The 42nd day of Counting the Omer

May 19, 2012

Shabbat Shalom Brethren,

It is that time of year, Pentecost in just one week's time.

One of the things I hate doing is wasting a News Letter to address erroneous teachings that have joined themselves to the Torah. Over and Over we are warned not to add to the WORD!!! Yet everyone and their brother-in-law have no problem bringing the false church teachings they once were a part of and adding them to the Torah.

Deu 4:2 "Do not add to the Word which I command you, and do not take away from it, so as to guard the commands of Yehovah your Elohim which I am commanding you.

Deu 12:32 "All the words I am commanding you, guard to do it – do not add to it nor take away from it.

Pro 30:6 Do not add to His Words¹, Lest He reprove you, and you be found a liar.

This command not to add to the word can even be found as a warning in the New Testament.

Rev 22:18 For I witness to everyone hearing the words of the prophecy of this book: If anyone adds to them, Elohim shall add to him the plagues that are written in this book, 19 and if anyone takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, Elohim shall take away his part from the Book of Life, and out of the set-apart city, which are written in this Book.

Gal 1:6 I marvel that you are so readily turning away from Him who called you in the favour of Messiah, to a different 'Good News,'¹ Footnote: 12 Cor. 11:4. 7 which is not another, only there are some who are troubling you and wishing to pervert the Good News of Messiah. 8 However, even if we, or a messenger out of heaven, bring a 'Good News' to you beside what we announced to you, let him be accursed. 9 As we have said before, and now I say again, if anyone brings a 'Good News' to you beside what you have received, let him be accursed. 10 For do I now persuade men, or Elohim? Or do I seek to please men? For if I still pleased men, I should not be a servant of Messiah. 11 And I make known to you, brothers, that the Good News announced by me is not according to man. 12 For I did not receive it from man, nor was I taught it, but through a revelation of Yeshua Messiah.

Do not add to the Word things that are not there lest He prove you a liar. Do people actually listen to this?

Do you realize what the Tree of Good and Evil actually is? It is some truth mixed in with a small lie. Just a little off the mark. We are told not to eat from this tree. Not even to touch it. Yet just like Eve many feel they can handle the false truths of this tree from Satan.

They do not realize that when they do they become filthy and then begin to teach others about this small lie and filth that they now consider to be the truth; the same way that Eve did to Adam.

1Pe 5:8 Be sober, watch, because your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour. 9 Resist him, firm in the belief, knowing that the same hardships are experienced by your brotherhood in the world.

The word Subtle means this;

ADJECTIVE:
subtler, subtlest

So slight as to be difficult to detect or describe; elusive: a subtle smile.
Difficult to understand; abstruse: an argument whose subtle point was lost on her opponent.
Able to make fine distinctions: a subtle mind.

Characterized by skill or ingenuity; clever.
Crafty or sly; devious.
Operating in a hidden, usually injurious way; insidious: a subtle poison.

I find this definition to be very enlightening.....So slight as to be difficult to detect

(The Scriptures 1998+) And the serpent was more crafty than any beast of the field which Yehovah Elohim had made, and he said to the woman, "Is it true that Elohim has said, 'Do not eat of every tree of the garden'?"

(YLT) And the serpent hath been subtle above every beast of the field which Jehovah God hath made, and he saith unto the woman, `Is it true that God hath said, Ye do not eat of every tree of the garden?'

As all of us have been misled in the former groups that we once belonged to. Each of the groups or Churches had some sort of truth in it and then it had a lot of lies mixed in with that truth. We all are coming out of those false teachings. But far too many come to this Messianic or Hebrew Roots movement and want to bring with you the things you previously learned in the church you had attended.

We must drop it all. All of it and begin to start over, reading the Torah and it alone until we get it right. We, those of us of the Lost Ten Tribes are so easily given to false and misleading teachings. It is the way we have been since the time of Rachel who took the idols from Laban. We want to have something to look at or hold to represent our god. This is what we did when we made the golden calves. This is what we do whenever we make something else our god and not Yehovah.

Joh 14:15 "If you love Me, you shall guard My commands.1 Footnote: 1See Ex. 20:6, vv. 21&23, 1 John 5:2-3, 2 John v. 6. 16 "And I shall ask the Father, and He shall give you another Helper, to stay with you forever – 17 the Spirit of the Truth, whom the world is unable to receive, because it does not see Him or know Him. But you know Him, for He stays with you and shall be in you.

Did you understand this passage? It says that if you obey the commandments, you will receive the Holy Spirit. The world and all of those who do not keep the commandments are not able to receive and do not receive the Holy Spirit.

"If you love Me, you shall guard My commands.

The Spirit of the Truth, whom the world is unable to receive; stop and think about this. Why is the world not able to receive the Holy Spirit? Because they do not guard the commandments. They do not keep the Commandments and will not obey them even when they know them. The Test Commandment has always been the Sabbath. Are they keeping the Sabbath and the Holy Days.

Do you see this? It is very plain.

In order to receive the Holy Spirit you must be keeping the Torah. You must be keeping the Sabbath and the Holy Days. If not then you have not received the Holy Spirit, but you may have received another spirit that looks like it is Holy but it is subtly unholy.

He says it again:

Joh 14:21 "He who possesses My commands and guards them, it is he who loves Me. And he who loves Me shall be loved by My Father, and I shall love him and manifest Myself to him."

Do you want Yehshua to manifest Himself to you? What do you have to do?

He repeats it a third time:

Joh 14:23 Yeshua answered him, "If anyone loves Me, he shall guard My Word. And My Father shall love him, and We shall come to him and make Our stay with him. 24 "He who does not love Me does not guard My Words. And the Word which you hear is not Mine but of the Father Who sent Me. 25 “These Words I have spoken to you while still with you. 26 “But the Helper, the Set-apart Spirit, whom the Father shall send in My Name, He shall teach you all, and remind you of all that I said to you.

If you want the Holy Spirit and if you want them to make their abode with you, then you need to obey!

And then he singled out all others that have made a stand not to obey:

Joh 14:24 “He who does not love Me does not guard My Words.

Yes folks, this is how you show Yeshua that you do not love Him... by not keeping His commandments.

As we come up on Pentecost we will hear and see many people of the Pentecostal church claim they got the spirit of prophecy or the spirit to be able to talk in tongues. And as we have just read none of those of the Pentecostal church keep the Sabbath or the Holy Days. We just read that the Holy Spirit would be sent to those who kept the Commandments. So by what spirit do these people operate under?

A subtle spirit that comes looking like an angel of light but the truth it does not have.

2Co 11:13 For such are false emissaries, deceptive workers, masquerading as emissaries of Messiah. 14 And no wonder! For Satan himself masquerades as a messenger of light! 15 It is not surprising, then, if his servants also masquerade as servants of righteousness,¹ whose end shall be according to their works!² Footnotes: 1Mt. 7:15-23, 2 Peter 2:1-22. 2Mt. 13:41-42.

2Th 2:1 As to the coming of our Master Yeshua Messiah and our gathering together to Him, we ask you, brothers, 2 not to become easily unsettled in mind or troubled, either by spirit or by word or by letter, as if from us, as if the day of Yehovah has come. 3 Let no one deceive you in any way, because the falling away is to come first, and the man of lawlessness¹ is to be revealed, the son of destruction, Footnote: 1Some texts read sin instead of lawlessness. This man might be the same one we read of in the prophecy in Isa. 14:12 – H'I'I (“Heileil”), meaning “the shining one,” the sovereign of Babel. 4 who opposes and exalts himself above all that is called Elohim or that is worshipped, so that he sits as Elohim in the Dwelling Place of Elohim, showing himself that he is Elohim.

2Th 2:9 The coming of the lawless one is according to the working of Satan, with all power and signs and wonders of falsehood, 10 and with all deceit of unrighteousness in those perishing, because they did not receive the love of the truth, in order for them to be saved. 11 And for this reason Elohim sends them a working of delusion, for them to believe the falsehood,¹ Footnote: 1Eze. 20:25, John 9:39, John 12:40, Acts 7:42, Rom. 1:24-28. 12 in order that all should be judged who did not believe the truth, but have delighted in the unrighteousness.

Many of those who go after this false expression of speaking in tongues and other deceptive teachings do so as we just read because they do not have a love of the truth to start with.

Torah is not enough for them. They want to explore all these other things and incorporate them into their version of what Torah should be.

'all deceit of unrighteousness in those perishing, because they did not receive the love of the truth, in order for them to be saved'

Think about this as you delve into these things that these other groups practice and say is from the bible. They are lying to you but if your heart is not in the Torah then you will believe the lie and will swallow this strong delusion taught by Satan's angels.

We also read about these last days in the following scriptures.

1Ti 4:1 But the Spirit distinctly says that in latter times some shall fall away from the belief, paying attention to misleading spirits, and teachings of demons, 2 speaking lies in hypocrisy, having been branded on their own conscience, 3 forbidding to marry, saying to abstain from foods which Elohim created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth.

Mat 24:10 "And then many shall stumble, and they shall deliver up one another, and shall hate one another. 11 "And many false prophets shall rise up and lead many astray. 12 "And because of the increase in lawlessness, the love of many shall become cold.

When these false spirits come into the group they destroy the group causing fights and leading some to follow them.

Mat 24:23 "If anyone then says to you, 'Look, here is the Messiah!' or 'There!' do not believe. 24 "For false messiahs and false prophets shall arise, and they shall show great signs and wonders, so as to lead astray, if possible, even the chosen ones. 25 "See, I have forewarned you.

2Pe 2:1 But there also came to be false prophets¹ among the people, as also among you there shall be false teachers, who shall secretly bring in destructive heresies, and deny the Master who bought them, bringing swift destruction on themselves. Footnote: 1See Mt. 7:1523 v. 7-8, and again v. 21. 2 And many shall follow their destructive ways, because of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of, 3 and in greed, with fabricated words, they shall use you for gain. From of old their judgment does not linger, and their destruction does not slumber.

Once again you are being warned of how subtle these people are bringing in these false teaching to your group.

I have seen many who are strong in the faith for a time be swept away in some teaching and later on they are totally devastated and lost in their own salvation, which comes from them and not from Yehovah.

2Ti 2:15 Do your utmost to present yourself approved to Elohim, a worker who does not need to be ashamed, rightly handling the Word of Truth. 16 But keep away from profane, empty babblings, for they go on to more wickedness, 17 and their word shall eat its way like gangrene. Humenaios and Philetos are of this sort, 18 who have missed the goal concerning the truth, saying that the resurrection has already taken place, and overthrow the belief of some.

You are here again told to stay away from profane and empty babblings or the speaking in tongues as is done by those of the Pentecostal movement.

But keep away from profane, empty babblings

When the Apostles began to speak after they received the Holy Spirit, first they were keeping the Torah. They kept the Sabbath and the Holy Days, and the tongues they spoke is just another way of saying they spoke in other languages. Look up the word.

Act 2:1 And when the Day of the Festival of Weeks had come, they were all with one mind in one place. 2 And suddenly there came a sound from the heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. 3 And there appeared to them divided tongues, as of fire, and settled on each one of them. 4 And they were all filled with the Setapart Spirit and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them to speak.

The word tongues here is G1100 ?? glo'ssa gloce'-sah

Of uncertain affinity; the tongue; by implication a language (specifically one naturally unacquired): – tongue.

The Apostles spoke in languages that they had not learned or naturally knew. It would be the exact same thing as me speaking Hebrew or Chinese which I have never learned. I do speak the tongue of French and Spanish although not well.

It is not, let me make this most plain; when the apostles spoke in other languages it was not some angelic gibberish that no one could understand. That is a subtle bold face lie from Satan that these people state. Oh yes they are sincere and pious and all but they are still a part of the Satan's deception. And those of you doing this will no doubt be all fired up about now with me. Stop the lies, stop deceiving yourselves and misleading others. Just stop it all together.

Look what Acts says.

Act 2:5 Now in Yerushalayim there were dwelling Yehud'im, dedicated men from every nation under the heaven. 6 And when this sound came to be, the crowd came together, and were confused, because everyone heard them speak in his own language. 7 And they were all amazed and marveled, saying to each other, "Look, are not all these who speak Galileans? 8 "And how do we hear, each one in our own language in which we were born? 9 "Parthians and Medes and ?ylamites, and those dwelling in Aram Naharayim, both Yehudah and Kappadokia, Pontos and Asia, 10 both Phrygia and Pamphulia, Mitsrayim and the parts of Libya around Cyrene, visitors from Rome, both Yehudim and converts, 11 "Cretans and Arabs, we hear them speaking in our own tongues the great deeds of Elohim."

Now stop and think and stop being so stupid. Why are all these people there from all these other countries? These men are from the Lost Ten Tribes. It says they were dedicated men. That means they were by definition, circumspect (religiously, pious): – devout men who came from these other countries to celebrate Shavuot. The countries mentioned are the places that the Lost Tribes were at or had migrated to. These devout men who were religious were there from the ten Lost tribes to keep Shavuot and they had over the past 763 years (723 BC + 31 CE = 763) since they went into captivity learned different languages or tongues.

The miracle here was that each man heard in whatever language he naturally spoke; he heard the Apostles speaking Hebrew and at the same time that they spoke Hebrew these men from these other lands heard in their own language what was said without translators. That was the miracle here.

No Peter and the rest of the apostles did not receive the Holy Spirit and then fall backwards on the ground and roll back and forth for an hour or so and have a self-inflicted orgasm. This is the exact thing I see when these people today do this. Each one gets up and says that was a good one or that was awesome and I am so tired. It is self-inflicted and for selfish self-satisfaction. In the following report you can see this same sort of spirit at work in many of those who will not keep the commandments. <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=eBpw2oQrvMM>

And Yehovah sends them this strong delusion why?

2Th 2:10 and with all deceit of unrighteousness in those perishing, because they did not receive the love of the truth, in order for them to be saved. 11 And for this reason Elohim sends them a working of delusion, for them to believe the falsehood, 1 Footnote: 1Eze. 20:25, John 9:39, John 12:40, Acts 7:42, Rom. 1:24-28.

Because they would not except the TRUTH and or love the commandments of Yehovah. Remember we read if you love me keep the commandments. Pretty simple, eh?

Yehshua warned us of this sort of thing coming in Mathew 13.

Mat 13:3 And He spoke to them much in parables, saying, "See, the sower went out to sow. 4 "And as he sowed, some indeed fell by the wayside, and the birds came and devoured them. 5 "And others fell on rocky places, where they did not have much soil, and immediately they sprang up, because they had no depth of soil. 6 "But when the sun was up they were scorched, and because they had no root they withered. 7 "And others fell among thorns, and the thorns came up and choked them. 8 "And others fell on good soil and yielded a crop, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. 9 "He who has ears to hear, let him hear!" 10 And the taught ones came and said to Him, "Why do You speak to them in parables?" 11 And He answering, said to them, "Because it has been given to you to know the secrets of the reign of the heavens, but to them it has not been given. 12 "For whoever possesses, to him more shall be given, and he shall have overflowing; but whoever does not possess, even what he possesses shall be taken away from him. 13 "Because of this I speak to them in parables, because seeing they do not see, and hearing they do not hear, nor do they understand. 14 "And in them the prophecy of Yeshayahu is completely filled, which says, 'Hearing you shall hear and by no means understand, and seeing you shall see and by no means perceive, 15 for the heart of this people has become thickened, and their ears are hard of hearing, and their eyes they have closed, lest they should see with their eyes and hear with their ears, lest they should understand with their heart, and turn back, and I heal them.' 16 "And blessed are your eyes because they see, and your ears because they hear, 17 for truly I say to you, that many prophets and righteous ones longed to see what you see, and did not see it, and to hear what you hear, and did not hear it. 18 “You, then, hear the parable of the sower: 19 “When anyone hears the word of the reign, and does not understand it, then the wicked one comes and snatches away what was sown in his heart. This is that sown by the wayside. 20 “And that sown on rocky places, this is he who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy, 21 yet he has no root in himself, but is short-lived, and when pressure or persecution arises because of the word, immediately he stumbles. 22 “And that sown among the thorns is he who hears the word, and the worry of this age and the deceit of riches choke the word, and it becomes fruitless.1 Footnote: 1Lk. 21:34, 2 Tim. 3:4. 23 “And that sown on the good soil is he who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit and yields – some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.”

How deep are your roots? How good is your soil? How well is the Spirit doing in you? Is it looking for the next new or big thing? Is it after some thrill or new adventure? Or is it just studying out the Torah and applying it to your everyday walk? Or does it find the study of Torah boring?

Then Yehshua spoke of the mixed seed in the same field.

Mat 13:24 Another parable He put before them, saying, “The reign of the heavens has become like a man who sowed good seed in his field, 25 but while men slept, his enemy came and sowed darnel among the wheat and went away. 26 “And when the blade sprouted and bore fruit, then the darnel also appeared. 27 “And the servants of the master of the house came and said to him, ‘Master, did you not sow good seed in your field? From where then does it have the darnel?’ 28 “And he said to them, ‘A man, an enemy did this.’ And the servants said to him, ‘Do you wish then, that we go and gather them up?’ 29 “But he said, ‘No, lest while you gather up the darnel you also uproot the wheat with them. 30 ‘Let both grow together until the harvest, and at the time of harvest I shall say to the reapers, “First gather the darnel and bind them in bundles to burn them, but gather the wheat into my granary.” ’ ’ ”

Lev 19:19 ‘Guard My laws. Do not let your livestock mate with another kind. Do not sow your field with mixed seed. And do not put a garment woven of two sorts of thread upon you.

Deu 22:9 “Do not sow your vineyard with different kinds of seed, lest the yield of the seed which you have sown and the fruit of your vineyard be defiled. 10 “Do not plough with an ox and a donkey together. 11 “Do not put on a garment of different kinds, of wool and linen together.

Brethren you cannot take the false religions from where you come from and try to stick them or fit them in with the walk with Yehovah and His Torah. It just does not and cannot work. You must abandon most if not everything you learned at your former false learning church and study and prove what is true and it alone. And you do this by reading your Torah and not by letting someone who does not keep Torah teach these false things to you, that are not found being taught by Yehshua or the Prophets or Apostles.

2 Peter 2:18 For speaking arrogant nonsense, they entice – through the lusts of the flesh, through indecencies – the ones who have indeed escaped from those living in delusion, 19 promising them freedom, though themselves being slaves of corruption – for one is a slave to whatever overcomes him. 20 For if, after they have escaped the defilements of the world through the knowledge of the Master and Saviour Yeshua Messiah, they are again entangled in them and overcome, the latter end is worse for them than the first. 21 For it would have been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than having known it, to turn from the set-apart command¹ delivered unto them. Footnote: ¹The singular “command” often means “commands” – see 1 Tim. 6:14, Dt. 17:20, Ps. 19:8. 22 For them the proverb has proved true, “A dog returns to his own vomit,” and, “A washed sow returns to her rolling in the mud.”

Did you catch what else Peter said. “promising them freedom, though themselves being slaves of corruption” That is the teaching that permeates today all around us; about being free from the law because you are saved by the grace doctrine. Jesus died and paid for your sins, so now you do not have to keep the law, it was nailed to the cross. Those who say this are slaves of the corruption promising you the freedom. Just like Satan said to Eve, surely you will not die; but he lied. And so are they. Some of you think you have this new understanding of these old lies all figured out and as you try to teach your brethren you find sudden resistance. Maybe you should step back and rethink this out. Maybe your brethren are telling you something.

One more thing; many people now have this expression they say. They say they have been talking to the spirit, or the spirit spoke to them and told them this or that. The trouble with this is that we can't prove if what they were told is true or not. Many people have claimed to hear the Holy Spirit when he didn't really speak to them. They have made false prophecies and given foolish advice.

People like this say the Holy Spirit told me to go this way and those of us not privy to that conversation must stop arguing because they had the Holy Spirit tell them.

The Holy Spirit speaks to us primarily through the Scriptures that Yehovah inspired to be written and canonized. This is our foundation of faith and life, the word that everyone has access to, the word that can be studied and discussed most objectively. Often the word that we need to hear has already been written, and the Spirit simply needs to bring it to mind. When Yeshua was tempted by the devil, for example, his responses were quoted from Scripture. He had studied and memorized those words, and in each situation the Spirit led him to the appropriate response.

1Jn 4:1 Beloved ones, do not believe every spirit, but prove the spirits, whether they are of Elohim, because many false prophets have gone out into the world. 2 By this you know the Spirit of Elohim: Every spirit that confesses that Yeshua Messiah has come in the flesh is of Elohim, 3 and every spirit that does not confess that Yeshua Messiah has come in the flesh is not of Elohim. And this is the spirit of the anti-messiah which you heard is coming, and now is already in the world. 4 You are of Elohim, little children, and have overcome them, because He who is in you is greater than he who is in the world.¹ Footnote: ¹See Messiah in you in Explanatory Notes. 5 They are of the world, therefore they speak as of the world, and the world hears them.6 We are of Elohim – the one knowing Elohim hears us. He who is not of Elohim does not hear us. By this we know the Spirit of the Truth and the spirit of the delusion.

Yehshua also tells us to test the spirits to see if they are of Him or of Satan.

Rev 2:2 “I know your works, and your labour, and your endurance, and that you are not able to bear evil ones, and have tried those who say they are emissaries and are not, and have found them false; 3 and you have been bearing up and have endurance, and have laboured for My Name’s sake and have not become weary.

We are also given another way to know who is of Yehovah and who is not.

Mat 7:21 “Not everyone who says to Me, ‘Master, Master,’ shall enter into the reign of the heavens, but he who is doing the desire of My Father in the heavens. 22 “Many shall say to Me in that day, ‘Master, Master, have we not prophesied in Your Name, and cast out demons in Your Name, and done many mighty works in Your Name?’ 23 “And then I shall declare to them, ‘I never knew you, depart from Me, you who work lawlessness!’1 Footnote: 1 See v. 15.

It will be those who keep the Commandments and are doing His will, that are walking this way of life, keeping the Sabbath each week and the Holy Days each year and the Sabbatical years when they come. And those who do not are those who will be told I never knew you. Yes even if you can speak in tongues and fall on the floor backwards you will be told I never knew you because you did not and will not obey Me, Yehshua.

And it is based on this one alone that I do most of my testing of the spirits. Those people who claim to talk to the Holy Spirit and were told this or that; if they do not walk in Torah then the Spirit they follow is of Satan. If they twist the scriptures; then they follow Satan. If their fruit in their lives is rotten, then you know which tree they follow, Satan’s tree of good and evil. If they are breaking the other commandments and have no remorse then they follow their father Satan and work in lawlessness.

Gal 5:22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, trustworthiness, 23 gentleness, self-control. Against such there is no Torah. 24 And those who are of Messiah have impaled the flesh with its passions and the desires.25 If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

What is love? It is not appeasement!! Love is defined by Yehshua.

Joh 14:15 “If you love Me, you shall guard My commands.1 Footnote: 1See Ex. 20:6, vv. 21&23, 1 John 5:2-3, 2 John v. 6. 16 “And I shall ask the Father, and He shall give you another Helper, to stay with you forever – 17 the Spirit of the Truth, whom the world is unable to receive, because it does not see Him or know Him. But you know Him, for He stays with you and shall be in you.

Only when you keep the commandments do you show Yehshua that you love Him. And only then will He send you the Holy Spirit.

Those who go around speaking in so called tongues and talking to the Spirit of the Lord are not keeping the Torah and do not love Yehshua. They are following Satan and are going to lead you astray.

When you say the Shema Prayer, do you pay attention to what you are saying?

Deu 6:4 “Hear, O Yisra’el: Yehovah our Elohim, Yehovah is one! 5 “And you shall love Yehovah your Elohim with all your heart, and with all your being, and with all your might. 6 “And these Words which I am commanding you today shall be in your heart, 7 and you shall impress them upon your children, and shall speak of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise up, 8 and shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes. 9 “And you shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates. 10 “And it shall be, when Yehovah your Elohim brings you into the land of which He swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Yitsh’aq, and to Ya’aqob, to give you great and good cities which you did not build, 11 and houses filled with all kinds of goods, which you did not fill, and wells dug which you did not dig, vineyards and olive trees which you did not plant, and you shall eat and be satisfied – 12 be on guard, lest you forget Yehovah who brought you out of the land of Mitsrayim, from the house of bondage. 13 “Fear Yehovah your Elohim and serve Him, and swear by His Name. 14 “Do not go after other mighty ones, the mighty ones of the peoples who are all around you, 15 for Yehovah your Elohim is a jealous ?l in your midst, lest the displeasure of Yehovah your Elohim burn against you, then He shall destroy you from the face of the earth. 16 “Do not try Yehovah your Elohim as you tried Him in Massah. 17 “Diligently guard the commands of Yehovah your Elohim, and His witnesses, and His laws which He has commanded you.

Yehovah our Elohim, Yehovah is one!

Joh 1:1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with Elohim, and the Word was Elohim.

Joh 1:14 And the Word became flesh and pitched His tent among us, and we saw His esteem, esteem as of an only brought-forth of a father, complete in favour and truth.

There are not three gods to be praying to. There is no trinity!

Yehovah is one and Yehovah is also the Word which we can read in the Torah. That Word became flesh and was called Yehshua. Yehovah is Yehshua.

We are not told to be talking to the spirit. ‘The spirit told me this or that’ comes from Satan. We are not to pray to the spirits.

Mat 6:9 “This, then, is the way you should pray: ‘Our Father who is in the heavens, let Your Name be set-apart,

We are to pray to Yehovah and to Him Alone. Yehshua told us to pray to the Father Yehovah and not to the spirits, not to angels, not to Jesus and not to Yehshua. You are told by Yehshua to pray to the Father Yehovah and to Him alone!!!

When people tell you the spirit told them this or that, be on guard. It is the Father who tells us and this is done through His word in the Torah.

Eph 5:11 And have no fellowship with the fruitless works of darkness, but rather reprove¹ them. Footnote: ¹Or confute, or expose.

We have exposed this false teaching of speaking in tongues or speaking to spirits or talking to false gods. I would urge you to listen to the teaching from Walter Veith.

Here is an article I wrote two years ago on Healing in the name of Satan which helps to show you the spirit these groups are working under.

And now we must look at the history of Pentecostalism and where it comes from and what people said about it when it came out then. <http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Pentecostalism>

Pentecostalism or Classical Pentecostalism is a renewal movement^[1] within Christianity that places special emphasis on a direct personal experience of God through the baptism in the Holy Spirit.^[2] The term Pentecostal is derived from Pentecost, the Greek name for the Jewish Feast of Weeks. For Christians, this event commemorates the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the followers of Jesus Christ, as described in the second chapter of the Book of Acts.^[3] Pentecostals tend to see their movement as reflecting the same kind of spiritual power and teachings that were found in the Apostolic Age of the early church. For this reason, some Pentecostals also use the term Apostolic or full gospel to describe their movement.

Pentecostalism is an umbrella term that includes a wide range of different theologies and cultures.^[4] For example, many Pentecostals are Trinitarian and others are Nontrinitarian.^[5] As a result, there is no single central organization or church that directs the movement. However some Pentecostal denominations are affiliated with the Pentecostal World Conference.

Pentecostalism's emphasis on the spiritual gifts places it within Charismatic Christianity, a broad grouping of Christians who have accepted some Pentecostal teachings on Spirit baptism and spiritual gifts. Pentecostalism is theologically and historically close to the Charismatic Movement as it significantly influenced that movement, and sometimes the terms Pentecostal and charismatic are used interchangeably.

Estimated to number around 115 million followers worldwide in 2000, Pentecostalism is sometimes referred to as the "third force of Christianity", the first two being Catholicism and Protestantism.^[102] Pentecostal and Charismatic church growth is rapid in many parts of the world.^{[103][104]} The great majority of Pentecostals are to be found in developing countries although much of their international leadership is still in North America. The movement is enjoying its greatest surge today in the global South, which includes Africa, Latin America, and most of Asia.^{[105][106]} One reason for this growth is Pentecostalism's appeal to the poor.^[107]

According to a United Nations report, the movement has “been the most successful at recruiting its members from the poorest of the poor.”[108]

In 1998, there were about 11,000 different Pentecostal or charismatic denominations worldwide.[citation needed] The largest Pentecostal denomination in the world, the Assemblies of God, claims approximately 57 million adherents worldwide.[109] It has a significant presence in many countries including Cuba, Egypt, India, Indonesia and Nigeria.[110] The Church of God (Cleveland, Tennessee) has a membership of over 6 million,[111] the Church of God in Christ has a membership of 5.5 million,[3] the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel has 5 million members, the United Pentecostal Church International has a membership of over 4 million,[112] and the International Pentecostal Holiness Church has over 3 million members.[113]

The largest single Pentecostal church in the world is the Yoido Full Gospel Church in South Korea. Founded and led by David Yonggi Cho since 1958, it has to 1 million members in 2007. [114] Australia’s largest church, Hillsong, is an Assemblies of God in Australia church with a membership exceeding 19,000.[citation needed] The largest Malayalam, an Indian language speaking church in the world with over 10,000 communicant members is headed by Rev Dr. M A Varughese in Bangalore India.

Mat 7:13 “Enter in through the narrow gate! Because the gate is wide – and the way is broad – that leads to destruction, and there are many who enter in through it. 14 “Because the gate is narrow and the way is hard pressed¹ which leads to life, and there are few who find it.

Footnote: ¹Or the way is afflicted. 15 “But beware of the false prophets,¹ who come to you in sheep’s clothing, but inwardly they are savage wolves. Footnote: ¹See v. 23 16 “By their fruits you shall know them. Are grapes gathered from thornbushes or figs from thistles? 17 “So every good tree yields good fruit, but a rotten tree yields wicked fruit. 18 “A good tree is unable to yield wicked fruit, and a rotten tree to yield good fruit. 19 “Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. 20 “So then, by their fruits you shall know them – 21 “Not everyone who says to Me, ‘Master, Master,’ shall enter into the reign of the heavens, but he who is doing the desire of My Father in the heavens.

22 “Many shall say to Me in that day, ‘Master, Master, have we not prophesied in Your Name, and cast out demons in Your Name, and done many mighty works in Your Name?’ 23 “And then I shall declare to them, ‘I never knew you, depart from Me, you who work lawlessness!’¹

Footnote: ¹ See v. 15. 24 “Therefore everyone who hears these words of Mine, and does them, shall be like a wise man who built his house on the rock, 25 and the rain came down, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house, and it did not fall, for it was founded on the rock. 26 “And everyone who hears these words of Mine, and does not do them,¹ shall be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand, Footnote: ¹John 3:36. 27 and the rain came down, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and they beat on that house, and it fell, and great was its fall.”

Early revivals: 1900–1929

[edit] Parham and Seymour

William Seymour, leader of the Azusa Street Revival

Charles Parham, an independent holiness evangelist who believed strongly in divine healing, was an important figure to the emergence of Pentecostalism as a distinct Christian movement. In 1900, he started a school near Topeka, Kansas, which he named Bethel Bible School. There he taught that speaking in tongues was the scriptural evidence for the reception of the baptism with the Holy Spirit. On January 1, 1901, after a watch night service, the students prayed for and received the baptism with the Holy Spirit with the evidence of speaking in tongues. Parham received this same experience sometime later and began preaching it in all his services. Parham believed this was xenoglossia and that missionaries would no longer need to study foreign languages. After 1901, Parham closed his Topeka school and began a four year revival tour throughout Kansas and Missouri.[122] He taught that the baptism with the Holy Spirit was a third experience, subsequent to conversion and sanctification. Sanctification cleansed the believer, but Spirit baptism empowered for service.[123]

At about the same time that Parham was spreading his doctrine of initial evidence in the Midwestern United States, news of the Welsh Revival of 1904-1905 ignited intense speculation among radical evangelicals around the world and particularly in the United States of a coming move of the Spirit which would renew the entire Christian Church. This revival saw thousands of conversions and also exhibited speaking in tongues.[124]

In 1905, Parham moved to Houston, Texas, where he started a Bible training school. One of his students was William J. Seymour, a one-eyed black preacher. Seymour traveled to Los Angeles where his preaching sparked the three-year-long Azusa Street Revival in 1906.[125] Worship at the racially integrated Azusa Mission featured an absence of any order of service. People preached and testified as moved by the Spirit, spoke and sung in tongues, and fell in the Spirit. The revival attracted both religious and secular media attention, and thousands of visitors flocked to the mission, carrying the “fire” back to their home churches.[126] Despite the work of various Wesleyan groups such as Parham’s and D. L. Moody’s revivals, the beginning of the widespread Pentecostal movement in the United States is generally considered to have begun with Seymour’s Azusa Street Revival.[127]

[edit] Criticism and spread

The first generation of Pentecostal believers faced immense criticism and ostracism from other Christians, most vehemently from the holiness movement from which they originated. Alma White, leader of the Pillar of Fire Church, wrote a book against the movement titled Demons and Tongues in 1910. She called Pentecostal tongues “satanic gibberish” and Pentecostal services “the climax of demon worship”. [128] Famous holiness preacher W. B. Godbey characterized those at Azusa Street as “Satan’s preachers, jugglers, necromancers, enchanters, magicians, and all sorts of mendicants”. To Dr. G. Campbell Morgan, Pentecostalism was “the last vomit of Satan”, while Dr. R. A. Torrey thought it was “emphatically not of God, and founded by a Sodomite”. [129] Ironically, the Pentecostal Church of the Nazarene, one of the largest holiness groups, was strongly opposed to the new Pentecostal movement. To avoid confusion, the church changed its name in 1919 to the Church of the Nazarene. [130] A. B. Simpson’s Christian and Missionary Alliance negotiated a compromise position unique for the time. Simpson believed that Pentecostal tongues speaking was a legitimate manifestation of the Holy Spirit, but he did not believe it was a necessary evidence of Spirit baptism. This view on speaking in tongues ultimately led to what became known as the “Alliance position” articulated by A. W. Tozer as “seek not—forbid not”. [130] In 1928, the World’s Christian Fundamentals Association labeled Pentecostalism “fanatical” and “unscriptural”. By the early 1940s, this rejection of Pentecostals was giving way to a new cooperation between them and leaders of the “new evangelicalism, and American Pentecostals were involved in the founding of the 1942 National Association of Evangelicals. [162] Pentecostal denominations also began to interact with each other both on national levels and international levels through the Pentecostal World Conference, which was founded in 1947.

Brethren the Speaking in Tongues that some are now trying to bring into the Torah Studying believers is nothing more than another revival that relies on emotions and whipped up feel good sentimental feelings. It has nothing to do with the truth, nor does it teach obedience to the commandments and the Holy Days. Avoid it and those who teach it like the plague it is. When Jacobs’s trouble comes which is now already begun these emotional types will have no staying power. Get back into the torah and hold on to it with both hands. Do not get wrapped up in some man’s invention that was started in the 1900’s.

I have a question for you to consider. When we read about the giving of the Torah from the very mouth of Yehovah from atop Mount Sinai and over two million people heard it with their own ears, does it say in Scriptures that these people then fell backwards and were seen rolling on the ground having an orgasm? When we read in the book of Acts when the Apostles received the Holy Spirit do we read that each of them fell backwards on the ground and also had an orgasm as they accepted it?

No brethren we do not read any such thing in either case. What you are seeing is from Satan who has always and continues to mislead people in any way he can. The Pentecostal movement began in the early 1900’s not when the Holy Spirit was given to the Apostles.

Again do not get wrapped in such demonic teachings, do not compromise with it as the protestant churches did in the 1940s after condemning it in the 1900’s when it first came on the scene. It was not something that has been done since the days of the Apostles.

Stay strong to the true faith and stay close to the Torah. Period!!!
