Shabbat Shalom To the Royal Family,

Fleeing to the wrong place

This first section is taken from our teaching on this subject back in 2015.

When I wrote this section back then I did not know what I know today. Chronology in history is soooo important to understand. And knowing the chronology of prophecy is equally soooooo important to also understand. Getting it wrong will get you killed.

When I was in the Churches of God it was suggested that the place of safety we were going to end up at was Petra in Jordan. We also figured that only our group was going to be in that safe place.

We were sure wrong about all of that.

Today I see groups of people building refugee camps or places of safety or communes where they all must agree to abide by whatever rules those setting up the place deem appropriate.

Each group has their own calendar they follow and that determines who gets into their group. They want to set up in some remote area and be totally self-sufficient, living off the land, as if they had just moved back to the 1890's.

(I have been dead set against this because we are to let our lights shine in the dark places of this world. You cannot do that when they are all gathered in one place and hid as it were under a basket. But that was then. We are fast approaching the time when the 2300 Days of Hell are to begin. So now we must rethink our understanding chronologically.)

There are still others who have over the years fled to Jordan itself, knowing what the bible says about the end time events for Jordan. Once they get there they live under fear of being spied on by the Jordanian government, so they hide and grow afraid to speak out about the Torah or Yehovah whom they say they love.

Just a few years ago people were writing to me asking about the many who were fleeing due to the Daniel Timeline with the tribulation beginning at Purim 2013. This tribulation period was to end with the Jubilee year of 2017 and 2016 being the 49th year according to their calculations. These people were fleeing to of all places some campground in Kansas. (Isn't that where all the tornados are?) And they had weekly and bi-weekly updates on the daily events in Jerusalem and surrounding nation's leading up to what they thought was the impending tribulation period. I think you all know who I mean here.

Others contact me to help them promote their particular place of safety, or ask me to join them in the hopes I might bring others with me. And then those I have exposed in the past become furious with me for not joining their ridiculous expedition of failure.

It is Jonestown over and over. But no one thinks they are Jim Jones. No, they all imagine themselves as the last of the Heroes at Masada cheating the Romans (Babylon) of their victory by committing suicide or getting off the grid in some remote section of the country.

Maybe you were a part of these groups in the past or you are in one of these groups now. Maybe you are planning to get out of Dodge as you read this Newsletter.

Maybe you have already moved to Puerto Rico,(then got slammed by Hurricane Irma in 2017) or Ecuador, or Guatemala, or San Salvador, or Costa Rica and begun to build your place of safety. We have written about this before. You can read that article here. You can also flee to Montana or Saskatchewan now as well if you want. But all of these places are the results of human inventions. What does your Bible say?

Almost all of these groups mentioned above believe the USA is Babylon. They get this idea from those who teach and dabble in Illuminati and conspiracy teachings, not trusting any government because the leaders are all 33 degree Freemasons or they have some secret society handshake that only they know about. They teach that the Twin Towers was an inside job which proves you cannot trust any Government. And this then implies that you can only trust those who have the secret information which is only that group.

Some of these groups are sincere Bible students and teachers. They have many truths and they teach some level of conspiracy teachings and mix them in with their bible studies. Over and over they say that the USA is Babylon the great and all the conspiracy teachings prove it. On and on it goes until they get enough people who only do half studies or do not study at all. They then find others who do not study or only do partial studies to swell their numbers, mixing the truth of Yehovah with the lies of the conspirators and the leadership of that group.

I do not care how Hebrew roots they say they are or how Torah observant you think they are. If they mix any conspiracy teachings or any Freemason or Illuminati teachings in with the Torah, run as fast as you can to the door and get out and never look back.

I do not care how big they are and how much you have learned from them. Run now and never go back. When you mix the truth of the Torah with untruths or flat out lies you get an abomination, which Yehovah hates. It is the Mixing of two kinds of seeds. It is spiritual idolatry.

Lev 19:19 You shall keep My statutes. You shall not let your cattle breed with different kinds. You shall not sow your field with two kinds of seed. And you shall not allow clothing mixed of linen and wool to come on you.

Mt 15:9 And in vain they worship Me, Teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.’ ”

De 4:2 You shall not add to the word which I command you, nor take from it, that you may keep the commandments of the Lord your God which I command you.

De 12:32 Whatever I command you, be careful to observe it; you shall not add to it nor take away from it.

Pr 30:6 Do not add to His words, Lest He rebuke you, and you be found a liar.

Isa 30:1 “Woe to the rebellious children,” says the Lord, “Who take counsel, but not of Me, And who devise plans, but not of My Spirit, That they may add sin to sin;

We have provided exhaustive studies on exactly who the people of the USA, UK, Canada, Australia and other North Western Nations of Europe are. We can prove it to you in spades from history and your bible that these people have descended from the 12 tribes of Israel.

We also show you in great detail how Daniel's end-time Beast grows from the Beast before it and over the same area in which the first Beast appears. This end-time Beast of Babylon is going to cover the majority of Europe combined with the majority of North Africa and the entire Middle East, except Jordan.

Pro 1:20 Wisdom cries outside; she utters her voice in the streets; 21 she cries in the chief place of gathering, in the openings of the gates; in the city she utters her words, saying, 22 How long will you love simplicity, simple ones? And will scorers delight in their scorning? And will fools hate knowledge? 23 Turn at my warning; behold, I will pour out my Spirit to you; I will make my words known to you. 24 Because I called, and you refused; I stretched out my hand, and no one paid attention; 25 but you have despised all my advice, and would have none of my warning. 26 I also will laugh at your trouble; I will mock when your fear comes; 27 when your fear comes as a wasting away, and your ruin comes like a tempest when trouble and pain come upon you. 28 Then they shall call upon me, and I will not answer; they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me; 29 instead they hated knowledge and did not choose the fear of Jehovah. 30 They would have none of my counsel; they despised all my correction, 31 and they shall eat the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own desires. 32 For the turning away of the simple kills them, and the ease of fools destroys them. 33 But whoever listens to me shall dwell safely, and shall be quiet from fear of evil.

You are to flee with the woman, as you are told in Revelation. You are to flee from Jerusalem. So you had better figure out how you're going to get to Jerusalem from the secret place you are now planning on hiding at. Because if you do not go with that woman into the wilderness, Revelation then says the beast turns and makes war with those who keep the commandments.

Have you considered that?

I will leave that thought with you to think about.

Rev 12:12-17 Therefore, rejoice, O heavens and you who dwell in them! But woe to you, O earth and sea, for the devil has come down to you in great wrath, because he knows that his time is short!"

And when the dragon saw that he had been thrown down to the earth, he pursued the woman who had given birth to the male child. But the woman was given the two wings of the great eagle so that she might fly from the serpent into the wilderness, to the place where she is to be nourished for a time, and times, and half a time. The serpent poured water like a river out of his mouth after the woman, to sweep her away with a flood. But the earth came to the help of the woman, and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed the river that the dragon had poured from his mouth. Then the dragon became furious with the woman and went off to make war on the rest of her offspring, on those who keep the commandments of God and hold to the testimony of Jesus.

In the past number of weeks and years, we have shown you when these world shattering end time events are to take place. We have shown you over and over who it is that is going to do what to whom. By now you all should be able to prove this to anyone who asks you. Many people talk about the second Exodus or the Greater Exodus that is soon to come and how some of us will be a part of it.

And they all quote Jeremiah when they talk about this subject.

Jeremiah 16:14 “Therefore, behold, the days are coming, declares the Lord, when it shall no longer be said, As the Lord lives who brought up the people of Israel out of the land of Egypt,’ but As the Lord lives who brought up the people of Israel out of the north country and out of all the countries where he had driven them.’ For I will bring them back to their own land that I gave to their fathers.

What I have found in most teachers is the lack of or the willingness to tell you that before you can come out of this captivity or this 2nd Exodus, you must, first of all, go into captivity. This means our people must be defeated in war and those of us who survive taken into captivity and enslaved. This has been the ongoing teaching that we at sightedmoon.com have been sharing with you. Warning you that war is coming and that today that war is not far off. And out of the millions that are alive today only a remnant will survive.

Isaiah 10:20 In that day the remnant of Israel and the survivors of the house of Jacob will no more lean on him who struck them, but will lean on the Lord, the Holy One of Israel, in truth. A remnant will return, the remnant of Jacob, to the mighty God. For though your people Israel be as the sand of the sea, only a remnant of them will return. Destruction is decreed, overflowing with righteousness. For the Lord God of hosts will make a full end, as decreed, in the midst of all the earth.

Our teaching a couple of weeks ago about South Africa is a warning for all the tribes of Israel. We have also spoken about ISIS and how they have slaughtered millions. Husbands and sons will be separated from the women and girls. Then males will be slaughtered and the women turned into sex slaves and then they too will be killed. We are all about to be beaten and raped and tortured and murdered and this is going to go on for 6 1/4 years before the two witnesses begin to avenge the millions who have died.

We are told here again in Isaiah that Yehovah is going to gather us a second time. Again the second greater exodus.

Isaiah 11:10 In that day the root of Jesse, who shall stand as a signal for the peoples—of him shall the nations inquire, and his resting place shall be glorious.

In that day the Lord will extend his hand yet a second time to recover the remnant that remains of his people, from Assyria, from Egypt, from Pathros, from Cush, from Elam, from Shinar, from Hamath, and from the coastlands of the sea.

He will raise a signal for the nations and will assemble the banished of Israel, and gather the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth. The jealousy of Ephraim shall depart, and those who harass Judah shall be cut off; Ephraim shall not be jealous of Judah, and Judah shall not harass Ephraim.

But they shall swoop down on the shoulder of the Philistines in the west, and together they shall plunder the people of the east. They shall put out their hand against Edom and Moab, and the Ammonites shall obey them. And the Lord will utterly destroy the tongue of the Sea of Egypt, and will wave his hand over the River with his scorching breath, and strike it into seven channels, and he will lead people across in sandals. And there will be a highway from Assyria for the remnant that remains of his people, as there was for Israel when they came up from the land of Egypt.

We are told a lot in this section of Isaiah. First that King David is going to be the signal for the world at Jerusalem. But as you know, those who have a good understanding of the Torah and the Holy Days, that David is not resurrected until Shavuot in the final year of the Tribulation. His resting place is still today Jerusalem. But you should know these things. See our many articles on this subject and begin to understand the truth.

Right here in Isaiah 11, we are told where the remnant, those who survive leading up to the tribulation, are to come back from. Do you see south or central America? Do you see Kansas? Do you see Jordan? They are coming back from Assyria, from Egypt, from Pathros, from Cush, from Elam, from Shinar, from Hamath, and from the coastlands of the sea. Over and over again we are told that they will be brought back from Assyria and Egypt.

Zech 10:8 “I will whistle for them and gather them in, for I have redeemed them, and they shall be as many as they were before. Though I scattered them among the nations, yet in far countries they shall remember me, and with their children they shall live and return. I will bring them home from the land of Egypt, and gather them from Assyria, and I will bring them to the land of Gilead and to Lebanon, till there is no room for them.

He shall pass through the sea of troubles and strike down the waves of the sea, and all the depths of the Nile shall be dried up. The pride of Assyria shall be laid low, and the scepter of Egypt shall depart. I will make them strong in the Lord, and they shall walk in his name,” declares the Lord.

Isaiah 27:13 And in that day a great trumpet will be blown, and those who were lost in the land of Assyria and those who were driven out to the land of Egypt will come and worship the Lord on the holy mountain at Jerusalem.

Micah 7:12 In that day they will come to you, from Assyria and the cities of Egypt, and from Egypt to the River, from sea to sea and from mountain to mountain. But the earth will be desolate because of its inhabitants, for the fruit of their deeds.

So, I have to ask you why have none of you fled to these places? Why are none of the Hebrew Roots people promoting these places to flee to? Kansas, give me a break!

The lead up to this war is taking place right now and it is followed by the 2300 Days of Daniel 8 in which the SAINTS are trampled underfoot for 6 1/4 years. It is not talking about the sanctuary, it is about the SAINTS, the descendants of the 12 tribes of Israel in these last days. The time of Jacobs trouble is now.

Jeremiah 30:1-11 The word that came to Jeremiah from the Lord: “Thus says the Lord, the God of Israel: Write in a book all the words that I have spoken to you. For behold, days are coming, declares the Lord, when I will restore the fortunes of my people, Israel and Judah, says the Lord, and I will bring them back to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall take possession of it.”

These are the words that the Lord spoke concerning Israel and Judah:

“Thus says the Lord: We have heard a cry of panic, of terror, and no peace. Ask now, and see, can a man bear a child? Why then do I see every man with his hands on his stomach like a woman in labor?

Why has every face turned pale? Alas! That day is so great there is none like it; it is a time of distress for Jacob; yet he shall be saved out of it.

“And it shall come to pass in that day, declares the Lord of hosts, that I will break his yoke from off your neck, and I will burst your bonds, and foreigners shall no more make a servant of him.
But they shall serve the Lord their God and David their king, whom I will raise up for them.

“Then fear not, O Jacob my servant, declares the Lord, nor be dismayed, O Israel; for behold, I will save you from far away, and your offspring from the land of their captivity. Jacob shall return and have quiet and ease, and none shall make him afraid. For I am with you to save you, declares the Lord;
I will make a full end of all the nations among whom I scattered you, but of you I will not make a full end. I will discipline you in just measure, and I will by no means leave you unpunished.

In the book of Revelation, I want you to read the 5th seal. But before that fifth seal, you must first read the other four.

Rev 6:1-11 Now I watched when the Lamb opened one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures say with a voice like thunder, "Come!" And I looked, and behold, a white horse! And its rider had a bow, and a crown was given to him, and he came out conquering, and to conquer.

When he opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature say, "Come!" And out came another horse, bright red. Its rider was permitted to take peace from the earth, so that people should slay one another, and he was given a great sword.

When he opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature say, "Come!" And I looked, and behold, a black horse! And its rider had a pair of scales in his hand. And I heard what seemed to be a voice in the midst of the four living creatures, saying, "A quart of wheat for a denarius, and three quarts of barley for a denarius, and do not harm the oil and wine!"

When he opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature say, "Come!" And I looked, and behold, a pale horse! And its rider's name was Death, and Hades followed him. And they were given authority over a fourth of the earth, to kill with sword and with famine and with pestilence and by wild beasts of the earth.

When he opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been slain for the word of God and for the witness they had borne. They cried out with a loud voice, "O Sovereign Lord, holy and true, how long before you will judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell on the earth?" Then they were each given a white robe and told to rest a little longer, until the number of their fellow servants and their brothers should be complete, who were to be killed as they themselves had been.

The first four seals are describing Islam as it takes over the world. The first seal is the white horse that conquers with a bow. See our article on The Hunters Cometh. The second seal after Islam gets a toehold with the faith that claims peace when there is no peace is the red horse of war. Then comes the black horse and starvation and then the pale horse is diseases and death. Over 1/4 of the earth will die as a result of Islam and the destruction they bring to everywhere they go.

Islam, the world's fastest-growing faith, will leap from 1.6 billion (in 2010) to 2.76 billion by 2050, according to the Pew study. At that time, Muslims will make up nearly one-third of the world's total projected population of about 9 billion people.

Christianity is expected to grow, too, but not at Islam's explosive rate. The Pew study predicts Christians will increase from 2.17 billion to 2.92 billion, composing more than 31% of the world's population.

This will lead to war as each tries to dominate the other in politics and business. And you oh Israel will go back into captivity once again because you must come out of that captivity.

Now let's read the 5th seal with the knowledge that the first four are describing the conquering of the world by the false religion of Islam. Even these four colours of the 4 horses make up the colours of many Islamic flags.

Rev 6:9-11 When he opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been slain for the word of God and for the witness they had borne. They cried out with a loud voice, “O Sovereign Lord, holy and true, how long before you will judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell on the earth?” Then they were each given a white robe and told to rest a little longer, until the number of their fellow servants and their brothers should be complete, who were to be killed as they themselves had been.

Many of those who keep Torah are going to die and be found under this altar waiting to be resurrected at Shavuot. These are not those who did not obey Yehovah. But notice they seek vengeance. Who is it that does this?

Rev 19:1-2 After this I heard what seemed to be the loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, crying out, “Hallelujah! Salvation and glory and power belong to our God, for his judgments are true and just; for he has judged the great prostitute who corrupted the earth with her immorality, and has avenged on her the blood of his servants.”

The two witnesses begin this process of vengeance by the curses they command to come upon the whole earth.

Isa 11:12 He will set up a banner for the nations, And will assemble the outcasts of Israel, And gather together the dispersed of Judah From the four corners of the earth.

Isa 56:8 Yehovah, who gathers the outcasts of Israel, says, “Yet I will gather to him Others besides those who are gathered to him.”

It will not just be the Israelites who are gathered only but those who are obedient to Torah from other nations as well. Anyone who obeys is now eligible and is to be part of this ingathering.

Isa 43:5 Fear not, for I am with you; I will bring your descendants from the east, And gather you from the west;

Jer 23:3 “But I will gather the remnant of My flock out of all countries where I have driven them, and bring them back to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and increase.

Jer 29:14 I will be found by you, says Yehovah, and I will bring you back from your captivity; I will gather you from all the nations and from all the places where I have driven you, says Yehovah, and I will bring you to the place from which I cause you to be carried away captive.

Jer 31:8 Behold, I will bring them from the north country, And gather them from the ends of the earth, Among them the blind and the lame, The woman with child And the one who labors with child, together; A great throng shall return there.

Jer 31:10 “Hear the word of Yehovah, O nations, And declare it in the isles afar off, and say, ‘He who scattered Israel will gather him, And keep him as a shepherd does his flock.’

Getting back to Isaiah 11, when we do any research at all we know that the prisoners are taken to these countries mentioned in Isaiah. So who are these countries? We have studied them in the past. Assyria is modern-day Germany and by extension Europe. And we saw from WW II that the prisoner of war camps were death camps and slave labour camps. And Germany has just brought over a million Muslims to live in their country. This is not where you want to spend the time from 2020 to 2030 trying to survive.

When we look at Egypt and the list of other nations we see that these too, are the prisoner of war places and not places we would want to be held captivity in which are Islamic nations today. The list again is Pathros, Cush, Elam, Shinar, Hamath, and from the coastlands of the sea. This is Iraq, Iran, North Africa. Again all nations that are prophesied to come together as one nation under the King of the North and the King of the South. A German-led Islamic nation and we have seen what happens to the Jews and the Christians in these nations. They are tortured and raped, enslaved and destroyed. Germany, by the way, used to be the nation that colonized East Africa. We will have more on this later in this article.

We have said this many times before and will repeat it here. Islam does not mix with the host nation they have immigrated to or invaded. They do not assimilate into the culture. Germany is represented by the iron and Islam by the clay and they do not mix in Daniels image of the toes of this end time beast system.

Daniel 2:40-45 And there shall be a fourth kingdom, strong as iron, because iron breaks to pieces and shatters all things. And like iron that crushes, it shall break and crush all these. And as you saw the feet and toes, partly of potter's clay and partly of iron, it shall be a divided kingdom, but some of the firmness of iron shall be in it, just as you saw iron mixed with the soft clay. And as the toes of the feet were partly iron and partly clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong and partly brittle. As you saw the iron mixed with soft clay, so they will mix with one another in marriage, but they will not hold together, just as iron does not mix with clay. And in the days of those kings the God of heaven will set up a kingdom that shall never be destroyed, nor shall the kingdom be left to another people. It shall break in pieces all these kingdoms and bring them to an end, and it shall stand forever, just as you saw that a stone was cut from a mountain by no human hand, and that it broke in pieces the iron, the bronze, the clay, the silver, and the gold. A great God has made known to the king what shall be after this. The dream is certain, and its interpretation sure."

But I also see something else here. Do you? Read what is to happen again here in Isaiah 24.

The Coastlands?

Isaiah 24:1-23 Behold, the Lord will empty the earth and make it desolate, and he will twist its surface and scatter its inhabitants. And it shall be, as with the people, so with the priest; as with the slave, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with the creditor, so with the debtor.

The earth shall be utterly empty and utterly plundered;
for the Lord has spoken this word. The earth mourns and withers; the world languishes and withers; the highest people of the earth languish. The earth lies defiled under its inhabitants; for they have transgressed the laws, violated the statutes, broken the everlasting covenant. Therefore a curse devours the earth, and its inhabitants suffer for their guilt; therefore the inhabitants of the earth are scorched, and few men are left. The wine mourns, the vine languishes, all the merry-hearted sigh.

The mirth of the tambourines is stilled, the noise of the jubilant has ceased, the mirth of the lyre is stilled.

No more do they drink wine with singing; strong drink is bitter to those who drink it. The wasted city is broken down; every house is shut up so that none can enter.
There is an outcry in the streets for lack of wine; all joy has grown dark; the gladness of the earth is banished. Desolation is left in the city; the gates are battered into ruins. For thus it shall be in the midst of the earth among the nations, as when an olive tree is beaten, as at the gleanings when the grape harvest is done.
They lift up their voices, they sing for joy; over the majesty of the Lord they shout from the west. Therefore in the east give glory to the Lord; in the coastlands of the sea, give glory to the name of the Lord, the God of Israel. From the ends of the earth we hear songs of praise, of glory to the Righteous One.

But I say, "I waste away,

I waste away. Woe is me! For the traitors have betrayed, with betrayal the traitors have betrayed." Terror and the pit and the snare are upon you, O inhabitant of the earth! He who flees at the sound of the terror shall fall into the pit, and he who climbs out of the pit shall be caught in the snare. For the windows of heaven are opened, and the foundations of the earth tremble. The earth is utterly broken, the earth is split apart, the earth is violently shaken. The earth staggers like a drunken man; it sways like a hut; its transgression lies heavy upon it, and it falls, and will not rise again. On that day the Lord will punish the host of heaven, in heaven, and the kings of the earth, on the earth.

They will be gathered together as prisoners in a pit; they will be shut up in a prison, and after many days they will be punished. Then the moon will be confounded and the sun ashamed, for the Lord of hosts reigns on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, and his glory will be before his elders.

What are you being told in verses 15-16?

Therefore in the east give glory to Yehovah; in the coastlands of the sea, give glory to the name of Yehovah, the God of Israel. From the ends of the earth we hear songs of praise, of glory to the Righteous One.

But I say, "I waste away,
I waste away. Woe is me!

While many are wasting away in captivity with no hope, they will hear of some in the east in the coastlands of the sea giving GLORY TO THE NAME OF YEHOVAH THE ELOHIM OF ISRAEL. Who are these people?

I also have to point out one other thing you are told here. So many people say the laws are done away with. Or that they are only for when you are in the Land of Israel, or that they are only for the Jews. Yet right here in Isaiah, you are told that the WHOLE EARTH HAS BROKEN THE COVENANT AND ARE UNDER A CURSE!

Isaiah 24:4-6 The earth mourns and withers; the world languishes and withers; the highest people of the earth languish.

The earth lies defiled under its inhabitants; for they have transgressed the laws, violated the statutes, broken the everlasting covenant.

Therefore a curse devours the earth, and its inhabitants suffer for their guilt; therefore the inhabitants of the earth are scorched, and few men are left.

Have you considered what else Isaiah tells us? Read some more.

Isaiah 60:8 Who are these that fly like a cloud, and like doves to their windows? For the coastlands shall hope for me, the ships of Tarshish first, to bring your children from afar, their silver and gold with them, for the name of the Lord your God, and for the Holy One of Israel, because he has made you beautiful.

What does this mean? What are you being told here?

Hosea 11:11 has some more clues and you need to read the rest of this chapter to see just how anguished Yehovah is at what He is about to do to us, Israel.

they shall come trembling like birds from Egypt, and like doves from the land of Assyria, and I will return them to their homes, declares the Lord.

The doves are us Israel. But where is this coastland?

Isaiah 51:5 My righteousness draws near, my salvation has gone out, and my arms will judge the peoples; the coastlands hope for me, and for my arm they wait.

Do you see it? Do you recall what you read in Isaiah 11:11?

In that day the Lord will extend his hand yet a second time to recover the remnant that remains of his people, from Assyria, from Egypt, from Pathros, from Cush, from Elam, from Shinar, from Hamath, and from the coastlands of the sea.

We will be brought back from the coastlands also. Where is this?

Isaiah 42:4 He will not grow faint or be discouraged till he has established justice in the earth; and the coastlands wait for his law.

The coastlands are waiting for His law. What people on this earth, are waiting for His law? Where is this place? Who are these people who hope for Yehovah? Where are these people who are singing praise to Yehovah from the ends of the earth? But there is more in this chapter.

Isaiah 42:5-9 Thus saith God Jehovah, he that created the heavens, and stretched them forth; he that spread abroad the earth and that which cometh out of it; he that giveth breath unto the people upon it, and spirit to them that walk therein: I, Jehovah, have called thee in righteousness, and will hold thy hand, and will keep thee, and give thee for a covenant of the people, for a light of the Gentiles; to open the blind eyes, to bring out the prisoners from the dungeon, and them that sit in darkness out of the prison-house. I am Jehovah, that is my name; and my glory will I not give to another, neither my praise unto graven images. Behold, the former things are come to pass, and new things do I declare; before they spring forth I tell you of them.

Isaiah 42:10:12 Sing unto Jehovah a new song, and his praise from the end of the earth; ye that go down to the sea, and all that is therein, the isles, and the inhabitants thereof. Let the wilderness and the cities thereof lift up their voice, the villages that Kedar doth inhabit; let the inhabitants of Sela sing, let them shout from the top of the mountains. Let them give glory unto Jehovah, and declare his praise in the islands.

Isaiah 66:18 “For I know their works and their thoughts, and the time is coming to gather all nations and tongues. And they shall come and shall see my glory, and I will set a sign among them. And from them I will send survivors to the nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, who draw the bow, to Tubal and Javan, to the coastlands far away, that have not heard my fame or seen my glory. And they shall declare my glory among the nations. And they shall bring all your brothers from all the nations as an offering to the Lord, on horses and in chariots and in litters and on mules and on dromedaries, to my holy mountain Jerusalem, says the Lord, just as the Israelites bring their grain offering in a clean vessel to the house of the Lord. And some of them also I will take for priests and for Levites, says the Lord. “For as the new heavens and the new earth that I make shall remain before me, says the Lord, so shall your offspring and your name remain. From new moon to new moon, and from Sabbath to Sabbath, all flesh shall come to worship before me, declares the Lord.

Yehovah is going to send to these coastal places, these people to teach them and they, in turn, will gather all of Israel and bring them to Jerusalem as an offering, a grain offering. Is this not the Wheat or the barley offering that are made at Passover and Shavuot? There are no other grain offerings. My mind is going WOW WOW WOW as I read this. Is yours? Read it again and again. Know this verse.

What is the sign that Yehovah is going to set among them?

and I will set a sign among them.

The Sabbath is the sign of Yehovah. See our article on the Mark of the Beast.

And from them I will send survivors to the nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, who draw the bow, to Tubal and Javan, to the coastlands far away,

These are the places you will go to, to survive. But do any of you know where they are? What are they called today?

that have not heard my fame or seen my glory. And they shall declare my glory among the nations.

Israel failed to declare His Glory and to live by His Laws, but these people who have not heard of Him will obey and they are going to be the ones crying out in the last days.

And they shall bring all your brothers from all the nations as an offering to the Lord, on horses and in chariots and in litters and on mules and on dromedaries, to my holy mountain Jerusalem,

From these nations, you are going to be brought back as an offering to Yehovah, like a grain offering! So you need to get studying to learn who these nations are. And Imagine the blessings that will come to these nations who do protect and care for those survivors of Israel.

Jeremiah 31:10 “Hear the word of the Lord, O nations, and declare it in the coastlands far away; say, ‘He who scattered Israel will gather him, and will keep him as a shepherd keeps his flock.’ For the Lord has ransomed Jacob and has redeemed him from hands too strong for him. They shall come and sing aloud on the height of Zion, and they shall be radiant over the goodness of the Lord,

Let us just look up the word for coastlands in all of these verses. It is the same word each time.

H339 ‘i’y ee

From H183; properly a habitable spot (as desirable); dry land, a coast, an island: – country, isle, island.

H183 ‘a^va^h aw-vaw’

A primitive root; to wish for: – covet, (greatly) desire, be desirous, long, lust (after).

So these coastlands are islands and they are greatly desired. Something people lust over and long for.

In Canada, we have long cold winters. I lust for the Caribbean Islands all winter long because of the warm tropical winds and warm oceans and fresh fruit and lots of sunshine. Many lust after the warm islands of Greece in the winter to go to or the coast of Spain to spend time in enjoying the beaches and the warm sun. But the Caribbean Islands are not in the East nor are the Greek Isles nor anything in the Mediterranean Sea. They are not East of Jerusalem.

So what Islands is Yehovah talking about?

Who are The Islands that Long for the Torah

Isaiah 24:15-16 Therefore in the east give glory to the Lord; in the coastlands of the sea, give glory to the name of the Lord, the God of Israel. From the ends of the earth we hear songs of praise, of glory to the Righteous One.

Isaiah 42:4 He will not grow faint or be discouraged till he has established justice in the earth; and the coastlands wait for his law.

Isaiah 41:1-6 Keep silence before Me, O coasts; and peoples shall renew strength; let them come near; then let them speak; let us come near together for judgment. Who raised up the righteous one from the east, called him to His foot, gave the nations before him, and made him rule over kings? He gave them as the dust to his sword, and as driven stubble to his bow. He pursued them; he passed on in peace. He does not go by the way of his feet. Who has planned and done it, calling forth the generations from the beginning? I, Jehovah, am the first and the last; I am He. The coastlands saw and feared; the ends of the earth were afraid, and drew near, and came. They each one helped his neighbor, and said to his brother, Be strong.

The Coastlands are where they renew their strength and where they and those of the coastlands come together to be judged. The Coastlands fear Yehovah whereas other nations did not and will be judged.

Luke says something very similar to this in;

Luke 11:31 The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and shall condemn them: for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, a greater than Solomon is here.

This is speaking of the Queen of Sheba and you are about to learn how the land of Sheba is associated with the coastlands that we are looking at.

These are quite the powerful scriptures. I certainly do not see North America wanting the Torah like these Islands do. Nor glorifying the name of Yehovah. No not even the Caribbean Islands are crying out to Yehovah after all these past hurricanes which wiped so many houses and businesses away.

Who are these coastlands that hope for Yehovah and His Torah and praise His name? We get a clue in Isaiah 60:9 again.

Isaiah 60:8-9 Who are these that fly like a cloud, and like doves to their windows? For the coastlands shall hope for me, the ships of Tarshish first, to bring your children from afar, their silver and gold with them, for the name of the Lord your God, and for the Holy One of Israel, because he has made you beautiful.

The Ships of Tarshish are going to bring us back. Tarshish is first mentioned in Genesis. We need to now search out where Tarshish is in the hope of finding these Islands that are being lusted over and who sing praises to Yehovah and hope for His law.

Genesis 10:2-5 The sons of Japheth: Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tubal, Meshech, and Tiras. The sons of Gomer: Ashkenaz, Riphath, and Togarmah. The sons of Javan: Elishah, Tarshish, Kittim, and Dodanim. From these the coastland peoples spread in their lands, each with his own language, by their clans, in their nations.

So Tarshish is amongst the Coastland peoples. The word again for coastlands is again Islands.

Again notice here in Genesis are the names of those mentioned in Isaiah 66:18

“For I know their works and their thoughts, and the time is coming to gather all nations and tongues. And they shall come and shall see my glory, and I will set a sign among them. And from them I will send survivors to the nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, who draw the bow, to Tubal and Javan, to the coastlands far away, that have not heard my fame or seen my glory.

Tarshish

TARSHISH:

By: Isidore Singer, M. Seligsohn

In the genealogical table of the Noachidæ, Tarshish is given as the second son of Javan and is followed by Kittim and Dodanim (Gen. x. 4; I Chron. i. 7). As with all these names, Tarshish denotes a country; in several instances, indeed, it is mentioned as a maritime country lying in the remotest region of the earth. Thus, Jonah flees to Tarshish from the presence of Yhwh (Jonah i. 3, iv. 2). With Pul, Tubal, and Javan, it is mentioned as one of the remote places that have not heard of Yhwh (Isa. lxvi. 19, comp. lx. 9; Ps. lxxii. 10; Ezek. xxxviii. 13). Any large vessel capable of making a long sea-voyage was styled a "ship of Tarshish," though this did not necessarily mean that the vessel sailed either to or from Tarshish (Ps. xlviii. 7; I Kings x. 22, xxii. 48; Isa. ii. 16; et al.). It seems that in parallel passages referring to Solomon's and Jehoshaphat's ships (I Kings l.c.) the author of Chronicles did not understand the meaning of "ships of Tarshish" (II Chron. ix. 21, xx. 36).

Tarshish appears to have had a considerable trade in silver, iron, tin, and lead (Jer. x. 9; Ezek. xxvii. 12). It gave its name, besides, to a precious stone which has not yet been satisfactorily identified (See Gems). The Targum of Jonathan renders the word "Tarshish" in the prophetic books by "sea," which rendering is followed by Saadia. Moreover, the term "ships of Tarshish" is rendered by Jewish scholars "sea-ships" (comp. LXX., Isa. ii. 16, ????? ?????). Jerome, too, renders "Tarshish" by "sea" in many instances; and in his commentary on Isaiah (l.c.) he declares that he had been told by his Jewish teachers that the Hebrew word for "sea" was "tarshish." In Isa.

xxiii. 1 the Septuagint, and in Ezek. xxvii. 12 both the Septuagint and the Vulgate, render "Tarshish" by "Carthage," apparently suggested by Jewish tradition. Indeed, the Targum of Jonathan renders "Tarshish" in I Kings xxii. 48 and Jer. x. 9 by "Afri'i," that is, Carthage.

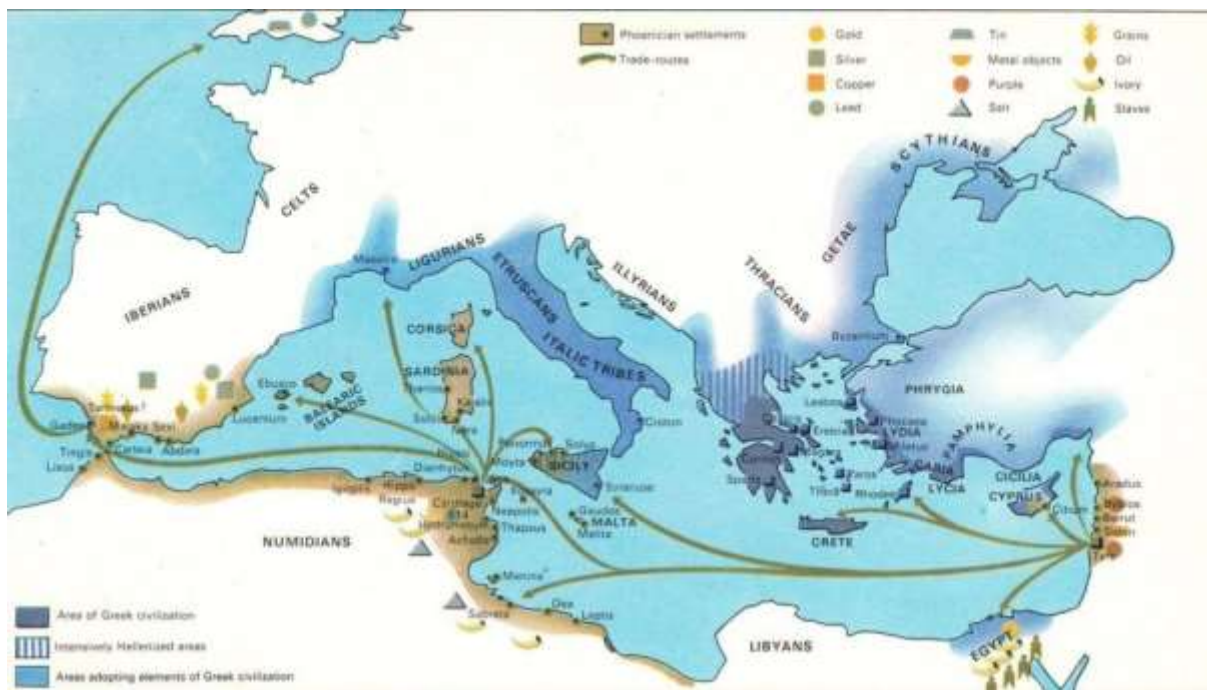

Josephus ("Ant." i. 6, § 1), apparently reading "Tarshush," identifies it with Tarsus in Cilicia. This identification was adopted by Bunsen and Sayce ("Expository Times," 1902, p. 179); but it seems from Assyrian inscriptions that the original Hebrew name of Tarsus was not "Tarshush." Bochart (in his "Phaleg"), followed by many later scholars, identifies Tarshish with Tartessus, mentioned by Herodotus and Strabo as a district of southern Spain; he thinks, moreover, that "Tartessus" is the Aramaic form of "Tarshish." On the other hand, Le Page Renouf ("Proc. Soc. Bibl. Arch." xvi. 104 et seq.) refutes this theory, declaring besides that Tartessus never really existed. Renouf's opinion is that "Tarshish" means a coast, and, as the word occurs frequently in connection with Tyre, the Phenician coast is to be understood. Cheyne (in "Orientalische Literaturzeitung," iii. 151) thinks that "Tarshish" of Gen. x. 4, and "Tiras" of Gen. x. 2, are really two names of one nation derived from two different sources, and might indicate the Tyrsenians or Etruscans. Thus the name may denote Italy or the European coasts west of Greece.

I also have the following from Yair Davidiy

TARSHISH

The Assyrians claimed to control Tarsis in the far west of their domains. The exact position of Tarsis is still uncertain though a place somewhere on the west coast (more specifically the southwest coast) of Spain, near Gades (Cadiz) is usually accepted. In Classical (Greek and Roman) records there was an important center named “Tartessos” somewhere on the Spanish southwest coast. “Tartessos” is generally identified with the western Tarshish of Scripture. According to one opinion Tartessos once controlled most of Spain and Gaul⁸. Tartessos served as an emporium for goods from Gaul and Britain.

“Tarsis”, “Tartessos”, and “Tarshish” are all different ways of pronouncing the same name. In Scripture and Talmudic sources TARSHISH is often linked with the “Isles of the Sea” (meaning Britain) and with the “Yam Okyanus” (i.e. Oceanic Sea) meaning the Atlantic Ocean⁹.

In some Talmudic accounts Tarshish is taken to refer to the Sea encompassing one third of the world¹⁰. The Aramaic translation of Yehonathan translates “Tarshish” as “sea”¹¹. Rashi (the major Talmudic Commentator) says that (the sea) Tarshish is called the Sea of Africa presumably meaning the Atlantic¹².

In one of the Psalms, it says “The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall bring presents” (Psalm 72:10): The Aramaic Targum translates this expression to say, “The Kings of Tarsis and of the Isles in the Oceanic Sea shall bring offerings” and by Oceanic Sea (i.e. “Yam Okyanus”) it is generally understood that the Atlantic Ocean is intended¹³.

“Tarshish” is referred to in connection with the Messianic era and with the return of the exiled tribes of Israel:

“Who are these that fly as a cloud and as a dove to their windows? Surely the isles shall wait for me, and the ships of Tarshish first, to bring thy sons from afar, their silver and gold with them, unto the name of the LORD thy God to the Holy One of Israel because he hath glorified thee” (Isaiah 60:8-9).

The above verse speaks of the exiled of Israel returning to the land of Israel by air (i.e. in aeroplanes) and by ship. The “Ships of Tarshish” means those plying the Atlantic Ocean (“Yam Okeanus”) and it therefore follows that Tarshish was someplace on the Atlantic coast.

TARSHISH IN ANCIENT TIMES

Prior to the Assyrian exile, the Israelite Hebrews had had seafaring experience, had co-operated with the Phoenicians, and had become familiar with “Tarshish”. King Solomon had been partner to Hiram king of Phoenician Tyre in an enterprise that circumnavigated Africa and re-entered the Mediterranean after visiting Tarshish somewhere on the European Atlantic shores (1- Kings 9;2627)*14.

Herodotus (4.42,43) reported that Pharaoh Neco who reigned just after Solomon also sent Phoenician sailors to circumnavigate Africa and return via the Pillars of Hercules (i.e. Straits of Gibraltar); he likewise mentions the fact that this trip took three years to complete since he explains the sailors would make a camp on dry land and sow and reap a harvest before continuing*15.

The prophet Ezekiel listed Tarshish amongst the numerous places that were wont to trade with Tyre:

“Tarshish was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of all kinds of riches; with silver, iron, tin, and lead, they traded in thy fairs” (Ezekiel 27;12).

It is well to note that tin and copper were essential in the production of Bronze and most tin was claimed to have originated in Britain. The Egyptian (Coptic) word for tin is “pithran” said to be derived from a mispronunciation of Britain. Tarshish is a name applied to a port “Tarsis” in Cilicia as well as to Tartessos in Spain and it has been claimed that sundry Phoenician trading posts also received the name. Regarding Tarsis of Cilicia (Anatolia) there are no rich deposits of iron, tin, and lead there¹⁶. The Septuagint (in the 300s b.c.e.) translated Tarshish as Carthage (in North Africa) but at the time the Septuagint was written the domain of Carthage included much of Spain¹⁷. The name Tarshish has been found inscribed in stone in Sardinia wherein the Phoenicians also founded colonies but the relevant settlement (Nora) in Sardinia was founded by Phoenicians based on Spain¹⁸ and, by inference, may mean that the settlement was connected with “Tarshish” of Spain. In other words the concept of “Tarshish” as far as Scripture and the connection between Tyre, Israel, and Tarshish is concerned is referring to Spanish Tartessus or a connected post on the Atlantic Ocean.

The above points show that both the ancient Hebrews and the Phoenicians had association of trade and points of control in Tarshish and the Atlantic prior to the Assyrian exile. The Israelite involvement with Tarshish was connected to that of the Phoenicians and of joint Hebrew PHOENICIAN maritime enterprise.

There are many other studies out there and all of them end up leaving you just as confused as they are as to where Tarshish was and is today.

From reading all these views on Tarshish, I have gotten nowhere.

I am now going to go back to read some other things that have always troubled me.

First of all, let us assume Tarshish is in Southern Spain as most scholars have assumed. Now let us go and read the Story of Jonah.

Jonah 1:1-3 Now the word of the Lord came to Jonah the son of Amittai, saying, “Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and call out against it, for their evil has come up before me.” But Jonah rose to flee to Tarshish from the presence of the Lord. He went down to Joppa and found a ship going to Tarshish. So he paid the fare and went down into it, to go with them to Tarshish, away from the presence of the Lord.

:15 So they picked up Jonah and hurled him into the sea, and the sea ceased from its raging.

:17 And the Lord appointed a great fish to swallow up Jonah. And Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

Jonah 2:10 And the Lord spoke to the fish, and it vomited Jonah out upon the dry land.

I had always assumed the Fish transported Jonah to Nineveh but it only says the Fish vomited him out on dry land. So Jonah could have travelled from the Mediterranean over land.

The Gold of Ophir

We read in 2 Chronicles about Solomon's Gold and how it came by the Ships of Tarshish.

2 Chronicles 9:20 All King Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the House of the Forest of Lebanon were of pure gold. Silver was not considered as anything in the days of Solomon. For the king's ships went to Tarshish with the servants of Hiram. Once every three years the ships of Tarshish used to come bringing gold, silver, ivory, apes, and peacocks.

1 Kings 9: 26-27 King Solomon built a fleet of ships at Ezion-geber, which is near Eloth on the shore of the Red Sea, in the land of Edom. And Hiram sent with the fleet his servants, seamen who were familiar with the sea, together with the servants of Solomon. And they went to Ophir and brought from there gold, 420 talents, and they brought it to King Solomon.

1 Kings 22:48 also speaks of the Ships of Tarshish at Ezion Geber Jehoshaphat made ships of Tarshish to go to Ophir for gold, but they did not go, for the ships were wrecked at Ezion-geber.

Jehoshaphat reigned from 870 to 849 BC and it sounds like the ships were destroyed near the end of his reign.

Then we can read about the Prophet Jonah in 2 Kings 14:23-25

In the fifteenth year of Amaziah the son of Joash, king of Judah, Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel, began to reign in Samaria, and he reigned forty-one years. And he did what was evil in the sight of the Lord. He did not depart from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which he made Israel to sin. He restored the border of Israel from Lebo-hamath as far as the Sea of the Arabah, according to the word of the Lord, the God of Israel, which he spoke by his servant Jonah the son of Amittai, the prophet, who was from Gath-hepher.

Jeroboam II reigned from the years 793 BC to 753 BC

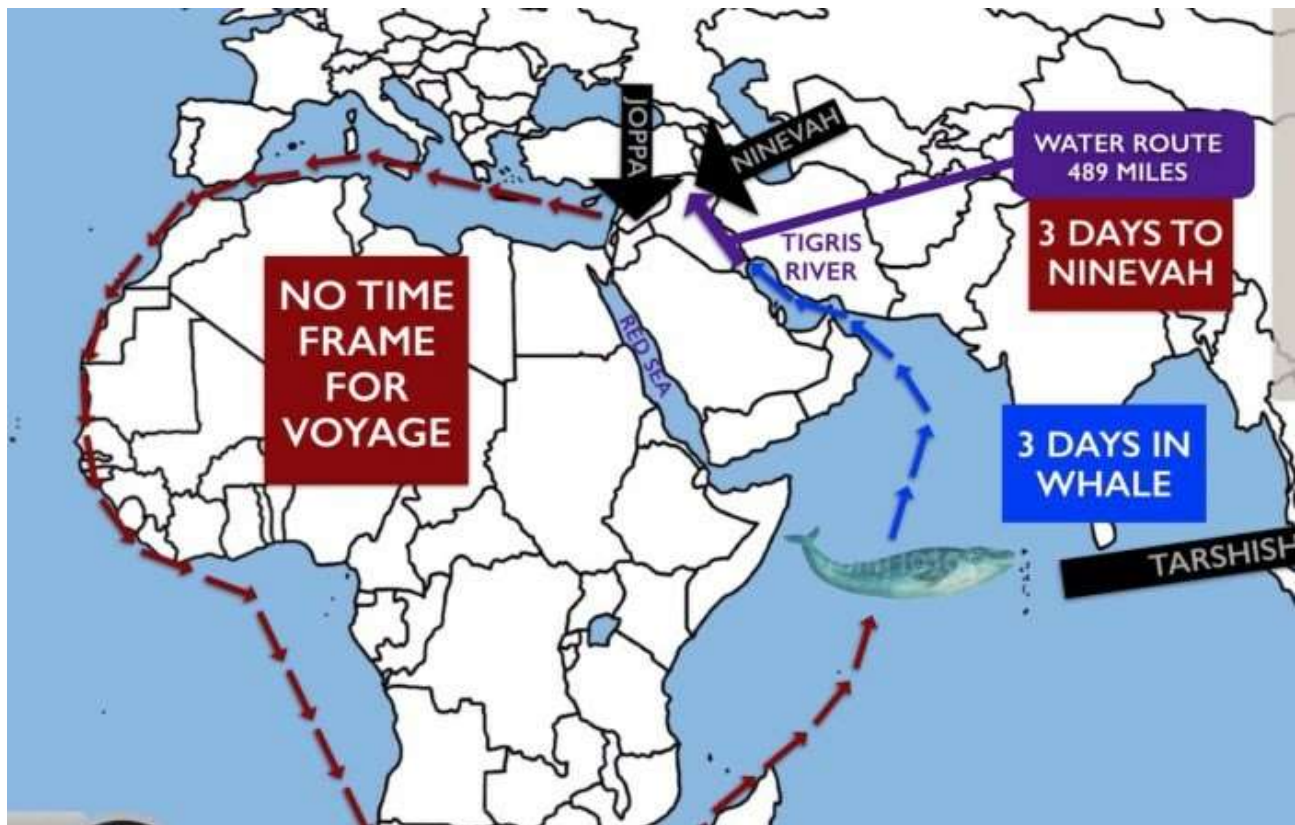

And here is the catch. By the time of Jonah, about 100 years had passed from the time when the ships had been destroyed until the time he was called to go to Nineveh. Jonah going to Nineveh was just years before the first invasion of Israel by Assyria.

1 Chron 5:26 So the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Pul king of Assyria, the spirit of Tiglathpileser king of Assyria, and he took them into exile, namely, the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, and brought them to Halah, Habor, Hara, and the river Gozan, to this day.

2 Kings 15:29 In the days of Pekah king of Israel, Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria came and captured Ijon, Abel-beth-maacah, Janoah, Kedesh, Hazor, Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of Naphtali, and he carried the people captive to Assyria.

These events began to take place in the year 740 BC, just about 13 or more years after Jonah had gone to them and given them the warning.

So because no ships were sailing from Ezion Geber since the last fleet had been destroyed about 100 years before Jonah come on the scene, Jonah caught a ship in Joppa that was going around Africa to Tarshish.

We have already seen from the Scriptures and we have read that the Ships of Tarshish bring back the Survivors and they are brought back from the East. Solomon knew where Tarshish was. That is why He built his ships at Ezion Geber at the South of Israel on the Red Sea. And these ships also brought back the Gold of Ophir. So now, we are looking for Ophir as well.

But some have said that they sailed around the continent of Africa and came to Tarshish in Spain on their way to Israel again. The shortest trip completely around the continent of Africa is roughly 12,400 nautical miles, including the trip through the Suez canal. The Spanish Galleons during their time have been estimated to travel at about 5 knots/hour, 7 tops.

Distance = rate X time

12,400 nm = 5 kts (nautical miles per hour) X time

12,400 nm / 5 kts = time

2480 hours = time

2480 hours / 24hours per day = 103.33 days

There are 365 days in a year. So allowing for stops along the way, it should not take a ship 3 years to just go around Africa.

If we go back to Genesis we can see that Ophir is one of the sons of Joktan and where their land was.

Genesis 10:26-30 Joktan fathered Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah, Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah, Obal, Abimael, Sheba, Ophir, Havilah, and Jobab; all these were the sons of Joktan. The territory in which they lived extended from Mesha in the direction of Sephar to the hill country of the east.

Job also speaks of Ophir and he lived hundreds of years before King David and Solomon.

Job 22:23-25 If you return to the Almighty you will be built up; if you remove injustice far from your tents, if you lay gold in the dust, and gold of Ophir among the stones of the torrent-bed, then the Almighty will be your gold and your precious silver.

Job 28:12-17 “But where shall wisdom be found?
And where is the place of understanding?
Man does not know its worth, and it is not found in the land of the living. The deep says, ‘It is not in me,’ and the sea says, ‘It is not with me.’ It cannot be bought for gold, and silver cannot be weighed as its price. It cannot be valued in the gold of Ophir, in precious onyx or sapphire. Gold and glass cannot equal it, nor can it be exchanged for jewels of fine gold.

Isaiah also spoke of Ophir.

Isaiah 13:11-13 I will punish the world for its evil, and the wicked for their iniquity;
I will put an end to the pomp of the arrogant,
and lay low the pompous pride of the ruthless.
I will make people more rare than fine gold,

and mankind than the gold of Ophir.
Therefore I will make the heavens tremble, and the earth will be shaken out of its place, at the wrath of the Lord of hosts in the day of his fierce anger.

And David made a prayer for Solomon and in this prayer changed the Gold of Ophir to the Gold of Sheba. You will also notice in Gen 10 that Sheba and Ophir are brothers.

Psalm 72:1-15 Of Solomon. Give the king your justice, O God, and your righteousness to the royal son! May he judge your people with righteousness, and your poor with justice!

Let the mountains bear prosperity for the people, and the hills, in righteousness!

May he defend the cause of the poor of the people, give deliverance to the children of the needy, and crush the oppressor!

May they fear you while the sun endures, and as long as the moon, throughout all generations! May he be like rain that falls on the mown grass, like showers that water the earth! In his days may the righteous flourish, and peace abound, till the moon be no more! May he have dominion from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth! May desert tribes bow down before him, and his enemies lick the dust!

May the kings of Tarshish and of the coastlands render him tribute; may the kings of Sheba and Seba bring gifts!

May all kings fall down before him, all nations serve him!

For he delivers the needy when he calls, the poor and him who has no helper. He has pity on the weak and the needy, and saves the lives of the needy.

From oppression and violence he redeems their life, and precious is their blood in his sight. Long may he live; may gold of Sheba be given to him! May prayer be made for him continually, and blessings invoked for him all the day!

I have to wonder if the gold of Uphaz is another name for Ophir and Sheba.

Jer 10:9 Beaten silver is brought from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz.

Uphaz is defined as follows;

ATS Bible Dictionary

Uphaz A region producing fine gold, Jeremiah 10:9 Daniel 10:5. In Hebrew it differs from Ophir by only one letter; and it is thought to denote the same region.

Easton's Bible Dictionary

Probably another name for Ophir (Jeremiah 10:9). Some, however, regard it as the name of an Indian colony in Yemen, southern Arabia; others as a place on or near the river Hyphasis (now the Ghana), the south-eastern limit of the Punjab.

International Standard Bible Encyclopedia

UPHAZu'-faz ('uphaz): A gold-bearing region, mentioned in Jeremiah 10:9 Daniel 10:5, otherwise unknown. Perhaps in both passages Ophir, which differs in one consonant only, should be read. In the second passage, instead of "gold of Uphaz," perhaps "gold and fine gold" ('uphaz) should be read. The Jerusalem Talmud states that there were seven kinds of gold, good gold, pure, precious, gold of Uphaz, purified, refined, and red gold of Parvaim (2 Chronicles 3:6). That of Uphaz, which is so called from the place from which it comes, resembles "flashes of fire fed with pitch" (M. Schwab, The Talmud of Jerusalem, V, 207).

We are also told that this gold has another name. Parvaim is used and it has the meaning of the Eastern or Orient.

2 Chron 3:1-2 Then Solomon began to build the house of the Lord in Jerusalem on Mount Moriah, where the Lord had appeared to David his father, at the place that David had appointed, on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite. He began to build in the second month of the fourth year of his reign.

6-7 He adorned the house with settings of precious stones. The gold was gold of Parvaim. So he lined the house with gold—its beams, its thresholds, its walls, and its doors—and he carved cherubim on the walls.

In the book of Ezekiel, he is prophesying against Tyre. Tyre, in the last days, is Europa. Spain is part of Europe, so Spain cannot be the Tarshish we are looking for.

Ezekiel 27:12-13 "Tarshish did business with you because of your great wealth of every kind; silver, iron, tin, and lead they exchanged for your wares. Javan, Tubal, and Meshech traded with you; they exchanged human beings and vessels of bronze for your merchandise.

In the Gog Magog war, we see Sheba the brother of Ophir and Dedan the brother of Tarshish speaking up against Gog and they all come from the same area.

Ezekiel 38:13 Sheba and Dedan and the merchants of Tarshish and all its leaders will say to you, 'Have you come to seize spoil? Have you assembled your hosts to carry off plunder, to carry away silver and gold, to take away livestock and goods, to seize great spoil?'

The Queen of Sheba Came by Ship

In the story of the Queen of Sheba we are told how both the Queen and Hiram arrived and presented gifts to the King at the same time. She heard about King Solomon from the men of Solomons navy.

1 Kings 9:26-28 King Solomon built a fleet of ships at Ezion-geber, which is near Eloth on the shore of the Red Sea, in the land of Edom. And Hiram sent with the fleet his servants, seamen who were familiar with the sea, together with the servants of Solomon. And they went to Ophir and brought from there gold, 420 talents, and they brought it to King Solomon.

Everything that was used or given to Yehovah was the very best and never was used before by anyone else. Each of the pots that carried the water for use in the Temple was used one time and then destroyed after that one use. We find at Jacobs Altar lots of pottery that was broken for this very reason having been used once. So Solomon built new ships to bring the Gold and wood back for the temple. He would not have used old ships to do this. Were these ships destroyed after that one use? I do not know.

1 Kings 10:1-13 Now when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon concerning the name of the Lord, she came to test him with hard questions. She came to Jerusalem with a very great retinue, with camels bearing spices and very much gold and precious stones. And when she came to Solomon, she told him all that was on her mind. And Solomon answered all her questions; there was nothing hidden from the king that he could not explain to her. And when the queen of Sheba had seen all the wisdom of Solomon, the house that he had built, the food of his table, the seating of his officials, and the attendance of his servants, their clothing, his cupbearers, and his burnt offerings that he offered at the house of the Lord, there was no more breath in her.

And she said to the king, “The report was true that I heard in my own land of your words and of your wisdom, but I did not believe the reports until I came and my own eyes had seen it. And behold, the half was not told me. Your wisdom and prosperity surpass the report that I heard. Happy are your men! Happy are your servants, who continually stand before you and hear your wisdom! Blessed be the Lord your God, who has delighted in you and set you on the throne of Israel! Because the Lord loved Israel forever, he has made you king, that you may execute justice and righteousness.” Then she gave the king 120 talents of gold, and a very great quantity of spices and precious stones. Never again came such an abundance of spices as these that the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

Moreover, the fleet of Hiram, which brought gold from Ophir, brought from Ophir a very great amount of almug wood and precious stones. And the king made of the almug wood supports for the house of the Lord and for the king’s house, also lyres and harps for the singers. No such almug wood has come or been seen to this day.

And King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all that she desired, whatever she asked besides what was given her by the bounty of King Solomon. So she turned and went back to her own land with her servants.

Ethiopia and Yemen do not take three years to go to and return from. Even if they were just part of the journey around Africa. This still does not fit. The Queen of Sheba is not some Black North African Queen as some are trying to tell you. No, she came from far away. And it does not say she had Solomon's child, a bastard child like some Black Hebrews say.

We have spoken of Jonah above and how Nineveh repented. Yeshua spoke both of the Nineveh and of the Queen of Sheba in Mathew 12:41 at the same time. Why?

The men of Nineveh will rise up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, for they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and behold, something greater than Jonah is here. The queen of the South will rise up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and behold, something greater than Solomon is here.

She came from the ends of the earth and not Ethiopia. Yeshua connected the two stories together, Jonah going to Tarshish and the Queen coming from Ophir. But there is more here. The Queen of Sheba will rise up with those at Shavuot and condemn those who do not repent in these days.

Almug Trees

Do you know what nation we have been talking about this whole time? Have you figured it out yet?

The wood that Hiram brought back on the ships was not found in Israel or the Middle East. It was a very special wood that was resistant to termites and had a very pleasant smell.

We read that Hiram brought back from Ophir Almug trees in great quantities. This was a red Sandalwood only found in South East Asia.

1 Kings 10:11-12 Moreover, the fleet of Hiram, which brought gold from Ophir, brought from Ophir a very great amount of almug wood and precious stones. And the king made of the almug wood supports for the house of the Lord and for the king's house, also lyres and harps for the singers. No such almug wood has come or been seen to this day.

We are again told about this Algom wood in 2 Chron 9:10-11

Moreover, the servants of Hiram and the servants of Solomon, who brought gold from Ophir, brought algom wood and precious stones. And the king made from the algom wood supports for the house of the Lord and for the king's house, lyres also and harps for the singers. There never was seen the like of them before in the land of Judah.

Algom or Almug are both describing the same things here. In Hebrew the Almug is Almuggym and Algom is Alguwmmym.

Summertime is the blooming of the Narra, the Philippine's national tree. One may have noticed that a lot of Narra trees around Metro Manila, including those in surrounding provinces, had bloomed during the hot dry summer, giving a majestic sight of a tree almost filled with profuse fragrant yellow minute flowers, which fell down to the ground at the end of the day.

Though the flowers are short lived, they are quite noticable as the whole narra tree canopy becomes filled with fragrant tiny golden yellow flowers. After the flowers have fallen, flat or disc-shaped seed pods form on the branches tips, which, after a few months, the seeds are scattered and dispersed in the area.

Narra or scientifically known as Pterocarpus indicus, belongs to the family Fabaceae, is a native of southeastern Asia, northern Australasia, and the western Pacific Ocean islands. The tree is found all over the Philippines, in primary and secondary forests, from low to medium altitudes. Aside from the Philippines, it is also found in Cambodia, southernmost China, East Timor, Indonesia, Malaysia, Papua New Guinea, the Ryukyu Islands, the Solomon Islands, Thailand, and Vietnam.

Narra is one of the most useful tree in the country as it provides both timber and also shade. It is noted for its hardiness, rapid growth and being pest resistant. Because it is being used for timber, its conservation status was placed under "vulnerable" by the IUCN. It is a large deciduous tree growing to about 30–40 meters in height, with a trunk that can grow up to 2 meters in diameter. The leaves are green, about 12–22 cm long, pinnate, with 5–11 leaflets. The fragrant and yellow flowers are produced in panicles, about 6–13 cm long containing a few to numerous flowers. The flowering season is from February to May in the Philippines. Once pollinated, the flower form into a dry flat fruit or a semi-orbicular pod, about 2–3 cm in diameter, surrounded by a flat 4–6 cm diameter membranaceous wing which aids dispersal by the water, as it falls off the tree during the typhoon months of July & August. It contains one or two seeds, and does not split open at maturity.

The Narra produces timber which is a hardwood, purplish in color, rose-scented and is termite resistant. Freshly cut wood or its saw dust characteristically produces a green sap when poured with water. The flower is used as a honey source while leaf infusions are used as shampoos. Both flowers and leaves were said to be eaten. The leaves are supposedly good for waxing and polishing brass and copper. The tree is recommended as an ornamental / shade tree for avenues and parking lots in the city, as its branches are strong and then tree wouldn't easily be toppled during a typhoon. It is also a source of kino or resin. In folk medicine, it is used to combat tumors. This property might be due to an acidic polypeptide found in its leaves that inhibited growth of Ehrlich ascites carcinoma cells by disruption of cell and nuclear membranes. It is also known as a diuretic in Europe during the 16th and 18th centuries. Its reputation may be due to its wood infusions, which are fluorescent. It is widely planted as a roadside, park, and carpark tree. The tall, domeshaped crown, with long, drooping branches is very attractive and the flowers are spectacular in areas with a dry season.

Knowing the Narra's uses and beauty, we would now appreciate why it was chosen to be our national tree. It is not just a majestic and straight tree, but also a medicinal plant, an important shade tree, and ecologically important as a nitrogen fixer for soils and habitat for birds, insects and small tree climbing mammals.

Narra in Tagalog or Philippine language has the exact same meaning in the Hebrew language as the word Naara. Admirable, wonderful, worthy of admiration, Young Girl. It actually means she who must be admired just like the young Queen of Sheba.

Mount Pulag

Going back to Genesis 10:25-31 we have some more information there to help us identify where Ophir and Sheba were located.

To Eber were born two sons: the name of the one was Peleg, for in his days the earth was divided, and his brother's name was Joktan. Joktan fathered Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah, Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah, Obal, Abimael, Sheba, Ophir, Havilah, and Jobab; all these were the sons of Joktan. The territory in which they lived extended from Mesha in the direction of Sephar to the hill country of the east. These are the sons of Shem, by their clans, their languages, their lands, and their nations.

Joktan was the son of Eber and the brother of Peleg. The earth was divided in the days of Peleg so they were also divided in the days of Joktan as well. Eber is also known to be the Father of the Hebrew. So, Joktan was also a descendant of Eber making Joktan also a Hebrew. This then makes Joktan's children Hebrew as well. The Queen of Sheba and the people of Ophir would then also be Hebrews. But they are not from the 12 tribes of Israel.

Joktan also means they will be small. This could be both in height or as a nation of peoples. Keep this in mind as we go forward.

Darby has verse 30 as follow;

And their dwelling was from Mesha, as one goes to Sephar, the eastern mountain.

Sephar means towards a numerous population. Har Ha Kedem which is translated as Eastern Mountain or hill country of the east means A mountain of the Orient. What nation has the most numerous of peoples?

Of the three highest mountains found in the Philippines, the one in Luzon is called Mount Pulag. It is very similar to the name of Joktan's brother Peleg. In Hebrew, Pulag is a variant of Peleg and it too means He or It was divided. But in Tagalog, the language of the Philippines, Pulag means Glare Dazzling Light.

When I was in the Philippines for Sukkot in 2015, one of the places I went to teach at was Baguio City which is not far from Mount Pulag. I had no idea at that time of the significance of this.

Near Mount Pulag is Kabayan, officially the Municipality of Kabayan, (Ilokano: Ili ti Kabayan; Filipino: Bayan ng Kabayan), is a 4th class municipality in the province of Benguet, Philippines. According to the 2015 census, it has a population of 15,260 people.[3]

Kabayan is the site of centuries-old Ibaloi mummies buried inside caves scattered around its villages.[4]

The third highest mountain in the Philippines, Mount Pulag, is located in the territorial boundary of the vegetable farming town.

Kabayan spelt in Hebrew is Chabaya and means “Yah Has Hidden”.

Another name Sagada to know praise. Is Yada in Hebrew.

North of Manila are two volcanoes. One is called Mount Arayat which is east of the other one called Mount Pinatubo. Ara means Earth and Yaot means to cover in Hebrew. Pina means Yehovah raises and tubo means His Goodness in Hebrew. It erupted in 1991 and the ash cloud was met with of Typhoon Yunya (Diding), bringing a lethal messy mix of ash and rain to towns and cities surrounding the volcano. It produced the second-largest terrestrial eruption of the 20th century after the 1912 eruption of Novarupta in the Alaska Peninsula

Again in Northern Luzon is Mount

Kabuyao where Kabu means Great House and Yao means Yehovah. Or Great house of Yehovah.

Mount Mayon Volcano means Spring of Water in Hebrew.

Taal Volcano in South Luzon. IN Hebrew it is Ta-hal and means to be called out or summoned for a specific purpose.

Caballian Volcano is known as the Hidden Mountain. In Hebrew Chaba is Hidden and lian is Very, very, much, exceedingly, greatly or Greatly Hidden.

Banahaw Volcano.

Bana in Hebrew means built and Haw is Yah so this is built by Yehovah.

Matutum Volcano

Matu in Hebrew is to totter, shake, slip and Tum is the plural of Tom and means perfection or Jewels. One of the epithets of the objects in the High Priest's Breastplate as an emblem of complete truth. Thummin. Or shaking Jewel of complete truth.

Iraya Volcano

Ira in Hebrew means Wakefulness. And Yah together means wakefulness of Yehovah.

Balut Volcano and Island. Balut is Hebrew for Accorn.

Ifugao in Hebrew is Son of the Honoured one.

The Igorot people in Hebrew means Letters. And there are the Ekaya people who claim to be descendants of the builders of Solomon's Temple

100 BC onward

Iron age finds in Philippines also point to the existence of trade between Tamil Nadu and the Philippine Islands during the ninth and tenth centuries B.C.[40] The Philippines is believed by some historians to be the island of Chryse, the "Golden One," which is the name given by ancient Greek writers in reference to an island rich in gold east of India. Pomponius Mela, Marinus of Tyre and the Periplus of the Erythraean Sea mentioned this island in 100 BC, and it is basically the equivalent to the Indian Suvarnadvipa, the "Island of Gold.” Josephus calls it in Latin Aurea, and equates the island with biblical Ophir, from where the ships of Tyre and Solomon brought back gold and other trade items. The Visayan Islands, particularly Cebu had earlier encounter with the Greek traders in 21 AD.[41]

Ptolemy locates the islands of Chryse east of the Khruses Kersonenson, the “Golden Peninsula,” i.e. the Malaya Peninsula. North of Chryse in the Periplus was Thin, which some consider the first European reference to China. In about the 200 BC, there arose a practice of using gold eye covers, and then, gold facial orifice covers to adorn the dead resulting in an increase of ancient gold finds. During the Qin dynasty and the Tang dynasty, China was well aware of the golden lands far to the south. The Buddhist pilgrim I-Tsing mentions Chin-Chou, “Isle of Gold” in the archipelago south of China on his way back from India. Medieval Muslims refer to the islands as the Kingdoms of Zabag and W??w??, rich in gold, referring, perhaps, to the eastern islands of the Malay archipelago, the location of present-day Philippines and Eastern Indonesia.[42]

The Lequios

The Lequios may refer to certain inhabitants of Ophir, which the Spaniards considered to be the Philippine Islands before its colonization.[1] The inhabitants of the Ryukyu Islands were also referred to as Lequios by Tomé Pires.[2][3]

The Ryukyu Islands are those that go between Japan and Taiwan.

Lequios is Hebrew from the word Leqot or Liqet and it means to gather or to glean.

This same volume also contains the official documents regarding the voyage of Ferdinand Magellan. It also contains the logbook of Francisco Albo, the chief pilot of the ship Victoria. This logbook is also one of the main references regarding the voyage of Ferdinand Magellan.

Ophir was "...in front of China towards the sea, of many islands where the Moluccans, Chinese, and Lequios met to trade..."

Jewish Settlements

Along the route described by Document No. 98 are locations of old Jewish settlements.

It would not be surprising for that was the procedure used by King Solomon's fleet.

Settlements were established at selected places to trade and process the gold and silver. The ships collected the gold and silver and brought it to King Solomon. To the credit of the Hebrew people, their settlement remained true to the Jewish faith even for thousands of years. Settlements were found in India, Burma, Sumatra, and Vietnam (Annam and Cochin China). Jewish settlements then, even extended to the Philippines, which was Ophir proper.

In association with these records, Spanish books mention of a mysterious people known as Lequios. Modern historians variously identified them as Okinawans, Koreans, or Vietnamese. They were favorite targets of Spanish ships during the time of General Miguel Lopez de Legazpi because the ships of the Lequios were always laden with gold and silver.

Also, according to Document 98, the Lequios were big, bearded, and white men. They were only interested in gold and silver when trading at Ophir. Okinawans, Koreans, and Vietnamese people are not big nor are they white. Their beards are just small goatees and could not satisfy the word "bearded". Therefore, they were not the Lequios. The Lequios were thus deemed to be the remnants of Hebrews and Phoenicians who have made enclaves in their trade with Ophir proper.

These Lequios were scattered among the islands of the Philippines. Eventually, they too were converted to Christianity: along with the Muslims, Hindus, Buddhists and Animists of the PreHispanic Philippine states after active Hispanic settlement via the Americas became uninterrupted in the 333 years of Spanish colonization.

Cebu City is known for its rich history. The famous Portuguese explorer Ferdinand Magellan landed here in April 7, 1521 and was welcomed by Rajah Humabon king of Cebu. Rajah Humabon and his people converted to Christianity and were baptized by Magellan's priest.

In spite of being a Portuguese, Ferdinand Magellan's expedition was under the banner of Spain. His proposed expedition to the king of Portugal was refused several times, so he went to the king of Spain and was granted funding.

On April 27, 1521, Ferdinand Magellan died in the Battle of Mactan lead by the Philippine's first national hero Lapu-Lapu.

What most people don't know is that he's not the first European explorer who landed in the Philippines. A European explorer named Tomé Pires wrote about Luzon which he refers to as Luções or Luzones during his expedition around 1512-1515.

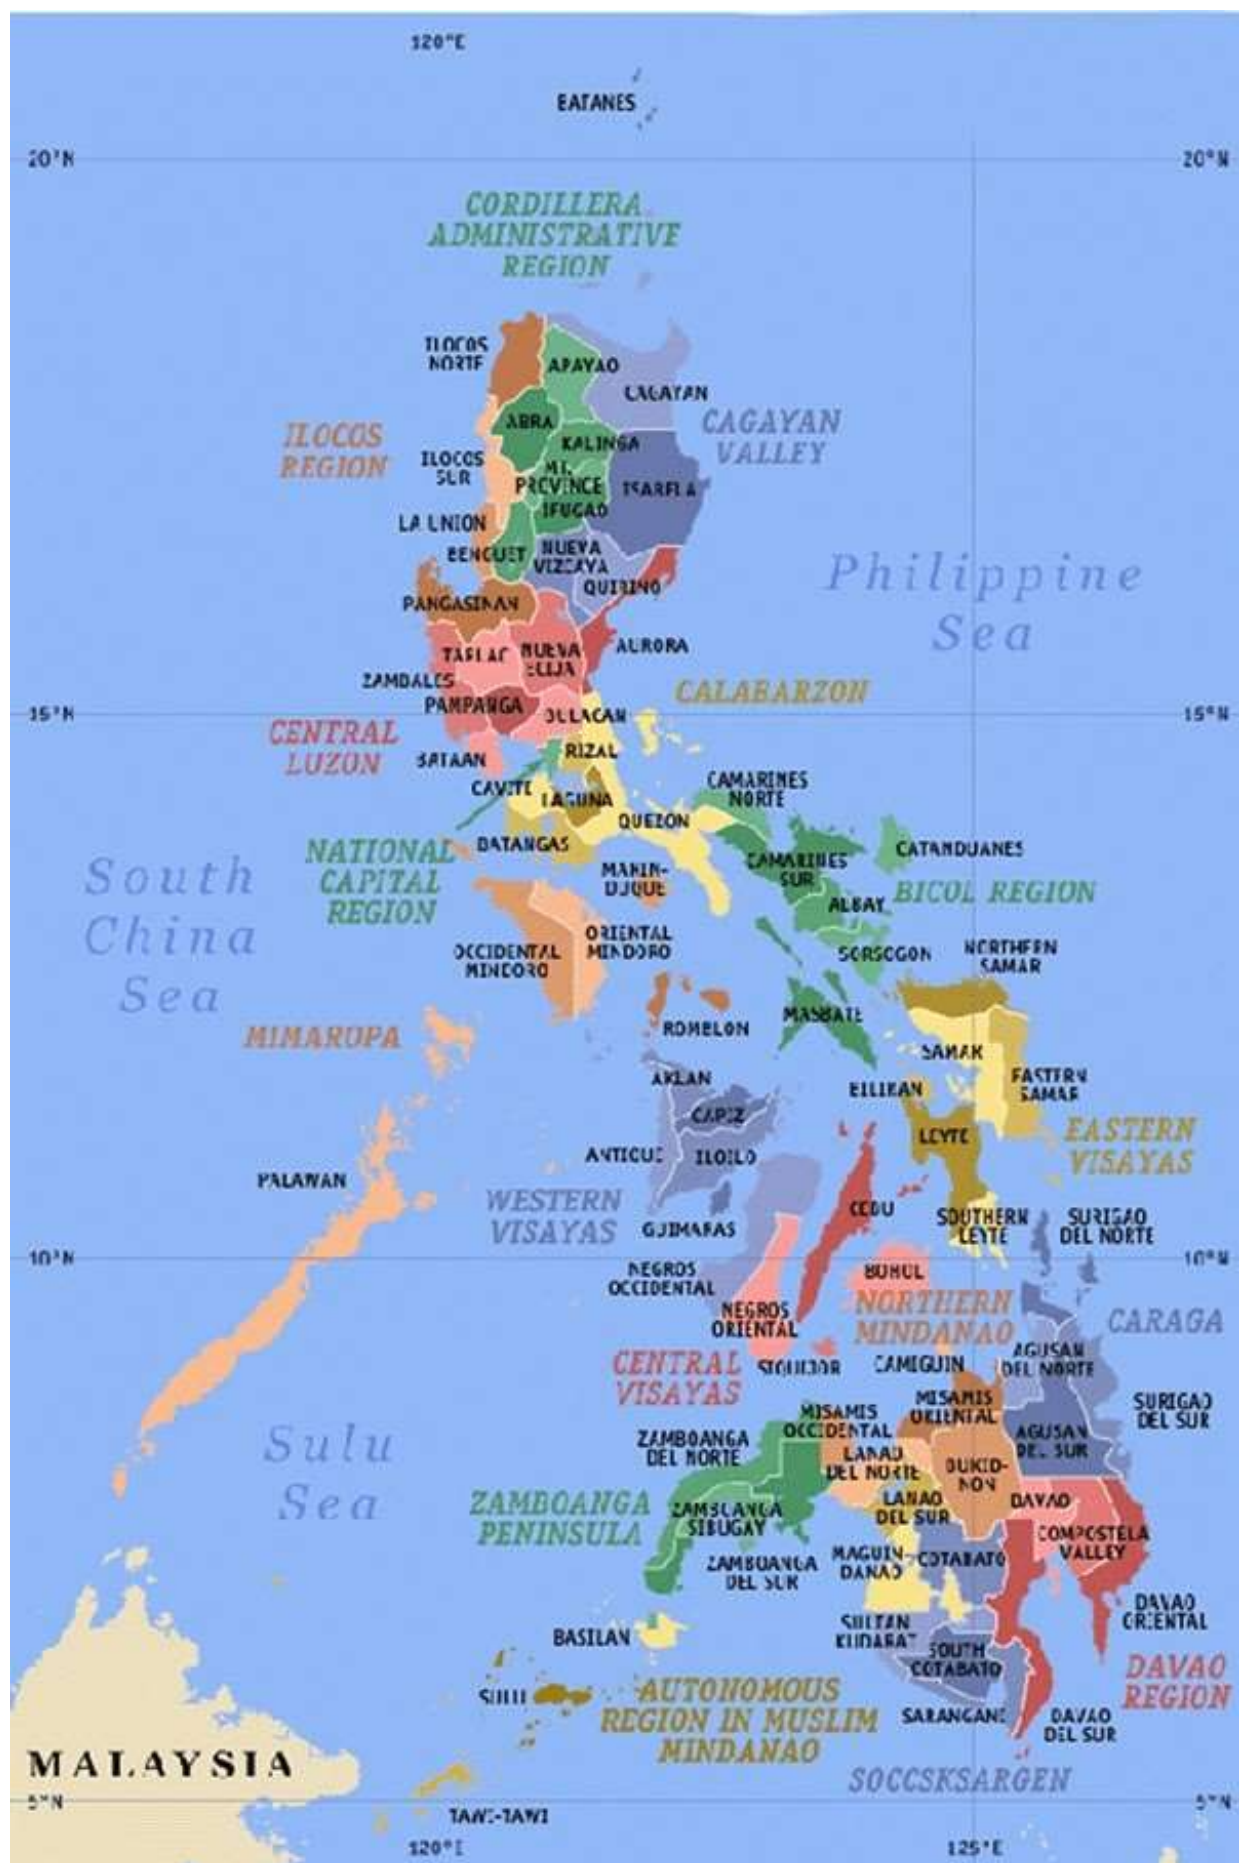

Here's what he wrote:

“The Luções are about ten days' sail beyond Borneo. They are nearly all heathen; they have no king, but they are ruled by a group of elders. They are a robust people, little thought of in Molucca. They have two or three junks at the most.”

“The Borneans go to the lands of the Luções to buy gold, and foodstuffs as well, and the gold which they bring to Molucca is from the Luções and from the surrounding islands which are countless, and they all have more or less trade with one another. And the gold of these islands where they trade is of low quality – indeed very low quality ...”

The Account of the Genoese Pilot (Leone Pancaldo) says that in March 1521, when Magellan's expedition arrived at the small island of Malhou, in the south-eastern Philippine Islands, the natives informed them that 'they had already seen there other men like them', which suggests that possibly even before 1521, there were other Europeans that already visited the archipelago.

In Spanish the name for Gold is ORO. Now look at the Islands of the Philippines and note those places with Oro in their names. Also note where the Capital of Sheba is today. Cebu.

The Philippines Are Ancient Ophir In Samuel Purchas's well-known travel compendium Purchas His Pilgrim, he devotes the entire first chapter to a discussion of Tarshish and Ophir. In particular, he argues strenuously that it is beloved Britain and not Spain that deserved the title as the modern Tarshish and Ophir. Curiously, in Careri's journal of his visit to the Philippines, he mentions that he would not go into the argument raging in Europe at that time over whether the Philippines was originally populated by the descendants of Biblical Tarshish.

In modern times, scholars have attempted to relate Tarshish and Ophir with a number of areas, none of which include the Philippines. However, things were different in Europe prior to the discovery of the Philippines. There, they believed that Tarsis and Ofir were some lands far to the east of biblical Israel. Their reasoning was actually quite logical. King Solomon built the port from which ships departed for Tarsis and Ofir at Ezion-Geber on the coast of the Red Sea. The return journey took about three years, so obviously the location must be somewhere far to the East. In modern times, some scholars have tried to suggest that Solomon's navy circumnavigated Africa to reach the Mediterranean, but the seafaring Europeans of those times would not consider such nonsense. Tarsis and Ofir were unknown lands beyond the Golden Chersonese of Ptolemy. Their discovery would undoubtedly bring untold wealth and great fame in the minds of the people of those times.

The following glyphs or symbol was discovered by Gene Savoy in the cliffs far above the Utcabamba River. There was a theory that this is not a symbol but a sketch map going to Ophir used by Phoenician people.

Mines Dating Back to at Least 1,000 B.C. Have Been Found in the Philippines

Sheba Invited to Build Third Temple

As I was about to leave for the Philippines this article came out in which the Sanhedrin was inviting the Arabs to work with them to build the next temple. If only they knew where the real Queen of Sheba came from. Not Saudi Arabia but the Philippines.

The article leads off with this quote;

Dust clouds of camels shall cover you, Dromedaries of Midian and Ephah. They all shall come from Sheba; They shall bear gold and frankincense, And shall herald the glories of Hashem. Isaiah 60:6 (The Israel Bible™)

The nascent Sanhedrin, a Biblically mandated court of 71 elders, released a letter in Hebrew, English and Arabic inviting the Arabs as the sons of Ishmael to take their role in supporting the Third Temple as prophesied by Isaiah. This move is far more than symbolic. It is intended to bring the entire world one step closer to the global peace that will characterize the Messianic era.

The letter reads:

“Dear brothers, the distinguished Sons of Ishmael, The great Arab nation,

“With the gracious help of the protector and Savior of Israel, Creator of the world by covenant, we declare that the footsteps of Messiah are evidently heard and that the time has come to rebuild the Temple on Mount Moriah in Jerusalem in its ancient place.”

“We, the Jews who advocate building of the Temple, are applying to your Honorable ones, who were nominated by their peoples to give oath, raise vows and gifts to the Temple as prophesied by prophet Isaiah concerning your essential role and honorable position in keeping the Temple and supporting it with lamb sacrifices and incense in order to receive God’s Blessings.”

Raise your eyes and look about: They have all gathered and come to you. Your sons shall be brought from afar, Your daughters like babes on shoulders. As you behold, you will glow; Your heart will throb and thrill— For the wealth of the sea shall pass on to you, The riches of nations shall flow to you. Dust clouds of camels shall cover you, Dromedaries of Midian and Ephah. They all shall come from Sheba; They shall bear gold and frankincense, And shall herald the glories of Hashem. Isaiah 60:4-6

“By virtue of this, we are certain that you will choose peaceful means and avoid all paths to hostility and violence. And we are sure that together we shall open doors to love and respect.”

The letter was signed by 23 respected Rabbis who have received smicha (Rabbinic ordination) for the purpose of re-establishing the Sanhedrin. The rabbis are in the process of acquiring signatures of the full quorum of 71, after which they will send the letter to major Arab institutions and leaders. They hope to hold a conference with Arabs.

Conclusion

We are told in Exodus 12:11 to eat the Passover in haste ready to flee.

In this manner you shall eat it: with your belt fastened, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand. And you shall eat it in haste. It is the Lord’s Passover.

So it is highly appropriate that I send this at this time so that you all can talk about it over Passover and consider all that is being revealed to us at this time.

From the Sabbatical and Jubilee cycles we know we are in the 120th and final Jubilee cycle for the 6th Millennial day of man. We know that!

From the prophecy of Daniel 9:24-27 we know that there are 70 Jubilee cycles from the Exodus until this time we are in right now.

We also know that in the middle of that 70th Jubilee cycle Israel, all 12 tribes will be cut off and be as if they never were as punishment for not keeping the Torah.

So we know when. You should have proven this by now.

We know why.

But we did not know where to flee to. I had assumed it was Jerusalem because we flee from Jerusalem to Jordan. But I was missing one step.

A year ago friends told me to watch this Christian video about the Philippines. It said the garden of Eden was there. I dismissed it because we know for a fact the Garden of Eden is in Northern Iran and Eastern Turkey. I have been there myself when I went to visit Noah's Ark. But in that long video series was some other things. In January February 2018 more people urged me to look at it again. So I did my own research and then watched what they offered.

I also have to wonder why the only two places I have been able to share this message of the Jubilee has been enthusiastically received only in two places. Burundi and the Philippines. And Both of them are I believe mentioned in Isaiah 11:11. Pathros is the ends of the Nile and that is exactly where Burundi is, at the very end of the Nile system. And the Isles of the far east is the Philippines.

It is my position that we are to flee to the Philippines if we want to have any hope of surviving what is to come. I have told you all to get your passports and have them up to date and ready to go. Revelation talks about the Saints under the Altar that are told to wait until their brethren too would be killed. You do not have to be one of them.

When the Assyrians invaded Israel. Some of the tribes had already fled. Dan being one of them.

Again I must remind you of what we are told in Ezekiel 20:37-38

I will make you pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant. I will purge out the rebels from among you, and those who transgress against me. I will bring them out of the land where they sojourn, but they shall not enter the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the Lord.

Yehovah is going to force everyone to pass under this rod and to be removed from your homes.

Isaiah tell us exactly what that "ROD" is.

Isaiah 10:5 Woe to, Assyria, the rod of my anger;
the staff in their hands is my fury! Against a godless nation I send him, and against the people of my wrath I command him, to take spoil and seize plunder, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets.

Germany is the “ROD” Yehovah is going to use to fulfil His fury against the 12 tribes for not obeying Him. And you all have seen in recent years how Germany has invited millions of Islamic men to come to that nation. Now just imagine a German Nazi with Islamic belief's and consider how anyone who even looks like they are “Jewish” will fair in that climate. How many times have you been asked if you were Jewish because of the beliefs you now hold on to?

Again I am telling you to prove these things for yourself. Prove them beyond all doubts. Do not believe me.

Some of you just want to continue to play religion. I have never been playing that game. This is real to me and has been since I began to learn the truth.

Keep in mind what Yehovah said in Isaiah 66:19-21

And from them I will send survivors to the nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, who draw the bow, to Tubal and Javan, to the coastlands far away, that have not heard my fame or seen my glory. And they shall declare my glory among the nations. And they shall bring all your brothers from all the nations as an offering to the Lord, on horses and in chariots and in litters and on mules and on dromedaries, to my holy mountain Jerusalem, says the Lord, just as the Israelites bring their grain offering in a clean vessel to the house of the Lord. And some of them also I will take for priests and for Levites, says the Lord.

Some of these Filipinos will be made into Levitical Priests. And those of us from Israel they will bring to Yehovah in the same way the grain offering were done at Passover and Shavuot. Do you want to be that grain offering?

I have given you much to think about and to consider. Some of you will begin to plan how you can move there. The cost of living is very low compared to North America. Others will give up without even trying and be upset.

In all of this, we have a work yet to do. We need to train those who will become those Levitical priests. Please do continue to pray and support this work and to make your plans for what is about to happen.
