

This Article—Soon Blocked By the EU?

 sightedmoon.com/the-silence-of-the-lambs/

By Joseph F. Dumond

News Letter 5855-006

The 3rd Year of the 4th Sabbatical Cycle

The 24th year of the 120th Jubilee Cycle

The 29th day of the 1st month 5855 years after the creation of Adam

The 1st Month in the Third year of the Fourth Sabbatical Cycle

The 4th Sabbatical Cycle after the 119th Jubilee Cycle

The Third Year Tithe for the Widows and Orphans and Levites

The Sabbatical Cycle of Sword, Famines, and Pestilence

April 6, 2019

Shabbat Shalom to the Royal Family of Yehovah,

This week's newsletter has been building now for a few months. At first, I thought it was just a one-time thing and then it came up over and over and stood out quite clearly. But we have had no time to share with you about it due to the great debate about the Barley and whether or not it was Aviv and then next thing it was Passover and unleavened bread. Time is flying by. But Yehovah is on His own schedule and we need to get caught up to Him and stay close to Him.

As much as I say I can't believe this is happening and as much as we all want to deny it is happening, the reality is that those things we have been saying in The 2300 Days of Hell and in Remembering the Sabbatical year of 2016 are coming to pass and are compounding and growing in mass. Those things we first wrote about in The Prophecies of Abraham and in The Blood Moons are coming about and cannot be denied any longer.

If you have not already read these books then please do order them after the Sabbath and read them and study them prove to yourself whether they are true or not based on the nightly news.

A Stealthy Lion Going To and From

While many of us were watching whether or not the Barley was going to be Aviv at the end of the 12th month or whether or not it would be Aviv by Wave Sheaf day and then the ensuing debate and words of anger sent back and forth from both sides again this year, and while we were all busy deleavening our homes if we felt the barley was indeed Aviv, the world changed and I am wondering if any of you even noticed in all the bickering that went on.

I watched a video today and I will try to find it, of two deer bucks in Africa fighting and getting their horns locked and unable to break free. The whole time they were fighting a lion was stalking them and quickly approaching them. The rest of the deer began to run just before the lion pounced on the two still locked in the fight. Then at the very last moment they broke apart but not before the lion sunk his teeth into the neck of one killing it.

I found two of them.

Some of you are these two deer's. Dare I say many of you. I hope not. The Lion is Satan.

1 Peter 5:6 Humble yourselves, therefore, under the mighty hand of God so that at the proper time he may exalt you, casting all your anxieties on him, because he cares for you. Be sober-minded; be watchful. Your adversary the devil prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour.

Job 1:6 Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the Lord, and Satan also came among them. The Lord said to Satan, "From where have you come?" Satan answered the Lord and said, "From going to and fro on the earth, and from walking up and down on it."

While many of you were fighting amongst yourselves the world changed and changed drastically and for the worse. Yet many of you said nothing and did nothing about it. You were more focused on being right and proving your righteousness to the other side no matter what. But what you have been told to do is to watch. Watch out for Satan's movements here on this earth.

There is a huge polarization taking place in USA politics. It has been going on since Donald Trump won the election for Presidency in 2016. It actually began during President Obama's tenure but was so subtle it was not really noticed just how much things had changed until President Trump took office.

Former President Barack Obama positioned himself as a champion of secularism. His administration tried to silence Christian Army chaplains and force Christian employers to pay for their employees' abortions. I had failed to see the pattern being set up as it was taking place. I can see it clearly now.

During the 2018 U.S. midterm election, 75 percent of white evangelical voters cast a ballot for the Republican Party. An analysis of exit poll data indicates that 70 percent of Republican voters are evangelical Protestants or conservative Catholics. You are going to see in this newsletter how this is going to play out below.

It was easier to keep religion and politics separate when America was predominantly a Protestant nation concerned about protecting individual rights. But now that the Republican Party is seen as representing "Christian America" and the Democratic Party is seen as representing "secular America," battles over religious freedom and other cultural issues are becoming heated. "Secular America" is representative of women's rights, LGBTQ rights, Atheist Rights and Islamic rights.

Also, note that the margin of difference between the winner and loser in the last election was extremely tight. It could have gone either way. The next election which has already begun and will be finalized by November 2020, could just as easily be won by those who are not Christian. And it is the Democratic party today promoting the Islamic rights and appeasing Islam in order to gain their vote.

Amos 7:1 This is what the Lord God showed me: behold, he was forming locusts when the latter growth was just beginning to sprout, and behold, it was the latter growth after the king's mowings. When they had finished eating the grass of the land, I said, "O Lord God, please forgive! How can Jacob stand?

He is so small!"

The Lord relented concerning this:

"It shall not be," said the Lord.

This is what the Lord God showed me: behold, the Lord God was calling for a judgment by fire, and it devoured the great deep and was eating up the land. Then I said, "O Lord God, please cease!

How can Jacob stand?

He is so small!"

The Lord relented concerning this:

"This also shall not be," said the Lord God.

This is what he showed me: behold, the Lord was standing beside a wall built with a plumb line, with a plumb line in his hand. And the Lord said to me, "Amos, what do you see?" And I said, "A plumb line."

Then the Lord said,

"Behold, I am setting a plumb line in the midst of my people

Israel; I will never again pass by them;

the high places of Isaac shall be made desolate, and the sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste, and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword."

Amos was able to ask Yehovah to turn His hand away from the Locust which came after the barley harvest, the first mowing. He again asked Yehovah to relent from the wildfires destroying the small nation at that time. I find it amazing how wildfires are now massive and normal news stories that have become the new normal.

But then Yehovah says that He is setting up a plumb line by which Israel, the house which Jeroboam was king over was going to be judged by. Daniel 9:24-27 which readers of this News Letter know tells us in the middle of the 70th Jubilee Cycle Israel would be cut off and be as if they never were. And again in the curse for not keeping the Sabbatical and Jubilee years the 4th cycle, the one which began in 2017, is the one for the curse of the sword or war. This is the one we are in right now and the middle of this Jubilee Cycle and the middle of this 4th curse Sabbatical cycle is 2020. Just over one year from now.

Yehovah has now brought in and is readying His army. They are mustering as we write to you.

Yehovah is measuring America with a plumb line in these last days. Then He lays the “sanctuaries of Israel” desolate for rejecting His law.

These “sanctuaries of Israel” are the religious churches that are rejecting Yehovah’s laws in favour of their own laws and appeasement. These sanctuaries of Israel are about to be laid waste.

Just as Amos looked at Yehovah’s word and saw a plumb-line next to a wall, so the standard of Yehovah’s word will be revealed as the only standard of plumb by which to be measured. Unless you stand up and match that plumb line you will be destroyed.

When the church at large views the Bible and they see it not as a plumb-line, but as a book for and about the Jews, they overlook a great deal and twist much in order to fit their concepts of God or of spiritual things. They tear it down to the level of their meager experience.

However, when the word of Yehovah is used as your plumb line, those who do not use it are shown to be crooked. The divide is exposed and seen with clarity.

We posted the following videos at various times back in 2016 during the height, when Yehovah was mustering His army that was going to do what Amos has said they would do.

“Behold, I am setting a plumb line in the midst of my people Israel; I will never again pass by them; the high places of Isaac shall be made desolate, and the sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste, and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword.”

Do watch all three.

This week's News Letter is titled the Silence of the Lambs. This is the same title given to the 1991 horror film by the same name.

In the movie Starling, the detective talks of one of her dreams and recounts a traumatic childhood incident where she was awakened by the sound of spring lambs being slaughtered on a relative's farm in Montana. Starling admits that she still sometimes wakes thinking she can hear lambs screaming.

We are those sheep that belong to Yehovah. Whether or not we are obedient to His Torah, all of Israel are His sheep.

We are told as much in Psalm 44:22 Yet for your sake we are killed all the day long;

we are regarded as sheep to be slaughtered.

Acts 8:30 So Philip ran to him and heard him reading Isaiah the prophet and asked, “Do you understand what you are reading?” And he said, “How can I, unless someone guides me?” And he invited Philip to come up and sit with him. Now the passage of the Scripture that he was reading was this:

“Like a sheep he was led to the slaughter and like a lamb before its shearer is silent, so he opens not his mouth.

In his humiliation justice was denied him.

Who can describe his generation?

For his life is taken away from the earth.”

This is speaking of Isaiah 53:7 about the death of Yeshua. We are talking about the slaughter of the rest of Israel that is about to begin and how the sheep are now silent and few there are warning of the impending disaster.

The world just changed this past month and few even noticed let alone are shouting out the warning.

Why am I showing you all of this? Why is any of what you are about to read of importance? Why should you care?

Because of what we are told in Daniel 9:27. That’s why!!

And he shall make a strong covenant with many for one week, and for half of the week he shall put an end to sacrifice and offering

We have explained that the sacrifice and offering are the prayers of our lips. These are our bullocks when we pray. So how can anyone stop us from praying? What you are about to see and already know from the recent news events, but may not have applied it to prophesy, is the stopping of us praying and worshipping Yehovah. It is the silencing of the lambs.

The Chronology of Events

March 15, 2019, a lone gunman enters two Mosques and guns down 49 people in Christchurch New Zealand.

March 16, 2019, they had the dossier of the lone gunman, which stated the following;

Across 74 pages, the man’s dossier regurgitated familiar objections to immigration and multiculturalism, and laments the “decaying” culture of the white, European West

March 16, 2019, out of Australia the news reported;

The Morrison government has banned Milo Yiannopoulos from entering Australia after the controversial right-wing commentator responded to the New Zealand mosque massacre by describing Islam as a “barbaric” and “alien” religious culture.

The ban will be the third position the government has held in as many weeks on whether to allow the controversial figure to travel to Australia for a speaking tour later this year.

March 16, 2019, from New Zealand, was this next report about the Prime Minister;

Prime Minister Jacinda Ardern has comforted members of the Muslim community during a visit to a refugee centre in Christchurch following Friday’s mosque attacks.

A tearful Ardern said she brought messages of love, support and grief on behalf of all New Zealanders to the crowd gathered at Canterbury Refugee Resettlement and Resources Centre.

“New Zealand is united in grief,” she said.

While the world was becoming over sympathetic to the terrorist attack in New Zealand with massive press coverage, there was not coverage nor any outrage over the slaughter of Christians by known Islamic forces in Nigeria.

March 16, 2019, Pamela Geller reported on the bias of the News Media.

Muslim terrorists attack Christian village, destroy church

By Pamela Geller – on March 16, 2019

These Islamic supremacists attacks on the non-Muslims are weekly, sometimes daily now and yet the mainstream media doesn't seem even remotely interested in reporting or covering them. Dead Christians aren't newsworthy but a mosque, that's a whole other thing.

BOKO HARAM ATTACKS CHRISTIAN VILLAGE, DESTROYS CHURCH

Increasing Attacks on Christians in Borno State Go Unreported

Persecution.org, March 14, 2019:

03/14/2019 Washington, D.C. (International Christian Concern) – International Christian Concern (ICC) has learned that earlier today, around 6:00 a.m., Boko Haram insurgents launched an attack on Ngurhlavu village of Lassa in Askira-Uba local council area of southern Borno State. Most of the villagers were able to flee into the bush, but the insurgents burned down six homes, destroyed the EYN Church (Church of the Brethren), killed one person, and abducted two sisters, Stella Ibrahim and Plungwa Ibrahim.

Recalling the attack, a senior executive of the EYN Church, who wished to remain anonymous, said that their local pastor called around 6:00 a.m. to report the attack. He shared, “I could hear desperation in his voice, just coming out of the bush. His voice sounded completely demoralized as he was saying only God... We don't know what else to do! There's no security presence here.” The insurgents dropped a concealed improvised explosive device which a church member named Avi Lassa stepped on. Avi was killed on the spot.

Lamenting the spate of repeated, violent attacks, the senior church leader said, “These frequent attacks on churches and [their] members are really weighing us down. These attacks seem to be escalating soon after the elections.” Nigeria's presidential elections took place in late February, but has seen violence even in the build-up to Election Day.

The leader said that members of the EYN Church in the village of Gwandang were attacked on February 2, 2019. This was shortly followed by another set of attacks in the village of Paya-Bulguma on February 7 and 21, during which 26 houses were burned down, large quantities of food supplies were destroyed, and motorbikes and other valuables were stolen or destroyed. A seven-year-old boy was also abducted and has not been heard from since.

The church leader regrets that these attacks are rarely reported on by the local media anymore. As a result, their people continue to suffer in silence, with minimal help from others

March 17, 2019, here is the news article about this event which was ongoing for the past 3 weeks.

Nigerian Muslim Militants Kill 120 Christians in Three Weeks

The recent death toll of Christians in Nigeria has reached 120 with this week's slaughter of more than 50 by Fulani Muslim militants in the Kaduna state of Nigeria, the Christian Post reported.

The Fulani jihadists, who have become a greater threat to Nigerian Christians than the Islamist terror group Boko Haram, stormed the villages of Inkirimi, Dogonnoma, and Ungwan Gora in the Kajuru Local Government Area last Monday, destroying 143 homes, killing 52 people, and wounding dozens more.

Some people were seeing a double standard in the press being applied here. Where was the worlds outrage when 20 Christians were bombed in their church in Southern Philippine's Jan17, 2019? There was none. It was just another day.

March 17, 2019, The New Zealand Prime Minister calls for a gun ban. Please watch this video and pay attention to the second half of what is being said.

The shooter in this attack videoed the entire event and live streamed it live on YouTube. Facebook then removed 1.5 Million YouTube videos that were shared around the world.

March 17, 2019, Pamela Geller reported the following;

It is of no import that the gunman was a left-wing eco-facsist who loved Red China. The New Zealand tragedy is being exploited to shut down free speech and silence any criticism of jihad and sharia oppression. Or that we abhor violence and have never called for it. Attacks like this against the mosque, are thankfully, quite rare. Jihad terror, on the other hand, roils the free world. And yet never do we hear after jihad attacks that Islamic texts and teachings must be purged of the exhortations to jihad and incitement to murder.

March 18, 2019, Australian Queensland Senator Fraser Anning was branded a heretic for stating the facts about Muslim immigration. But it is just as Pamela Geller reported above, this tragedy is being used to shut down freedom of speech. When you state the facts it is now being twisted around and we are now told that this is hate speech and that we must stop speaking like this. But there is more to this that is taking place.

The following article from a non-mainstream site is I feel very close to the mark as to what is taking place.

Coming Soon: Americans Will be Prosecuted For Critical Posts on Islam – Charged With “Cyber Terrorism Crimes”

by Cristina Laila March 17, 2019 660 Comments46.2KShare

498Tweet

Email

Coming soon: Americans will be charged and prosecuted for “cyber terrorism crimes” for online posts that are critical to Islam.

Social media companies are already bowing to Sharia law and banning/shadow banning users who dare speak the truth about Islamic terrorism and the various forms of jihad.

Twitter legal recently issued this reporter a warning that a tweet posted calling for burkas to be banned in the US violated Pakistan’s blasphemy laws.

The specific Pakistani blasphemy laws that the tweet violated are punishable by life imprisonment or death and Twitter happily delivered the threat.

But these warnings are just the beginning.

Terror-tied CAIR wasted no time and blamed Trump, Trump supporters and “Islamophobia” after the New Zealand mosque shooting.

Council on American Islamic Relations (CAIR) is seeking to exploit the New Zealand mosque shooting to impose Sharia blasphemy laws in the United States.

CAIR launched an all-out assault on the 1st Amendment.

CAIR “Research Director” Dr. Abbas Barzegar said in a presser we should “Not allow these people to exploit freedom of speech.”

“We ask our political leaders to address growing menace of islamophobia.”

“The perpetrator of this terrorist attack has been inspired by hatemongers in the United States,” he continued.

“Directly related to ideas that are carried out on radio shows, TV shows, news commentators — That’s the burning smoke. We as a community have to take control and leadership back in our public space.”

“It is not the case that this is some random marginal activity on the internet in some closed dark web or something,” he said, adding, “No, this stuff is mainstream now.”

We have to put a stop to it. We have to ask our TV networks to be responsible. We have to ask our social media platforms to be responsible. We have to ask our charities and philanthropic communities to be responsible and not allow these people to guide, to exploit freedom of speech, exploit nonprofit covers — these are hate groups, special interest groups with a very nefarious agenda and we have to take that activity back.”

So there you have it — CAIR has labeled any person or any group that dares expose jihad and criticizes Islam as “hate groups.”

CAIR will argue that online criticism of Islam is an “incitement to violence” and should be charged as a “cyber terrorism crime.”

In fact, it is already happening — A California man was arrested, prosecuted and hit with misdemeanor charges in 2017 for posting 5 anti-Islam posts on Facebook in 2016.

The California Attorney General’s office argued the man’s comments constituted “repeated contact by means of an electronic communication device” with “intent to annoy or harass,” a misdemeanor under California law, reported the Daily Caller.

How are five posts to an Islamic Center’s Facebook page considered “repeated contact?” This was just another way to impose Sharia law onto a concerned American citizen.

The anti-Islam posts were completely benign. The man posted zero threats and all of his comments fell under the 1st Amendment protection:

“THE TERROR HIKE ... SOUNDS LIKE FUN” (In reference to the Center’s advertised “Sunset Hike”)

“THE MORE MUSLIMS WE ALLOW INTO AMERICA THE MORE TERROR WE WILL SEE.”

“PRACTICING ISLAM CAN SLOW OR EVEN REVERSE THE PROCESS OF HUMAN EVOLUTION.”

“Islam is dangerous – fact: the more Muslim savages we allow into America – the more terror we will see - this is a fact which is undeniable.”

“Filthy muslim shit has no place in western civilization.”

The Author of this article then said on twitter the following.

Cristina Laila? @cristinalaila1

Terror-tied CAIR is working w/social media companies to ban ppl who dare question or criticize Islam.

This is their 1st step. The next step will be to categorize any criticism of Islam as “cyber-terrorism” so they can have Americans arrested for exercising their 1 A rights.

Cristina Laila@cristinalaila1

Make no mistake, terror-tied CAIR is working to criminalize all speech that criticizes Islam as part of their plan to install Sharia law in the US.

It is our 1st Amendment right to criticize & question actions inimical to our interests, yet they are working to silence Americans.

3:02 PM – Mar 16, 2019

Now I must share with you Rev 20:4 and ask you have you seen any of those people who believe in Jesus beheaded for their faith lately? I am just asking.

Then I saw thrones, and seated on them were those to whom the authority to judge was committed. Also I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for the testimony of Jesus and for the word of God, and those who had not worshiped the beast or its image and had not received its mark on their foreheads or their hands. They came to life and reigned with Christ for a thousand years. The rest of the dead did not come to life until the thousand years were ended. This is the first resurrection. Blessed and holy is the one who shares in the first resurrection! Over such the second death has no power, but they will be priests of God and of Christ, and they will reign with him for a thousand years.

March 20, 2019, from Turkey comes this news about the events in Christchurch.

ANKARA, Turkey — Ignoring widespread criticism, Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdogan on Tuesday again showed excerpts of a video taken by the attacker who killed 50 people in mosques in New Zealand, to denounce what he called rising hatred and prejudice against Islam.

Speaking at a campaign rally in the northern town of Eregli, Erdogan also criticized New Zealand and Australia for sending troops to Turkey in the World War I Gallipoli campaign, claiming their motive was anti-Islam-oriented. He called on New Zealand to amend its laws to ensure that the attacker is severely punished.

“What business did you have here? We had no issues with you, why did you come all the way over here?” Erdogan said. “The only reason: We’re Muslim, and they’re Christian.”

In inflammatory comments on Monday, Erdogan had also suggested that anyone who comes to Turkey with anti-Muslim sentiments would be sent back in coffins, “like their grandfathers were” during the Gallipoli campaign.

Those comments were made in Canakkale province in northwestern Turkey, which is home to the historic battlefields, on the anniversary of a World War I Turkish naval victory.

March 20, 2019, books from certain authors were now going to be targeted and removed from book stores. Why? I will let you read why below and again I tell to consider what is being said here.

Whitcoulls, a major New Zealand bookstore with 50 shops nationwide, has removed Dr. Jordan Peterson's best-selling self-help book 12 Rules for Life from their shelves in the wake of the deadliest terrorist attack in the country's history.

On March 15, a deranged gunman attacked two mosques in Christchurch in an act of Islamophobic hate. It didn't take long for the politicization of this unspeakable tragedy to begin. Within minutes, politicians, pundits, and keyboard warriors were attacking each other based on ideological differences.

The Daily Dot, an embarrassingly progressivist outlet, used the tragedy as an opportunity to slander the popular YouTuber PewDiePie as a "Nazi", a claim with absolutely no basis in fact.

Now the mob is once again coming after Dr. Peterson—another major cultural influencer. The decision to ban Dr. Peterson's book cannot be seen as anything other than a straight-up power grab by authoritarians who wish to use a period of mourning and deep human suffering for their own censorious gain. And it comes directly after Cambridge University's decision to rescind their offer of a two-month visiting fellowship for Peterson.

Nick Monroe, an independent, Twitter-based journalist found the evidence of the banning on Reddit and put in on blast in a tweet early Thursday morning:

The tweet features a screenshot of a customer service rep's email to an enquiring customer. In it, the rep named Erica writes, "Unfortunately, 12 Rules for Life is currently unavailable, which is a decision that Whitcoulls has made in light of some extremely disturbing material being circulated prior, during, and after the Christchurch attacks. As a business which takes our responsibilities to our communities very seriously, we believe it would be wrong to support the author at this time."

Monroe pointed in the same Twitter thread that Hitler's Mein Kampf remains on Whitcoulls shelves. A brief browse of Whitcoulls' inventory reveals that they are selling Mao's Little Red Book. They also haven't pulled all of the books Peterson is associated with, just the major sellers. Vox Day—an actual member of the alt-right—still has his book available in Whitcoulls stores.

Though Peterson is the farthest thing from an alt-right figure, wasn't even remotely involved in the attacks, actively discourages violence, and, in fact, wrote 12 Rules for Life in order to help people figure out how to get their lives in order, he has been smeared again and again by leftists who associate his message of competence and responsibility with one of "violence." For Peterson's readers and listeners, this hasn't made any sense, and continues to be perplexing. The only logical reason for ideologues to do this is to remove his influence from our culture.

This dangerous trend banning books, and associating relevant and meaningful ideas with violence and destruction must reverse, though it seems like it's just beginning. Ideas are not the enemy, books are not the enemy, reasonable thought and discourse are the way out of mayhem, not what is standing in the way. People are not going to get on board with a given perspective simply because alternatives are denied to them. Intellectual exploration is what makes peaceful democracies, open minds, and reasonable thinkers who do not advocate for hate and exploitation. Assuming that Peterson is more dangerous than Nazi ideology, or even to associate his scholarship with anything like that, is to give credence to authoritarianism.

If reasonable ideas are banned, if forthright authors are prohibited, what happens when people discover them on their own? When you deem a perfectly reasonable book worthy of censorship, what does that do to society's conception of truly dangerous ideas? The worst ideas of mankind should be shown for what they are, in the fluorescent light of bookshop displays.

The idea that a Canadian psychologist with classically liberal views and a desire to help young people lead authentic lives should be in any way associated with the horrific act of violence that happened in Christchurch is an insult to him, to reasonable minded people everywhere, and to the western concept of a free society.

We must put a stop to this Orwellian madness before it's too late.

March 21, 2019 Michelle Kaufman wrote the following article.

Troubling signs New Zealand shooting is being used to turn my country into Islamic State
Brenton Tarrant, Islamic Slate, New Zealand, New Zealand Massacre, Terrorism

March 21, 2019 (LifeSiteNews) – I live in New Zealand. I’ve become alarmed at developments in my country since the shootings last Friday. What I see unfolding seems so disproportionate to the magnitude of the crime. It seems like I’ve woken up and all of a sudden live in an Islamic State.

Here are some highlights of what’s unfolding:

The thought police are out in full force and people are being scrutinized for “hate speech”. Green ribbons are being worn as a symbol against hate.

Mosques and many of the prayer rooms continue to be protected by armed police (police aren’t usually armed in my country).

Vigils are being held all over the place in solidarity with the victims. These seem to have morphed into what amounts to support for the Islamic religion. One Catholic bishop held one last Sunday afternoon in the Ponsonby church. After prayers there, they processed over to the mosque, which is on the opposite side of the road and prayed and met there.

Whitcoulls, one of our book stores, probably the oldest, has removed Jordan Peterson’s book “12 Rules for Life” from its shelves because he was photographed with a member of the public wearing an antiIslamic t-shirt while he was in New Zealand recently. Apparently, that’s being construed as him having something to do with the madman’s agenda.

On Tuesday a Muslim prayer was said in Parliament. Just recently all Christian prayer in Parliament was removed.

On Friday March 22 at 1:30pm New Zealand will be called to prayer...Islamic prayer that is. And we will be expected to keep 2 minutes silence after they read the Muslim prayer acknowledging Allah as “great” and Muhammad as his “prophet.” The call to prayer will be broadcasted on national radio stations and TV as well.

One top Catholic Church leader will go to the local mosque (Kilbirnie) as well on Friday to stand outside during their prayers as an act of solidarity. The Catholic bishops here have been very sympathetic and playing out their “inter-faith role” with great enthusiasm. Catholic school students have been praying inside mosques.

It seems like we’re living in a different world all of a sudden. It seems that showing our great respect for those who were killed has somehow been manipulated into showing affirmation of the Islamic religion.

New Zealand is now putty in the Islamists’ hands.

The shooting on Friday was terrible. But what has now unfolded is something else entirely and may just be the beginning of something very terrible for New Zealand.

Certainly, on a spiritual level, our crisis has become even deeper.

Please keep New Zealand in your prayers.

Friday, March 22, 2019, one week after the shooting as Muslims went to Friday prayers, News Zealand women wore headscarves as a sign of unity with Muslims.

March 25, 2019, now being in possession of the manifesto that the gunman posted is a crime punishable by ten years in prison. And like the eBook above that is now banned, Hitler's Mein Kauf is not banned.

New Zealand officially banned the manifesto written by the man accused of killing 50 people at two mosques in Christchurch earlier this month, as well as the livestream of the attacks.

Anyone found possessing and distributing the manifesto could face up to 10 years and 14 years in prison respectively, The Associated Press reported.

March 27, 2019 A man at work loses his job for the things he says about Islam in a conversation.

March 27, 2019,

Facebook has announced it will ban praise, support and representation of white nationalism and white separatism on its social media platforms, bolstering its efforts to tackle hate speech.

“Over the past three months our conversations with members of civil society and academics who are experts in race relations around the world have confirmed that white nationalism and separatism cannot be meaningfully separated from white supremacy and organised hate groups,” the company said.

Ms Clarke called the idea that white supremacy was different from white nationalism or white separatism a misguided “distinction without a difference”.

She said the New Zealand attack was a “powerful reminder about why we need the tech sector to do more to stamp out the conduct and activity of violent white supremacists”.

March 28, 2019, from Pennsylvania USA as reported by CBN

A Christian prayer given by a state representative on Tuesday at the start of a swearing-in ceremony for Pennsylvania's first Muslim representative has drawn backlash from some of her colleagues.

State Rep. Stephanie Borowicz led the state house chamber in prayer before the swearing in of Democratic Rep. Movita Johnson-Harrell of Philadelphia. The freshman lawmaker, who's also a Christian and the wife of an associate pastor, mentioned Jesus Christ 13 times in her prayer.

She also gave thanks for President Donald Trump for standing behind Israel during her prayer.

State Democratic Whip Jordan Harris said her many mentions of Jesus before the ceremony to swear in Pennsylvania's first Muslim woman representative Movita Johnson-Harrell of Philadelphia was inappropriate.

"I am a Christian and I believe in Jesus Christ, but more than anything I believe in his teachings of love, compassion and most of all unity," Harris told ABC News.

Johnson-Harrell won a special election earlier this month to fill a seat vacated by the resignation of Democratic Rep. Vanessa Lowery Brown who had been re-elected in November after being convicted of bribery.

Johnson-Harrell agreed with Harris calling Borowicz's prayer a political statement.

"I thought it was blatantly Islamophobic, Xenophobic, and discriminatory," she said.

Democratic Gov. Tom Wolf, himself a Methodist, said he was "horrified" by Borowicz's invocation and apologized to Johnson-Harrell on behalf of all Pennsylvanians.

Metcalf says what's actually offensive is that some are claiming Islamophobia.

"That the newest member, who is a Muslim, would attack her and say that that was an example of Islamophobia, should be offensive to every Pennsylvanian," he told ABC News.

Another Muslim lawmaker, Rep. Jason Dawkins (D-Philadelphia), opened the session on Tuesday by reading from the Quran. His invocation was followed by applause.

March 29, 2019, and then just like that out of the blue, this attack on the mosque is blamed on the Jews and people cheer and no one calls this hate speech nor does anyone condemn it.

On Saturday, at a rally for the victims of the Christchurch massacre in New Zealand, where 50 people were murdered at a mosque, a well-known mosque leader accused Jews of being responsible for the massacre.

At the rally in Auckland's Aotea Square, Ahmed Bhamji, chairman of the Mount Roskill Masjid E Umar, which is associated with The Federation of Islamic Associations of New Zealand, stated of the shooter who targeted the victims, "I really want to say one thing today. Do you think this guy was alone? ... I want to ask you, where did he get the funding from? I will not mince words. I stand here and I say I have very, very strong suspicion that there is some group behind him and I am not afraid to say I feel that Mossad is behind this."

An onlooker shouted, "It's the truth! Israel is behind this. That's right!"

According to Newshub, Bhamji also said the gunman was funded by "Zionist business."

March 29, 2019,

Two men charged with having the Christchurch mosque attack live-streamed video in their possession will remain behind bars.

No bail was sought for a Christchurch 22-year-old charged with possessing the objectionable video on the day of the deadly terror attack on March 15, and in the 13 days after.

He was granted interim suppression and remanded in custody to appear by video-link from the prison on April 15.

An 18-year-old from Rolleston, near Christchurch, was remanded in custody to April 15 after Judge Stephen O'Driscoll declined bail on charges of possession of the objectionable mosque shootings video, and inciting violence with threatening behaviour. He was granted name suppression.

They join several others charged with either possessing or distributing the video.

And finally I would like to you all to listen to the radio broadcast and the article here on Global News about this shooting as well.

Brigitte Gabriel

More Disturbing News-But From the USA Now

We must acknowledge it in order to heal the nation, people say. They're flat wrong.

BY JOEL HILLIKER • MARCH 20

Beto O'Rourke publicly apologized last Friday. The Democratic presidential candidate had committed the terrible gaffe of joking that his wife was raising their three children "sometimes with my help." The comment triggered the political correctness police, who criticized him for downplaying her role, or not being more apologetic about his disengagement, or something. "Not only will I not say that again," he responded contritely, "I'll be much more thoughtful going forward in the way that I talk about our marriage, and also the way in which I acknowledge the truth of the criticism that I have enjoyed white privilege. Absolutely. Undeniable."

Ah yes, "white privilege." Whiteness in America gives a person unfair advantages, we are now told. Not only that, maleness gives a person further unfair advantages. And heterosexuality. And being content with your biological sex—being "cisgendered." And wealth. Having these advantages means you are starting the 100-yard dash with a 50-yard head start.

People with such privileges must recognize this and apologize, we are informed. Society must then award preferential treatment to minorities, women, minority women, homosexuals and transgenders. It must punish the wealthy and support the poor. Then we will have a truly fair world.

Elizabeth Warren, another Democratic presidential candidate, believes true fairness requires giving reparations to black Americans. This past Monday night, at a CNN town hall, she answered a black woman who asked for “a public apology for 400 years of free labor” by saying, “I believe it’s time to start the national full-blown conversation about reparations in this country. And that means I support the bill in the House to appoint a Congressional panel of experts, people that are studying this and talk about different ways we may be able to do it and make a report back to Congress, so that we can as a nation do what’s right and begin to heal” (emphasis added throughout).

According to this view, the problems afflicting the black community today are the residual effects of a practice that was outlawed more than 153 years ago. The solution is to place our faith in a panel of experts to decide on reparations. Then we can all just accept what the experts say, unanimously comply, at last put our slave-owning past behind us, and enjoy racial harmony. Who could possibly envision such a marvelous plan not working out?

O’Rourke and Warren are two prominent white people who have tried to downplay their whiteness. Warren infamously labeled herself an American Indian; in 1996, she was billed as Harvard Law School’s “first woman of color.” Beto O’Rourke is using a Spanish nickname, but his real name is Robert Francis O’Rourke. Why do these things if whiteness affords such vaunted privileges?

The truth is that America is full of white people who work hard, who struggle, who face setbacks, who miss opportunities, who get overlooked, who get pushed aside, who are mired in debt, who must toil away at mundane jobs, who are effectively stuck in their circumstances. Yet they are getting lectured by politicians, media personalities, wealthy academics and professional athletes about their “white privilege.” They are being told that society lacks equality, and we must artificially normalize for circumstances that give one person an advantage over another.

This thinking is insidiously wrong. The more we indulge it, the more individual lives will be destroyed, and the more we will tear our country apart.

It is wrong—because it is the opposite of the way God thinks.

A Fancy New Word

Among those falling prey to this error, a new theory of social justice has arisen. An impressive new term has entered public lexicon: “intersectionality.” This is essentially a means of measuring the scale of your deprivation.

What is intersectionality? The term “was coined by black feminist scholar Kimberlé Crenshaw in 1989,” Wikipedia explains. “‘Intersectionality’ represents an analytic framework that attempts to identify how interlocking systems of power impact those who are most marginalized in society. Intersectionality considers that various forms of social stratification, such as class, race, sexual orientation, age, religion, creed, disability and gender, do not exist separately from each other but are interwoven together.” This theory enabled black feminists to show how feminism was ignoring racial inequality. White women were marginalized, they said, but black women were even more marginalized. Intersectionality addresses “the experiences of people who are subjected to multiple forms of subordination within society.”

So what does this mean, practically speaking? It is playing out in Democratic politics in a specific way: causing that party to turn against itself. Politicians who have been bona fide progressives, even cutting-edge revolutionaries, are being outflanked on the left because they lack appropriate credentials of intersectionality.

Sen. Bernie Sanders led the socialist groundswell in the 2016 presidential election. He excited flocks of youths to get engaged in politics and to embrace socialist thinking. He is running again in 2020, but many on the left are less excited this time. Why? “[A]mong the flaws on Sanders’ résumé for many progressives is one that he can do nothing about—he is a white male, and an old one,” Rich Lowry explained in Politico. “In the language of the modern left, the straight, cisgendered Sanders is burdened by his utter lack of intersectionality” (February 20).

Politicians who have been bona fide progressives, even cutting-edge revolutionaries, are being outflanked on the left because they lack appropriate credentials of intersectionality. Senator Sanders was asked on Vermont public radio how he, being old, rich, white and male, can lead a diverse Democratic Party. He said: “We have got to look at candidates, you know, not by the color of their skin, not by their sexual orientation or their gender and not by their age. I mean, I think we have got to try to move us toward a nondiscriminatory society, which looks at people based on their abilities, based on what they stand for.”

Senator Sanders wants to move America “toward a nondiscriminatory society” based on merit and values. Most Americans would say we already are a nondiscriminatory society—or, even though not perfectly so, the most nondiscriminatory society on Earth and in history. The trouble for Sanders is, his political party is getting crowded with crusaders moving America toward a far more discriminatory society. And, lamentably but predictably, these people attacked Sanders for his statement. Neera Tanden, from the Center for American Progress posted this: “At a time where folks feel under attack because of who they are, saying race or gender or sexual orientation or identity doesn’t matter is not off, it’s simply wrong.” Former Clinton aide Jess McIntosh wrote: “This is usually an argument made by people who don’t enjoy outsized respect and credibility because of their race, gender, age and sexual orientation.”

People who are to the left of even Bernie Sanders are broadcasting that they do not want a society where you are judged by your abilities and what you stand for. They want a society where you are judged by race, gender and sexual orientation.

People who are to the left of even Bernie Sanders are broadcasting that they do not want a society where you are judged by your abilities and what you stand for. They want a society where you are judged by race, gender and sexual orientation. They want to level the playing field, which means discriminating in these areas, bestowing advantages on those not white, not male, not straight, not “cisgendered.”

They want to solve discrimination—by discriminating. The less white you are—the less of all those privileged things you are—the more deserving you are of reparatory privileges.

'A Sad Descent Into Tribalism'

The truly liberal American ideal is that race should not matter. Martin Luther King Jr., an icon among liberals, dreamed of a nation where people would be judged “not by the color of their skin, but by the content of their character.” Yet those who claim to be his successors are attacking one of their own for saying people should be evaluated “based on their abilities, based on what they stand for.”

Their message is: Wrong! Race matters—a lot! So does sex. So does class! But these are actually the most primitive aspects of a person’s identity. Human societies have been discriminating and judging each other based on these things for thousands of years!

More than any other nation ever, America has been a place where people of any race, any background, any class can make a success of themselves, educationally, vocationally, financially, culturally, morally.

Leftists are dismantling this ideal. They are convincing people that this nation is actually the most unfair and discriminatory. And somehow, they are persuading people that the solution is to exalt race, sex and class as the defining aspects of their identity.

More than any other nation ever, America has been a place where people of any race, any background, any class can make a success of themselves, educationally, vocationally, financially, culturally, morally. They want more diversity. Not intellectual diversity, not ideological diversity, not diversity of ability. No—they just want diversity of skin color. Well, and diversity of sex and “gender identity.” That, they insist, is real diversity—authentic diversity.

This revolutionary effort to characterize our land of unprecedented opportunity as a country that victimizes a literal majority of its people (non-whites, women and many others) has been shockingly successful. But it is also creating some problems of its own. As Victor Davis Hanson wrote, “Now the revolution cannot figure out its own hierarchy of authentic grievance groups. So it has agreed on a loose ‘intersectionality,’ in which over a dozen and often overlapping victim cadres agree that each degree of non-white-maleness adds authenticity and becomes a force multiplier of left-wing radicalism.

“Among leftists, Kamala Harris, as black and female, trumps Cory Booker who is just black, who trumps Elizabeth Warren who is exposed as just female, who trumps Joe Biden and Bernie Sanders who are reverse threefers as white, male and heterosexual” (American Greatness, March 3).

Hanson correctly describes this development as a “sad descent into tribalism.”

That is exactly what it is. It is not enlightened. It is not sophisticated. It is not just and fair. It is tribal. It is primitive. It is absurd.

And it is terribly destructive, individually and nationally.

A Satanic Lie

There are countless factors that determine success or failure in life. That is why there are people who manage to overcome tremendous setbacks—family dysfunction, extreme poverty, lack of opportunity, bodily limitations—and become spectacular successes. That is also why there are those who have tremendous advantages yet become spectacular failures.

Success comes from hard work. It comes from diligence and discipline; from driving oneself in pursuit of worthy goals; making good choices, living the right way, having the right mindset. It comes from surmounting obstacles, again and again. These things determine what happens when someone catches the occasional good break, or God opens a door.

The people decrying “white privilege” are believing a satanic lie: that you reach success not by climbing up to it, but by bringing everyone else down.

Their message is: Focus on what the world isn't doing for you. Don't count your blessings—complain about your burdens! Don't dream about possibilities. Don't work your way forward. Don't seize opportunities. Don't look for open doors. Open your eyes to all the obstacles people are putting in your path, and the doors they're closing on you! Your failures are someone else's fault. Find people to blame! Resent those with success. They're just unfairly privileged.

This is the view of victimhood, and leftists are making an orthodoxy of it.

This thinking draws people's energy away from responsibility, self-motivation, resiliency, improvement, achievement, contentment and happiness—and redirects it toward dissatisfaction, envy, hypersensitivity, offense, blaming, protest and destruction. It traps them in their failures.

Radical leftists don't want people to become diligent, disciplined, driven, resourceful, persevering people who take accountability for their own lives—because then what would they need the Democratic Party for?

They have the temerity to contend that they know—based on a short list of superficial identity markers—exactly who in society is privileged and who is marginalized. Somehow they can measure how much of each individual's success or failure was earned, and how much was unfairly obtained because of bigotry against others. And with their unerring wisdom, they and their panels of experts will settle scores, resolve injustices of generations long buried, negate the effects of all prejudice and bias. Then finally, America can be a land of opportunity for everyone.

This is hubris on an epic scale. Beyond that, do you have any idea how much authoritarian power it would take to carry out such utopian fantasies? And it is beyond delusional to believe it would actually make the world a better place.

Here is a fact: Virtually everyone could focus on how unfair life is if they wanted to. Human nature is adept at finding ways that life should be giving us a better shake. That is because human nature is under the sway of the prince of the power of the air, Satan the devil. That thinking comes straight from the devil.

Satan likes to provide people excuses for their failures. He wants them to shuck the responsibility that would enable them to learn from mistakes and summon determination to surmount difficulties and challenges. He wants people to think the world is unfair, always denying them the benefits that would otherwise fall into their laps.

Virtually everyone could focus on how unfair life is if they wanted to. Human nature is adept at finding ways that life should be giving us a better shake.

Well, the world is unfair. This is Satan's world! Truly equal opportunity has never existed in any society in human history!

Ironically, America has gotten closer to offering equal opportunity than any society ever has— yet people are being deceived into viewing it as the most unequal, unfair society in history! This is a remarkable propaganda triumph by Satan—aimed at fracturing our society and turning us against each other so we will rip ourselves apart!

Sadly, this is exactly what we are doing. And the more we believe this terrible error—the more we try to “heal” ourselves through demanding apologies for privilege and reparations for past wrongs—the more destructive this trend will become. Just watch. Look at the fruits.

Consider how this illustrates the colossal contrast between Satan's thinking and God's. Satan fixates on all the ways we are irredeemably disadvantaged. God—who made all people, of all races, male and female, in His image—wants us all to overcome whatever disadvantages we may have and succeed! And He has a long-term plan for helping us do so. Even today, He gives each person a measure of resources and wants to see what we will do with them. He wants us to take responsibility for ourselves, to make the very most of whatever opportunities we have, to take full advantage of whatever blessings and privileges He provides, to conquer whatever obstacles stand in our way. He wants us to grow and grow and grow! Because in the future, He intends to give all people a great deal more responsibility and blessings and privileges—and He is preparing, for that exciting future, all those who accept the challenge today!

More Disturbing News-But From the EU

Thousands of people demonstrate against the planned EU copyright reform and possible upload filters. Shortly before the decisive vote on the reform of copyright in the EU Parliament, thousands in Europe protested against the project.

GETTY IMAGES

BY RICHARD PALMER • MARCH 26

After months of talks, votes, consolations, protests and petitions, the European Union finally did it. The EU Parliament today passed one of its most controversial pieces of legislation in its history.

Inventor of the World Wide Web Tim Berners-Lee, cofounder of Wikipedia Jimmy Wales and 70 other Internet pioneers signed an open letter to the president of the European Parliament warning that it was about to pass a directive that was “an imminent threat to the future” of the Internet. Over 5 million people signed Change.org's largest-ever petition to try to get the EU to reconsider. Hundreds of thousands turned out to protest last weekend.

None of that mattered. Today, the European Parliament passed its new Copyright Directive, its largest-ever attack on a free and open Internet.

The controversy centers around two articles of the directive, both of which are far more important than they at first seem. Protecting copyright holders is sensible. But the EU's directive paves the way for what European Digital Rights calls a "censorship machine."

Article 11 of the EU Copyright Directive is the "link tax." Individuals and organizations who post information to websites commonly quote other publications. Here at the Trumpet, we often quote a few sentences from an outstanding article, and give readers a link to the full article. As a writer, I love it when others link to my articles. It means a wider audience comes and reads my work.

The EU wants to put a stop to this. Anyone quoting beyond just a few words will have to pay a fee to the creator. The result? Fewer people share articles, and the creator ends up worse off.

Germany and Spain both tried this, and it proved unworkable. Experts predict the directive will lead to the Internet becoming more dominated by a small number of giant companies. It is just too time consuming to reach agreements with lots of small news sites to allow you to quote them. It is easier for a few big media companies to strike agreements with each other. This leaves smaller sites to die without the oxygen of publicity.

Worse, Article 11 can be used to clamp down on criticism. For example, last year Trumpet executive New York Times story that told a bunch of ridiculous lies about life in the United Kingdom. We quoted the New York Times and compared it with reality. Under Article 11, the New York Times could forbid us from quoting its content. It's pretty hard to prove someone is lying if you can't quote what he said.

Perhaps even more concerning is Article 13. This applies to sites like YouTube, Facebook and any others that host material made by the public. Currently you can post just about anything to YouTube. If there's a copyright violation, the copyright owner will flag the video, and YouTube will take it down.

Already the system is pretty clunky. Most of the scanning for copyright violation is done by computer programs. If you upload content to YouTube regularly, you're familiar with the pattern. A program will flag your content as copyrighted, and YouTube will automatically take it down. Then you have to get together a bunch of paperwork to show YouTube that your content is actually not copyrighted, or that you have the rights to use it.

The EU wants to make it even more restrictive. Everything that goes up on YouTube, Facebook, Twitter, etc. will have to be checked for copyright violations before it is posted. Around 400 hours of video are uploaded to YouTube every minute. Over the same time period, Facebook users upload 240,000 pictures, like 3.1 million posts, and send 31 million messages. Scanning all of that for copyrighted content is humanly impossible, so it must be delegated to a computer program.

Again, this isn't so bad for Internet giants. Google and Facebook can afford to spend millions creating contact filters—YouTube has already poured $100 million into its ContentID system for helping track down copyrighted material. But smaller websites? Not a chance. They'll probably end up paying Google to do the filtering for them.

Meanwhile, websites will face big penalties if they fail to block copyrighted content, but small or no penalties if they mistakenly block content that should be allowed. They will err on the side of caution. Expect parodies, memes and other innocent content to be blocked.

Europe is pushing the world toward an Internet where all content is filtered before it's uploaded.

At first, that filtering may just be for copyrighted material. But once the filters are in place, how long before the EU demands the filters be tweaked to filter out "hate speech" and any other speech it doesn't like? And who trusts the EU to decide what should and should not be allowed?

This is why Tim Berners-Lee and his fellows warned that "Article 13 takes an unprecedented step towards the transformation of the Internet from an open platform for sharing and innovation, into a tool for the automated surveillance and control of its users." Diego Naranjo, senior policy adviser at European Digital Rights, warned that "Article 13 of the Directive sets a dangerous precedent for Internet filters and automated censorship mechanisms—in the EU and across the globe."

This is not about copyright protection. EU Commission spokesman Margaritis Schinas tweeted that with this rule, the EU "takes back control" of the Internet. That's what this is all about: "control." The "back" is wrong—the EU never really controlled the Internet, but it has always wanted to.

Control is in the EU's makeup. Part of the reason Britain wants out of the EU is because of the way the EU pass laws regulating every walk of life.

The directive may sound bad, but it is still some time away from being implemented. European leaders have already signed off on the directive, but they need to approve it one more time before it becomes official. It's possible—though unlikely—that one of them could change his mind. Then, it will be up to each country to pass its own law that implements the directive by 2021. Part of the directive's problem is that it is very vague. It will be up to national parliaments to determine, for example, exactly how long of a quote one can use from another site without paying a fee.

So there's still time for the directive's many opponents to push back—though it would be very hard to overturn. What is most concerning, however, is the intent. Regardless of how far this law goes, we've seen what EU leaders want. They want to pull out all the stops, ignore all the experts and massive public opinion, in order to gain more control.

TheTrumpet.com managing editor Brad Macdonald wrote about the EU's efforts to regulate the world last year. He showed how the behavior of these leaders ties in with a key, and famous, Bible prophecy. He wrote:

So what does all this mean?

Even the most distant observer of Bible prophecy has heard the term “mark of the beast.” This mysterious “mark” is mentioned multiple times in the book of Revelation. All sorts of conspiracy theories exist about exactly what this “mark” is, but there is no need for theorizing. The Bible plainly reveals that the “mark of the beast” is Sunday worship. You can prove this by reading Who or What Is the Prophetic Beast?, by the late Herbert W. Armstrong.

For now, let’s notice Revelation 13. In verse 11, the Apostle John says, “And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.” This beast is also pictured in Revelation 17; in this chapter, she is the woman (church) who rides the seven-headed, 10-horned beast, known today as the Holy Roman Empire. These prophecies forecast the end-time formation of a German-led, Catholic-inspired European superstate. Mr. Armstrong often referred to this end-time entity as the coming “beast power.” You can study this further in our free book The Holy Roman Empire in Prophecy.

Now notice Revelation 13:16-17. Talking about this European beast power, John writes, “And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.”

Notice, this European beast power has a dictatorial global presence (Revelation 17 and 18 prove this too). It has power over “both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond.” Notice too, the beast power has the influence and power to dictate who is allowed to “buy and sell,” in other words, to trade, to practice commerce and industry. The seventh and final resurrection of the Holy Roman Empire is going to have tremendous regulatory and financial power. It’s going to regulate global business and industry, trade and commerce.

Verses 16-17 clearly show that if people don’t accept this “mark”— if they don’t follow Europe’s rules— they will not be allowed to conduct business with this powerful and wealthy European superstate. Does this sound familiar? In spirit, this is what has already happened with the gdpr [General Data Protection Regulation]. It’s happening with the imminent EU copyright directive. The message behind both these initiatives is clear: Do business our way, submit to our rules, or we will shut you out of our market. We have yet to see the literal institution of the “mark of the beast,” but the EU today is operating in the spirit of the mark of the beast!

With the new copyright directive, the EU is setting up the infrastructure to control what people say online, and shut down its critics. “The Copyright Directive will create two internets,” wrote Matthew Lesh. “The first, a heavily censored version for European users, including filters to prevent you from uploading content. The second, a free internet where creativity is encouraged, for everyone else.”

The EU would love such a filter system. Mr. Macdonald concluded his article writing:

Isn't this electrifying? The EU right now doesn't feel like an autocratic, imperialist power. It doesn't feel like an invasion is underway. When one sees Jean-Claude Juncker shuffling behind the lectern, one isn't exactly paralyzed with fear. The EU looks and behaves like a sprawling, unwieldy, bureaucratic mess. And it is, at least in many respects. But it is this perception that makes the EU so dangerous; it is so easy to misread and underestimate. Remember, the beast of Revelation 13:11 looks like a lamb, but speaks and behaves like a dragon.

The beast power is rising. Europe's power and influence is growing. For now, it's not using tanks and aircraft carriers. Instead, it's growing its power by creating long documents filled with complex, boring legislation. It's called regulatory imperialism, and Europe has mastered it.

They Will Flee to Their Own Race

Isaiah 13:9 speaking of Babylon but take note of the race issue mentioned here.

Behold, the day of the Lord comes, cruel, with wrath and fierce anger, to make the land a desolation and to destroy its sinners from it.
For the stars of the heavens and their constellations will not give their light; the sun will be dark at its rising, and the moon will not shed its light. I will punish the world for its evil, and the wicked for their iniquity;
I will put an end to the pomp of the arrogant, and lay low the pompous pride of the ruthless. I will make people more rare than fine gold, and mankind than the gold of Ophir. Therefore I will make the heavens tremble, and the earth will be shaken out of its place, at the wrath of the Lord of hosts in the day of his fierce anger. And like a hunted gazelle, or like sheep with none to gather them, each will turn to his own people, and each will flee to his own land. Whoever is found will be thrust through, and whoever is caught will fall by the sword. Their infants will be dashed in pieces before their eyes; their houses will be plundered and their wives ravished.

The Hunters No Longer Come-They are Now Here

The following article is from our News Letter in 2013. 5849-025 The Hunters Come

We have been showing you the current situation of the world scene as it is right now. From the UN creating laws that only the western nations adhere to. These are human rights for those the Bible clearly says are sinning by keeping the gay and lesbian lifestyle. This is all covered up by saving the environment and now we have gay marriages taking place across our nations. But not in the Muslim nations. Hmmm.

We have shown you what Yehovah has promised is going to come to those who do not keep the Sabbath, or the Holy Days or the Sabbatical years. These are those things that MARK us as belonging to Yehovah. They are His mark on us. Satan's mark is Sunday worship or Friday and all the other holidays we now have like Christmas and Easter and Halloween.

Prosperity is not promised to those who will not keep the appointed time with the creator of the universe. Even though the sinners prosper does not mean they are good. Nor does it mean you are good if you are prospering.

The Nation of Israel was blessed not because they were good, no they were blessed because Yehovah had made a promise to Abraham that they would be and He had to keep that promise which He now has done. Israel did not “name it and claim it”.

Yehovah has sent fishers of men to you who have patiently shown you the Torah in order to persuade you to come back and keep it with Yehovah.

But you would not listen and you would not turn back. Instead, you mocked and belittled those He sent you and you then killed them.

Yehshua said this to you.

Mat 22:1 And Jesus answered and spoke to them again by parables, and said, 2 The kingdom of Heaven is like a certain king who made a marriage for his son. 3 And he sent out his servants to call those who were invited to the wedding; and they would not come. 4 Again he sent out other servants, saying, Tell those who are invited, Behold, I have prepared my dinner; my oxen and fatlings are killed, and all things are ready. Come to the marriage. 5 But not caring, they went their ways, one to his field, another to his trading. 6 And the rest took his servants and treated them spitefully, and killed them.

We have shown you how the Muslim faith comes in the beginning as a small group and are “the religion of peace” when they are the minority. They form enclaves where only their faith can go. They elect officials and begin to change the laws and create new laws where free speech is no longer an option but it is now called hate crimes. And as they grow and become the majority they then begin to force and subjugate their host nation until they have conquered it. And once they do that than how they enslave the females who are not Muslim.

No this is not what they are teaching you, those who promote the “we are all equal” lie to you.

Read the rest of Matthew 22 now.

Mat 22:7 But when the king heard, he was angry. And he sent out his armies and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city. 8 Then he said to his servants, The wedding is ready, but they who were invited were not worthy. 9 Therefore go into the exits of the highways, and as many as you shall find, invite them to the marriage.

The King is Yehovah and the wedding is the one you are invited to with our Groom the Messiah. The army that Yehovah is sending according to the Sabbatical and Jubilee cycles comes in the cycle of war which is the 4th curse and it begins in 2017 and goes for 7 years until 2023 the Sabbatical year that comes after 2016.

That Army is made up of the Muslim hoards and they will be united with or directed by the Iron fist of Assyria who are the German people today. This is the toes of iron and clay. Arab means mixture which is what the iron is with the clay.

WAR IS COMING!!! And it is Yehovah that is sending it to you Israel, to you the USA and UK and Canada and Australia and New Zealand; because you would not come back to keeping the Torah at the request of those fishers of men. So now the hunters gather and the hunters cometh and you will be the prey and you will be the victim.

The reason the hunters come is the same as the reason the fishers of men were sent. So that you would turn back to Yehovah and keep the Torah. You refused the Fishermen and now the hunters will treat you so bad that you will beg for Yehovah to come and help and He will not hear your prayers until you repent, which means you must begin to keep Torah and mean it.

Deuteronomy 30:1-3 And it shall come to pass, when all these things are come upon thee, the blessing and the curse, which I have set before thee, and thou shalt call them to mind among all the nations, whither Jehovah thy God hath driven thee, and shalt return unto Jehovah thy God, and shalt obey his voice according to all that I command thee this day, thou and thy children, with all thy heart, and with all thy soul; that then Jehovah thy God will turn thy captivity, and have compassion upon thee, and will return and gather thee from all the peoples, whither Jehovah thy God hath scattered thee.

Please now go and read the Hunters Cometh at https://sightedmoon.com/sightedmoon_2015/files/FishersAndHunters.pdf

THE HUNTERS AND THE FISHERS

Jeremiah 16:16 Behold, I will send for many fishers, saith Jehovah, and they shall fish them up; and afterward I will send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the clefts of the rocks.

Matthew 4:19 “And he said unto them, Follow me and I will make you fishers of men.”

At this juncture, we can no longer say no one ever told us who the “hunters” are, or the people for whom they were “hunting”! As a matter of fact, our Redeemer made it quite clear who the people were to whom He was sent when He instructed His disciples, Matthew 10:5-6:

“5 These twelve Yahshua sent forth, and commanded them, saying, Go not into the way of the Gentiles (heathen), and into any city of the Samaritans enter ye not: 6 But go rather to the lost sheep of the HOUSE of Israel.”

This passage is reinforced by Yehshua the Messiah Himself when He said, Matthew 15:24:

“... I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel.”

This coincides perfectly with Amos 3:2 where Yehovah speaks of Israel:

“You only (Israel) have I known of all the families of the earth ...”

These passages also in accord with Deuteronomy 7:6 where it states:

“For thou art an holy (set apart) people unto Yehovah thy Mighty One: Yehovah thy Mighty One hath chosen thee to be a special people unto himself, above all people that are upon the face of the earth.”

This is the same idea brought forth in, and conveys the same meaning as 1st Peter 2:9 which says:

“But ye are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar (set apart) people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvelous light.” (Check Exodus 19:5-6)

The same concept is expressed in Psalm 147:19-20:

“19 He sheweth his word unto Jacob, his statutes and his judgments unto Israel. 20 He hath not dealt so with any nation: and as for his judgments, they (the non-Israelites) have not known them.”

Again, the same thought is advanced in Deuteronomy 14:2, which says:

“For thou art a people set apart unto Yehovah thy Mighty One, and Yehovah hath chosen thee to be a peculiar people unto himself, above all the (other) nations that are upon the earth.”

For another rendering of the same basic precept, Isaiah 41:8 says the following:

“But thou Israel, art my servant, Jacob whom I have chosen, the seed of Abraham my friend.”

You Israel are a chosen race, chosen by Yehovah to be His own.

For this phase of the article, I will quote from Howard Rand’s Study in Jeremiah; pages 81-82 entitled “Fishers And Hunters”

“Yehovah sets forth the method by which He will bring Israel back to Himself. This is a most important prophecy for in sending for fishers and hunters the way in which Israel is to be awakened to spiritual values and to the need of obeying His Covenant is revealed to Jeremiah:

“Behold, I will send for many fishers, saith Yehovah, and they shall fish them; and after will I send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the holes of the rocks. (Jeremiah 16:16)

“Who are these fishers and hunters and what is the particular task each is to perform in the respective fishing and hunting periods? The sending of these two groups designated as fishers and hunters indicates that there are two entirely different methods by which an appeal would be made to Israel. A fisherman patiently waits as he undertakes to snare the fish in a net or catch it on a line, but the hunter tramps through the woods and over the hills and mountains exerting energy and strength as he travels in search of his especially selected prey. Actually Jeremiah prophetically referred to the two distinct phases of the Gospel in their respective appeals to Israel for the purpose of bringing them back to covenant relationship with Yehovah. The first would require fishers and the period of their fishing is clearly defined by the events of the Gospel Age. The second would require hunters and the period of their activity would be at the end of the Gospel Age. This is demonstrated by the activities of those who have sought to establish the identity of Israel in these last days, hunting out the evidence and tracing Israel from Palestine, throughout her years of wanderings, to the present time. History reveals how faithfully the predicted fishing and hunting missions have been carried out by those chosen of Yehovah for each purpose.”

1Sa 13:6 When the men of Israel saw that they were in danger (for the people were distressed), then the people hid in caves, in thickets, in rocks, in holes, and in pits.

1Sa 14:11 So both of them showed themselves to the garrison of the Philistines. And the Philistines said, “Look, the Hebrews are coming out of the holes where they have hidden.”

Isa 2:19 They shall go into the holes of the rocks, And into the caves of the earth, From the terror of Yehovah And the glory of His majesty, When He arises to shake the earth mightily.

Isa 42:22 But this is a people robbed and plundered; All of them are snared in holes, And they are hidden in prison houses; They are for prey, and no one delivers; For plunder, and no one says, “Restore!”

From these scriptures above you can see that it is Israel who is hiding in the holes of the earth. And it is from there that they are snared or captured and placed in prisons. We are the prey that these others seek with no one to rescue us.

As we have read in Jeremiah Yehovah has for thousands of years sent men to teach us the truths of scriptures. We all had a choice as to whether or not we would act on those things we heard. Now as we approach the end of this age, which you can see in the Sabbatical and Jubilee Charts and you can buy at https://sightedmoon.com/sightedmoon_2015/?page_id=509 or you can order the book The Prophecies of Abraham at https://sightedmoon.com/sightedmoon_2015/?page_id=601 to learn these things in depth.

As we are now in the end of this age, Yehovah is about to unleash the Hunters who will hunt us, Israel, out from where ever we are hiding. The Sabbatical Cycle for the sword which is war is just 7 years away from us. Just seven years. (This was written in 2010. We are now approaching the middle of this Sabbatical Cycle of War.)

Jer 16:16 “Behold, I will send for many fishermen,” says the Lord, “and they shall fish them; and afterward I will send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain and every hill, and out of the holes of the rocks.

So it behooves us to know who are the hunters, now that we know we are the hunted.

Ge 10:9 He was a mighty hunter before Yehovah; therefore it is said, “Like Nimrod the mighty hunter before Yehovah.”

We are also told of another hunter in,

Ge 25:27 So the boys grew. And Esau was a skillful hunter, a man of the field; but Jacob was a mild man, dwelling in tents.

Right here in Genesis, you are being told who the King of the North is and who the King of the South is. They are Nimrod and Esau.

Pr 6:5 Deliver yourself like a gazelle from the hand of the hunter, And like a bird from the hand of the fowler.

Deuteronomy 30:1-10 “And when all these things come upon you, the blessing and the curse, which I have set before you, and you call them to mind among all the nations where the Lord your God has driven you, and return to the Lord your God, you and your children, and obey his voice in all that I command you today, with all your heart and with all your soul, then the Lord your God will restore your fortunes and have mercy on you, and he will gather you again from all the peoples where the Lord your God has scattered you. If your outcasts are in the uttermost parts of heaven, from there the Lord your God will gather you, and from there he will take you. And the Lord your God will bring you into the land that your fathers possessed, that you may possess it. And he will make you more prosperous and numerous than your fathers. And the Lord your God will circumcise your heart and the heart of your offspring, so that you will love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul, that you may live. And the Lord your God will put all these curses on your foes and enemies who persecuted you. And you shall again obey the voice of the Lord and keep all his commandments that I command you today. The Lord your God will make you abundantly prosperous in all the work of your hand, in the fruit of your womb and in the fruit of your cattle and in the fruit of your ground. For the Lord will again take delight in prospering you, as he took delight in your fathers, when you obey the voice of the Lord your God, to keep his commandments and his statutes that are written in this Book of the Law, when you turn to the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

Before you can come back from Captivity you must first go into captivity and it is the hunters who will gather you up from the rocks and holes in the ground where you hide and they will take you by force, they will lie in wait for you and capture or kill you as they go about gathering you all up. Read carefully the following verses.

Ps 56:6 They gather together, They hide, they mark my steps, When they lie in wait for my life.

Ps 59:3 For look, they lie in wait for my life; The mighty gather against me, Not for my transgression nor for my sin, O Yehovah.

Ps 94:21 They gather together against the life of the righteous, And condemn innocent blood.

Isa 11:12 He will set up a banner for the nations, And will assemble the outcasts of Israel, And gather together the dispersed of Judah From the four corners of the earth.

Isa 56:8 Yehovah, who gathers the outcasts of Israel, says, “Yet I will gather to him Others besides those who are gathered to him.”

It will not just be the Israelites who are gathered only but those who are obedient to Torah from other nations as well.

Isa 43:5 Fear not, for I am with you; I will bring your descendants from the east, And gather you from the west;

Jer 23:3 “But I will gather the remnant of My flock out of all countries where I have driven them, and bring them back to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and increase.

Jer 29:14 I will be found by you, says Yehovah, and I will bring you back from your captivity; I will gather you from all the nations and from all the places where I have driven you, says Yehovah, and I will bring you to the place from which I cause you to be carried away captive.

Jer 31:8 Behold, I will bring them from the north country, And gather them from the ends of the earth, Among them the blind and the lame, The woman with child And the one who labors with child, together; A great throng shall return there.

Jer 31:10 “Hear the word of Yehovah, O nations, And declare it in the isles afar off, and say, ‘He who scattered Israel will gather him, And keep him as a shepherd does his flock.’

We have read in recent weeks that the Isles far off are none other than the Philippines.

Jer 32:37 Behold, I will gather them out of all countries where I have driven them in My anger, in My fury, and in great wrath; I will bring them back to this place, and I will cause them to dwell safely.

Compare the anger and fury Yehovah speaks of in Lev 26 where He is telling us of the curses He is going to send on us and the order they will come in. After Aviv 2010 we are to begin the third Sabbatical Cycle and the third curse of Pestilence. The fourth curse is the sword when Yehovah sends the hunters in fury. But also take note that in the parable of those who are invited to the wedding that the King which is, in fact, Yehovah that he sends his armies in fury after those who were invited rejected that invitation by the fishermen and in fact killed those who were sent.

This is shown to you in Mathew 22 and we have spoken of it to you a couple of times now in past News Letters.

Eze 22:20 As men gather silver, bronze, iron, lead, and tin into the midst of a furnace, to blow fire on it, to melt it; so I will gather you in My anger and in My fury, and I will leave you there and melt you. 22 Yes, I will gather you and blow on you with the fire of My wrath, and you shall be melted in its midst.

In the days of Nimrod the mighty hunter, he had two legs to his dominion. One was under Asshur and the other was under Babylon. After Nimrod fought with Cush, Cush left and took over Egypt.

So we have all three pagan systems coming from Nimrod. Asshur was the first to reach out and try to claim world dominion.

But Daniel begins his prophecy after Asshur is gone and Daniel starts with Babylon and the image of gold.

After Assyria, came the Babylonian System.

After the Babylonian Empire, came the Greco Macedonian Empire.

Then after the Greco Macedonian Empire, came the Holy Roman Empire.

The Holy Roman Empire has led to the current European Union.

You can see how Catholic Europe was a part of this Roman Empire that goes right back to the beginning with Nimrod as the founder.

You can also see that the Macedonian and Medo-Persian Empires, as well as the Babylonian Empire, are all currently controlled by the Muslim Religion of today.

Just as Nimrod was a mighty Hunter of Men so are all these nations that have come after him. These are the hunters that Jeremiah is referring to.

Re 6:2 And I looked, and behold, a white horse. He who sat on it had a bow; and a crown was given to him, and he went out conquering and to conquer.

This verse is talking about false religion. The white horse is conquering. It is not fishing, it is out there actively hunting with the bow. You will also know that Yehshua is not described with a bow but with a sword that comes from his mouth.

Now when we read Psalm 83 we can know who these hunters are that are being talked about.

1 O Elohim, do not remain silent! Do not be speechless, And do not be still, O ?! 2 For look, Your enemies make an uproar, And those hating You have lifted up their head. 3 They craftily plot against Your people, And conspire against Your treasured ones. 4 They have said, “Come, And let us wipe them out as a nation, And let the name of Yisra’?l be remembered no more.” 5 For they have conspired together with one heart; They have made a covenant against You – 6 The tents of EdTom and the Yishma’?lites, Mo’abT and the HagTarites, 7 GebTal, and Ammon, and Amal?q, Philistia with the inhabitants of Tsor, 8 Ashshur also has joined with them, They have helped the children of Lot. Selah. 9 Do to them as to MidTyan, As to Sisera, As to YabTin at the wadi Qishon, 10 Who perished at ?ndor, Who became as dung for the ground. 11 Make their nobles like Or’bT and like Ze’?bT, And all their princes like ZebTah???? and Tsalmunna, 12 Who have said, “Let us take possession of the pastures of Elohim For ourselves.” 13 O my Elohim, make them as whirling dust, As stubble before the wind! 14 As a fire consumes a forest, And as a flame sets mountains on fire, 15 So pursue them with Your whirlwind, And frighten them with Your storm. 16 Fill their faces with shame, And let them seek Your Name

You have all these Arab nations and one which is not Arab. It is Assyria which is Germany. This is the joining together of the King of the North and the King of the South to destroy Israel forever. These are the hunters who are coming for you.

But before that time comes we still have the opportunity to fish. This was written in 2007 and again in 2010. We are now in 2019. Fishing season is almost over. Hunting season is about to begin.

Mt 4:18 While walking by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon (who is called Peter) and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea, for they were fishermen. And he said to them, "Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men." Immediately they left their nets and followed him. And going on from there he saw two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee and John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets, and he called them. Immediately they left the boat and their father and followed him.

Mr 1:16 16 Passing alongside the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew the brother of Simon casting a net into the sea, for they were fishermen. And Jesus said to them, "Follow me, and I will make you become fishers of men." And immediately they left their nets and followed him. And going on a little farther, he saw James the son of Zebedee and John his brother, who were in their boat mending the nets. And immediately he called them, and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants and followed him.

Lu 5:2 and he saw two boats by the lake, but the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. Getting into one of the boats, which was Simon's, he asked him to put out a little from the land. And he sat down and taught the people from the boat. And when he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep and let down your nets for a catch." And Simon answered, "Master, we toiled all night and took nothing! But at your word I will let down the nets." And when they had done this, they enclosed a large number of fish, and their nets were breaking. They signaled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink. But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord." For he and all who were with him were astonished at the catch of fish that they had taken, and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men." And when they had brought their boats to land, they left everything and followed him.

It is the word of Torah that we use to bait our hooks with. This is the bread we use. Again look at the Hunters and know who they are; The King of the North and the King of the South, Assyria and the Muslim nations.

La 3:52 Mine enemies chased me sore, like a bird, without cause.

Read carefully what is to happen to you once you're captured by the Hunters. Pay close attention to verse 10.

Lamentations 4 1 How dim the gold has become, The fine gold changed! The stones of the set-apart place Are scattered at the head of every street. 2 The precious sons of Tsiyon Who were weighed against fine gold, How they have been reckoned as clay pots, The work of the hands of the potter! 3 Even jackals have presented their breasts, They have nursed their young. The daughter of my people has become as cruel, As ostriches in the wilderness. 4 The tongue of the infant has clung To the roof of its mouth for thirst; Children asked for bread, No one breaks it for them. 5 Those who ate delicacies Have been laid waste in the streets; Those who were brought up in scarlet Have embraced dunghills. 6 And the crookedness of the daughter of my people Is greater than the punishment of the sin of SedTom, Which was overthrown in a moment, And no hands were wrung over her! 7 Her Nazirites were brighter than snow And whiter than milk; More ruddy in body than rubies, Their cut like sapphire. 8 Their appearance has become blacker than soot; They have become unrecognized in the streets; Their skin has shriveled on their bones, It has become dry, it has become as wood. 9 Better off were those pierced by the sword Than those pierced by hunger; For these pine away, Pierced through for lack of the fruits of the field. 10 The hands of the compassionate women Have boiled their own children; They became food for them In the destruction of the daughter of my people. 11 Yehovah has completed His wrath, He has poured out His burning displeasure. And He kindled a fire in Tsiyon, And it consumed her foundations. 12 The sovereigns of the earth did not believe, Nor any of the inhabitants of the world, That an adversary and enemy Would enter the gates of Yerushalayim. 13 It was because of the sins of her prophets, The crookednesses of her priests, Who shed in her midst the blood of the righteous. 14 They staggered, blind, in the streets; They have defiled themselves with blood, So that no one was able to touch their garments. 15 They shouted at them, "Away! Unclean! Away! Away! Touch not!" When they fled and staggered, They said, among the gentiles, "They shall stay no longer." 16 The face of Yehovah scattered them. He no longer regards them. They showed no respect for the priests Nor favour to the elders. 17 While we exist, our eyes are consumed, Watching vainly for our help. In our watch-tower we watched for a nation That could not save. 18 They have hunted our steps From going in our streets. Our end was near, Our days were completed, For our end had come. 19 Our pursuers were swifter Than the eagles of the heavens. They came hotly after us on the mountains And lay in wait for us in the wilderness. 20 The breath of our nostrils, the anointed of Yehovah, Was caught in their pits, In whose shadow we had thought To live among the gentiles.

Micah 7:2 The faithful man has perished from the earth, And there is no one upright among men. They all lie in wait for blood; Every man hunts his brother with a net.

Isaiah 54:6 "For Yehovah has called you like a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit, like a wife of youth when you were refused," declares your Elohim. 7 "For a little while I have forsaken you, but with great compassion I shall gather you. 8 "In an overflow of wrath I hid My face from you for a moment, but with everlasting kindness I shall have compassion on you," said Yehovah, your Redeemer. 9 "For this is the waters of Noah to Me, in that I have sworn that the waters of Noah would never again cover the earth, so have I sworn not to be wroth with you, nor to rebuke you. 10 "For though the mountains be removed and the hills be shaken, My kindness is not removed from you, nor is My covenant of peace shaken," said Yehovah, who has compassion on you.

Jer 29:14 14 'And I shall be found by you,' declares Yehovah, 'and I shall turn back your captivity, and shall gather you from all the gentiles and from all the places where I have driven you, declares Yehovah. And I shall bring you back to the place from which I have exiled you.'

Eze 20:34 "And I shall bring you out from the peoples and gather you out of the lands where you are scattered, with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with wrath poured out. 35 "And I shall bring you into the wilderness of the peoples, and shall enter into judgment with you face to face there. 36 "As I entered into judgment with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Mitsrayim, so I shall enter into judgment with you," declares the Master Yehovah.

Mt 23:37 -“O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the one who kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to her!
How often I wanted to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you were not willing!

Because you were not willing to be taught by fishermen, HE is about to send hunters instead!

And we are told in Ezekiel that He is going to remove everyone from their homes, and only 10% of them will be brought into the land of Israel.

Isaiah 58:1 CJB Shout out loud! Don't hold back! Raise your voice like a shofar! Proclaim to my people what rebels they are, to the house of Ya'akov their sins.

Ezekiel 20:38 CJB I will rid you of the rebels who are in revolt against me – I will bring them out from the land where they are living, but they will not enter the land of Isra'el; then you will know that I am YEHOVAH.'

Ezekiel 5:1 "Now you, human being, take a sharp sword; and use it like a barber's razor to shave your head and beard. Then weigh the hair on a balance-scale, and divide it up. 2 A third of it you are to burn in the city when the days of the siege are over. Take another third, and hit it with your sword all around the city. Scatter the last third to the wind, and I will pursue them with drawn sword. 3 Also take a few hairs and tie them up in the folds of your garment. 4 Again, of these take some; throw them in the fire, and burn them up; from there a fire will come out against the entire house of Isra'el. 5 "Here is what Yehovah ELOHIM, says: 'This is Yerushalayim! I have placed her in the middle of the nations; countries can be found all around her. 6 But she has rebelled against my rulings and committed wickedness more than the nations, against my laws more than the countries around her; because they have rejected my rulings and not lived according to my laws.' 7 "Therefore here is what Yehovah ELOHIM, says: 'Because you have outdone the nations around you by not living according to my laws or following my rulings or even following the rules of the nations around you,' 8 therefore here is what Yehovah ELOHIM, says: 'I too am against you, yes, I; and I will execute judgments among you while all the nations look on. 9 Moreover, because of all your disgusting practices, I will do things to you that I have never done before; and I will never do such things again. 10 Parents among you will eat their children, and children will eat their parents! I will execute judgments among you and scatter to all the winds those of you who remain. 11 For, as I live,' says Yehovah ELOHIM, 'because you defiled my sanctuary with all your detestable things and disgusting practices, therefore I swear that I will cut you off – my eye will not spare, I will have no pity. 12 A third of you will die from plague or be consumed by famine inside [Yerushalayim]; a third will fall by the sword all around [Yerushalayim]; and a third I will scatter to all the winds and pursue with the sword.' 13 In this way my anger will spend itself, my fury against them will die down, and I will be satisfied. Then, when I have spent my fury on them, they will know that I, YEHOVAH, have spoken out of my zeal. 14 'I will make you a ruin and an object of reproach among the nations around you, in the sight of all passing by. 15 When I execute judgments and furious punishments among you in anger and fury, [Yerushalayim] will be an object of reproach, derision and horror, and a lesson to warn the nations around you. I, YEHOVAH, have announced it. 16 I will send upon them the deadly, destructive arrows of famine, which I will send to destroy you. I will make the famine worse for you by cutting off your food supply. 17 Yes, I will send famine and savage beasts upon you to leave you without children; plague and bloodshed will sweep through you; and I will bring the sword upon you. I, YEHOVAH, have spoken it.'"

Brethren we have less than 7 years (one year as of 2019) to finish our fishing. After that the hunters come and they will shoot first and ask questions after maybe. Are you getting ready? Do you not see all these scriptures which are pointing to this very moment in time in which you are living? It is time to stop rebelling and doing it your way. It is now time to obey Torah and keep the Commandments. It is time to keep the Sabbath Holy as we are told to do; It is time now to begin to keep the Holy Days as we are told in Lev 23 and not one other that is not found there; it is time to repent from not keeping the Sabbatical years.

It is time brethren, it is High time.

I have given you a lot to digest this week and we have few more videos for you to watch. It is our teaching from the Philippines in 2018 at Passover.

