A Surprise Blood Moon That No One Expected

After Gay Marriage Decision: Surprise Blood Moon Displays in Sky Only Over America

On June 30, 2015 a surprise blood moon appeared in the sky that was only seen in the United States.

According to the National Weather Service, large wildfires in Canada have been burning. Due to extremely high winds, smoke from these fires have traveled into the United States.

According to NBC-Chattanooga, "the smoke should remain in the higher atmosphere and not affect air quality, it gives the moon and sun a rosy glow.

Here's what causes the effect:

As light from the moon or sun enters the atmosphere it gets scattered by particles like water, aerosols, and in this case smoke. Green, blue, and purple colors are sent in all directions but colors with longer wavelengths like red, orange and yellow continue through the atmosphere and remain visible to the human eye."

This ironically occurred right after the U.S. Supreme Court's decision to legalize homosexual marriage nationally.

The timing of this blood moon that displayed right after the Supreme Court's decision to redefine God's definition of marriage is almost prophetic.

In our e-book we show you how Yehovah has sent blood and dark moons before each and every major biblical event from the time of Adam's death down to WW I and WW II.

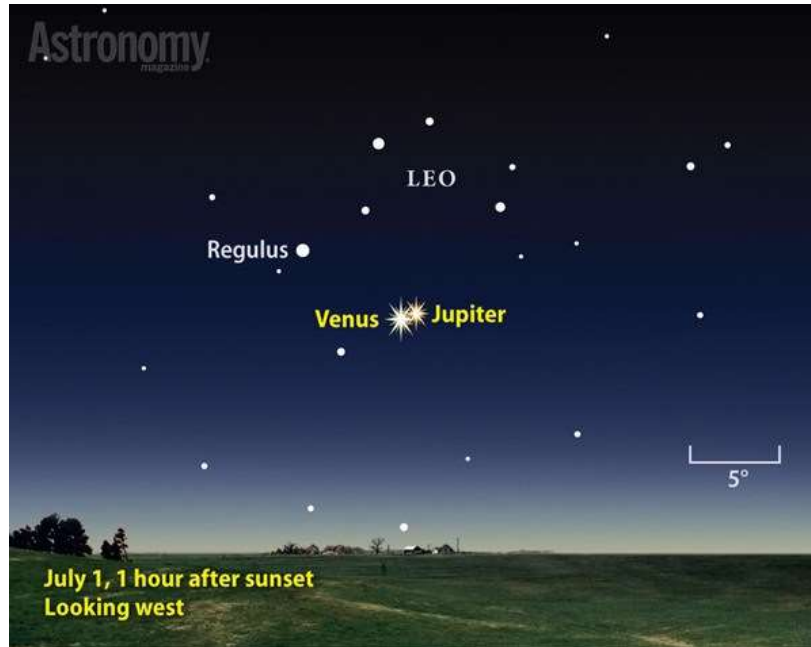

You can order the e-book at sightedmoon.com

Having now posted this article, I was then led to another one from Bro. Aike in the Philippines. Make special note of all that is going on. The USA Supreme Court declares that Gay Marriage is legal across the USA. Then a blood moon appears that was not expected to be seen, but was there due to the curse of Lev 26 being fulfilled in Canada and the USA with wildfires and drought. Now you are about to read how the same star of Bethlehem was seen this past week and will be again next year. On top of this, all of this is during the time leading up to the 9th of Av.

Gay Marriage and the Star of Bethlehem

JUNE 30, 2015 / Nelson Walters

Yes, I know this is an absolutely crazy title for a blog, but sit tight, God is revealing signs in the stars that are amazing.

There will be signs in sun and moon and stars. (Luke 21: 25)

We are living in times when the Bible is being fulfilled before our eyes. Let us begin with the sign. Look up in the west-northwest sky right after sundown tonight. Venus and Jupiter will be in conjunction in the near vicinity of Leo the Lion and Cancer. To scientists this is “ho-hum” stuff. Nothing too exciting; just another 3 degree of separation conjunction. This is the second of three conjunctions of these planets in a 2 year period. Two thousand years ago there was a similar series of three conjunctions of these planets. I wrote about that earlier grouping in CHRISTMAS AND THE END TIMES. During one of those conjunctions, Venus and Jupiter actually “touched” visually. There was zero degrees of separation. Many consider the combination of astronomical signs during 3 BC to be the “Star of Bethlehem.” Read about that amazing group of signs in the link.

This week’s sign isn’t as spectacular. Most Christians are ignoring it just like the scientists. Let’s look at the sign in detail, however. During the “Star of Bethlehem” sign in 3 BC, the planets visually touched signifying “He is here! The King is born.” During tonight’s sign the planets almost touch signifying “He’s almost here! The King is coming.” At at least that’s what it says to me.

Next let’s look at the position of the conjunction.

Notice that the conjunction is right below Leo the Lion and the star Regulus. If you read the link above about CHRISTMAS AND THE END TIMES, you probably remember that Jupiter (the King planet) and Regulus (the King Star) had multiple conjunctions in Leo (the Messiah’s constellation) back in 3BC. Look at the picture, this isn’t a random, everyday conjunction, it is in Leo. This picture screams “King, King Messiah” (astronomically at least.) Right alongside Leo is Cancer the Crab. In the Jewish Mazzaroth (the Zodiac constellations that tell God’s story of Redemption in perfect order) Cancer is the constellation of the Tribulation (70th Week of Daniel.) Yes, it is coming as well.

Not only is the Star of Bethlehem mentioned in the Gospels, it is mentioned in the Old Testament as well.

I see him, but not now; I behold him, but not near; A star shall come forth from Jacob, A scepter shall rise from Israel, And shall crush through the forehead of Moab, and tear down all the sons of Sheth. Edom shall be a possession, Seir, its enemies, also will be a possession. While Israel performs valiantly. One from Jacob shall have dominion, and will destroy the remnant from the city.

This passage is about the end times! It is always quoted in regard to Jesus's birth (and rightly so) but look! Jesus is taking the iron scepter and crushing the Islamic nations Moab and Edom. This is end times stuff.

So where exactly is "come forth from Jacob"?

Judah is a lion's whelp; from the prey, my son, you have gone up. He couches, he lies down as a lion, and as a lion, who dares rouse him up? The scepter shall not depart from Judah, nor the ruler's staff from between his feet, until Shiloh comes. (Gen. 49: 9-10)

Look, there is the Lion (Leo) and the scepter from the previous prophecy. Now look at the location "between the feet" of the Lion. Look at the star map again. This week's "Star of Bethlehem" conjunction is between the feet of Leo! The Lion of the Tribe of Judah is a title for Christ taken from this passage.

Now let's examine the timing. June seems a boring month, what Christian significance could it possibly have? We follow the Gregorian calendar. God's calendar is different; it's the Hebrew calendar. Hebrew dates are important. This month is the month of Tammuz. Last Friday, June 26th, the day the Supreme Court decided the Same Sex Marriage case, was the Hebrew day the 9th of Tammuz. This is the historic date that King Nebuchadnezzar breached the walls of Jerusalem when the Babylonians invaded. In a parallel way, the Supreme Court breached the walls of morality with this historic decision.

The 17th of Tammuz (our July 4th this year) is one of the darkest days of Jewish history. Five historic events occurred on this day:

- The worship of the golden calf
- The stopping of Temple sacrifices
- The breaching of the walls of Jerusalem in 70 AD by the Romans
- The burning of a Torah scroll prior to Bar Kokhba's revolt by Roman military leader Apostomus; and
- An idol was erected in the Temple

Look at these events: idols in the Temple, worship of the Golden Calf, and the burning of the Torah (Bible). Our culture is worshiping their idols and attempting to minimize scripture.

"The Three Weeks" begins after the 17th of Tammuz and concludes with the Ninth of Av, the date that the Temple was burned both in 586 BC and 70 AD. This is a time of Jewish national mourning. July 25th is the Ninth of Av this year. Will anything of significance happen? We don't know.

Right in the middle of this time period is this conjunction that mirrors the Star of Bethlehem right between the feet of the Lion. Is God speaking to us? Is it time to get ready for the return of our King?

What Happened on the Ninth of Av in History?

The 9th of Av, Tisha b'Av, commemorates a list of catastrophes so severe it's clearly a day set aside by G'd for suffering.

Picture this: The year is 1377 BCE. The Israelites are in the desert, recently having experienced the miraculous Exodus, and are now poised to enter the Promised Land. But first they dispatch a reconnaissance mission to assist in formulating a prudent battle strategy. The spies return on the eighth day of Av and report that the land is unconquerable. That night, the 9th of Av, the people cry. They insist that they'd rather go back to Egypt than be slaughtered by the Canaanites. God is highly displeased by this public demonstration of distrust in His power, and consequently that generation of Israelites never enters the Holy Land. Only their children have that privilege, after wandering in the desert for another 40 years.

The First Temple was also destroyed on the 9th of Av (586 BCE). Five centuries later (in 70 CE), as the Romans drew closer to the Second Temple, ready to torch it, the Jews were shocked to realize that their Second Temple was destroyed the same day as the first.

When the Jews rebelled against Roman rule, they believed that their leader, Simon bar Kochba, would fulfill their messianic longings. But their hopes were cruelly dashed in 133 CE as the Jewish rebels were brutally butchered in the final battle at Betar. The date of the massacre? Of course — the 9th of Av!

One year after their conquest of Betar, the Romans plowed over the Temple Mount, our nation's holiest site.

The Jews were expelled from England in 1290 CE on, you guessed it, Tisha b'Av.

In 1492, the Golden Age of Spain came to a close when Queen Isabella and her husband Ferdinand ordered that the Jews be banished from the land. The edict of expulsion was signed on March 31, 1492, and the Jews were given exactly four months to put their affairs in order and leave the country. The Hebrew date on which no Jew was allowed any longer to remain in the land where he had enjoyed welcome and prosperity? Oh, by now you know it — the 9th of Av.

Ready for just one more? World War II and the Holocaust, historians conclude, was actually the long drawn-out conclusion of World War I that began in 1914. And yes, amazingly enough, Germany declared war on Russia, effectively catapulting the First World War into motion, on the 9th of Av, Tisha b'Av.

What do you make of all this? Jews see this as another confirmation of the deeply held conviction that history isn't haphazard; events — even terrible ones — are part of a Divine plan and have spiritual meaning. The message of time is that everything has a rational purpose, even though we don't understand it.

But there is more to this.

The fast of the 17th of the Hebrew month of Tammuz, known as Shivah Asar B'Tammuz, is the start of a three-week mourning period for the destruction of Jerusalem and the two Holy Temples.

Moses broke the tablets when he saw the Jewish people worshipping the Golden Calf.

During the Babylonian siege of Jerusalem, the Jews were forced to cease offering the daily sacrifices due to the lack of sheep.

The walls of Jerusalem were breached by the Romans, in 70 CE, after a lengthy siege. (Three weeks later, after the Jews put up a valiant struggle, the Romans destroyed the second Holy Temple on the 9th of Av.)

The Jerusalem Talmud maintains that this is also the date when the Babylonians breached the walls of Jerusalem on their way to destroying the first Temple.

This year of 2015, the 17th of Tammuz was the 4th of July. On June 26 the Supreme Court of the US awarded equal rights to same sex marriage across the USA.

On July 5th coalition forces bombed ISIS headquarters.

On July 6th Greece voted to not pay the debt they owed Europe.

This year the 9th of Av is next Sabbath according to the Jewish calendar or Sunday according to the sighted moon. With all that has gone on this past month, as we have just noted, the Supreme Court decision on Gay Rights to Marriage, The Conjunction of the Messiah Star, and the Blood Moon that was not expected to be seen, the bombing by ISIS and the Greek debt bomb, this 9th of Av is one to pay attention to.

We have now shared with you some history for this special date. We have also shared with you some current events like the Supreme Court decision to approve Gay Marriage and then the moon turned to blood. This should cause you to stop and think.

Now as I prepare this News Letter the weekend before it is to go out, the following news story comes across the my desk.

A deal has been reached between the world powers and Iran over the latter's nuclear program after a series of major American concessions, Ehud Yaari, the Middle East affairs commentator for Israel's Channel 2 television, said Friday night. "It is done. It is done," he said, and will be signed "early next week."

Early next week puts it very near the 9th of Av. Again more to consider.
