Shabbat Shalom Brothers and Sisters of Yehovah family,

This Week in the Mail

Hi Pauline, I thought I would check in to see how things going.. I got question have your met Joseph Dumond, I'm just wondering. I tell you I have learned so much in his teachings, I feel I need to relisten to his teachings and I have read 3 of his books.. It's amazing how close we are to some major events that is coming. I have one question for him, and that is how can we do the barley harvest if we have no access to any barley.. I also have learn how to keep the fall feast though I'm the only one doing here in home. If it means camping out in yard, I don't have a back yard for that, so I don't know how or what to do, yet I want to be obedient to Yahuwah....

Isaiah 58 has so many good things to teach us. I just can't separate them this week.

Isaiah 58 “Cry aloud; do not hold back; lift up your voice like a trumpet; declare to my people their transgression, to the house of Jacob their sins. Yet they seek me daily and delight to know my ways, as if they were a nation that did righteousness and did not forsake the judgment of their God; they ask of me righteous judgments; they delight to draw near to God. Why have we fasted, and you see it not?

Why have we humbled ourselves, and you take no knowledge of it?’

Behold, in the day of your fast you seek your own pleasure, and oppress all your workers.

Behold, you fast only to quarrel and to fight and to hit with a wicked fist. Fasting like yours this day will not make your voice to be heard on high. Is such the fast that I choose, a day for a person to humble himself? Is it to bow down his head like a reed, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? Will you call this a fast, and a day acceptable to the Lord?

“Is not this the fast that I choose:

to loose the bonds of wickedness, STOP SINNING to undo the straps of the yoke, STOP CHURCH TRADITIONS OF BONDAGE to let the oppressed go free, and to break every yoke?

Is it not to share your bread with the hungry THE BREAD OF LIFE IS THE TORAH AND THE HUNGRY THOSE WHO DO NOT KNOW IT and bring the homeless poor into your house; when you see the naked, to cover him, and not to hide yourself from your own flesh? Then shall your light break forth like the dawn, and your healing shall spring up speedily; your righteousness shall go before you; the glory of the Lord shall be your rear guard.

Then you shall call, and the Lord will answer; THIS IS HOW YOUR PRAYERS WILL BE HEARD you shall cry, and he will say, 'Here I am.' If you take away the yoke from your midst, the pointing of the finger, and speaking wickedness, if you pour yourself out for the hungry and satisfy the desire of the afflicted, then shall your light rise in the darkness and your gloom be as the noonday. And the Lord will guide you continually and satisfy your desire in scorched places and make your bones strong; and you shall be like a watered garden, like a spring of water, whose waters do not fail.

And your ancient ruins shall be rebuilt; you shall raise up the foundations of many generations; you shall be called the repairer of the breach, the restorer of streets to dwell in.

“If you turn back your foot from the Sabbath, from doing your pleasure on my holy day, and call the Sabbath a delight and the holy day of the Lord honorable; if you honor it, not going your own ways, or seeking your own pleasure, or talking idly; then you shall take delight in the Lord, and I will make you ride on the heights of the earth; I will feed you with the heritage of Jacob your father, for the mouth of the Lord has spoken.”

The Law written on our Hearts & Minds

Recently the comments at the end of our newsletters have been receiving the views of those who would be called Christian. The more they try to justify themselves on not keeping the law the more idiotic they become.

We are going to address one or two of the arguments each week that Christianity puts up to help you to be able to swing the sword of your mouth with much more accuracy and skill. One of the letters I recently received from Cambodia was an earnest desire to learn how to debate with people with knowledge and understanding and wisdom. We are going to try and give you some of those qualities.

The lead up to this part of the newsletter took place over the past couple of weeks in the comments section of our newsletter. I hope you do come back now and then and take a look at the comments. Some of them are very enlightening and others, well, not so much.

I am going to quote from one of the comments and then we are going to walk through it so you can understand. At least it is my hope you will understand.

You have ignored the writings of the Apostle Paul which make it as plain as can be that the law is now in our hearts and minds and the New Covenant has been established and that we live in the spirit of grace. Romans 7 makes it very clear. Romans 7:6 “BUT NOW WE ARE DELIVERED FROM THE LAW THAT BEING DEAD WHEREIN WE WERE HELD; THAT WE SHOULD SERVE IN NEWNESS OF SPIRIT (the law is now in our hearts and minds)AND NOT IN THE OLDNESS OF THE LETTER.” Joe and his followers are still in the oldness of the letter.

Paul makes it clear that the law was not sin in verse 7. Please tell me where moon sightings, Sabbatical years, barley observations are mentioned in the New Testament. They are not.

Normative Christianity grew because of the central doctrine of the New Testament which is grace. Paul speaks over and over and over and over again about a New Covenant. Hebrews 8:7 “For if that FIRST COVENANT had been faultless then should no place have been sought FOR THE SECOND. VERSE 8 Behold the days come saith the Lord, WHEN I WILL MAKE A NEW COVENANT WITH THE HOUSE OF ISRAEL AND WITH THE HOUSE OF JUDAH.

VERSE

9 not according to the COVENANT THAT I MADE WITH THEIR FATHERS IN THE DAY WHEN I TOOK THEM OUT OF EGYPT...VERSE 10 For this is the covenant I shall make with them...

“I WILL PUT MY LAWS INTO THEIR MIND AND WRITE THEM IN THEIR HEARTS .”

You ignore the writings of Paul and the New Testament. Christ appeared to Paul and made him the apostle to the Gentiles and gave him the central teaching of normative Christianity which is there is a New Covenant and the Spirit of Grace has put the law in our hearts and minds. You ignore this central teaching at your own peril and eternity.

Blessings,

Name withheld by me

Before we do anything at all or before you ever begin a discussion with anyone that calls themselves Christian, you must read 2 Pet 3:14-18 in order to know they are twisting the scriptures of Paul into a new doctrine that Paul NEVER TAUGHT! But Christianity has twisted the writings of Paul and done so to such a degree that now Paul has replaced Yehshua as the Messiah. Keep this in your mind always, when you are dealing with Christians. They do not see it and will not see it until Yehovah and Yehovah alone removes the veils from their eyes. You cannot do it with all your logic. Only when they repent and begin to obey will Yehovah open their eyes to the truth.

So keep that in mind.

2 Pet 3:14 Therefore, beloved, looking forward to these things, be diligent to be found by Him in peace, without spot and blameless; and consider that the longsuffering of our Lord is salvation—as also our beloved brother Paul, according to the wisdom given to him, has written to you, as also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things, in which are some things hard to understand, which untaught and unstable people twist to their own destruction, as they do also the rest of the Scriptures.

You therefore, beloved, since you know this beforehand, beware lest you also fall from your own steadfastness, being led away with the error of the wicked; but grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

And I have seen many a Messianic come out of Christianity believing the Old and the New Testament only to be tripped up by the anti-Missionary telling them the lies about Paul that Christians believe. These Messianic brethren then stop believing anything Paul wrote. Shortly after this, they stop believing anything Yehshua said or the New Testament and after a while, they stop believing the bible at all and walk away throwing their hands in the air. It is very sad to watch and witness to. And yet I have seen it many times since I began this walk in 1982.

I had begun to work on this teaching when I went to a combined service with groups from Guelph and Barrie and Toronto. And we got to listen to one teacher from Barrie by the name of Rudy Grewal. And in his presentation on the Mikveh were the very same scriptures I had for this teaching and a few more that had never crossed my mind. It was a very divine day to hear him speak. So I have included his one-hour video teaching for you to watch and listen to about the Mikveh. And if you in the Barrie area and would like to join them in the mikveh this coming August 11, 2018 then do contact them or follow the instruction at the end of the video.

The comments I have above from last week is saying that we do not have to keep the “OLD” Testament because they or we are under the “NEW” Testament laws of Grace. he then goes on to quote

Hebrews 8:7 For if that first covenant had been faultless, then no place would have been sought for a second. Because finding fault with them, He says: “Behold, the days are coming, says the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah— not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they did not continue in My covenant, and I disregarded them, says the Lord. For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord: I will put My laws in their mind and write them on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be My people. None of them shall teach his neighbor, and none his brother, saying, ‘Know the Lord,’ for all shall know Me, from the least of them to the greatest of them. For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their lawless deeds I will remember no more.”

I have highlighted what Yehovah is going to put in our minds and in our hearts. Hebrews 8 is telling us that Yehovah is going to put HIS LAWS into our minds and our hearts. HIS LAWS!!!.

But to understand this completely you must read Hebrews 9 and 10 and 11 and 12 and 13.

The writer of Hebrews is talking about the sacrifices which represented Yeshua who was the real deal. Hebrews is talking about the sacrificial laws that Yeshua replaced by being the sacrifice at Passover. It is not talking about the covenant made at Mount Sinai which all Christians assume it is. Well actually they want to keep the commandments, they just do not want to keep the 4th commandment and that is what they are in arms over.

The book of Hebrews is quoting the book of Jeremiah which is in the “OLD” Testament.

Jeremiah 31:31 “Behold, the days are coming, says the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah— not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt, My covenant which they broke, though I was a husband to them, says the Lord. But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord: I will put My law in their minds, and write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be My people. No more shall every man teach his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying, ‘Know the Lord,’ for they all shall know Me, from the least of them to the greatest of them, says the Lord. For I will forgive their iniquity, and their sin I will remember no more.”

Even in the book of Ezekiel it is written:

Ezekiel 36:22 “Therefore say to the house of Israel, “Thus says the Lord God: “I do not do this for your sake, O house of Israel, but for My holy name’s sake, which you have profaned among the nations wherever you went. And I will sanctify My great name, which has been profaned among the nations, which you have profaned in their midst; and the nations shall know that I am the Lord,” says the Lord God, “when I am hallowed in you before their eyes. For I will take you from among the nations, gather you out of all countries, and bring you into your own land. Then I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you shall be clean; I will cleanse you from all your filthiness and from all your idols. I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit within you; I will take the heart of stone out of your flesh and give you a heart of flesh. I will put My Spirit within you and cause you to walk in My statutes, and you will keep My judgments and do them. Then you shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; you shall be My people, and I will be your God. I will deliver you from all your uncleannesses. I will call for the grain and multiply it, and bring no famine upon you. And I will multiply the fruit of your trees and the increase of your fields, so that you need never again bear the reproach of famine among the nations. Then you will remember your evil ways and your deeds that were not good; and you will loathe yourselves in your own sight, for your iniquities and your abominations. Not for your sake do I do this,” says the Lord God, “let it be known to you. Be ashamed and confounded for your own ways, O house of Israel!”

Notice that Ezekiel is talking about the end of this age when this is going to happen.

For I will take you from among the nations, gather you out of all countries, and bring you into your own land.

The very same thing that Jeremiah is talking about and the very same thing Hebrews is talking about. This is not a “NEW” Testament thing. It is an “OLD Testament thing that Yehovah is going to do.

In that discussion in our comments section, I finally got one of the evangelicals to tell me what are the New Testament laws that will be written on our hearts and minds. and he said they are the laws from Mount Sinai. And he is correct. He then wrote back to say the Law that will be written on our minds is the law of Love. And he is again correct if he understands that the Ten Commandments are the law of love.

John 14:15 If you love Me, you will keep My commandments.

1 John 5:2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and keep His commandments. For this is the love of God, that we keep His commandments. And His commandments are not burdensome.

The Ten Commandments found in Exodus 20 are the laws that will be written on our hearts and in our minds.

Read again Deuteronomy 6:4

“Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one! You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your strength.

“And these words which I command you today shall be in your heart. You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, when you walk by the way, when you lie down, and when you rise up. You shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes. (Your MIND) You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.

Deut 10:12 “And now, Israel, what does the Lord your God require of you, but to fear the Lord your God, to walk in all His ways and to love Him, to serve the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul, and to keep the commandments of the Lord and His statutes which I command you today for your good? Indeed heaven and the highest heavens belong to the Lord your God, also the earth with all that is in it. The Lord delighted only in your fathers, to love them; and He chose their descendants after them, you above all peoples, as it is this day. Therefore circumcise the foreskin of your heart, and be stiff-necked no longer.

Then we can read what is the greatest commandment as told to us by Yehshua.

Mat 22:36 Then one of them, a lawyer, asked Him a question, testing Him, and saying, “Teacher, which is the great commandment in the law?”

Jesus said to him, “ ‘You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.’ This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like it: ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’ On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.”

So here in the “OLD ” Testament we have Yehovah telling us to write the commandments on our hearts and minds and in the “NEW” testament we have Yehshua saying the same thing and we have the writer of Hebrews, because we do not know for sure who wrote this book, telling us exactly the same thing that Jeremiahs says, that Yehovah will;

I will put My law in their minds, and write it on their hearts

At the end of that comment by the Christian above he says “the Spirit of Grace”

What is that about?

We read in Exodus 20:5

For I, the Lord your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children to the third and fourth generations of those who hate Me, but showing mercy to thousands, to those who love Me and keep My commandments.

Yehovah gives His mercy, His grace to those who love Him and Keep His Commandments. Christians talk about the law of Grace and have no clue what it is.

Read it again.

Yehovah gives His mercy, His grace to those who love Him and Keep His Commandments.

Again in Hebrews, we read;

Hebrew 10:29 For if we go on sinning deliberately after receiving the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, but a fearful expectation of judgment, and a fury of fire that will consume the adversaries. Anyone who has set aside the law of Moses dies without mercy on the evidence of two or three witnesses. How much worse punishment, do you think, will be deserved by the one who has trampled underfoot the Son of God, and has profaned the blood of the covenant by which he was sanctified, and has outraged the Spirit of grace?

Yehshua died in our place. We were guilty of breaking the law of Mount Sinai. We broke the covenant. The penalty for doing that is death. So we were supposed to pay that penalty with our own lives. We were married to Yehovah. the covenant of Mount Sinai is a marriage contract, a ketubah and we were the adulterous betrothed wife.

We were then given a bill of divorce by Yehovah.

Jeremiah 3:6 “Have you seen what backsliding Israel has done? She has gone up on every high mountain and under every green tree, and there played the harlot. And I said, after she had done all these things, ‘Return to Me.’ But she did not return. And her treacherous sister Judah saw it. Then I saw that for all the causes for which backsliding Israel had committed adultery, I had put her away and given her a certificate of divorce; yet her treacherous sister Judah did not fear, but went and played the harlot also.

Now pay attention to Deut 24:1

“When a man takes a wife and marries her, and it happens that she finds no favor in his eyes because he has found some uncleanness in her, and he writes her a certificate of divorce, puts it in her hand, and sends her out of his house, when she has departed from his house, and goes and becomes another man’s wife, if the latter husband detests her and writes her a certificate of divorce, puts it in her hand, and sends her out of his house, or if the latter husband dies who took her as his wife, then her former husband who divorced her must not take her back to be his wife after she has been defiled; for that is an abomination before the Lord, and you shall not bring sin on the land which the Lord your God is giving you as an inheritance.

By Yehovah’s own laws He cannot take Israel back to be His wife because Israel has committed adultery with other gods all this time. But now that Yehovah as Yehshua has died on the tree and paid the penalty that we were to pay for our sins, now we are redeemed and now we can be wed to our King at the end of this age.

Our keeping of the law does not save us. Paul says that correctly. The law cannot save us. He says that correctly.

We are only saved by the mercy and the grace of Yehshua’s blood being spent to save us from the penalty of the law. This by no means negates us from keeping that law. Not at all.

Read the end of Hebrews 10:29 Of how much worse punishment, do you suppose, will he be thought worthy who has trampled the Son of God underfoot, counted the blood of the covenant by which he was sanctified a common thing, and insulted the Spirit of grace?

You are saved by the blood of Yeshua and nothing else. Once you have been paid for and saved, if you return to your sins, you have treated the death of Yehovah as nothing and you are INSULTING THE SPIRIT OF YEHOVAH! You must repent from sin, from the breaking of the Ten Commandments including the 4th one in order to be redeemed. In order to be saved. If you do not repent then you are not saved and you are not redeemed.

John 14:15 If you love Me, you will keep My commandments.

It does not say if you love me do not keep the commandments. What commandments? The ones found in Exodus 20 which include the 4th one of keeping the Sabbath.

John 14:21 Whoever has My commandments and keeps them is the one who loves Me. The one who loves Me will be loved by My Father, and I will love him and reveal Myself to him.”

John 14:23 Jesus replied, “If anyone loves Me, he will keep My word. My Father will love him, and we will come to him and make Our home with him.

John 15:10 If you keep My commandments, you will remain in My love, just as I have kept My Father’s commandments and remain in His love.

1 John 2:3 By this we can be sure that we have come to know Him: if we keep His commandments.

1 John 5:3 For this is the love of God, that we keep His commandments. And His commandments are not burdensome,

2 John 1:6 And this is love, that we walk according to His commandments. This is the very commandment you have heard from the beginning, that you must walk in love.

How much plainer does it have to get. I can quote you many many more scriptures about how we must keep the commandments to show Yehovah we love Him. Those people who do not keep the Commandments of Yehovah do not love Him. They are not a part of Him and they do not know Him. You have just read what the Bible says. I am just quoting it.

1 John 2:4 And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says “I know him” but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may know that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked.

I ask all of those of you who claim to be Christians what is sin? What is the Biblical definition of sin?

1 John 3:4 Whoever commits sin also commits lawlessness, and sin is lawlessness. And you know that He was manifested to take away our sins, and in Him there is no sin. Whoever abides in Him does not sin. Whoever sins has neither seen Him nor known Him.

Sin is not keeping the Ten Commandments. Those who do not keep the Ten Commandments do not know Yehovah. And He does not know you.

Mat 7:21 “Not everyone who says to Me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ shall enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My Father in heaven. Many will say to Me in that day, ‘Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in Your name, cast out demons in Your name, and done many wonders in Your name?’ And then I will declare to them, ‘I never knew you; depart from Me, you who practice lawlessness!’

Those who practice lawlessness are those who do not and will not keep the law. No, the law does not save us. The grace or the mercy of Yehovah does as He said in Exodus 20:5

but showing mercy to thousands, to those who love Me and keep My commandments.

If you are one of those who think they do not have to keep the law then you are deceived by Satan who has deceived the whole world.

Paul who you want to quote so much of the time wrote

Romans 3:3 Do we then overthrow the law by this faith? By no means! On the contrary, we UPHOLD THE LAW.

WE UPHOLD THE LAW!!!

Let me now add this scripture again from the Apostle Paul to the Romans.

Romans 2:12 For as many as have sinned without law will also perish without law, and as many as have sinned in the law will be judged by the law (for not the hearers of the law are just in the sight of God, but the doers of the law will be justified; for when Gentiles, who do not have the law, by nature do the things in the law, these, although not having the law, are a law to themselves, who show the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and between themselves their thoughts accusing or else excusing them) in the day when God will judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ, according to my gospel.

Again what law is Paul talking about that is to be written on our hearts which we will be judged by?

So even though they do not know the law they will die for their sins which the law, The Ten Commandments shows them what is sin!

You cannot just be one who hears the law. Yes, I know the law and can recite the commandments, but you must be one that DOES THE LAW.

Does this sound like Paul is saying the law is done away with? Not At All!!

On Judgment Day you will be judged by this same law that Christians are saying is done away. What a rude awakening they are going to have.

The Law is not done away. The debt that was owed for us breaking the law is now done away. It has been paid for.

Now if you have been convicted by the things we have put forward here then read what Peter says.

Acts 2:38 Then Peter said to them, “Repent, and let every one of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins; and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is to you and to your children, and to all who are afar off, as many as the Lord our God will call.”

Jeremiah 2:13 “For My people have committed two evils:
They have forsaken Me, the fountain of living waters,
And hewn themselves cisterns—broken cisterns that can hold no water.

Cisterns are like bathtubs that collect rainwater. They are not flowing waters.

John 4:13 Jesus answered and said to her, “Whoever drinks of this water will thirst again, but whoever drinks of the water that I shall give him will never thirst. But the water that I shall give him will become in him a fountain of water springing up into everlasting life.”

John 7:37 On the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried out, saying, “If anyone thirsts, let him come to Me and drink. He who believes in Me, as the Scripture has said, out of his heart will flow rivers of living water.” But this He spoke concerning the Spirit, whom those believing in Him would receive; for the Holy Spirit was not yet given, because Jesus was not yet glorified.

This is the 7th day of the feast of tabernacles which Christians should be keeping but do not. The rivers of living waters signify the Holy Spirit that is to be in us.

Now read this next verse in Jeremiah. This is the gem. Those people who do not obey Yehovah, those people who will not keep the 4th commandment. Let's be honest here. The law that Christians say is done away is only about the Sabbath and the Holy Days and the Sabbatical years. That is the only part of the law they really will not agree to do. And in so doing by not keep this part of the law they are guilty of trampling again the blood sacrificed on their behalf by Yehshua.

Jeremiah 17:13 O Lord, the hope of Israel,
All who forsake You shall be ashamed.
“Those who depart from Me
Shall be written in the earth,
Because they have forsaken the Lord,
The fountain of living waters.”

Yehovah, the fountain of Living waters. Yehovah the Hope of Israel.

Now, look up the meaning of the word Hope here in Jeremiah 17:13.

H4723 miqvehmiqve^hmiqve[^] mik-veh', mik-vay', mik-vay'

From H6960; something waited for, that is, confidence (objectively or subjectively); also a collection, that is, (of water) a pond, or (of men and horses) a caravan or drove: – abiding, gathering together, hope, linen yarn, plenty [of water], pool.

Watch the video that Rudy is offering above. Go and be mikvehed into the living waters of Yehshua. Stop trampling the blood that was paid for you and start to obey Yehovah and keep His laws. We are not talking about keeping the sacrificial laws. We are talking about the Ten Commandments that are to be written on your hearts, on your souls and on your minds. All ten, not nine or the one you want to choose, but all ten including the 4th one of keeping Holy the Sabbath Day and this also includes the Holy Days of Lev 23 and the Sabbatical and Jubilee years.

If you are not keeping these days then you are sinning and do not know Yehovah and He does not know you and is going to tell you

'I never knew you; depart from Me, you who practice lawlessness!'

Those who do not keep the law, the Ten Commandments, the Sabbath and the Holy Days and the Sabbatical years do not know Yehovah.
