Shabbat Shalom Family of Yehovah

This is not a Spectator Event

Are you in the game?

Do you wield the sword of Yehovah in righteousness?

Rev 1:13 And having turned, I saw seven golden lampstands. And in the midst of the seven lampstands I saw One like the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the feet, and tied around the breast with a golden band. His head and hair were white like wool, as white as snow. And His eyes were like a flame of fire. And His feet were like burnished brass having been fired in a furnace. And His voice was like the sound of many waters. And He had seven stars in His right hand, and out of His mouth went a sharp two-edged sword. And His face was like the sun shining in its strength. And when I saw Him, I fell at His feet as dead. And He laid His right hand upon me, saying to me, Do not fear, I am the First and the Last, and the Living One, and I became dead, and behold, I am alive for ever and ever, Amen. And I have the keys of hell and of death.

Isaiah 11:4 but with righteousness He will judge the poor, and with equity He will decide in favor of the earth's oppressed. He will strike the earth with the rod of His mouth and slay the wicked with the breath of His lips.

Revelation 19:21 And the rest were killed with the sword that proceeded from the mouth of the One seated on the horse. And all the birds gorged themselves on their flesh.

The sword we are speaking of in this article is the same one that comes out of the mouth of Yehovah. The sword is His Scriptures, The Torah.

The Question I am asking you is this.

Are you in the arena doing the work or are one of those in the crowd criticizing and judging and having a grand ole time of it?

Again I am not talking about the Gladiators. I am talking about you and the things you do or do not do to further the work of Yehovah.

You can read the many comments we allow to go through from those of the Christian faith. Condemning and not willing to go by the rules of Yehovah. They point the fingers and mock the things we teach and that you obey.

Jas 1:20 For the wrath of man does not work out the righteousness of God. Therefore putting aside all filthiness and overflowing of evil, receive in meekness the implanted Word, which is able to save your souls. But become doers of the Word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves. For if anyone is a hearer of the Word and not a doer, he is like a man studying his natural face in a mirror. For he studied himself and went his way, and immediately he forgot what he was like. But whoever looks into the perfect Law of liberty and continues in it, he is not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work. This one shall be blessed in his doing.

A doer of the word is one who Reads the Torah and obeys it. He is likened to a gladiator in the arena who is actually using his sword and his training, combating those who fight against the word of Yehovah. Those opposing the word of Yehovah are workers of lawlessness on behalf of Satan.

Matthew 7:24 Everyone then who hears these words of mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock. And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house, but it did not fall, because it had been founded on the rock. And everyone who hears these words of mine and does not do them will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand. And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell, and great was the fall of it.”

Mat 7:21 “Not everyone who says to me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ will enter the kingdom of heaven, but the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. On that day many will say to me, ‘Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and cast out demons in your name, and do many mighty works in your name?’ And then will I declare to them, ‘I never knew you; depart from me, you workers of lawlessness.’

Again these are those Christians who do not and will keep the 4th Commandment. They will not keep the Sabbath Holy And they will not keep the Holy Days saying that the laws are done away.

Romans 2:13 For it is not the hearers of the Law who are righteous before God, but it is the doers of the Law who will be declared righteous.

Those who claim to be Christians do not do the law. They will not and do not keep the 4th commandment. They are not doers of the law and will not be declared righteous.

James 2:14 What good is it, my brothers, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can that faith save him? If a brother or sister is poorly clothed and lacking in daily food, and one of you says to them, “Go in peace, be warmed and filled,” without giving them the things needed for the body, what good is that? So also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead. But someone will say, “You have faith and I have works.” Show me your faith apart from your works, and I will show you my faith by my works. You believe that God is one; you do well. Even the demons believe—and shudder! Do you want to be shown, you foolish person, that faith apart from works is useless? Was not Abraham our father justified by works when he offered up his son Isaac on the altar? You see that faith was active along with his works, and faith was completed by his works; and the Scripture was fulfilled that says, “Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him as righteousness”—and he was called a friend of God. You see that a person is justified by works and not by faith alone. And in the same way was not also Rahab the prostitute justified by works when she received the messengers and sent them out by another way? For as the body apart from the spirit is dead, so also faith apart from works is dead.

Many Christians claim they believe in Jesus but they have no fear of not keeping the laws. Even the demons believe—and shudder!

Those of you who are reading this... Are you in the arena and wielding that sword Yehovah gave to you. Or are you amongst the demons who believe but sit in the stands pointing at and accusing the brethren for trying to do a work.

Rev 12:10 And I heard a loud voice in heaven, saying, “Now the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God and the authority of his Christ have come, for the accuser of our brothers has been thrown down, who accuses them day and night before our God.

Brethren we are about to enter the last Ten Days of Awe. The final chance this year to repent of our accusing evil ways; Of fighting and destroying the faith of those Yehovah is calling; of doing the work of Satan teaching others not to obey the laws of Yehovah; of ridiculing those who do; of speaking evil of others and all the other things we do that are against the law of Yehovah. It is time to get in the game and to be real players trying to help others learn the truth.

Yehovah told Joshua to be brave three times in one speech. Let me now share with you the very same sword Yehovah gave to Joshua that day and is now giving it to you.

Joshua 1:5 No man shall be able to stand before you all the days of your life. Just as I was with Moses, so I will be with you. I will not leave you or forsake you. Be strong and courageous, for you shall cause this people to inherit the land that I swore to their fathers to give them. Only be strong and very courageous, being careful to do according to all the law that Moses my servant commanded you. Do not turn from it to the right hand or to the left, that you may have good success wherever you go. This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have good success. Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be frightened, and do not be dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go.”
