk in the pure and wonderful Torah of all Israel, but are forced by government regulations and unjust laws to jump through all kinds of hoops to get “permission” to stay for more than three months. I am sorry for the way Brother Judah treats you. I am ashamed! Please, forgive us.

For us it shall be Middah K'neged Middah – Measure for Measure.

Let the Eternal Truth of the Torah of ALL ISRAEL be established. Whatever a man sows, this he will also reap. And thus, the words of Psalm Seven are coming in loud and clear:

Let the enemy pursue me and overtake me; Yes, let him trample my life to the earth, and lay my honor in the dust. (Psalm 7:5, English)

Psalm Seven draws a conclusion in these words, once again showing us the principle of Middah K'neged Middah – Measure for Measure:

Behold, he brings forth iniquity; Yes, he conceives trouble and brings forth falsehood. He made a pit and dug it out, and has fallen into the ditch he made.

Indeed, the one who has repaid evil; the one who has dished out injustice and dishonesty; the one who has plundered his enemy; this is the one that the words of Psalm Seven shall be fulfilled:

His trouble shall return upon his own head and his violent dealing shall come down on his own crown.

Make no mistake about it. The rockets of Hamas, the terrorists of Hezbollah, the fierce amongst the Palestinian Arabs are all instruments in the Hands of Yehovah to discipline our nation, our people, our country, our leaders, even our common hard-working Israelis – all of us that are named as B'ne Israel (the people of Israel); that we should take heed to what is in our hearts and remember that what we sow into the lives of others, we shall in due time, reap what we have sown. However, Yehovah's mercy endures forever and even despite all of this, Yehovah remains faithful to us and shows us great mercy over and over again as it is written in the righteous prayer of Nehemiah 9:1338, but particularly what is written in Nehemiah 9:30-31.

Let the political and religious leaders of Israel recognize that WE are the ones bringing all this distress upon our own heads. This is our doing or perhaps our undoing! For Scripture remains true many, many times in the biblical texts, when it teaches us the principle of Exodus 23:9 –

Also you shall not oppress a stranger, for you know the heart of a stranger, because you were strangers in the land of Egypt.

Thus again, I state for the record, Middah K'neged Middah!

If we want the rockets to stop; if we want shalom in Israel; if we want our sworn enemies to go away and stop regularly pounding on us; if we want Mashiach to come and be our King, we absolutely must walk in and according to Yehovah's Eternal, Established Kingdom Law and not contrary to it. To walk contrary the Torah, we shall continue to reap what we sow.

He has shown you, O man, what is good; And what does Yehovah require of you but to do justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God? (Micah 6:8)

There are two things I want to point out to you so you can keep them in mind as you continue to watch these events on the nightly news and read about them in your bible.

The first is the four horsemen of Revelation.

Rev 6:2 And I saw. And behold a white horse! And he sitting on it had a bow. And a crown was given to him, and he went forth conquering and to conquer.

The white horse is not the Messiah, as some religions suppose. No, the white horse is false religion. It is Islam and it is also Christianity. Both have past and present history to show how they forced those they subdued to accept the conquering religion. But I also want to point out the bow. Yehshua is always depicted with a two edged sword coming out of His mouth, indicating the word of Torah cutting like a two edged sword. The bow on the other hand is represented of the Hunters who are now coming.

Gen 16:11 and the messenger of Jehovah saith to her, 'Behold thou art conceiving, and bearing a son, and hast called his name Ishmael, for Jehovah hath hearkened unto thine affliction; 12 and he is a wild-ass man, his hand against every one, and every one's hand against him—and before the face of all his brethren he dwelleth.'

Gen 21:17 And God heard the voice of the lad; and the angel of God called to Hagar out of heaven, and said unto her, What aileth thee, Hagar? fear not; for God hath heard the voice of the lad where he is. 18 Arise, lift up the lad, and hold him in thine hand; for I will make him a great nation. 19 And God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water; and she went, and filled the bottle with water, and gave the lad drink. 20 And God was with the lad; and he grew, and dwelt in the wilderness, and became an archer.

Here we can see that Ishmael is an archer. And as we read further in Genesis we learn that Esau was also a skilled hunter with the bow.

Gen 25:27 And the boys grew. And Esau was a man knowing hunting, and Jacob was a simple man, living in tents.

Gen 27:1 And it happened when Isaac was old and his eyes were dim, so that he could not see, he called his oldest son Esau and said to him, My son. And he said to him, Behold, I am here. 2 And he said to him, Behold, here am I. And he said, Behold now, I am old, I do not know the day of my death. 3 And now please take your weapons, your quiver and your bow, and go out to the field and hunt game for me. 4 And make tasty meat for me, such as I love, and bring to me so that I may eat, that my soul may bless you before I die.

We read how Isaac was tricked into blessing Jacob, but Isaac had another blessing for Esau.

Gen 27:32 And his father Isaac said to him, Who are you? And he said, I am your son, your firstborn, Esau. 33 And Isaac trembled with a great trembling, and said, Who then was the one who has hunted deer and brought to me, and I have eaten of all before you came, and have blessed him? Yea, he shall be blessed! 34 And when Esau heard the voice of his father, he cried with a great and exceeding bitter cry, and said to his father, Bless me, me also, O my father! 35 And he said, Your brother came with deceit, and has taken away your blessing. 36 And he said, It is because his name is called Jacob? For he has supplanted me these two times: he took away my birthright, and behold, now he has taken away my blessing. And he said, Have you not reserved a blessing for me? 37 And Isaac answered and said to Esau, Behold! I have made him your lord, and all his brothers I have given him for servants. And with grain and wine I have supported him. And what shall I do now to you, my son? 38 And Esau said to his father, Have you but one blessing, my father? Bless me, me also, my father. And Esau lifted up his voice and wept. 39 And Isaac his father answered and said to him, Behold! Your dwelling shall be of the fatness of the earth and of the dew of heaven from above. 40 And by your sword you shall live, and shall serve your brother. And it shall be when you shall have the dominion, you shall break his yoke from off your neck. 41 And Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing with which his father had blessed him. And Esau said in his heart, The days of mourning for my father are at hand. Then I will kill my brother Jacob.

Pay close attention to the words in verse 40.

40 And by your sword you shall live, and shall serve your brother. And it shall be when you shall have the dominion, you shall break his yoke from off your neck.

H7300 ???? ru?d rood

A primitive root; to tramp about, that is, ramble (free or disconsolate): – have the dominion, be lord, mourn, rule.

Now I have an assignment for you all. Before you read any further, go and watch the teaching on Assyria because I am not going to explain all of this again here. As you watch the video, make note of the word dominion, or trample. And consider these things in light of what I explain in the video about Assyria. Ishmael and Esau are the hunters. Islam is the religion that is going to conquer. Why, you may ask?

Because Israel, all 13 tribes, would not heed the voice of those Yehovah sent to lure Israel back to the Torah.

Jer 16:14 So, behold, the days come, says Jehovah, that it shall no more be said, As Jehovah lives, who brought up the sons of Israel out of the land of Egypt; 15but, As Jehovah lives, who brought up the sons of Israel from the land of the north, and from all the lands where He had driven them. And I will bring them again into their lands that I gave to their fathers. 16Behold, I will send for many fishermen, says Jehovah, and they will fish them. And afterwards I will send for many hunters, and they will hunt them from every mountain and from every hill, and out of the holes of the rocks. 17For My eyes are on all their ways; they are not hidden from My face, nor is their iniquity hidden from My eyes. 18And first I will twice repay their iniquity and their sin, because they have defiled My land, they have filled My inheritance with the dead bodies of their abominable things.

Yehovah is now preparing the hunters who are in the process of throwing off the yoke of Jacob, and are now about to go hunt all 13 tribes of Israel and kill 90% of them. It is now time to keep the Sabbath, the Holy Days of Lev 23 and not add any others to them. And you must keep the Sabbatical year in 2016 if you want any hope of being protected from all that is about to come.

The second horseman is the red horse.

Rev 6:3 And when He had opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature say, Come and see. 4 And another, a red horse, went out. And power was given to him sitting on it, to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another. And there was given to him a great sword.

We have been warning you now for years that the 4th curse of Lev 26 is the curse of the sword.

Lev 26:25 And I will bring a sword on you that shall execute the vengeance of the covenant. And when you are gathered inside your cities, I will send the plague among you. And you shall be delivered into the hand of the enemy. 26 When I have broken the staff of your bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and they shall deliver you your bread again by weight. And you shall eat and not be satisfied.

This 4th Sabbatical cycle is when this 4th curse is to come. And if that scares you enough to begin to obey, then awesome. I have been accused of fear mongering by hypocritical leaders. It is Yehovah who is going to scare the tar out of all of those who will not obey. Are you one of those stubborn and rebellious ones who refuse to keep the Sabbath, and Holy Days of Lev 23 and the Sabbatical year?

War is coming and it racing to get to you.

The 3rd horse of Revelation 6 is the black one.

Rev 6:5 And when He had opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature say, Come and see. And I looked, and lo, a black horse. And he sitting on it had a balance in his hand. 6 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four living creatures say, A choenix of wheat for a denarius, and three choenixes of barley for a denarius. And do not hurt the oil and the wine.

Have you connected the dots yet? This third horse comes after, and during, and because of this war. YOU ARE NOT GOING TO BE RAPTURED OUT OF HERE!!!!

Because you do not keep the commandments, because you will not keep the 7th Day Sabbath or the Holy Days of Lev 23 according to the sighted moon to begin the month and the barley being aviv to begin the year, and because you will not keep the Sabbatical year the next one is in 2016 – because you will not do this, you will eat your own flesh and be starving continuously.

Lev 26:26 When I have broken the staff of your bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and they shall deliver you your bread again by weight. And you shall eat and not be satisfied. 27 And if you will not for all of this listen to Me, but will walk contrary to Me, 28 then I will walk contrary to you also in fury. And I, even I, will chastise you seven times for your sins. 29 And you shall eat the flesh of your sons, and the flesh of your daughters you shall eat.

The 4th horse is the pale one and it represents death. One quarter of the earth's population is going to die by sword and famine and be eaten by animals.

Rev 6:7 And when He had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature say, Come and see. 8 And I looked, and behold, a pale horse. And the name of him sitting on it was Death, and Hell followed with him. And authority was given to them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with the sword and with hunger and with death and by the beasts of the earth.

I want you all to once again notice those of the 5th seal here. These are those saints

9 And when He had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been slain for the Word of God, and for the testimony which they held. 10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying, Until when, Master, holy and true, do You not judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell on the earth? 11 And white robes were given to each one of them. And it was said to them that they should rest yet for a little time, until both their fellow servants and their brothers (those about to be killed, as they were) should have their number made complete. 12 And when He had opened the sixth seal, I looked, and behold, there was a great earthquake. And the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became like blood.

That word slain in verse 9 is butchered and slaughtered;

G4969 ?????? sphazo? sfad'-zo

A primary verb; to butcher (especially an animal for food or in sacrifice) or (generally) to slaughter, or (specifically) to maim (violently): – kill, slay, wound.

Understand what is going on here, brethren. Those of you who will not obey are going to be slaughtered and butchered and have your heads cut off. Tell me what group of people do that today. You can see them on the nightly news.

Rev 20:4 And I saw thrones, and they sat on them, and judgment was given to them. And I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for the witness of Jesus and for the Word of God, and who had not worshiped the beast nor his image, nor had received his mark on their foreheads, nor in their hands. And they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years. 5 But the rest of the dead did not live again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection. 6 Blessed and holy is he who has part in the first resurrection. The second death has no authority over these, but they will be priests of God and of Christ, and will reign with Him a thousand years.

This is a protest of Israel by Palestinians, not in Gaza, but in downtown Chicago on July 5. Take note of the colours of the flag.

The same colours of the four horsemen. The white Horse, the red horse, the black horse and the pale horse. Do you not hear Yehovah screaming at you? Those who will slaughter you are already here and you have no idea how bad it is going to be. Islam is the third largest faith in North America.

I have a question for you.

Are you ready to watch the Genocide of all those in Gaza?

Zep 2:1 Gather yourselves together; yea, gather, O nation not desired; 2 before the birth of the decree, the day shall pass like the chaff; yet not before the hot anger of Jehovah comes on you, yet not before the day of Jehovah's anger comes on you. 3 Seek Jehovah, all the meek of the earth who have done His justice; seek righteousness; seek meekness. It may be you shall be hidden in the day of Jehovah's anger. 4 For Gaza shall be forsaken, and Ashkelon a ruin. They shall drive out Ashdod at the noonday, and Ekron shall be rooted up. 5 Woe to the inhabitants of the sea coast, the nation of the Cherethites! The Word of Jehovah is against you: Canaan, the land of the Philistines, I will destroy you, so that no inhabitant survives. 6 And the sea coast will be pastures, meadows of shepherds, and folds for flocks. 7 And the coast shall be for the remnant of the house of Judah; they shall feed on them. In the houses of Ashkelon they shall lie down in the evening, for Jehovah their God shall visit them and turn away their captivity.

Isa 14:29 Rejoice not, O Philistia, all of you, that the rod of your striking is broken. For a viper comes forth from the root of a snake, and his fruit shall be a fiery flying serpent. 30 And the firstborn of the poor shall feed, and the needy shall lie down in safety; and I will kill your root with famine, and he shall slay your remnant. 31 Howl, O gate! Cry, O city! O Philistia, all of you, are melted away; for from the north a smoke comes, and no straggler in his ranks. 32 What shall one then answer the messengers of the nation? That Jehovah has founded Zion, and the poor of His people shall trust in it.

The 6th seal of Revelation 6 is about the moon being turned to blood and the sun going into eclipse. .

12 And when He had opened the sixth seal, I looked, and behold, there was a great earthquake. And the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became like blood.

Father Yehovah, open up the eyes of your people to see the truths You have revealed about the Sabbatical and Jubilee years, the facts that are so obvious. Help them to see these truths

Psa 119:18 Open my eyes, so that I may behold wonderful things out of Your Law.

The second thing I want to point out is our proof of when the Sabbatical Years occur and as we've said many times, they are not just for those "in the land", but for all of us wherever we dwell. Being righteous means keeping His Law, His Torah and that includes all of the Sabbaths.
